Stephanie Campbell

Co-Founder + General Partner @ The Artemis Fund
New York, New York, United States

Summary

Stephanie Campbell is co-founder and general partner of The Artemis Fund, a venture fund that leads seed rounds for female founders in fintech, commerce enablement and the care economy. Prior to Artemis, Campbell was managing director of the Houston Angel Network, one of the most active angel networks in the country.

Before moving to Houston in 2015 to pursue her MBA from Rice University, Campbell worked as a government relations associate at the Washington, D.C., lobbying firm Potomac Partners DC. She helped clients in the transportation, infrastructure and financial services industries navigate federal policy and funding. She also served as an executive recruiter for Fortune 500 companies, hedge funds and investment firms.

Campbell has a B.S. in political science from Spring Hill College in Mobile, Alabama, and an MBA from the Rice University Graduate School of Business.
