2. Information, Observer Rights and Additional Rights.

2.1 The Company shall deliver to each Major Investor:

(a) as soon as practicable, but in any event within ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year of the Company, (i) a balance sheet as of the end of such year, (ii) statements of income and of cash flows for such year, and (iii) a statement of members’ equity as of the end of such year, which year-end financial reports shall be in reasonable detail and shall be prepared in accordance with consistently applied accounting principles.

(b) as soon as practicable but in any event within thirty (30) days of the end of each month, (i) an unaudited income statement and statement of cash flows for such month, and an unaudited balance sheet and statement of equity as of the end of such month, prepared in accordance with consistently applied accounting principles, (ii) a copy of the check register and most recent bank statement for each of the Company’s accounts, and (iii) a copy of the updated Exhibit H to the Purchase Agreement along with the appropriate documentation substantiating the expenses incurred. Should the Company fail to provide an appropriate set of periodic reports, Major Investors shall be permitted to require the Company to make reasonable accommodations such as the following: requiring the Company to provide Major Investors with “read-only” access to bank accounts, requiring the Company to provide Major Investors with remote, “read-only” access to the Company’s accounting software or requiring the Company to retain the services of a reputable accountant which would then provide appropriate periodic reports directly to the Major Investors.

(c) as soon as practicable, but in any event thirty (30) days before the end of each fiscal year, a budget and business plan for the next fiscal year prepared on a monthly basis, including balance sheets, income statements, and statements of cash flow for such months and, promptly after prepared, any other budgets or revised budgets prepared by the Company.

(d) as soon as practicable after the end of each week a short narrative describing the activities and recent events related to the Company via electronic mail or similar informal communication.

(e) such other information relating to the financial condition, business, prospects or corporate affairs of the Company as such Major Investor may, from time to time, reasonably request; provided, however, that the Company shall not be obligated pursuant to this Section 2.1 to provide access to any information that it reasonably and in good faith considers to be a trade secret or confidential information (unless covered by an enforceable confidentiality agreement, in a form acceptable to the Company) or the disclosure of which would adversely affect the attorney-client privilege between the Company and its counsel.

2.2 Inspection. The Company shall permit each Major Investor and such Persons as they may designate, at such Major Investor's expense, to visit and inspect the Company's properties, examine its books of account and records, discuss the Company's affairs, finances, and accounts with its officers, during normal business hours of the Company as may be reasonably requested by the Major Investor, and consult with and advise the management of the Company as to the Company's affairs, finances and accounts, all at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice; provided, however, that the Company shall not be obligated pursuant to this Section 2.2 to provide access to any information that it reasonably and in good faith considers to be a trade secret or confidential information (unless covered by an enforceable confidentiality agreement, in form acceptable to the Company) or the disclosure of which would adversely affect the attorney-client privilege between the Company and its counsel.

2.3 Observer Rights. As long as an Investor owns Notes convertible into or Shares representing not less than five percent (5%) of the membership interests of the Company then issued and outstanding, the Company shall invite a representative of such Investor to attend all meetings of its Board of Directors (as defined in the LLC Agreement of the Company) in a nonvoting observer capacity and, in this respect, shall give such representative copies of all notices, minutes, consents, and other materials that it provides to its directors at the same time and in the same manner as provided to such directors; provided, however, that such representative shall agree to hold in confidence and trust and to act in a fiduciary manner with respect to all information so provided; and provided further, that the Company reserves the right to withhold any information and to exclude such representative from any meeting or portion thereof if access to such information or attendance at such meeting could adversely affect the attorney-client privilege between the Company and its counsel or result in disclosure of trade secrets or a conflict of interest, or if such Investor or its representative is a competitor of the Company.

