Excited to be part of something big! I've never seen anything like this before, and I believe it's just the steppingstone of what is about to come. Utilizing the Web3 environment, this Blockchain is something that can be utilized throughout any community. The way it is designed is something that a novice can use to communicate with Charities, Crypto/NFT Influencers, Sports Organizations/Athletes and Develop Affiliate Programs. In summary, PodDApp will empower content creators with an interactive community engagement which will be second to none!
