THE COMPANY AND ITS BUSINESS

Overview

Finlete Funding, Inc. ("Finlete Funding," "Company," "we" and "our"), is an operating subsidiary of Finlete, Inc. that enters into agreements with promising professional athletes in which Finlete Funding will provide upfront funding and help promote that athlete's personal brand in exchange for a percentage of future revenues generated by the athlete (each a "Player Agreement"). Finlete Funding then allows investors to participate in the performance of those agreements through specifically designated classes of preferred stock. These investments are made available through securities offerings that are exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

Finlete Funding operates in conjunction with its parent entity, Finlete, Inc. (our "Parent" or "Finlete"), which provides administrative support and an online platform to Finlete Funding. Together, Finlete Funding and Finlete provide sports fans the opportunity to buy interests associated with the performance of professional athletes and win together both emotionally and financially throughout professional athletes' careers.

The Company was formed as a corporation on December 19, 2023, under the laws of the State of Delaware, and is authorized to issue 1,000 shares of Common Stock and 2,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock.

The Company's principal office is located at 350 10th Ave, Ste 1000, San Diego, CA 92101, and its website is www.finlete.com.

Our Business Plan

Our goal is to help promising young athletes garner support and build a following while deepening fan engagement as we know it. Our belief is that every fan a young athlete gains through the Company will root for the athlete every step of the way in their career, creating a very special dynamic in which fans and athletes maintain a relationship for 10-20+ years and, hopefully, beyond. Through each step of the athlete's career, we plan to facilitate and monetize opportunities for fans who invest in our offerings to engage in various ways with athletes with whom we have Player Agreements.

Finlete Funding operates by entering into Player Agreements with promising athletes. These agreements include material terms and obligations on the part of the player and Finlete Funding.

These terms include:

- The "Finlete Payment" in which Finlete Funding provides installment payments to the athlete over a specified period;
- The "Player Payment" in which the player pays a portion of the players earnings in installment payments to Finlete Funding over the term of the Player Agreement;
- "Mandatory Appearances" by the athlete at virtual events sponsored by Finlete Funding;
- A grant of a "Non-exclusive License" to the athlete's name, image, likeness, voice, and personal background and history in order for Finlete Funding to promote the athlete;
- The "Percentage" of the player's future earnings subject to the agreement; and
- The "Term" of the agreement in years.

Under these terms, we plan to enhance the reach and value of the player's brand, thereby increasing the potential value of the player and the agreement.

Historically, the majority of athletes who have entered into these types of agreements in exchange for payment from their future earnings have done so with closed-door funds and/or companies. Together with our Parent, we intend to democratize access to these opportunities so that the general public can become involved while enhancing brand value for athletes to a much greater extent than was previously possible.

The result is that the Company is sharing the risks with the player that are associated with the variability and uncertainty of the athlete's potential future earnings. If a player does well and signs with a professional sports team, Finlete Funding will receive a percentage of the player's future earnings, which may be more than the funds Finlete Funding provided to the player. If the player does not secure a contract with a professional team, the Company may not receive any payments from the player.

Our Planned Products and Services

To help enhance the brand of the athletes, we may facilitate exclusive experiences for fans such as virtual meet and greets, behind-the-scenes video updates, merchandise, memorabilia, virtual contract signing parties, in-person events, and more.

The Offering

This offering is for shares of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock. Luinder Avila Preferred Stock is entitled to track the performance of a specific revenue stream from the Avila Agreement entered into between the Player and the Company. Further, even though money raised in this offering will benefit the Company as a whole (including funds dedicated for future Player Agreements and Company overhead), these are not shares of common stock, and do not grant financial rights to the entire Company. Specifically, subject to applicable laws, these shares are entitled to a portion of the future baseball earnings of the Player, and you will not be entitled to the distributions or dividends paid to Common Stock or any other class of shares of the Company.

Specific Consideration Regarding the Stock

The Luinder Avila Preferred Stock does not represent ownership in a separate legal entity specific to Luinder Avila. Rather, income (and assets) will generally be attributed to shares of the Luinder Avila Preferred Stock based on the specific income of the underlying Player Agreement that the Company receives from the Player. Further even though money raised in this offering will benefit the Company as a whole (including funds dedicated for future Player Agreements and Company overhead), holders of shares of the Luinder Avila Preferred Stock will not have an ownership interest in any of the underlying contract, or any of our affiliated entities. The issuance of shares of the Luinder Avila Preferred Stock will not result in the actual transfer of our assets or the creation of a separate legal entity. Our contract parties and their affiliated persons are, and we expect they will continue to be, individuals and legal entities that are separate and independent from us, with separate ownership, management and operations.

Though you will not own Common Stock in the Company, it is important that you know about the Company to evaluate your investment. If the Company were to fail as a company due to its inability to succeed in its business plan, it would jeopardize your ability to collect distributions from the shares of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock.

For that reason, we urge you to consider all the risk factors listed in this offering document, including those related to the Company as a company, and ask yourself questions such as: Does the Company have the talent and resources to follow its business plan and accomplish its goals? Is the Company financially solvent, and will it remain so long enough to pay the distributions to the shares from the income from the Avila Agreement?

The Avila Agreement
The following describes the terms of the Player Agreement between Finlete Funding, Inc. and Luinder Avila (the "Avila Agreement") and is qualified in its entirety by the Avila Agreement, attached as Exhibit E to this Form C.

Term: The term of the Player Agreement is for 25 years from the effective date, unless terminated by mutual agreement. The Avila Agreement cannot be terminated by an election of free agency, voluntary retirement, or unconditional release under any circumstances. The agreement also remains in effect and applies to all pre-tax future PBE earned or received after Player's death, within the term of the agreement.

Player Payments: The Player Payments for Luinder Avila are up to 1.00% of his pre-tax future PBE. To the extent the Company funds the Player less than $100,000, the payments will be proportionally reduced. For example, if $100,000 is the agreed payment to the Player and Finlete Funding pays the Player $50,000 (see "Use of Proceeds" below), then his Player Payment obligation over the term is also reduced by 50% (or by 0.5% of pre-tax future PBE in this case).

With certain exclusions, PBE includes any payments Player receives during the term of this Agreement once such Player is signed by a team in any of the following leagues:

- United States Major League Baseball*
- Japan's Nippon Professional Baseball
- South Korea's KBO League
- Chinese Professional Baseball League
  some exclusions may apply.*

Earnings are described in the Avila Agreement and include, but are not limited to: wages, salary, bonuses, buyout, payouts for participation in championship events or post-season series, international events or any other compensation earned by the Player in service to a team. Earnings are exclusive of taxes, management fees, and other fee arrangements that the Player may enter into.

Other Player Obligations:
The following include other items in the contract that are not included in PBE:

- Player is obligated to make certain virtual appearances (twice per year for ten years) as well as sign a certain number of autographs (100 per year for the term of the agreement).
- Company is entitled to non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free use of the Player's name, image, likeness and story.
- Company has a right of first refusal to purchase future earnings of the Player related to his baseball career (including wages and other items included in PBE as well as items not included, e.g., endorsements).

Dividend Rights. Holders of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock are generally entitled to up to 67.50% of the Player Payments under the Avila Agreement received by the Company less:

- amounts withheld for taxes.
- amounts that are subject to payment or repayment per the Avila Agreement and/or another contract, agreement, or law.

For example, if there are 75,000 shares of Luinder Avila Preferred issued and outstanding, the holders of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock would be entitled to 67.50% of the Player Payments under the Avila Agreement received by the Company, less the amounts outlined above. If there are 25,000 shares of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock issued and outstanding, the holders of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock would be entitled to 22.5% of the Player Payments under the Avila Agreement received by the Company, less the amounts outlined above.

For further clarification, every share of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock is effectively entitled to 0.000009% of Luinder Avila's pre-tax future PBE, subject to receipt by the Company, and less the amounts outlined above.

Distributions will be paid to shareholders on an annual basis unless the Board determines to pay the payments more frequently. Payments will be made for a specific measurement period (e.g., calendar quarter). Pro rata distributions will be apportioned between the issued and outstanding shares of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock based on number of days that each share has been issued and outstanding in the measurement period, compared to the total shares and total number of days that all shares of such stock have been issued and outstanding during this period.

Payments can only be made to the extent there are legally available funds under Delaware General Corporation Law even if the Company receives Player Payments under the Avila Agreement. Distribution do not include other payments received by the Company under the Avila Agreement (e.g., sale of autographs).

RISK FACTORS

The SEC requires the Company to identify risks that are specific to its business and its financial condition. The Company is still subject to all the same risks that all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy, are exposed to. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events, and technological developments (such as hacking and the ability to prevent hacking). Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently more risky than more developed companies. You should consider general risks as well as specific risks when deciding whether to invest.

Risks Related to the Company's Limited Operating History, Financial Position and Capital Needs

We have a very limited operating history, which may make it difficult for investors to evaluate the success of our business to date and to assess our future viability. Our business model also requires us to make substantial upfront payments to players in exchange for rights to future payments. Our operations to date have been limited to organizing and staffing our company, evaluating, targeting, and accessing athletes that meet our criteria, negotiating the acquisition of rights associated with those athletes, engaging in marketing campaigns for the offering of these shares, and managing our potential Player Agreements. Our First Regulation CF Offering was completed on August 7, 2024, with the Company raising $78,288, issuing 9,786 shares of Echedry Vargas Preferred Stock, and receiving a 1% interest in Vargas's pre-tax future PBE. Our Second Regulation CF Offering was completed on July 15, 2025, with the Company raising $315,924, committing 28,471 shares of Emmanuel Clase Preferred Stock (inclusive of Bonus Shares) and receiving a 0.28471% interest in Clase's pre-tax future PBE. We have entered into thirteen (13) Player Agreements. We intend to enter into additional Player Agreements in the future with other contract parties and are actively pursuing these Player Agreements. We have no history to demonstrate, and we can make no assurances that our business model will be successful or whether any of our Player Agreements will be profitable. Consequently, it will be difficult for anyone to predict our future success, performance, or viability, and more difficult than it would be if we had a longer operating history and/or successful Player Agreements to judge the viability of our business model. Any such predictions may not be accurate or reliable.

We have incurred losses since our inception and anticipate that we will continue to incur losses in the future. We are currently in a start-up phase and therefore have a very limited operating history. Investment in our company is highly speculative because it entails substantial upfront cost and significant risk that we may never become commercially viable. Our parent, Finlete, Inc., has incurred expenses from which we have benefited. Our Parent is not obligated to continue to incur expenses on our behalf or lend us any funds and we expect that we will incur significant expenses related to our ongoing operations. We expect to continue to incur losses for the foreseeable future as we continue evaluating, targeting, and accessing athletes, negotiating the terms of Player Agreements that meet our criteria, and developing the infrastructure necessary to support our operations to enhance the value of those athletes. We may encounter unforeseen expenses, difficulties, complications, delays, and other unknown factors that may adversely affect our business. The size of our future net losses will depend, in part, on the rate of future growth of our expenses, the rate at which we are able to enter into Player Agreements that meet our criteria and the ability of those Player Agreements to generate income and cash flow. Even if our Player Agreements generate cash flows, they may not produce payments quickly enough to cover our expenses. If any athletes with whom we have or may contract in the future, fail to make payments in amounts we expect, or at all, we may never become profitable. Even if we achieve profitability in the future, we may not be able to sustain profitability in subsequent periods. Our expected future losses will have an adverse effect on our stockholders' equity and working capital.

Our Auditor issued a "going concern" note in the audited financials. Finlete Funding has not commenced principal operations and will likely realize losses prior to generating positive working capital for an unknown period of time. The Company may not generate sufficient future cash flows to sustain its business, and there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to find sufficient demand for its services. If there is limited market acceptance for the Company's services, then its future cash flows will be negatively impacted.

Our principal source of cash flows for the foreseeable future will be derived from our Player Agreements. Our principal source of cash flows for the foreseeable future will be derived from Player Agreements. There are a number of risks relating to Player Agreements. If any of these risks occur it could have a material and adverse impact on our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

We are dependent on our management team, and the loss of any key member of this team may prevent us from implementing our business plan in a timely manner, or at all. Our success depends largely upon the continued services of our executive officers and other key personnel, particularly George Robert Connolly, our Chief Executive Officer. Our executive officers or key employees could terminate their employment with Finlete Funding and/or our Parent at any time without penalty. In addition, we do not maintain key person life insurance policies on any of our employees or any of our contract parties. The loss of one or more of these executive officers or key employees could seriously harm our business and may prevent us from implementing our business plan in a timely manner, or at all.