2.4 Additional Rights. In the event that the Company issues securities in its next equity financing after the date hereof (the "Series A Financing") which (a) have rights, preferences or privileges that are more favorable than the terms of the Shares, such as price based anti-dilution protection, or (b) provides all such future investors other contractual terms, the Company shall provide substantially equivalent rights to the Investors with respect to the Shares (with appropriate adjustment for economic terms or other contractual rights), subject to such Investor's execution of any documents, including, if applicable, investors' rights, co-sale, voting and other agreements, executed by the investors purchasing securities in the Series A Financing (such documents referred to herein as the "Next Financing Documents"). Major Investors shall be designated "Major Investors" for all purposes in the Next Financing Documents to the extent such concept exists.

3. Rights to Future Issuances. The Company hereby grants to the Major Investors the right to purchase up to such Major Investor's Pro Rata Share (as defined below) of any New Securities (as defined below), which the Company may, from time to time, propose to sell or issue, provided, however, such Major Investor shall have no right to purchase any such New Securities if such Major Investor cannot demonstrate to the Company's reasonable satisfaction that such Major Investor is at the time of the proposed issuance of such New Securities an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Regulation D under the Securities Act. If a Major Investor exercises such right, such Major Investor shall purchase the securities on the same terms and at the same price at which the Company proposes to sell or issue the securities. A Major Investor's "Pro Rata Share" for purposes of this right of first refusal is the ratio of (a) the number of shares of the Company's Common Units issued or issuable upon conversion of the Shares or Note owned by such Major Investor, to (b) a number of shares of Common Units of the Company equal to the sum of (1) the total number of shares of Common Units of the Company then outstanding plus (2) the total number of shares of Common Units of the Company into which all then outstanding Shares (assuming conversion of the Note) of the Company are then convertible plus (3) the number of shares of Common Units of the Company reserved for issuance under any equity purchase and equity option plans of the Company and outstanding warrants. This Section 3 is not applicable to any issuance contemplated by the Purchase Agreement. "New Securities" shall mean any equity of the Company, whether now authorized or not, and rights, options or warrants to purchase such equity, and securities of any type whatsoever that are, or may become, convertible or exchangeable into such equity; provided, however, that the term "New Securities" does not include: (a) equity issued or issuable upon conversion of the outstanding Note or subsequent Shares issued in exchange for the Note; (b) equity issuable upon exercise of any options, warrants or rights to purchase any securities of the Company outstanding as of the date of this Agreement and any securities issuable upon the conversion thereof; (c) equity issued in connection with any equity split or equity dividend or recapitalization; (d) equity (or options, warrants or rights therefor) granted or issued hereafter to employees, officers, directors, contractors, consultants or advisers to, the Company or any subsidiary of the Company pursuant to incentive agreements, equity purchase or option plans, equity bonuses or awards, warrants, contracts or other arrangements that are approved by the Board of Directors; and (e) equity issued or issuable by the Company to the public pursuant to a registration statement filed under the Securities Act.

4. Additional Covenants.

4.1 Matters Requiring Investor Approval. The Company shall not, either directly or indirectly by amendment, merger, consolidation or otherwise, do any of the following without (in addition to any other vote required by law or the LLC Agreement) the prior written consent of those Investors holding a majority of the Securities (calculated on an as-converted basis), and any such act or transaction entered into without such consent shall be null and void ab initio, and of no force or effect. Upon the written election of the majority of the Investors (calculated on an as-converted basis), the Founders, Investors and the Company shall cause the LLC Agreement of the Company to be amended to provide for the following rights in favor of the Investors.

- (a) amend, alter or repeal any provision of the LLC Agreement of the Company;
- (b) increase or decrease the number of any class or series of equity;

(c) authorize or create (by reclassification or otherwise) any new class or series of equity having rights, powers, or privileges set forth in the LLC Agreement, as then in effect, that are senior to or on a parity with the Shares;

(d) purchase or redeem (or permit any subsidiary to purchase or redeem) or pay or declare any dividend or make any distribution on, any equity of the Company other than (i) redemptions of or dividends or distributions on the Shares as expressly authorized herein, (ii) dividends or other distributions payable on the common equity solely in the form of additional equity, (iii) repurchases of equity from former employees, officers, directors, consultants or other persons who performed services for the Company or any subsidiary in connection with the cessation of such employment or service at the lower of the original purchase price or the then-current fair market value thereof and (iv) repurchases of equity pursuant to the Company's exercise of any contractual right of first refusal in existence on the date hereof;

