MyRacehorse has once again teamed up with John and Chelsey Stewart's Resolute Racing to offer another high-end and extremely exciting prospect. MyRacehorse has once again teamed up with John and Chelsey Stewart's Resolute Racing to offer another high-end and extremely exciting prospect. From the team behind regally bred colt Woodburn, meet unbeaten sophomore filly La Rascasse, who is expected to make her next start in Grade 1 company at Saratoga.

We've just closed our biggest deal on a horse of racing age since Authentic, and ironically she's by that same Kentucky Derby champion and Horse of the Year.

Meet La Rascasse, an unbeaten budding star with her sights set next on Grade 1 company at Saratoga.

Her sire's most expensive yearling of 2024 when she fetched $750,000 at Keeneland September, the dark bay was turned over to another up-and-comer in conditioner Will Walden.

She came out running in her Keeneland debut on Apr. 11, showing determination that belied her experience to graduate at first asking and garner prestigious 'TDN Rising Star' honors (click for video replay). Among the also-rans that day was Right Timing (Not This Time), who has subsequently taken her next two starts by a combined 7 ¼ lengths and appears en route to a stakes appearance of her own.

La Rascasse, meanwhile, immediately took the jump up from the maiden ranks to stakes company, and passed her class test with flying colors. Off at less than 2-1 odds, she stalked and pounced her way to a 2 ¼-length victory in the Monomoy Girl S. at Churchill Downs on June 13, pairing up 84 Beyer Speed Figures and very strong 9s on the Ragazin Sheets (click for video replay). Behind La Rascasse that day was the likes of G1 Ashland S. heroine Percy's Bar.

La Rascasse—named for the world-famous bar and restaurant situated on a hairpin turn along the Circuit de Monaco Formula One race route—is now being pointed to the prestigious G1 Coaching Club American Oaks at the Spa on July 25. The Coaching Club, which was first run in 1917, has been won by the likes of legends such as Ruffian, Ashado, Songbird, Monomoy Girl and 2024 Horse of the Year Thorpedo Anna and could be the launching pad for La Rascasse proving herself to be at the top of the sophomore filly ranks in 2026.

At just 35 years of age, conditioner Will Walden has already proven himself a top horseman since saddling his first winner in 2022. The son of prominent former trainer and farm executive Elliott Walden boasts an impressive 22% career win rate (29% in 2026) as of this writing. He has been represented by standouts thus far such as multiple Grade 1 winner Rhetorical and graded stakes-winning fillies Speed Shopper, Pipsy (Ire) and Aussie Girl (Ire).

La Rascasse hails from her sire's second crop of runners, and is one of 10 black-type winners for the son of super sire Into Mischief thus far. The Spendthrift resident has four graded stakes winners to date, led by New York Grade 1-winning filly and subsequent $2.5-million seller Iron Orchard.

MyRacehorse also bought into Authentic during his racing career—after his runner-up finish in the 2020 G1 Santa Anita Derby and before victories in the G1 Haskell Invitational S., Kentucky Derby and Breeders' Cup Classic—plus a narrow second in the G1 Preakness S.—en route to two Eclipse Awards.

Broodmare sire Candy Ride, meanwhile, has been represented by the dams of no fewer than 29 graded/group winners worldwide. La Rascasse is bred on a version of the same cross as Grade 1 winner Chocolate Gelato and graded winners Money Supply, Shidabuti and Into Chocolate.

La Rascasse's dam is a daughter of Maryfield, winner of the inaugural running of the G1 Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint in 2007 as part of an Eclipse Award-garnering campaign that also included a victory in the G1 Ballerina S. at Saratoga.

The acquisition of La Rascasse comes on the heels of a breakout victory by another recent MRH private purchase in Bacio, who demolished handicap rivals at Royal Ascot and is now being pointed to the G1 Nunthorpe at York.

We hope to have La Rascasse's offering filed, approved and ready for investment by early next week. If you would like to be notified as soon as she becomes available, indicate interest now.

Included in terms of the deal between MyRacehorse and Resolute is a one-time $75,000 bonus to be paid by the MRH Series to Resolute in the event that La Rascasse wins a Grade 1 race on the dirt in the United States.

Expected on track: July 25th, 2026