The Company could be subject to political, economic, climate and force majeure risks. Finlete Funding, Inc. is vulnerable to both the general macroeconomic conditions of the country as well as the microeconomic conditions of the sports industry. Changes to these economic conditions are often difficult to foresee and may cause significant damage to the Company's business. Such risks include, but are not limited to, recession, unemployment rate changes, interest rate changes, and inflation rate changes. Further to this, political changes, domestically or internationally, may also have material impacts on our business. These risks may include, but are not limited to, war, terrorism, business regulation changes, and labor legislation changes. Other factors which could affect the general environment in which we operate may include climate change, epidemics/pandemics, demographic change, riots, strikes, crime, extreme weather events, natural disasters, and/or other acts of God.

We may not have sufficient insurance coverage and an interruption of our business or loss of a key member of our personnel or player due to injury or death could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and operations. We currently do not maintain any insurance policies against loss of key personnel and business interruption as well as product liability claims. If such events were to occur, our business, financial performance and financial position may be materially and adversely affected.

We could become involved in claims or litigations that may result in adverse outcomes. From time-to-time we may be involved in a variety of claims or litigations. Such proceeding may initially be viewed as immaterial but could prove to be material. Litigations are inherently unpredictable and excessive verdicts do occur. Given the inherent uncertainties in litigation, even when we can reasonably estimate the amount of possible loss or range of loss and reasonably estimable loss contingencies, the actual outcome may change in the future due to new developments or changes in approach. In addition, such claims or litigations could involve significant expense and diversion of management's attention and resources from other matters.

Risks Relating to Our Player Agreements

We have very limited experience managing Player Agreements, and we have very limited historical performance data about our Player Agreements. We had not signed any Player Agreements until 2024. Due to our limited experience with Player Agreements, we have limited historical performance data regarding our ability to generate cash receipts from the management of Player Agreements and the likelihood of long-term performance of the player, or our ability to aid players in enhancing their personal brand reach and brand value. We may change how we estimate the value of future Player Agreements, and investors who invest early may not benefit from the experience that we gain from our early Player Agreements.

Our cash received under our Player Agreements will depend upon the continued satisfactory performance of the related player, and we do not have any rights to require the player to take any significant actions to attract or maintain or otherwise generate income. Some or all of the income that a player is expected to generate is contingent on continued satisfactory performance and is not guaranteed. Although we structure our Player Agreements so that the player maintains the substantial majority of future income earned as an athlete to help ensure that the player will maintain incentives to continue to generate income from professional athletics, we can provide no assurances that the player will do so. While our Player Agreements require a certain number of virtual meetings and autograph signings, a player may retire from being a professional athlete at any time and for any reason, or may suffer a career-ending injury. A player has no obligation to take any actions to generate income and may choose not to do anything to generate income. Our current Player Agreement contains and future Player Agreements will contain no restriction on the ability of a player to change professions or earn money in unrelated fields, and such income may not be subject to the player payments under the Player Agreement. In any of these events, we may lose some or all of the potential income associated with Player Agreements.

Our players will not be affiliates, directors, officers or employees of our Company and will not owe fiduciary duties to us or any of our stockholders. Our players will not have obligations to enhance the value of their personal brand or disclose information to our stockholders. Events in a player's personal life, including relationships with spouse, family, friends, etc. could have a significant impact on a player's performance in their occupation. A player is and/or will be under no obligation to disclose any personal matters to the holders of shares of our stock. In addition, a player has no obligation to enhance the value of their personal brand. For example, a contract party in the MLB may agree to a salary reduction to assist their team in staying within the league salary cap, to be on a more competitive team, or to stay with a specific team, all of which may have the effect of reducing potential income and conflict with stockholders' interests in maximizing income. Since a player's obligations under a Player Agreement are solely limited to obligations owed to the Company, the holders of shares of our stock have no contractual right to enforce such obligations against such player. Furthermore, since a player is and/or will not be a director or an officer of the Company, such player owes no fiduciary obligations to the holders of shares of our stock. As a result, our stockholders will have no recourse directly against a player, either under their respective Player Agreement or under the securities or corporate laws.

A player may become subject to injury, illness, medical condition or death, or could be subject to public scandal or other reputational harm. Our focus for the foreseeable future is to enter into Player Agreements with promising athletes who have the potential to play professional sports. There is a high risk of injury in many professional sports. Nevertheless, we do not and do not intend to maintain any insurance against the loss of Player Payments as a result of injury, illness, medical condition, or death of the player. Therefore, if a player becomes injured or sustains a serious illness or other adverse medical condition in the course of their professional career or otherwise, or dies, the Player Payments, would likely be dramatically less than we anticipate, or may cease completely. Any harm to the public reputation of a player, or association of the player's name with a public scandal, may reduce the player's ability to participate in professional athletics, reducing the potential for Player Payments.

Our Player Agreements are not secured by any collateral or guaranteed or insured by any third party, and an investor must rely on Finlete Funding to pursue remedies against players in the event of any default. The payments under a Player Agreement will be unsecured obligations of the player and will not be secured by any collateral, nor guaranteed or insured by any third party or governmental authority. Therefore, we will be limited in our ability to collect any payments that may be owed to us under a Player Agreement if those amounts are not paid. If the player defaults under the Player Agreement, there can be no assurances that the player will have adequate resources, if any, to satisfy any obligations to us under the Player Agreement.

An economic downturn and adverse economic conditions may harm a player's earning potential. Economic downturns and adverse economic conditions may negatively affect the earnings of a player. For example, the MLB market salary cap is dependent upon the revenues the MLB receives and an economic downturn could result in a stagnant or declining salary cap.

The amount of money generated by Player Agreements with a player is substantially dependent upon the player's ability to become contracted and play out his player contract. The opportunity to receive dividends from an investment in shares will depend in large part upon the ability of a player to generate significant future income from professional sports. However, in many cases, the amount of return under a player contract is not guaranteed. If a player does not enter into high-value player contracts, or cannot complete the terms of the player contract, there is no guarantee that the Player Agreement will result in positive cash flow.

A player could cease playing professional sports at any time due to illness, injury, or death, if they are dropped from the team and unable to secure a new contract, if they incur negative publicity or if they are suspended or banned from the professional leagues. We expect that a significant portion of the revenue we expect to receive from a player will come from future professional player contracts. However, a player could cease playing professional athletics at any time due to illness, injury, or death, if they are dropped from the team and unable to secure a new contract, if they incur negative publicity or if they are suspended or banned from the professional league. If any of these were to occur, a player would not receive amounts under their existing player contract and may not be able to secure future playing contracts.

Players could be negatively affected by a work stoppage. If the professional league experiences a work stoppage, then the earnings of a player in such a professional sports organization will be adversely affected. If either a strike or a lockout occurs during a playing season, a player's pay may be suspended. A player's earnings are heavily dependent on their professional salary and would be negatively affected by any such work stoppage. This would have a negative impact on the payments we receive under Player Agreements. We can give no assurances that such work stoppages will not occur.

In general, we have limited historical data upon which to base our valuation and projections of a player's future earnings potential. Many of our players have not yet been promoted to a major league sport, and although some of our players have experience at the major league level, there is no guarantee that they'll be able to play out their contracts or remain at the major league level. Additional prospective players may not yet have been promoted to major league sports. Although they may currently play professionally in minor leagues, their past performance may not be indicative of their future performance in the major leagues. As a result, we have limited historical data upon which to build our analysis and valuation of their future professional sports earnings.

It is difficult to estimate with precision the projected future earnings of a player because such estimation is necessarily based on future events that may or may not occur and that could change based on a number of factors that are hard to control. As a result, it is difficult to predict an accurate return on investment or rate of return on your investment. Because the length of a player's playing career is uncertain, we make certain estimates to predict a player's career length. Due to the inherent uncertainty in predicting the future, it is difficult to estimate with precision the projected future earnings of a player in his professional sport activities. These estimations are based on future events that may or may not occur. Additionally, future events change based on a number of factors that are difficult or impossible to control. As a result, it is difficult to predict an accurate return on investment or rate of return of an investment in our shares.

Future negative publicity could harm a player's reputation and impair the value of his personal brand. The return on your investment depends on the value and strength of the personal brand and reputation of the players, as well as the financial success of Finlete Funding as a whole. Unfavorable publicity regarding a player's professional performance or his behavior off the field could negatively affect his brand and reputation. Any negative publicity regarding a player's on-field performance or off-the-field behavior or otherwise could damage his reputation and impair the value of his brand.

Risks Related to the Player Agreement

Luinder Avila's potential future MLB player contract is a significant portion of the future cash we would receive under the Avila Agreement. Much of the future cash expected to be received under the Avila Agreement is tied to Avila's prospects of a professional baseball career and his potential future MLB player contracts. Further, all of the cash that you would receive as distributions from the shares of Preferred Stock would be tied to an MLB contract or contracts at the other professional baseball leagues. The MLB minimum salary is determined by the MLB Collective Bargaining Agreement and is subject to annual changes. Avila would become eligible for a higher salary after accruing three (3) years of MLB service time. The MLB arbitration process allows players with more than three (3) but less than six (6) years of service time to negotiate their annual salaries with their team based on the salaries of other players with comparable service time and performance, among other factors. Players typically go through three (3) years of arbitration before reaching free agency. After the arbitration years, players become free agents, which means they are free to negotiate a new contract with any MLB team. We cannot guarantee how many days Avila will spend on a major league roster, nor that he will reach MLB arbitration, nor that he will reach MLB free agency, nor that he will be able to secure any contracts at other professional baseball leagues. The MLB contracts that Avila may secure in the future form a critical component of the future cash flow from his Player Agreement with Finlete Funding. While the nature of sport means there are inherent uncertainties, the structure of MLB salaries and contracts provides a reasonably reliable foundation for estimating cash flow. Our projections are based on current data and will be adjusted over time.

Any revenue received from the Player Agreement will be subject to the performance and health of the Player as well as the risks related to Player Agreements in general. Future payments from the Player Agreement are subject to risks, including:

- The profitability of the Player Agreement is substantially dependent upon the Player entering into a high-value MLB player contract. If the Player does enter into additional high-value MLB player contracts, there is no guarantee that there will be any payments of PBE and therefore any distributions related to your investment.
- We have very limited experience managing Player Agreements, and we have very limited historical performance data about our Player Agreements.
- Cash received under the Player Agreement will depend upon the continued satisfactory performance of the Player, and we do not have any rights to require him to take any actions to attract or maintain or otherwise generate PBE.

- The Player is not our affiliate, director, officer or employee of our company and owes no fiduciary duties to us or any of our stockholders. The Player has no obligation to enhance the value of their personal brand or disclose information to our stockholders.
- PBE may decrease due to factors outside the control of the Player, such as an injury, illness, medical condition, or their death, or due to other factors such as public scandal or other reputational harm.
- The Player Agreement is not insured or secured by any collateral or guaranteed or insured by any third party, and an investor must rely on Finlete Funding to pursue remedies against the Player in the event of any default.
- The financial and other information that we obtained and/or will obtain from the Player or other third parties may be inaccurate and may not accurately reflect his true financial position, and the risk of default on the Player Agreement may be significant and may be higher than we anticipate.
- Our due diligence procedures may not reveal all relevant information regarding the Player and may result in an inaccurate assessment of the projected value of their personal brand.
- An economic downturn and adverse economic conditions may harm the Player's earning potential.
- The amount of money generated by the Player Agreement is substantially dependent upon the Player's ability to become contracted by MLB and play out his player contract.
- PBE may be reduced by a work stoppage.
- There could be a decline in the popularity of the professional sports organization in which the Player may play, or they may never achieve the popularity or market acceptance that we have projected.
- We have limited data upon which to base our valuation and projections of the Player's future earnings potential.
- It is difficult to estimate with precision the projected future earnings of the Player because such estimation is necessarily based on future events that may or may not occur and that could change based on a number of factors that are hard to control. As a result, it is difficult to predict an accurate return on investment or rate of return on your investment.
- Future negative publicity of the Player could harm their reputation and impair the value of their brand.

The occurrence of any of the above my limit payments received under the Player Agreement and/or payments received as PBE, which would mean that may not receive any distributions related to your ownership of the shares of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock.