(e) liquidate, dissolve or wind-up the business and affairs of the Company, effect any merger or consolidation or any other Deemed Liquidation Event, or consent to any of the foregoing;

(f) create, or authorize the creation of, or issue, or authorize the issuance of, any indebtedness or debt security, or permit any subsidiary to take any such action with respect to any debt security, other than trade credit incurred in the ordinary course of business;

(g) create, or hold equity in, any subsidiary that is not wholly owned (either directly or through one or more other subsidiaries) by the Company, or sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any equity of any direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company, or permit any direct or indirect subsidiary to sell, lease, transfer, exclusively license or otherwise dispose (in a single transaction or series of related transactions) of all or substantially all of the assets of such subsidiary;

(h) make, or permit any subsidiary to make, any loan or advance to, or own any stock or other securities of, any Person, including, without limitation, any employee or director of the Company or any subsidiary, except advances and similar expenditures in the ordinary course of business or under the terms of an employee incentive or option plan approved prior to the date hereof or pursuant to the terms of this agreement;

(i) guarantee, directly or indirectly, or permit any subsidiary to guarantee, directly or indirectly, any indebtedness except for trade accounts of the Company or any subsidiary arising in the ordinary course of business;

(j) otherwise enter into or be a party to any transaction with any Founder, director, officer, or employee of the Company or any "associate" (as defined in Rule 12b-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act) of any such Person, except for transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Purchase Agreement;

(k) hire, terminate, or change the compensation of the executive officers, including approving any option grants or stock awards to executive officers;

(l) sell, assign, license, pledge, or encumber material technology or intellectual property, other than licenses granted in the ordinary course of business; or

(m) create an incentive compensation plan that would issue equity or options or grants or obligate the Company to pay amounts to any officer or employee.

4.2 Expenses of Counsel. In the event of a transaction which is a Change of Control (as defined in the LLC Agreement), the reasonable fees and disbursements, not to exceed $15,000, of one counsel for the Investors ("Investor Counsel"), in their capacities as equity holders, shall be borne and paid by the Company. At the outset of considering a transaction which, if consummated would constitute a Change of Control, the Company shall obtain the ability to share with the Investor Counsel (and such counsel's clients) and shall share the confidential information (including without limitation the initial and all subsequent drafts of memoranda of understanding, letters of intent and other transaction documents and related noncompete, employment, consulting and other compensation agreements and plans) pertaining to and memorializing any of the transactions which, individually or when aggregated with others would constitute the Change of Control. The Company shall be obligated to share (and cause the Company's counsel and investment bankers to share) such materials when distributed to the Company's executives and/or any one or more of the other parties to such transaction(s). In the event that Investor Counsel deems it appropriate, in its reasonable discretion, to enter into a joint defense agreement or other arrangement to enhance the ability of the parties to protect their communications and other reviewed materials under the attorney client privilege, the Company shall, and shall direct its counsel to, execute and deliver to Investor Counsel and its clients such an agreement in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Investor Counsel. In the event that one or more of the other party or parties to such transactions require the clients of Investor Counsel to enter into a confidentiality agreement and/or joint defense agreement in order to receive such information, then the Company shall share whatever information can be shared without entry into such agreement and shall, at the same time, in good faith work expeditiously to enable Investor Counsel and its clients to negotiate and enter into the appropriate agreement(s) without undue burden to the clients of Investor Counsel.

