We build custom Webflow sites for B2B SaaS @ Candid Leap |
Enterprise Webflow Partner ➡# it's where the sweet stuff is
Los Angeles, California, United States

Summary

Your go-to strategist for high-stakes Webflow projects.

I run Candid Leap, a Webflow Enterprise Partner Agency that scales marketing sites for B2B SaaS companies like Tango, Prive, and Daasity.

At Candid Leap we do:

- > Custom Webflow Development that
- > Branding & Web Design that hits the
- > Motion Graphics that
- > A ton of Looms, Slacks, and Meets to guide you through your entire project!

Why Webflow?

My background as a technical marketer led me to believe that Webflow is the perfect tool to help brands control marketing outcomes and hit ambitious growth goals.

Think of Webflow as the new, improved iteration of WordPress without the headless, needy, and hard-to-maintain builds.

It's the happy place ambitious tech companies go when building marketing sites.

Now, at Candid Leap we use Webflow to serve:

- > Tech brands
- > Series A to Unicorn
- > Founders, CMOs, CTOs, and more.

Have a project in mind?

Let's talk it over, send me a DM!

Important:

We only take a few clients at the time; we focus on delivering at a personal level. Your experience is part of the final outcome.