Risks Relating to our Corporate Structure

A specified portion of the potential payments associated with the Avila Agreement will be attributed to our common stock rather than the Luinder Avila Preferred Stock. Therefore, your shares will only partially reflect the economic performance of the Avila Agreement. The shares of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock and future shares of preferred stock only track part of the underlying agreement. For instance, 10% of the PBE under the Avila Agreement will be attributed to our common stock. Similarly, in the future, when we issue additional preferred stock, we intend to attribute a portion of the PBE under the associated Player Agreements to the common stock as well as limit which revenues stemming from the contract will inure to the benefit of the holders of preferred stock. Therefore, each series of our preferred stock will only partially reflect the economic performance of the associated Player Agreement and other assets and expenses of the associated preferred stock, even though we may use the proceeds of our preferred stock offerings to fund the full purchase price of the associated Player Agreement. In addition, an investment in any of our preferred stocks would not represent an ownership interest in any related Player Agreement.

As a series of our preferred stock will be exposed to additional risks associated with the Company as a whole, including any individual preferred stock that exists at the time of any investment or that we may establish and issue in the future. Investors in Luinder Avila Preferred Stock can only receive dividends to the extent our Company can legally pay dividends under Delaware law. For instance, if there is revenue from this Player Agreement, but the rest of the Company does poorly, we may be legally restricted from paying any distributions. Further, holders of shares in any of our preferred stock will not have any legal rights related to specific assets attributed to the associated preferred stock. Rather, Finlete Funding will retain legal title to all of its assets, including the Avila Agreement which is attributed to the Luinder Avila Preferred Stock and, in any liquidation, holders of our Luinder Avila Preferred Stock and holders of any other preferred stocks we may establish in the future, will be entitled to receive a proportionate share to any distributions to the extent there are available net assets available for distribution to stockholders after we satisfy our creditors, including creditors of any preferred stock other than a preferred stock in which you may invest.

We could be required to use assets attributed to one series of preferred stock to pay liabilities attributed to another series of preferred. The assets attributed to one preferred stock are potentially subject to the liabilities attributed to another preferred stock, even if those liabilities arise from lawsuits, contracts or indebtedness that are attributed to such other preferred stock. No provision of our certificate of incorporation prevents us from satisfying liabilities of one preferred stock with assets of another preferred stock, and our creditors will not in any way be limited by our capital structure from proceeding against any assets they could have proceeded against if we did not have any preferred stocks. As a result, although we intend for the preferred stocks to received certain payments based on the performance of a particular Player Agreement, we cannot provide any guarantee that the preferred stock will be able to do so and will not be subject to a disproportionate share of the burden of any non-performing Player Agreements, whether or not included in the assets attributed to such preferred stock, and will not be attributed a disproportionate amount of our general liabilities, costs and expenses.

We can amend or terminate the Avila Agreement without the vote of the holders of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock. The parties to the Avila Agreement, specifically, Finlete Funding and Luinder Avila, can mutually agree to terminate and/or amend the Avila Agreement. To the extent that is done that holders of our preferred stock may have little recourse and may only receive either the distributions that they have received to date (which may be less than the redemption price), the redemption price of a $1 per share if no distributions have been made, or even less than that to the extent the Company does not have sufficient funds.

In the event of a liquidation of Finlete Funding, holders of any of our preferred stock will not have a priority with respect to the assets attributed to the associated preferred stock remaining for distribution to stockholders. Upon liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of Finlete Funding as a whole, holders of shares of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock will be entitled to receive any payments owed to them under the series designation, after prior payments in full satisfaction of creditors. However, if the assets of Finlete Funding legally available for distribution to the holders of the preferred stock are insufficient to permit the payment to all of our outstanding shares of preferred stock the full amount to which they would otherwise be entitled, then the assets available for distribution to the holders of preferred stock may be reduced depending on the future series designations.

Risks Related to the Securities

Our Parent has control over key decision-making as a result of its control over all of our common stock. Our Parent holds 100% of the voting power of our outstanding capital stock. Our common stock is entitled to one vote per share, whereas the preferred stock has no right to vote on matters presented to the stockholders for vote. Our Parent is entitled to vote its shares in its own interests, which may not always be in the interests of the holders of preferred stock.

Management has discretion as to the use of proceeds. The net proceeds from this offering will be used for the purposes described under "Use of Proceeds" below. The Company reserves the right to use the funds obtained from this offering for other similar purposes not presently contemplated that it deems to be in the best interests of the Company and its investors in order to address changed circumstances or opportunities. As a result of the foregoing, the success of the Company will be substantially dependent upon the discretion and judgment of management with respect to the application and allocation of the net proceeds of this offering. Investors will be entrusting their funds to the Company's management, upon whose judgment and discretion the investors must depend.

Any valuation at this stage is difficult to assess. The price of the Luinder Avila Preferred Stock was determined based on potential distributions of the stock, which is based on potential revenues from the Avila Agreement, as well as the performance of our Company overall. Such determination, especially for an early-stage company with limited operating history, is difficult to assess, uncertain, and contains a high degree of risk. Investors should not invest if they disagree with the Company's estimated valuation.

The preferred stock will not be freely tradable until one year from the initial purchase date. Although the preferred stock may be tradable under federal securities law, state securities regulations may apply, and each investor should consult with his or her attorney. You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. There is not now, and there may never be, a public market for the preferred stock. Because the preferred stock has not been registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state or non-United States jurisdiction, the preferred stock has transfer restrictions and cannot be resold in the United States except pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation Crowdfunding. It is not currently contemplated that registration under the Securities Act or other securities laws will be effected. Limitations on the transfer of the preferred stock may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the preferred stock in a private sale. Investors in this offering should be aware of the long-term nature of their investment in the Company. Each investor in this offering will be required to represent that it is purchasing the Securities for its own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof.

The shares are a highly risky and speculative investment. Only investors who can bear the loss of their entire investment should purchase the Shares. The shares are highly risky and speculative. An investment in the shares is suitable for purchase only for investors of adequate financial means. If you cannot afford to lose all the money you plan to invest in the shares, you should not purchase the shares.

Credit card risk. Using a credit card to purchase shares may impact the return on your investment as well as subject you to other risks inherent in this form of payment. Investors in this offering have the option of paying for their investment with a credit card, which is not usual in the traditional investment markets. Transaction fees charged by your credit card company (which can reach 6% of transaction value) and interest charged on unpaid card balances (which can reach almost 25% in some states) add to the effective purchase price of the shares you buy. The cost of using a credit card may also increase if you do not make the minimum monthly card payments and incur late fees. Using a credit card is a relatively new form of payment for securities and will subject you to other risks inherent in this form of payment, including that, if you fail to make credit card payments (e.g. minimum monthly payments), you risk damaging your credit score and payment by credit card may be more susceptible to abuse than other forms of payment. Moreover, where a third-party payment processor is used, as in this offering, your recovery options in the case of disputes may be limited. The increased costs due to transaction fees and interest may reduce the return on your investment. The SEC's Office of Investor Education and Advocacy issued an Investor Alert dated February 14, 2018, entitled: Credit Cards and Investments – A Risky Combination, which explains these and other risks you may want to consider before using a credit card to pay for your investment.

Noncompliance with laws and regulations may impair our ability to arrange or service the Avila Agreement. Generally, failure to comply with the laws and regulatory requirements applicable to our business may, among other things, limit our ability to collect all or part of the payments under the Avila Agreements and, in addition, could subject us to damages, class action lawsuits, administrative enforcement actions, and civil and criminal liability, which may harm our business and may result in Avila attempting to rescind the Avila Agreement. For example, if we were deemed to be an investment company under the Investment Company Act, we would be required to institute burdensome compliance requirements and our activities may be restricted, which would materially adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations. The Company could also become subject to regulatory fines and penalties, and with investors having a right to rescind their investments.

If we were deemed an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "1940 Act"), applicable restrictions could make it impractical for us to continue our business as contemplated and could have a material adverse effect on our business. A company will generally be deemed to be an "investment company" for purposes of the 1940 Act if: (1) it is or holds itself out as being engaged primarily, or proposes to engage primarily, in the business of investing, reinvesting or trading in securities; or (2) it owns or proposes to acquire "investment securities", including investment contracts, having a value exceeding 40% of the value of its total assets. We believe that we are not and will not be primarily engaged in the business of investing, reinvesting, or trading in securities, and we do not hold ourselves out as being engaged in those activities. We intend to hold ourselves out as a company engaged in the business of generating income based on our responsibilities and the income of athletes under the Player Agreements. Furthermore, while certain revenue-sharing agreements may be deemed to be investment contracts, and thus securities, we do not believe that the Player Agreements would be deemed to be investment contracts. If we were required to register as an investment company but failed to do so, the consequences could be severe. Among the various remedies the SEC may pursue, it may seek an order of a court to enjoin us from continuing to operate as an unregistered investment company. In addition, all contracts that we have entered into in the course of our business, including securities that we have offered and sold to investors, will be rendered unenforceable except to the extent of any equitable remedies that might apply. An affected investor in such a case may pursue the remedy of rescission.

Future fundraising may affect the rights of investors. In order to fund operations, the Company plans to raise additional funds in the future, either by offerings of securities or through borrowing from banks or other sources. The terms of future capital raising, such as loan agreements, may include covenants that give creditors greater rights over the financial resources of the Company.

The certificate of incorporation and the subscription agreement have forum selection provisions that require that certain disputes be resolved in state or federal courts in the State of Delaware for the certificate of incorporation and the Southern District of the State of California for the subscription agreement, regardless of convenience or cost to you, the investor. Section 21 of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation provides that federal and state courts within the State of Delaware are the exclusive forums for the following types of actions or proceedings under Delaware statutory or common law:

- any derivative action or proceeding brought on our behalf;
- any action asserting a breach of fiduciary duty;
- any action asserting a claim against us arising under the Delaware General Corporation Law, our certificate of incorporation, certificate of designations or our bylaws; and
- any action asserting a claim against us that is governed by the internal-affairs doctrine.

Section 21 shall not apply to suits brought to enforce any liability or duty under the Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Securities Act, or any claim for which federal courts have exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction. Further, in order to invest in this offering, investors agree to resolve disputes arising under the subscription agreement in state or federal courts located in the Southern District of California, for the purpose of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon the agreement, including those related federal securities laws. Section 22 of the Securities Act creates concurrent jurisdiction for federal and state courts over all suits brought to enforce any duty or liability created by the Securities Act or the rules and regulations thereunder. We believe that the exclusive forum provision applies to claims arising under the Securities Act, but there is uncertainty as to whether a court would enforce such a provision in this context. Investors will not be deemed to have waived the company's compliance with the federal securities laws and the rules and regulations thereunder. This forum selection provision may limit your ability to obtain a favorable judicial forum for disputes with us. Alternatively, if a court were to find the provision inapplicable to, or unenforceable in an action, we may incur additional costs associated with resolving such matters in other jurisdictions, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition or results of operations.

Investors in this offering may not be entitled to a jury trial concerning claims arising under the subscription agreement, which could result in less favorable outcomes to the plaintiff(s) in any action under the agreement. Investors in this offering will be bound by the subscription agreement, which includes a provision under which investors waive the right to a jury trial of any claim they may have against the company arising out of or relating to the agreement, including any claims made under the federal securities laws. By signing the agreement, the investor warrants that the investor has reviewed this waiver with his or her legal counsel, and knowingly and voluntarily waives the investor's jury trial rights following consultation with the investor's legal counsel. If we opposed a jury trial demand based on the waiver, a court would determine whether the waiver was enforceable based on the facts and circumstances of that case in accordance with the applicable state and federal law. To our knowledge, the enforceability of a contractual pre-dispute jury trial waiver in connection with claims arising under the federal securities laws has not been finally adjudicated by a federal court. However, we believe that a contractual pre-dispute jury trial waiver provision is generally enforceable, including under the laws of the State of Delaware, which governs the agreement. In determining whether to enforce a contractual pre-dispute jury trial waiver provision, courts will generally consider whether the visibility of the jury trial waiver provision within the agreement is sufficiently prominent such that a party knowingly, intelligently and voluntarily waived the right to a jury trial. We believe that this is the case with respect to the subscription agreement. You should consult legal counsel regarding the jury waiver provision before entering into the subscription agreement. If you bring a claim against the Company in connection with matters arising under the agreement, including claims under the federal securities laws, you may not be entitled to a jury trial with respect to those claims, which may have the effect of limiting and discouraging lawsuits against the Company. If a lawsuit is brought against the company under the agreement, it may be heard only by a judge or justice of the applicable trial court, which would be conducted according to different civil procedures and may result in different outcomes than a trial by jury would have had, including results that could be less favorable to the plaintiff(s) in such an action. Nevertheless, if the jury trial waiver provision is not permitted by applicable law, an action could proceed under the terms the agreement with a jury trial. No condition, stipulation or provision of the subscription agreement serves as a waiver by any holder of the Company's securities, or by the Company, of compliance with any substantive provision of the federal securities laws and the rules and regulations promulgated under those laws. In addition, if the shares are transferred, the transferee is required to agree to all the same conditions, obligations and restrictions applicable to the shares or to the transferor with regard to ownership of the Shares, that were in effect immediately prior to the transfer of the Shares, including but not limited to the subscription agreement.