4.3 Indemnification Matters. The Company hereby acknowledges that one (1) or more of the directors nominated to serve on the Board of Directors by the Investors (each a "Fund Director") may have certain rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and/or insurance provided by one or more of the Investors and certain of their Affiliates (collectively, the "Fund Indemnitors"). The Company hereby agrees (a) that it is the indemnitor of first resort (i.e., its obligations to any such Fund Director are primary and any obligation of the Fund Indemnitors to advance expenses or to provide indemnification for the same expenses or liabilities incurred by such Fund Director are secondary), (b) that it shall be required to advance the full amount of expenses incurred by such Fund Director and shall be liable for the full amount of all expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement by or on behalf of any such Fund Director to the extent legally permitted and as required by the Company's governing documents (or any agreement between the Company and such Fund Director), without regard to any rights such Fund Director may have against the Fund Indemnitors, and, (c) that it irrevocably waives, relinquishes and releases the Fund Indemnitors from any and all claims against the Fund Indemnitors for contribution, subrogation or any other recovery of any kind in respect thereof. The Company further agrees that no advancement or payment by the Fund Indemnitors on behalf of any such Fund Director with respect to any claim for which such Fund Director has sought indemnification from the Company shall affect the foregoing and the Fund Indemnitors shall have a right of contribution and/or be subrogated to the extent of such advancement or payment to all of the rights of recovery of such Fund Director against the Company.

5. Right of First Refusal.

5.1 Grant. Subject to the terms of Section 7 below, each Founder hereby unconditionally and irrevocably grants to the Company a Right of First Refusal to purchase all or any portion of Transfer Equity that such Founder may propose to transfer in a Proposed Founder Transfer, at the same price and on the same terms and conditions as those offered to the Prospective Transferee.

5.2 Notice. Each Founder proposing to make a Proposed Founder Transfer must deliver a Proposed Transfer Notice to the Company and each Investor not later than forty-five (45) days prior to the consummation of such Proposed Founder Transfer. Such Proposed Transfer Notice shall contain the material terms and conditions (including price and form of consideration) of the Proposed Founder Transfer, the identity of the Prospective Transferee and the intended date of the Proposed Founder Transfer. To exercise its Right of First Refusal under this Section 5, the Company must deliver written notice to the selling Founder notifying the selling Founder that the Company intends to exercise its Right of First Refusal as to some or all of the Transfer Equity with respect to any Proposed Founder Transfer within fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Proposed Transfer Notice. In the event of a conflict between this Agreement and any other agreement that may have been entered into by a Founder with the Company that contains a preexisting right of first refusal, the Company and the Founder acknowledge and agree that the terms of this Agreement shall control and the preexisting right of first refusal shall be deemed satisfied by compliance with Section 5.1 and this Section 5.2.

5.3 Grant of Secondary Refusal Right to Investors. Subject to the terms of Section 7 below, each Founder hereby unconditionally and irrevocably grants to the Investors a Secondary Refusal Right to purchase all or any portion of the Transfer Equity not purchased by the Company pursuant to the Right of First Refusal, as provided in this Section 5.3. If the Company does not intend to exercise its Right of First Refusal with respect to all Transfer Equity subject to a Proposed Founder Transfer, the Company must deliver a Secondary Notice to the selling Founder and to each Investor to that effect no later than fifteen (15) days after the selling Founder delivers the Proposed Transfer Notice to the Company. To exercise its Secondary Refusal Right, an Investor must deliver written notice to the selling Founder and the Company notifying the Company and the selling Founder that such Investor intends to exercise its Secondary Refusal Right as to a portion of the Transfer Equity with respect to any Proposed Founder Transfer within ten (10) days after the Company's deadline for its delivery of the Secondary Notice as provided in the preceding sentence.

5.4 Undersubscription of Transfer Equity. If options to purchase have been exercised by the Company and the Investors with respect to some but not all of the Transfer Equity by the end of the ten (10) day period specified in the last sentence of Section 5.3 (the "Investor Notice Period"), then the Company shall, immediately after the expiration of the Investor Notice Period, send written notice (the “Company Undersubscription Notice”) to those Investors who fully exercised their Secondary Refusal Right within the Investor Notice Period (the “Exercising Investors”). Each Exercising Investor shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 5.4, have an additional option to purchase all or any part of the balance of any such remaining unsubscribed shares of Transfer Equity on the terms and conditions set forth in the Proposed Transfer Notice. To exercise such option, an Exercising Investor must deliver a notice to the selling Founder and the Company notifying the Company and the selling Founder that such Investor intends to exercise its option to purchase all or any portion of the Transfer Equity not purchased pursuant to the Right of First Refusal or the Secondary Refusal Right within ten (10) days after the expiration of the Investor Notice Period. In the event there are two or more such Exercising Investors that choose to exercise the last-mentioned option for a total number of remaining shares in excess of the number available, the remaining shares available for purchase under this Section 5.4 shall be allocated to such Exercising Investors pro rata based on the number of shares of Transfer Equity such Exercising Investors have elected to purchase pursuant to the Secondary Refusal Right (without giving effect to any shares of Transfer Equity that any such Exercising Investor has elected to purchase pursuant to the Company Undersubscription Notice). If the options to purchase the remaining shares are exercised in full by the Exercising Investors, the Company shall immediately notify all of the Exercising Investors and the selling Founder of that fact.