Provisions of Note in the Company's Subscription Agreement and Certificate of Incorporation

Forum Selection Provision

The exclusive forum provisions in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and the subscription agreement may have the effect of limiting an investor's ability to bring legal action against the Company and could limit an investor's ability to obtain a favorable judicial forum for disputes. Section 21 of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation provides that federal and state courts within the State of Delaware are the exclusive forums for the following types of actions or proceedings under Delaware statutory or common law:

- any derivative action or proceeding brought on our behalf;
- any action asserting a breach of fiduciary duty;
- any action asserting a claim against us arising under the Delaware General Corporation Law, our certificate of incorporation, certificate of designations or our bylaws; and
- any action asserting a claim against us that is governed by the internal-affairs doctrine.

Section 21 shall not apply to suits brought to enforce any liability or duty under the Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Securities Act, or any claim for which federal courts have exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction.

Further, under Section 6 of the subscription agreement investors agree to resolve disputes arising under the subscription agreement in federal and state courts in the Southern District of the State of California.

While the Delaware courts have determined that such choice of forum provisions are facially valid, a stockholder may nevertheless seek to bring a claim in a venue other than those designated in the exclusive forum provisions. In such instance, we would expect to assert the validity and enforceability of the exclusive forum provisions of our amended and restated certificate of incorporation. This may require significant additional costs associated with resolving such action in other jurisdictions and there can be no assurance that the provisions will be enforced by a court in those other jurisdictions.

These exclusive forum provisions may limit a stockholder's ability to bring a claim in a judicial forum that it finds favorable for disputes with us or our directors, officers, or other employees, which may discourage lawsuits against us and our directors, officers and other employees. If a court were to find either exclusive-forum provision in our amended and restated certificate of incorporation to be inapplicable or unenforceable in an action, we may incur additional costs associated with resolving the dispute in other jurisdictions, which could seriously harm our business.

Jury Trial Waiver

The Subscription Agreement that investors will execute in connection with the offering provides that subscribers waive the right to a jury trial of any claim they may have against us arising out of or relating to the Agreement, other than claims arising under federal securities laws. If the Company opposed a jury trial demand based on the waiver, a court would determine whether the waiver was enforceable given the facts and circumstances of that case in accordance with applicable case law. In addition, by agreeing to the provision, subscribers will not be deemed to have waived the Company's compliance with the federal securities laws and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Perks. Investors who sign a subscription agreement after the filing of this material amendment (tentatively April 29, 2026), will receive a digital stock certificate. Issuer may, from time to time, offer additional non-material perks (such as merchandise or experiences) at its discretion. These perks are promotional in nature and do not alter the terms of the securities being offered. All such perks will be presented on the offering page.

Transfer Agent. The Company has engaged Nevada Agency and Transfer Company (NATCO), with its offices located at 50 W Liberty St #880, Reno, NV 89501, as its transfer agent to maintain current records of investors.

What it means to be a minority holder. As an investor in Preferred Stock of the Company, you will not have any rights in regards to the corporate actions of the Company, including additional issuances of securities, Company repurchases of securities, a sale of the Company or its significant assets, or company transactions with related parties. Investors in this offering will hold non-voting interests, potentially with rights less than those of other investors, and will have limited influence on the corporate actions of the Company.

Transferability of securities. For a year, the securities can only be resold:

- In an IPO or other public offering registered with the SEC;
- To the Company;
- To an accredited investor; and
- To a member of the family of the investor or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the investor, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the investor or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the investor or other similar circumstance.

How we determined the offering price. The Company is offering shares of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock, which entitles investors to distributions based on Player Payments, if any, that relate to the Player Agreement with Avila. The Company determined the offering price of the securities and therefore the value by reference to its transaction costs as well as its internal estimates on the potential earnings for Avila.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Finlete Funding, Inc. (the "Company") which comprises the balance sheets as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Substantial Doubt About the Company's Ability to Continue as a Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As described in Note 2 to the financial statements, the Company plans to incur significant costs in pursuit of its capital financing plans, has limited liquid assets to satisfy its obligations, has incurred a net loss of $316,131 for the year ended December 31, 2025, and as of December 31, 2025, had a working capital deficit of $52,301 and an accumulated deficit of $316,131. These factors, among others, raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 2. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2025 AND 2024 AND FOR THE YEARS THEN ENDED

NOTE 1: NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Finlete Funding, Inc. (the "Company") is a corporation organized on December 19, 2023 under the laws of Delaware. The Company has been formed to sign agreements with professional athletes and sell interests in those agreements via Regulation Crowdfunding.

The Company is a subsidiary of Finlete, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Parent" or "Manager"). Finlete, Inc. provides sports fans the unique opportunity to buy interests in professional athletes and win together both emotionally and financially throughout their careers. Finlete, Inc. is aiming to democratize access to these opportunities so that anyone can partake.

The Company commenced its principal activities during the year ended 2024. Since inception, the Company's activities have primarily consisted of formation and organizational activities, preparations to raise capital, capital raising activities, and initial operational activities related to entering into athlete agreements and managing related investments.

During the year ended 2025, the Company progressed further in the execution of its business model and expanded its operational activities. This included entering into multiple athlete-related investment arrangements and designating several series of preferred stock associated with such agreements. These include preferred stock related to Jhostynxon Garcia, Emiliano Teodo, Tirso Ornelas, Luis Baez, Yairo Padilla, Winston Santos, Reynaldo Yean, Luinder Avila, Aroon Escobar, and Carlos Lagrange. The Company also completed amendments to certain existing designations and obtained the necessary board approvals and regulatory filings in connection with these transactions.

The Company remains dependent upon additional capital resources for the continuation and expansion of its planned principal operations and is subject to significant risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to its ability to secure additional funding to operationalize its planned activities and to operate the business profitably.

NOTE 2: GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company plans to incur significant costs in pursuit of its capital financing plans, has limited liquid assets to satisfy its obligations as they come due, has incurred net loss of $316,131 for the year ended December 31, 2025, and as of December 31, 2025, had a working capital deficit of $52,301 and an accumulated deficit of $316,131. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern for the next twelve months following the date the financial statements were available to be issued is dependent upon its ability to obtain financing from Finlete, Inc. to satisfy its cash flow needs. No assurance can be given that the Company will be successful in these efforts. The Company, from time to time, may receive advances from its parent entity Finlete, Inc., which are expected to be repaid.

These factors, among others, raise substantial doubt about the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time. The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts or the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 3: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP).

The Company utilizes its Parent's centralized processes and systems for administration, accounting, and recordkeeping. The Parent has paid the Company's expenses without requiring repayment and expects to continue to do so for the near term. These financial statements include only those expenses for which the Parent will require repayment from the Company and exclude all other costs incurred on its behalf.

During the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Parent (the "Manager") incurred expenses of $278,433 and $210,977, respectively, on behalf of the Company, which will not be reimbursed, directly or indirectly, by the Company.

In accordance with the guidance provided under Section 7210 of the SEC Financial Reporting Manual, such non-reimbursable costs have been excluded from the Company's accounting records.

Consequently, future results of operations, financial position, and cash flows, should the Company be separated from the Parent or should the Parent no longer agree to cover the Company's expenses, may be materially different from those reflected in these financial statements. Accordingly, the financial statements for these periods are not indicative of the Company's future results of operations, financial position, and cash flows.

The Company adopted the calendar year as its basis of reporting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") guidance specifies a hierarchy of valuation techniques based on whether the inputs to those valuation techniques are observable or unobservable. Observable inputs reflect market data obtained from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect market assumptions. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurement). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the reporting entity has the ability to access at the measurement date. Level 1 primarily consists of financial instruments whose value is based on quoted market prices such as exchange-traded instruments and listed equities.

Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly (e.g., quoted prices of similar assets or liabilities in active markets, or quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active).

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability. Financial instruments are considered Level 3 when their fair values are determined using pricing models, discounted cash flows or similar techniques and at least one significant model assumption or input is unobservable.

The carrying amounts reported in the balance sheets approximate their fair value.

Cash Equivalents and Concentration of Cash Balance

The Company considers all highly liquid securities with an original maturity of less than three months to be cash equivalents.

The Company's cash and cash equivalents in bank deposit accounts, at times, may exceed federally insured limits.

Account Receivable

Accounts receivable was $5,298 and $0 as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively, representing amounts due from atheletes.

Accounts receivable are recorded at the invoiced amount and are non-interest bearing. The Company evaluates the collectability of its receivables on an ongoing basis, considering the credit worthiness of customer and other relevant factors. An allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded when collection is not considered probable. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, no allowance for doubtful accounts has been recorded, as management believes all amounts are fully collectible.

Subscription Receivable

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company had a subscription receivable balance of $1,808 and $8,183, respectively. The subscription receivable represents amounts contractually due from investors for preferred stock that was issued but not fully paid as of the reporting date.

As of December 31, 2025, the balance consists of $931 related to the issuance of Carlos Lagrange Preferred Stock, $457 related to the issuance of Emmanuel Clase Preferred Stock, and $419 related to the issuance of Leonardo Bernal Preferred Stock.

Future Earning Contracts

As of December 31, 2025, the Company had capitalized $442,521 related to future earnings contracts (net of impairment). This balance includes investments of $10,000 in Aaron Escobar, $237,258 in Emmanuel Clase, (fully impaired to $0 carrying value as of December 31, 2025), $50,000 in Echedry Vargas, $13,958 in Carlos Lagrange, $5,000 in Emiliano Teodo, $71,199 in Jhostynxon Garcia, and $55,105 in Leonardo Bernal. These amounts represent upfront payments made by the Company in exchange for contractual rights to receive a portion of the individuals' future earnings.

Future earnings contracts are recorded at cost, representing the consideration paid to acquire such rights. The capitalized amounts are amortized over their estimated useful lives, which for its currently held contracts it estimates to be the difference between the players' age at contract signing and 30 years old being the median retirement age for MLB players. Estimates will be made on a case-by-case basis based on the expected earnings period associated with each contract. Amortization of future earnings contracts of $82,911 was recorded for the year ended December 31, 2025. The balances of future earnings contracts as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 were as follows:

|---|---|---|
| Gross carrying amount | $ 442,521 | $ 157,701 |
| Less: Impairment | $ (171,232) | - |
| Less: Accumulated amortization | $ (82,911) | - |
| Net carrying amount | $ 188,378 | $ 157,701 |

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company continually monitors events and changes in circumstances that could indicate carrying amounts of long-lived assets may not be recoverable. When such events or changes in circumstances are present, and at each reporting date, the Company assesses the recoverability of long-lived assets by determining whether the carrying value of such assets will be recovered through undiscounted expected future cash flows. If the total of the future cash flows is less than the carrying amount of those assets, the Company recognizes an impairment loss based on the excess of the carrying amount over the fair value of the assets. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of the carrying amount or the fair value less costs to sell.

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company recognized a total impairment loss of $171,232. This impairment was recorded following a reassessment of the expected future economic benefits from the underlying contracts. As a result, the carrying value of the Clase contract was reduced to $0.

Organizational Costs

In accordance FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 720, organizational costs, including accounting fees, legal fees, and costs of incorporation, are expensed as incurred.

Revenue Recognition

ASC Topic 606, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers," establishes principles for reporting information about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from the entity's contracts to provide goods and services to customers.

Revenues are recognized when control of the promised goods or services are transferred to a customer, in an amount that reflects the consideration that the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. The Company applies the following five steps in order to determine the appropriate amount of revenue to be recognized as it fulfills its obligations under each of its agreements:

- identification of a contract with a customer;
- identification of the performance obligations in the contract;
- determination of the transaction price;
- allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract; and
- recognition of revenue when or as the performance obligation is satisfied.

Revenues are derived from player agreements executed by the Company. Revenue is recognized at a point in time when the athlete earns the related income and the Company obtains an enforceable right to its contractual share of such income. For the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company earned revenue amounting to $12,811 and 0, respectively.

The revenue recognized during the year ended December 31, 2025 was derived entirely from a single contract with Emmanuel Clase. The Company does not expect this contract to generate any significant future revenues. Accordingly, the Company is subject to significant revenue concentration risk and may experience variability in revenue in future periods as it continues to develop its portfolio of future earnings contracts.

Advertising and Promotion

Advertising and promotional costs are expensed as incurred.

Research and Development Costs

Costs incurred in the research and development of the Company's activities are expensed as incurred.

Income Taxes

The Company uses the liability method of accounting for income taxes as set forth in ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under the liability method, deferred taxes are determined based on the temporary differences between the financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities using tax rates expected to be in effect during the years in which the basis differences reverse. A valuation allowance is recorded when it is unlikely that the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

The Company assesses its income tax positions and record tax benefits for all years subject to examination based upon our evaluation of the facts, circumstances and information available at the reporting date. In accordance with ASC 740-10, for those tax positions where there is a greater than 50% likelihood that a tax benefit will be sustained, the Company's policy is to record the largest amount of tax benefit that is more likely than not to be realized upon ultimate settlement with a taxing authority that has full knowledge of all relevant information. For those income tax positions where there is less than 50% likelihood that a tax benefit will be sustained, no tax benefit will be recognized in the financial statements. The Company has evaluated its income tax positions and has determined that it does not have any uncertain tax positions. The Company will recognize interest and penalties related to any uncertain tax positions through its income tax expense.

The Company accounts for income taxes with the recognition of estimated income taxes payable or refundable on income tax returns for the current period and for the estimated future tax effect attributable to temporary differences and carryforwards. Measurement of deferred income items is based on enacted tax laws including applicable tax rates. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance for those tax benefits that are not expected to be realized.

As of December 31, 2025, the Company has net operating loss ("NOL") carryforwards of approximately $316,310, which may be available to offset future taxable income, subject to applicable limitations. These NOLs give rise to deferred tax assets; however, as this represents the Company's first year of operations and it does not have a sufficient history of generating taxable income, management has concluded that it is more likely than not that these deferred tax assets will not be realized. Accordingly, a full valuation allowance has been recorded against the deferred tax assets. As a result, the net deferred tax assets as of December 31, 2025 are nil, and the Company has not recognized any income tax provision or benefit for the year.

The Company has not yet filed its U.S. federal or state income tax returns. The Company expects to file income tax returns in jurisdictions in which it has established nexus.

Net Loss per Share

Net earnings or loss per share is computed by dividing net income or loss by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period, excluding shares subject to redemption or forfeiture. The Company presents basic and diluted net earnings or loss per share. Diluted net earnings or loss per share reflect the actual weighted average of common shares issued and outstanding during the period, adjusted for potentially dilutive securities outstanding.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company reported a net loss of $316,131. The weighted average number of common shares outstanding, basic and diluted, was 10 shares. Accordingly, net loss per common share, basic and diluted, was $31,613. For the year ended December 31, 2024, the Company did not report earnings attributable to common stockholders, and weighted average common shares outstanding were 10 shares.

Offering Costs

The Company complies with the requirements of ASC 340-10-S99-1. Prior to the completion of an offering, offering costs are capitalized. The deferred offering costs are charged to stockholders' equity upon the completion of an offering or to expense if the offering is not completed.

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company incurred offering costs $16,450, $8,820, and $10,171 for offering costs associated with the Emmanuel Clase, Leonardo Bernal, and Jhostynxon Garcia offerings, respectively. These amounts were treated as offering costs and recorded as a reduction to additional paid-in capital in the accompanying financial statements.

During the year ended December 31, 2024, the Company incurred offering costs $50,752 and $28,288 for offering costs associated with the Emmanuel Clase and Echedry Vargas offerings, respectively. These amounts were treated as offering costs and recorded as a reduction to additional paid-in capital in the accompanying financial statements. Of such amounts $54,818 were incurred by the Parent on the Company's behalf and recorded to due to related party liabilities.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting standards could have a material effect on the accompanying financial statements. As new accounting pronouncements are issued, we will adopt those that are applicable under the circumstances.

(i) 10% of the Player Payments shall be retained and utilized by the Company, or may be paid to the holders of the common stock as a dividend or other distribution, as determined by the Board of Directors.

(ii) 90% of the Player Payments, less any taxes payable by the Company with respect to the receipt of the Player Payments (such amount, the "Participation Amount") shall be paid to the holders with respect to their Emmauel Clase Stock on a pro rata basis based on the number of shares of Emmauel Clase Stock issued and outstanding and held by the holders as of the time of such distribution.

The Emmanuel Clase Stock shall not participate in any dividends, distributions or other payments to be paid to the common stock or any other class or series of preferred stock, whether a dividend or other distribution or payment on liquidation or dissolution of the Company.

Why I'm raising capital

Ever since I was a kid in Venezuela, baseball has been my world. I spent countless hours on fields in my hometown dreaming about one day playing in the United States. I signed with the Kansas City Royals and took my first real step toward that dream.

I just got off the injured list in the first week of August. I am back in Triple-A, working every day to earn a call-up to the Royals major league team.

The minor league season is long, there is a lot of travel, and staying healthy takes resources beyond what's provided. That's why I'm raising funds on Finlete, to help be the best, healthiest, most focused player I can be.

Your support means more than you know. If you choose to be part of this journey, I'll carry that with me every time I pitch.

Outstanding effort from the Royals bullpen tonight, especially Luinder Avila (2.0 IP), Lucas Erceg (2.0 IP), & Carlos Estévez (1.0) who combined for 5.0 scoreless to end the game.

First career win for Avila. First six-out appearance of the year for Erceg. 39th save for Estévez.

Luinder Avila is gonna be a big league starter some day. My goodness this kid is put together. 6' 3" 22-year old is one of the best pitchers in all of MiLB the last few seasons at keeping the ball in the yard. Limits walks. FAQs

Frequently asked questions

What types of securities are being sold?

Finlete allows fans to acquire a stake in the potential future earnings of promising athletes, sharing in their success both emotionally and financially.

What is a future earnings contract?

A future earnings contract is an agreement where one party receives capital in exchange for giving the other party a percentage of their future earnings. In Finlete's case, the future earnings received from athletes includes salaries, performance bonuses, and other earnings directly related to income received from the team or league they play for. Expressly excluded is any income the athlete might earn from sponsorships, endorsements, investments, or any off-the-field activities.

When does Finlete begin receiving earnings from the athlete? When do investors begin receiving dividends?

When and if they are on a Major League contract. Once this occurs, dividends will be paid out to investors annually.

How long does Finlete receive earnings from the athlete?

For 25 years. Practically speaking, this means we will receive earnings from the athlete for the duration of their career as a professional baseball player, or at least the vast majority of it.

Why do athletes do these deals?

Athletes often choose to enter into future earnings contracts for two key reasons. The upfront payment from a future earnings contract allows athletes to invest in themselves. They can use the funds to access better success, helping them reach their full potential. By entering into a future earnings contract, athletes offer their fans a unique opportunity to be part of their journey. Fans can financially support the athlete's career and share in their success as the athlete progresses. This creates a deeper connection between the athlete and their supporters, allowing fans to feel more invested—both emotionally and financially—in the athlete's future achievements.

How much of the athlete's earnings will I get? —

Every share is effectively entitled to 0.000009% of their pre-tax future professional baseball earnings, subject to receipt by Finlete, less amounts withheld for taxes and amounts that are subject to payment or repayment per the Player Agreement and/or another contract, agreement, or law.

Why invest in startups? —

Regulation CF allows investors to invest in startups and early-growth companies. This is different from helping a company raise money on Kickstarter; with Regulation CF Offerings, you aren't buying products or merchandise - you are buying a piece of a company and helping it grow.

How much can I invest? —

Accredited investors can invest as much as they want. But if you are NOT an accredited investor, your investment limit depends on either your annual income or net worth, whichever is greater. If the number is less than $124,000, you can only invest 5% of it. If both are greater than $124,000 then your investment limit is 10%.

How do I calculate my net worth? —

To calculate your net worth, just add up all of your assets and subtract all of your liabilities (excluding the value of the person's primary residence). The resulting sum is your net worth.

What are the tax implications of an equity crowdfunding investment? —

We cannot give tax advice, and we encourage you to talk with your accountant or tax advisor before making an investment.

Who can invest in a Regulation CF Offering? —

Individuals over 18 years of age can invest.

What do I need to know about early-stage investing? Are these investments risky? —

There will always be some risk involved when investing in a startup or small business. And the earlier you get in the more risk that is usually present. If a young company goes out of business, your ownership interest could lose all value. You may have limited voting power to direct the company due to dilution over time. You may also have to wait about five to seven years (if ever) for an exit via acquisition, IPO, etc. Because early-stage companies are still in the process of perfecting their products, services, and business model, nothing is guaranteed. That's why startups should only be part of a more balanced, overall investment portfolio.

When will I get my investment back? —

The Preferred Stock (the "Shares") of Finlete Funding, Inc. (the "Company") is not publicly traded. As a result, the shares cannot be easily traded or sold. The primary return on investment for this offering will come through dividends based on the athlete's potential future earnings. Additionally, the Company may build an alternative trading system through which you would be able to buy and sell shares at any time, but this is not guaranteed and should not be relied upon when making an investment decision.

Can I sell my shares? —

Shares sold via Regulation Crowdfunding offerings have a one-year lockup period before those shares can be sold under certain conditions. Exceptions to limitations on selling shares during the one-year lockup period: In the event of death, divorce, or similar circumstance, shares can be transferred to: (1) The company that issued the securities; (2) An accredited investor; (3) A family member (child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or equivalent, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law, including adoptive relationships).

What happens if a company does not reach their funding target? —

Section 20. Indemnification.

(a) Indemnification in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 20(c) and Section 20(j), the Corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL and applicable Delaware law as in effect at any time, indemnify, hold harmless and defend any person who: (i) was or is a director or officer of the Corporation or was or is a director or officer of a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation, and (ii) was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to, or was or is otherwise directly involved in (including as a witness), any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that such person was or is a director or officer of the Corporation or any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation, or was or is serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, partner, member or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity or in any other capacity, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea or nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that such person's conduct was unlawful.

(b) Indemnification in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 20(c) and Section 20(j), the Corporation shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend any person who: (i) was or is a director or officer of the Corporation or was or is a director or officer of a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation, and (ii) was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to, or was or is otherwise directly involved in (including as a witness), any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person was or is a director or officer of the Corporation or any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation, or was or is serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, partner, member or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, and whether the basis of such action, suit or proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity or in any other capacity, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the Courts in the State of Delaware or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court in the State of Delaware or such other court shall deem proper.

(c) Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification or defense under this Section 20 (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because such person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 20(a) or Section 20(b), as the case may be. Such determination shall be made, with respect to a person who is a director or officer at the time of such determination,: (i) by directors constituting a majority of the Board and who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, or (ii) by a committee of such directors designated by a majority of the Board who are not parties to such action, even though less than a quorum, or (iii) if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iv) by the stockholders. Such determination shall be made, with respect to former directors and officers, by any person or persons having the authority to act on the matter on behalf of the Corporation. To the extent, however, that a present or former director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding set forth in Section 20(a) or Section 20(b) or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

(d) Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 20(c), a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful, if such person's action is based on good faith reliance on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to such person by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 20(d) shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person was or is serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, partner, member or agent. The provisions of this Section 20(d) shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 20(a) or Section 20(b), as the case may be.

(e) Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by a current or former director or officer in defending any action, suit or proceeding described in Section 20(a) or Section 20(b) shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Section 20.

(f) Non-exclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification, defense and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Section 20 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the Certificate, any agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Section 20(a) or Section 20(b) shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. The provisions of this Section 20 shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of, or advancement of expenses to, any person who is not specified in Section 20(a) or Section 20(b) but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the DGCL or otherwise.

(g) Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who was or is a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation, or was or is serving at the request of the Corporation, as a director, officer, employee, partner, member or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify, hold harmless or defend such person against such liability under the provisions of this Section 20.