5.5 Consideration; Closing. If the consideration proposed to be paid for the Transfer Equity is in property, services or other non-cash consideration, the fair market value of the consideration shall be as determined in good faith by the Company’s Board of Directors (as defined in the LLC Agreement) and as set forth in the Secondary Notice or Company Undersubscription Notice. If the Company or any Investor cannot for any reason pay for the Transfer Equity in the same form of non-cash consideration, the Company or such Investor may pay the cash value equivalent thereof, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors and as set forth in the Secondary Notice or Company Undersubscription Notice. The closing of the purchase of Transfer Equity by the Company and the Investors shall take place, and all payments from the Company and the Investors shall have been delivered to the selling Founder, by the later of (i) the date specified in the Proposed Transfer Notice as the intended date of the Proposed Founder Transfer and (ii) forty-five (45) days after delivery of the Proposed Transfer Notice.

6. Right of Co-Sale.

6.1 Exercise of Right. If any Transfer Equity subject to a Proposed Founder Transfer is not purchased pursuant to Section 5 above and thereafter is to be sold to a Prospective Transferee, each respective Investor may elect to exercise its Right of Co-Sale and participate on a pro rata basis in the Proposed Founder Transfer as set forth in Section 6.2 below and otherwise on the same terms and conditions specified in the Proposed Transfer Notice (provided that if an Investor wishes to sell Shares (upon conversion of the Note), the price set forth in the Proposed Transfer Notice shall be appropriately adjusted based on the conversion ratio of the Shares into Common Units). Each Investor who desires to exercise its Right of Co-Sale (each a “Participating Investor”) must give the selling Founder written notice to that effect within fifteen (15) days after the deadline for delivery of the Secondary Notice described above, and upon giving such notice such Participating Investor shall be deemed to have effectively exercised the Right of Co-Sale.

6.2 Shares Includable. Each Participating Investor may include in the Proposed Founder Transfer all or any part of such Participating Investor's equity equal to the product obtained by multiplying (i) the aggregate number of shares of Transfer Equity subject to the Proposed Founder Transfer (excluding shares purchased by the Company or the Participating Investors pursuant to the Right of First Refusal or the Secondary Refusal Right) by (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of shares of equity (on an as-converted basis) owned by such Participating Investor immediately before consummation of the Proposed Founder Transfer and the denominator of which is the total number of shares of equity owned, in the aggregate, by all Participating Investors immediately prior to the consummation of the Proposed Founder Transfer, plus the number of shares of Transfer Equity held by the selling Founder. To the extent one or more of the Participating Investors exercise such right of participation in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein, the number of shares of Transfer Equity that the selling Founder may sell in the Proposed Founder Transfer shall be correspondingly reduced.

6.3 Purchase Agreement. The parties hereby agree that the terms and conditions of any sale pursuant to this Section 6 will be memorialized in, and governed by, a written purchase and sale agreement with customary terms and provisions for such a transaction and the parties further covenant and agree to enter into such an agreement as a condition precedent to any sale or other transfer pursuant to this Section 6 and to make any such deliveries or take such other reasonable actions as may be contemplated by such purchase and sale agreement. If any Prospective Transferee or Transferees refuse(s) to purchase securities subject to the Right of Co-Sale from any Investor exercising its Right of Co-Sale hereunder, no Founder may sell any Transfer Equity to such Prospective Transferee or Transferees unless and until, simultaneously with such sale, such Founder purchases all securities subject to the Right of Co-Sale from such Investor on the same terms and conditions (including the proposed purchase price) as set forth in the Proposed Transfer Notice.