(h) Certain Definitions. For purposes of this Section 20 references to the "Corporation" shall include, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, employees or agents so that any person who was or is a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or was or is serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee, partner, member or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Section 20 with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as such person would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued. For purposes of this Section 20, references to "fines" shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect of any employee benefit plan; and references to "serving at the request of the Corporation" shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner "not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation" as referred to in this Section 20.

(i) Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification, defense and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 20 shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(j) Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 20 to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification and defense under this Section 20 (which shall be governed by Section 20(k)(ii)), the Corporation shall not be obligated under this Section 20 to indemnify, hold harmless or defend any director, officer, employee or agent in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board. Notwithstanding anything contained in this to the contrary, the prevailing party shall not be entitled to recover from the other party reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the prosecution or defense of such action to the extent that such fees, costs and expenses relate to "internal corporate claims" as defined in Section 109(b) of the DGCL.

(k) Contract Rights.

(i) The obligations of the Corporation under this Section 20 to indemnify, hold harmless and defend a person who was or is a director or officer of the Corporation or was or is a director or officer of a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation, including the duty to advance expenses, shall be considered a contract between the Corporation and such person, and no modification or repeal of any provision of this Section 20 shall affect, to the detriment of such person, such obligations of the Corporation in connection with a claim based on any act or failure to act occurring before such modification or repeal.

(ii) If a claim under Section 20(a), Section 20(b) or Section 20(e) is not paid in full by the Corporation within 90 days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 45 days, the person making such claim may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, if successful in whole or in part in any such suit, or in a suit brought by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, such person shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by such person to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by such person to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense, and (ii) in any suit brought by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that such person has not met any applicable standard for indemnification set forth in the DGCL. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its directors who are not parties to such action, a committee of such directors, independent legal counsel or its Stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of such person is proper in the circumstances because such person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the DGCL, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its directors who are not parties to such action, a committee of such directors, independent legal counsel or its Stockholders) that such person has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall create a presumption that such person has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by such person, be a defense to such suit.

(l) Indemnification Agreements. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Corporation shall have the express authority to enter into such agreements as the Board deems appropriate for the indemnification of present or future directors and officers of the Corporation in connection with their service to, or status with, the Corporation or any other corporation, entity or enterprise with whom such person is serving at the express written request of the Corporation.

Section 21. Forum Selection. Unless the Corporation consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of the Corporation, (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any director, officer or other employee of the Corporation to the Corporation or the Corporation's stockholders, (iii) an action asserting a claim arising pursuant to any provision of the DGCL, or (iv) any action asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine shall be a state or federal court located within the state of Delaware, in all cases subject to the court's having personal jurisdiction over the indispensable parties named as defendants. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the exclusive forum provision will not apply to suits brought to enforce any liability or duty created by the Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any claim for which the federal courts have exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction.

Section 22. Headings. The headings contained herein are for convenience only, do not constitute a part of this Certificate of Incorporation and shall not be deemed to limit or affect any of the provisions hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed this Certificate of Incorporation as of December 16, 2023.

CERTIFICATE OF DESIGNATIONS OF PREFERENCES AND RIGHTS OF LUINDER AVILA PREFERRED STOCK OF FINLETE FUNDING, INC.

a Delaware corporation

Pursuant to Section 151 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, Finlete Funding, Inc. (the "Corporation"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, does hereby file this Certificate of Designations of Preferences and Rights of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock and DOES HEREBY CERTIFY that pursuant to the authority contained in the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation, and pursuant to Section 151 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and in accordance with the provisions of the resolution creating a series of the class of the Corporation's authorized Preferred Stock designated as the Luinder Avila Preferred Stock, as follows:

FIRST: The Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation authorizes the issuance by the Corporation of 1,000 shares of common stock, $0.00001 par value per share (the "Common Stock") and 2,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.00001 per share (the "Preferred Stock"), and, further, authorizes the Board of Directors of the Corporation, to provide for the issue of all or any of the shares of the Preferred Stock in one or more series, and to fix the number of shares and to determine or alter for each such series, such voting powers, full or limited, or no voting powers, and such designation, preferences, and relative, participating, optional, or other rights and such qualifications, limitations, or restrictions thereof, as shall be stated and expressed in the resolution or resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors providing for the issuance of such shares and as may be permitted by the Delaware General Corporation law.

SECOND: By unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors of the Corporation dated July 24, 2025, the Board of Directors designated 75,000 shares of the Preferred Stock as Luinder Avila Preferred Stock, par value $0.00001 per share, pursuant to a resolution providing that a series of preferred stock of the Corporation be and hereby is created, and that the designation and number of shares thereof and the voting and other powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other rights of the shares of such series and the qualifications, limitations and restrictions thereof are as follows:

LUINDER AVILA PREFERRED STOCK

Section 1. Powers and Rights of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock. There is hereby designated a class of Preferred Stock of the Corporation as the Luinder Avila Preferred Stock, par value $0.00001 per share, of the Corporation (the "Luinder Avila Stock"). The number of shares, powers, terms, conditions, designations, preferences and privileges, relative, participating, optional and other special rights, and qualifications, limitations and restrictions, if any, of the Luinder Avila Stock shall be as set forth in this Certificate of Designations of Preferences and Rights of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock (this "Certificate of Designations"). For purposes hereon, a holder of a share or shares of Luinder Avila Stock, with respect to their rights as related to the Luinder Avila Stock, shall be referred to as a "Holder".

Section 2. Number. The number of authorized shares of Luinder Avila Stock is 75,000 shares.

Section 3. Player Payments and Distributions.

(a) Player. For purposes of this Certificate of Designations, the "Player" shall mean Luinder Avila, who is a party to a "Player Agreement" between the Corporation and Player, and the Luinder Avila Stock has been created, and is being issued by the Corporation, in order to raise funds that will be paid to the Player pursuant to the Player Agreement, which Player Agreement shall thereafter provide that the Corporation shall have the right to receive a specific portion of certain future earnings of the Player (the "Player Payments").

(b) Participation. Subject to any limitations of applicable law and the other provisions herein, the Player Payments actually received by the Corporation shall be allocated as follows:

(i) A percentage of the Player Payments equal to 0.0009 multiplied by the number of issued and outstanding shares of Luinder Avila Stock as of the last date of the Measurement Period (as defined below) (such percentage, the "Holder Percentage"), less any taxes payable by the Corporation with respect to the receipt of the Player Payments (such amount, the "Participation Amount") shall be paid to the Holders with respect to their Luinder Avila Stock on a pro rata basis based on the number of shares of Luinder Avila Stock issued and outstanding and held by the Holders as of the time of such distribution, subject to the additional provisions herein (each, a "Distribution"). By way of example and not limitation, in the event that there are 50,000 shares of Luinder Avila Stock issued and outstanding as of the last date of the Measurement Period, the Holder Percentage would be 45% of the Player Payments, less any taxes payable by the Corporation with respect to the receipt of the Player Payments. The Corporation shall make a Distribution at least quarterly on a calendar quarter basis, within 10 Business Days of the end of the prior calendar quarter, but may make Distributions more frequently if so determined by the Board, and the Board shall set the record date for the payment of any Distribution, and shall determine any shorter period to which such Distribution applies, if not paid on a calendar quarterly basis (as applicable, the "Measurement Period"). The Participation Amount may be reduced by any amounts of the Player Payments that may have been received by the Corporation but which are subject to payment or repayment pursuant to the Player Agreement or under any other contract, agreement or applicable law, and thereafter such reduction amounts shall be added back to the Participation Amount at the time that such amounts are no longer subject to any possibility of payment or repayment.

(ii) The Distributions shall be apportioned between the issued and outstanding shares of Luinder Avila Stock based on the number of days that each share of Luinder Avila Stock has been issued and outstanding in the applicable Measurement Period, as compared to the total shares of Luinder Avila Stock and the total number of days that all shares of Luinder Avila Stock have been issued and outstanding in the applicable Measurement Period. By way of example, and not limitation, in the event that the Measurement Period was 90 days, and assuming that there are two Holders, with the first ("Holder 1") holding 100 shares of Luinder Avila Stock, which were issued and outstanding for 90 days in the Measurement Period, and with the second ("Holder 2") holding 200 shares of Luinder Avila Stock, which were issued and outstanding for 10 days in the Measurement Period, there would be a total of 11,000 "days outstanding" in such Measurement Period (100 shares for 90 days = 9,000, plus 200 shares for 10 days = 2,000), and Holder 1 (subject to the provisions of Section 3(b)(iii)) would be entitled to receive 81.81% (9,000 divided by 11,000) of the total Distribution for such Measurement Period, and Holder 2 (subject to the provisions of Section 3(b)(iii)) would be entitled to receive 18.19% (2,000 divided by 11,000) of the total Distribution for such Measurement Period.

(iii) For the avoidance of doubt, the Distributions shall be apportioned between the issued and outstanding shares of Luinder Avila Stock as set forth in Section 3(b)(i) and Section 3(b)(ii), but shall be paid to the Holder holding such shares of Luinder Avila Stock as of the record date for the payment of such Distribution.

(iv) The remaining amount of the Player Payments in excess of the Participation Amount (i.e., 100% minus the Holder Percentage (the "Corporation Percentage"), multiplied by the Player Payments) shall be retained and utilized by the Corporation, or may be paid to the holders of the common stock, par value $0.00001 per share, of the Corporation (the "Common Stock") as a dividend or other distribution, or may be paid to holders of other classes of Preferred Stock of the Corporation as a dividend or other distribution, in each case as determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. By way of example and not limitation, in the event that the Holder Percentage is 45%, the Corporation Percentage would be 55%.

Section 4. Participation. The Luinder Avila Stock shall not participate in any dividends, distributions or other payments to be paid to the Common Stock or any other class or series of Preferred Stock, whether a dividend or other distribution or payment on liquidation or dissolution of the Corporation.

Section 5. No Conversion. The Luinder Avila Stock is not convertible into any other securities of the Corporation.

Section 6. Vote. Other than as may be required by applicable law or as set forth in Section 7, the Luinder Avila Stock shall not have any voting power, per share or otherwise, and shall not be entitled to vote on any matter submitted to the holders of the Common Stock, or any class thereof, or any other class or series of Preferred Stock, for a vote.

Section 7. Amendment and Protective Provisions. The Corporation may not, and shall not, amend or repeal this Certificate of Designations in any manner that would be material and adverse to the Holders without the prior written consent of Holders holding a majority of the Luinder Avila Stock then issued and outstanding, in which vote each share of Luinder Avila Stock then issued and outstanding shall have one vote, voting separately as a single class, in person or by proxy, either in writing without a meeting or at an annual or a special meeting of such Holders, and any such act or transaction entered into without such vote or consent shall be null and void ab initio, and of no force or effect, and provided that any amendment of this Certificate of Designations to increase or decrease the number of authorized shares of Luinder Avila Stock shall not be deemed to be material or adverse to the Holders, and the Holders shall have no right to vote on, and the Luinder Avila Stock shall have no vote with respect to, any such amendment.

Section 8. Redemption. Upon termination of the Player Agreement for any reason, all issued and outstanding shares of Luinder Avila Stock shall be deemed automatically redeemed in return for Distributions previously made, or if no such Distributions have been made, then in return for the payment of $1.00 to each share of Luinder Avila Stock, and thereafter shall be automatically returned to the Corporation and shall constitute authorized and unissued shares of Luinder Avila Stock.

Section 9. Miscellaneous.

(a) Legend. Any certificates representing the Luinder Avila Stock shall bear a restrictive legend in substantially the following form (and a stop transfer order may be placed against transfer of such stock certificates):

> THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, NOR REGISTERED NOR QUALIFIED UNDER ANY STATE SECURITIES LAWS. SUCH SECURITIES MAY NOT BE OFFERED FOR SALE, SOLD, DELIVERED AFTER SALE, TRANSFERRED, PLEDGED, OR HYPOTHECATED UNLESS QUALIFIED AND REGISTERED UNDER APPLICABLE STATE AND FEDERAL SECURITIES LAWS OR UNLESS, IN THE OPINION OF COUNSEL REASONABLY SATISFACTORY TO THE COMPANY, SUCH QUALIFICATION AND REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED. ANY TRANSFER OF THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE IS FURTHER SUBJECT TO OTHER RESTRICTIONS, TERMS AND CONDITIONS WHICH ARE SET FORTH HEREIN.

(b) Lost or Mutilated Luinder Avila Stock Certificate. If the certificate for the Luinder Avila Stock held by the Holder thereof shall be mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, the Corporation shall execute and deliver, in exchange and substitution for and upon cancellation of a mutilated certificate, or in lieu of or in substitution for a lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, a new certificate for the share of Luinder Avila Stock so mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed but only upon receipt of evidence of such loss, theft or destruction of such certificate, and of the ownership hereof, and indemnity, if requested, all reasonably satisfactory to the Corporation.

(c) Interpretation. If a Holder shall commence an action or proceeding to enforce any provisions of this Certificate of Designations, then the prevailing party in such action or proceeding shall be reimbursed by the other party for its attorneys' fees and other costs and expenses incurred with the investigation, preparation and prosecution of such action or proceeding.

(d) Waiver. Any waiver by the Corporation or a Holder of a breach of any provision of this Certificate of Designations shall not operate as or be construed to be a waiver of any other breach of such provision or of any breach of any other provision of this Certificate of Designations. The failure of the Corporation or a Holder to insist upon strict adherence to any term of this Certificate of Designations on one or more occasions shall not be considered a waiver or deprive that party of the right thereafter to insist upon strict adherence to that term or any other term of this Certificate of Designations. Any waiver must be in writing.

Section 10. Severability. If any provision of this Certificate of Designations is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the balance of this Certificate of Designations shall remain in effect, and if any provision is inapplicable to any person or circumstance, it shall nevertheless remain applicable to all other persons and circumstances. If it shall be found that any interest or other amount deemed interest due hereunder violates applicable laws governing usury, the applicable rate of interest due hereunder shall automatically be lowered to equal the maximum permitted rate of interest.

WITNESS WHEREOF, Finlete Funding, Inc. has caused this Certificate of Designations to be signed by a duly authorized officer on this 24th day of July 2025.

ATHLETE AGREEMENT

Baseball

Dated as of March 21, 2025

This Athlete Agreement (this "Agreement") is entered into by and between Finlete Funding, Inc. a Delaware corporation ("Finlete"), and Luinder Gabriel Avila ("Athlete"), as of the date first set forth above (the "Effective Date"). For the purposes of this Agreement, Finlete and Athlete each may be referred to herein as a "Party" and together as the "Parties." Any capitalized terms have the meaning set forth in this Agreement.

WHEREAS, the Parties recognize that successful baseball careers depend on numerous factors within and outside of a player's control, and that baseball players may earn substantial salaries over the course of their careers or may only be able to play baseball for a short period of time, that the future earnings of minor league baseball players are especially variable and uncertain, and thus, the Parties desire to share the risks associated with the uncertainty of Player's potential earnings; and

WHEREAS, Athlete understands the risk that if he has a successful career, payments to Finlete may substantially exceed the Finlete Payment (defined below) and likewise, Finlete understands the risk that it will not be paid at all if Athlete is not Selected (as defined below) or that it may never receive payments in excess of the Finlete Payment;

WHEREAS, to resolve any disputes that may arise under or relate to this Agreement, the Parties agree to binding arbitration on an individual basis before a neutral arbitrator as detailed in Article IX of the Agreement and recognize this Agreement waives both Parties' right to seek relief in court for any claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Parties' relationship; and

WHEREAS, Athlete understands Athlete may be responsible for legal fees and costs generated by any attempt to void this Agreement as further detailed herein, including in Section 9.01(e);

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

Article II. PAYMENTS.

Section 2.01 Finlete Payment.

(a) Finlete, subject to the terms and conditions herein, shall make payments to Athlete in an aggregate amount of up to $100,000.00 (the "Finlete Payment") in consideration for up to a 1.0% interest in Athlete's Professional Earnings for a period of 25 years from the Effective Date of this Agreement if Athlete is Selected during that period. The Parties may at any time elect to increase the amount of the Finlete Payment to an amount in excess of the amount that is set forth herein, and in such event the Parties will reasonably cooperate to prepare and execute an amendment to this Agreement to set forth the revised Finlete Payment and the revised percentage of interest in Athlete's Professional Earnings that shall be payable to Finlete.

(b) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and in consideration for the right to receive the Athlete Payments (as defined in Section 2.02), Finlete, in its discretion, may fund, and Athlete agrees to accept, the Finlete Payment, which shall be tendered in installments of $1.00 each, over the Funding Period (each such payment may be referred to herein as an "Installment Payment").

(i) Finlete shall, with one or more subsidiaries or affiliates, make commercially reasonable efforts over the Funding Period to raise capital from third-party investors seeking to secure rights to a portion of the Athlete Payments.

(ii) Finlete shall manage and direct use of the capital raised over the Funding Period to cause tender of Installment Payments, up to the amount of the Finlete Payment.

(iii) Finlete shall use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly tender Installment Payments as capital becomes available and to tender the final installment payments promptly after the Funding Period, once sufficient funds are settled in the germane Finlete Payment account held for benefit of Athlete.

(iv) Finlete does not guaranty or warranty its ability to successfully raise sufficient capital to pay Athlete all or part of the Finlete Payment.

(v) Installment Payments shall be paid by Finlete to Athlete by check to the address for Athlete as set forth on the signature page hereof, or by wire transfer pursuant to the wire transfer instructions as set forth on Annex 1 attached hereto, as elected by Finlete.

(c) The Finlete Payment is not a loan and Athlete is not responsible for paying any amounts to Finlete unless Athlete is Selected, as further described herein.

Section 2.02 Athlete Payments. "Athlete Payments" are 0.00001% of Athlete's Professional Earnings over the Term for each Installment Payment made by Finlete to Athlete up to a total of 1.0% of Athlete's Professional Earnings over the Term, payable as provided for in Section 2.02(a).

(a) Obligation to Make Payments. Athlete shall have no obligation to make any Athlete Payments to Finlete unless and until the Athlete is Selected. Athlete shall have no obligation to pay to Finlete any difference between the aggregate payments made by Athlete to Finlete during the Term, on the one hand, and the Finlete Payment, on the other hand, where the former is less than the latter.

(b) Timing of Athlete Payments. Except as provided in Section 2.03(c), which applies to guaranteed contracts with a Team, Athlete shall make Athlete Payments to Finlete in two (2) installments during each Season, regardless of the league in which Athlete plays, generally as follows: (i) (50%) of Athlete Payments due from the beginning of the Season through the U.S. Major League Baseball All-Star Game during such Season, which shall be paid within five (5) business days after the U.S. Major League Baseball All-Star Game during such Season; (ii) if the Team does not qualify for the playoffs, the balance of Athlete Payments for the Season, which payment shall be paid within five (5) business days after the conclusion of the regular season; and (iii) if the Team qualifies for the playoffs, the balance of the Athlete Payments due from the date of the U.S. Major League Baseball All-Star Game through the earlier of (x) the conclusion of the Team's season if it is eliminated from contention for the World Series, and (y) the conclusion of the World Series, which shall be paid by February 1 of the following year. In the event no U.S. Major League Baseball All-Star Game is played in a given Season for any reason, the payment due under clause (i) above shall be due by July 10 of such year. In the event no U.S. Major League Baseball World Series is played in a given year for any reason, the Athlete Payment due under clause (iii) above shall be due by November 10 of such year. In the event useful and convenient due to differences in timing of payments of non-MLB Major League salary payments, Athlete will reasonably cooperate with Finlete in annually splitting Athlete Payments into two installments spanning roughly equal length or duration.

(c) Athlete Payments Proportional to Finlete Payment. For avoidance of doubt and as indicated by the definition of Athlete Payments, once Athlete is obligated hereunder to commence tendering Athlete Payments, the percentage of Athlete Payments to be made is intended to be proportional to the corresponding percentage of the Finlete Payment tendered to Athlete following close of the Funding Period. For example, if Finlete tenders the full amount of the original Finlete Payment (100%) to Athlete following the end of the Funding Period, Athlete shall tender the full 1.0% of Athlete's Professional Earnings over the Term, whereas if Finlete only tenders half of the Finlete Payment to Athlete following the end of the Funding Period, then Athlete is only obligated to tender half of such amount, or 0.5%, of Athlete's Professional Earnings, over the Term.

Section 2.03 Assisting Finlete in Receiving Athlete Payments. Athlete shall to take all reasonable steps to ensure prompt tender of Athlete Payments to Finlete owed under this Agreement, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Automatic Withdrawal of Athlete Payments. If Athlete enters into a guaranteed Contract, Athlete shall cooperate with Finlete to arrange for the automatic withdrawal and payment to Finlete of the Athlete Payments from all payments to the Athlete under the guaranteed Contract. Athlete shall tender the Athlete Payments to Finlete consistently with the terms of Section 2.02(a); provided, however, that in no case shall any Athlete Payments be delivered later than fifteen (15) days following receipt of such funds by Athlete (or any other person or entity on behalf of Athlete). To the extent that Finlete and Athlete are not able to come to a mutually agreeable method for automatic payment to Finlete of the Athlete Payments, Athlete authorizes Finlete to deliver a Payment Instruction Letter to each payor of Professional Earnings, directing the payor to reassign to Finlete and tender directly to Finlete the Athlete Payments. Athlete shall be solely responsible for ensuring that Athlete Payments are timely tendered to Finlete and no failure of automatic withdrawal or debit shall excuse, alter, amend, modify or diminish Athlete's payment obligations hereunder.

(b) Assignment of Athletes Right to Receive Athlete Payments. To secure Finlete's right to receive the Athlete Payments, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, Athlete hereby assigns, as and when earned, or shall assign when Athlete has an assignable interest in any future Athlete Payments, to Finlete, all right, title and interest in and to the Athlete Payments.

(c) Earnings Under Guaranteed Contracts. If Athlete is playing under a Contract, all earnings qualify as Professional Earnings even if Athlete is playing for a minor league team, or not playing at all, at the time the payments are made.

(d) Effect of Marriage on Athlete Payments. Athlete shall, if applicable, use their best efforts to secure the signature of Athlete's spouse in substantially the form of spousal consent attached hereto as Exhibit D. In the event that Athlete fails to secure such signature, and as a result a portion of the Professional Earnings of Athlete is deemed "community property," or Athlete's spouse can otherwise claim legal ownership to any Professional Earnings, then Athlete shall nonetheless be required to calculate and deliver any installment payments of the Athlete Payments based on the entirety of the Professional Earnings as applicable, including any such portion thereof that is deemed to be such spouse's share of community property or otherwise property of such spouse.

Section 2.04 Taxes. Athlete shall be solely responsible the payment of any tax and governmental fee(s) assessed on the Finlete Payment. Finlete shall not indemnify or "gross up" Athlete for the amount of any tax, withholding or government fee. Athlete shall promptly indemnify, defend and hold Finlete harmless from and against any tax, withholding, penalty or interest, or other fee which the Athlete is obligated to make arising from or related to Athlete's receipt of the Finlete Payment, to the extent it is claimed against, imposed upon or suffered by Finlete or which Finlete may incur as a result of Finlete's failure to deduct and withhold from the Finlete Payment.

Section 2.05 Payment Method. Except as otherwise approved by Finlete in writing or to the extent that Athlete Payments are made directly to Finlete pursuant to a Payment Instruction Letter, each installment payment of the Athlete Payments shall be made via bank wire transfer pursuant to wire transfer instructions provided by Finlete to Athlete in writing, as may be updated by Finlete from time to time.

Section 2.06 Additional Payment Terms.

(a) In the event Athlete is prohibited from making payment of any installment of the Athlete Payments at the time when it is due and payable to Finlete hereunder by reason of any applicable law, Athlete shall promptly notify Finlete and, at Finlete's request, Athlete shall deposit any such blocked funds to the credit of Finlete in a bank or banks or other depository institution as permitted by law and designated in writing by Finlete, or tender payment to such persons or entities as Finlete may designate in writing from time to time.

(b) Athlete acknowledges and agrees that time is of the essence in connection with performance of Athlete's payment obligations hereunder. In the event that any payment due to Finlete hereunder is not paid in full by the applicable date due, then, without limiting any other rights or remedies of Finlete, (a) Athlete shall also pay to Finlete interest on such amount, at the rate of the lesser of (i) one percent (1%) per month; or (ii) the maximum rate permitted by New York law, measured from the date such amount was due until it is fully paid; (b) all amounts that are to be payable to Finlete during the Term from all Contracts shall become immediately due and payable; and (c) Athlete shall reimburse Finlete for all costs and expenses (including related attorneys' fees and costs) incurred by Finlete in connection with collecting or attempting to collect such payment.