7. Exempt Transfers. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary herein, the provisions of Sections 5 and 6 shall not apply: (a) to a repurchase of Transfer Equity from a Founder by the Company at a price no greater than that originally paid by such Founder for such Transfer Equity and pursuant to an agreement containing vesting and/or repurchase provisions approved by a majority of the Board of Directors, (b) to a pledge of Transfer Equity that creates a mere security interest in the pledged Transfer Equity, provided that the pledgee thereof agrees in writing in advance to be bound by and comply with all applicable provisions of this Agreement to the same extent as if it were the Founder making such pledge, or (c) in the case of a Founder that is a natural person, upon a transfer of Transfer Equity by such Founder made for bona fide estate planning purposes, either during his or her lifetime or on death by will or intestacy to his or her spouse, child (natural or adopted), or any other direct lineal descendant of such Founder (or his or her spouse) (all of the foregoing collectively referred to as "family members"), or any other relative/person approved by unanimous consent of the Board of Directors of the Company, or any custodian or trustee of any trust, partnership or limited liability company for the benefit of, or the ownership interests of which are owned wholly by, such Founder or any such family members; provided that in the case of clause(s) (a), (b), or (c), the Founder shall deliver prior written notice to the Investors of such pledge, gift or transfer and such shares of Transfer Equity shall at all times remain subject to the terms and restrictions set forth in this Agreement and such transferee shall, as a condition to such issuance, deliver a counterpart signature page to this Agreement as confirmation that such transferee shall be bound by all the terms and conditions of this Agreement as a Founder (but only with respect to the securities so transferred to the transferee), including the obligations of a Founder with respect to Proposed Founder Transfers of such Transfer Equity pursuant to Section 5; and provided, further, in the case of any transfer pursuant to clause (c) above, that such transfer is made pursuant to a transaction in which there is no consideration actually paid for such transfer.

8. Lock-Up. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, and except for transfers pursuant to Section 7 or in connection with a merger, consolidation, sale of 80% or more of the outstanding equity of the Company or any similar event, the Founders hereby severally agree not to, directly or indirectly, sell, contract to sell, make any short sale of, loan, grant any option for the purchase of, mortgage, hypothecate or otherwise transfer or dispose of any of the securities of the Company or any interest therein now beneficially owned or hereafter acquired by the Founders until the second (2nd) anniversary of the date of this Agreement without the prior written consent of the holders of at least a majority of the then-outstanding Securities (calculated on an as-converted basis), which consent may be withheld in their sole discretion.

9. Right to Appoint Board Member. Investors shall have the right to appoint the greater of (i) one director to the Board of Directors (as defined in the LLC Agreement) of the Company or (ii) that number of directors to the Board of Directors that represents the proportion of Investors' ownership of the Company (or right to ownership of the Company upon conversion of the Note) and provided, for sake of clarity, other than the ability to collectively appoint a single director, Investors are not able to appoint a greater proportion of directors than their proportionate ownership of the Company (or right to ownership of the Company upon conversion of the Note). TA Group Holdings, LLC, a Washington limited liability ("TA Group") company shall have the right to appoint one director to the Board of Directors of the Company. Founders agree to vote their interests in favor of any directors designated by Investors pursuant to this section.

10. Miscellaneous.

10.1 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties and their successors and assigns. None of the Company, the Founders or the Investors shall assign this Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Investors may assign their rights hereunder to any person that purchases the Shares in a private transaction from such Investor or to any of such Investor's Affiliates, without the consent of the Company.

10.2 Governing Law; Venue. ALL MATTERS RELATING TO ARBITRATION WILL BE GOVERNED BY THE FEDERAL ARBITRATION ACT (9 U.S.C. §§ ET SEQ.). Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, or any waiver on the part of any party of any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, must be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.