(c) Finlete reserves its rights to rely on information provided by third parties to determine Athlete's Professional Earnings from which Athlete Payments are due and owing hereunder. If either Party has reason to believe that the calculation of Professional Earnings, Athlete Payments or Installment Payments is in error, or the amounts tendered via automatic withdrawal or otherwise hereunder are in error, they will notify the other Party and the Parties will reasonably cooperate and work together in good faith to cure any overpayment or underpayment to Finlete or Athlete, as the case may be.

Section 2.07 Records; Audit Rights. Athlete shall maintain until at least twelve (12) months after the end of the Term, records of all IRS Form W-2s relating to Professional Earnings during the Term. During the Term and for twelve (12) months thereafter, Finlete or its representatives may, no more than once every twelve (12) months and upon no less than ten (10) days advance written notice, inspect and make copies of Athlete's tax returns and other business records and agreements for the purpose of verifying the amount of the Athlete Payments. Such audit shall be at Finlete's sole cost and expense; provided, however, that if an audit reveals underpayment of any Athlete Payments owed greater than five percent (5%), Athlete shall promptly reimburse Finlete for each such underpayment together with interest as provided for in clause (a) of Section 2.06(b) and, in addition to the reimbursement of any underpayment(s), Athlete shall also promptly reimburse Finlete for the reasonable costs of the audit.

(e) Finlete shall have the right to publish public announcements, press releases or advertisements announcing Athlete's appearances under this Agreement.

Section 3.02 Grant of Non-exclusive License to Finlete. In consideration of the right to the Finlete Payment and the other terms and conditions herein, Athlete grants to Finlete, throughout the Term, a worldwide, royalty-free, fully paid-up, assignable, transferrable, sub-licensable, non-exclusive right and license to use, copy, modify, make derivative works of, create, have made, distribute, have distributed, trade, have traded, sell and have sold Athlete's name, image, likeness, voice and personal background and history (collectively, such name, image, likeness, voice and personal background and history or any portions thereof may be referenced herein as "NIL"), in any media now known or later invented, and to combine the same with digital or physical materials created by or through Finlete or its subsidiaries or affiliates, or with third parties, for any purpose permitted by law, including without limitation: (i) sale or distribution of pictures, photographs, audio and video recordings, digital images, social media content, advertising, sales and marketing brochures, books, magazines, other publications, CDs, DVDs, tapes, autographs and digital and physical autographed products; (ii) developing, producing, coordinating, promoting and collecting fees in connection with events and experiences involving Athlete or Athlete's NIL; (iii) promoting and publicizing Finlete or any Finlete subsidiary or affiliate. Liquidation shall be consistent with the covenants set forth in clause (d) of Section 5.01 and shall be governed by the survival of the terms and conditions hereof as described in Section 10.06.

Section 3.04 Autographs; Team Events.

(a) Athlete shall, annually over the Term if requested by Finlete in writing (email shall suffice), autograph at least one hundred (100) items tendered to Athlete by Finlete. The items for Athlete to autograph shall be selected by Finlete and tendered to Athlete at Finlete's sole expense. Finlete shall have all right, title and interest in such autographed items. At Finlete's election, such autographs may be made either (a) in person, at a meeting between Athlete and a representative of Finlete at a mutually agreed upon time and location (such in-person meeting not to exceed one hour); or (b) remotely via the use of a reputable shipping or courier service selected by Finlete and at Finlete's expense, in which case Athlete shall return the autographed items to Finlete in the manner prescribed by Finlete within thirty (30) days after receiving such items. Athlete may, at his option, add tasteful or appropriate custom phrases or messages to the autographed items for Finlete designated recipients, which do not tend to tarnish the reputation of Athlete or Finlete.

(b) During the Term, Athlete shall permit two (2) Finlete representatives or its investor(s) to attend five (5) games per year in which Athlete is participating pursuant to a Contract, at no additional cost to Finlete or such designee(s).

Section 3.05 Obligations of Finlete. Finlete shall have no duties to Athlete other than providing the Finlete Payment and complying with the terms of this Agreement. For avoidance of doubt, Finlete has no duty to provide advice or support to Athlete regarding Athlete's professional career or earnings.

Finlete shall have the option, exercisable at its sole discretion, to acquire the additional interest in future earnings offered by or to Athlete, on the same terms and conditions as the described in the Transfer (such option is referred to herein as the "ROFR"). Finlete shall have thirty (30) days from the date of receiving Athlete's written notice, to exercise the ROFR. Finlete's ROFR shall terminate on the earlier of: (a) when Finlete declines the ROFR, or (b) 30 days after receiving Athlete's written notice of the proposed Transfer. For avoidance of doubt, this Section 3.06 does not apply to non-baseball related earnings such as real estate or similar investment earnings.

Article IV. INFORMATION RIGHTS

Section 4.02 Material Changes. Subject to Athlete's compliance with all applicable rules, regulations, standards or requirements, Athlete shall promptly notify Finlete in writing if at any time during the Term, any of the representations, warranties or covenants made by the Athlete on Exhibit A become untrue or inaccurate in any material respect.

Section 4.03 Contracts. Athlete shall promptly notify Finlete in writing and provide copies of all Contracts and copies of all relevant documents and correspondence related to each such occurrence (including copies of all Contracts), in the event that (a) Athlete receives any notice of termination, cancellation, breach or default under any such Contract; (b) Athlete becomes aware of any event which, with the passage of time or the giving of notice or both, would result in any material default, breach or event of noncompliance by Athlete under any such Contract; (c) Athlete becomes aware that any other party to any such Contract is in material breach thereof; or (d) there are any renegotiations of or outstanding rights to renegotiate any material amounts paid or payable to Athlete under any such Contract with any person or entity, or Athlete receives any demand for such renegotiation.

Section 4.04 Additional Information. Athlete shall promptly provide to Finlete such additional information as Finlete shall reasonably request from time to time, in connection with the Professional Earnings; provided, that Finlete shall use commercially reasonable efforts to limit any such requests to no more than once per calendar quarter.

Article V. REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, AND COVENANTS.

Section 5.01 Mutual Representations, Warranties, and Covenants. Each Party hereby represents and warrants to the other Party that (a) it has all necessary power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform its obligations under this Agreement, and to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; (b) to the best of each Party's knowledge, it is not a Party to any agreement or understanding with any third party that interferes with or will interfere with its performance of its obligations under this Agreement; (c) it has taken all action required to make this Agreement a valid and binding obligation of such Party; and (d) the Parties shall reasonably cooperate in the prompt and orderly liquidation of products in inventory as of the date of expiration or any termination of this Agreement, for twelve (12) months following such expiration or termination.

Section 5.02 Athlete's Representations, Warranties, and Covenants. Athlete hereby represents, warrants and covenants, as applicable, to Finlete that (a) the statements contained in Exhibit A are and will be true and correct as of the Effective Date; (b) Athlete shall not intentionally structure any Contract to avoid making payments that would otherwise be payable under this Agreement; and (c) Athlete has not entered into any agreement with any other person or entity with the exception of Major League Baseball Certified Agents (as defined by the MLBPA Regs) under which such person or entity has the right to receive any portion of Athlete's Professional Earnings, whether in the form of any commission, royalty, or other payment based on a percentage or set amount; (d) following the Effective Date, Athlete shall not grant any right described in clause (c) of Section 5.02 to any third-party without the prior written consent of Finlete; (e) Athlete has carefully read and understands this Agreement, and understands they have had the opportunity to consult with an attorney, agent, and financial advisor before signing this Agreement, and Athlete is entering into this Agreement of Athlete's own free will and under no duress; and (f) Athlete understands the risk that if Athlete has a successful career, payments to Finlete may substantially exceed the Finlete Payment.

Section 5.03 Disclaimer. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, NEITHER PARTY MAKES ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AND TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, EACH PARTY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTIES OF DESIGN, MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE OR NONINFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS, OR WARRANTIES ARISING FROM A COURSE OF DEALING, COURSE OF PERFORMANCE, USAGE OR TRADE PRACTICE. FINLETE DISCLAIMS LIABILITY FOR ANY CLAIM FOR COMMISSION OR ANY FORM OF COMMISSION BY ANY AGENT OF PLAYER.

Article VI. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Section 6.01 Confidential Information. The terms of this Agreement and any additional information provided by Finlete to Athlete prior to and during the Term that Finlete designates as Confidential Information, whether orally or in writing, shall be considered "Confidential Information".

Section 6.02 Use and Disclosure Restrictions. Athlete shall: (a) protect Confidential Information from unauthorized dissemination and use; (b) use Confidential Information only for the performance of this Agreement, the exercise of any rights under this Agreement; (c) not to disclose Confidential Information, or any part or parts thereof, except as set forth in Section 6.03; (d) undertake whatever action is necessary (or authorize Finlete to do so in the name of Athlete) to prevent or remedy any breach confidentiality obligations herein set forth or any other unauthorized disclosure of any Confidential Information; and (e) not remove or destroy any proprietary or confidential legends or markings placed upon or contained within the Confidential Information.

Section 6.03 Exclusions. The foregoing restrictions on disclosure and use shall not apply to any Confidential Information that: (a) is or becomes publicly known through no act or omission of the Athlete; (b) was known by the Athlete without confidential or proprietary restriction before receipt from Finlete; or (c) becomes known to the Athlete without confidential or proprietary restriction. In addition, the Athlete may use or disclose Confidential Information if: (i) approved in writing by Finlete or (ii) the Athlete is legally compelled to disclose such Confidential Information, provided, however, that prior to disclosure, the Athlete shall cooperate with Finlete, at Finlete's expense, in protecting against any such disclosure and/or obtaining a protective order narrowing the scope of such disclosure and/or use of the Confidential Information. Athlete may disclose the terms and conditions of this Agreement: (A) in confidence, to legal counsel; (B) in confidence, to any person or agency with which Athlete has signed a Contract to serve as an athlete and Athlete's accountants and their advisors; and (C) in connection with the enforcement of this Agreement or any rights hereunder.

Section 6.04 Equitable Relief. The Parties agree that, due to the unique nature of Confidential Information, the unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information by Athlete or any other breach of any provision of this Article VI will cause irreparable harm and significant injury to Finlete, the extent of which will be difficult to ascertain and for which there will be no adequate remedy at law. Accordingly, Athlete agrees that Finlete, in addition to any other available remedies, shall have the right to seek an immediate injunction and other equitable relief enjoining any breach or threatened breach of this Article VI without the necessity of posting any bond or other security. Athlete shall notify Finlete in writing immediately upon becoming aware of any such breach or threatened breach.

Article VII. INDEMNIFICATION.

Section 7.01 Indemnification by Athlete. Athlete shall defend, indemnify and hold Finlete, its affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, consultants and independent contractors (collectively, the "Finlete Indemnified Parties") harmless from and against any claim, loss, liability, expense, damage, injury, harm, settlement or cost in connection with, resulting from or arising out of, directly or indirectly (whether or not involving a third party): (a) any breach by Athlete, including directly or indirectly by any Athlete affiliate, agency, agent or other third-party representative, of any of the terms, covenants, conditions, representations or warranties contained in this Agreement; (b) demands for commissions or otherwise of any agent or other third-party representative of Athlete; (c) any Permitted Use to the extent there is no final determination in connection therewith of gross negligence or fraud by Finlete Indemnified Parties; or (d) enforcing the indemnification rights of the Finlete Indemnified Parties hereunder.

Section 7.02 Indemnification Process. In the event that a Finlete Indemnified Party makes or receives any, claim or demand or commencement of any proceeding (a "Claim"), the Finlete Indemnified Party shall promptly deliver a written notice to Athlete of the Claim; provided that delay or failure to notify Athlete shall not relieve Athlete of any liability that it may have to the Finlete Indemnified Party, except to the extent the defense of such Claim is prejudiced by the Finlete Indemnified Party's delay or failure to give such notice. Such notice shall describe in reasonable detail (to the extent known by the Finlete Indemnified Party) the facts constituting the basis for such Claim and the amount of the claimed damages. Within ten (10) days after delivery of such notice, Athlete may, upon written notice thereof to the Finlete Indemnified Party, assume control of the defense of such Claim with Counsel selected by Athlete, subject to the Finlete Indemnified Party's approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. If Athlete does not timely assume control of the defense of the Claim, the Finlete Indemnified Party shall have the right to control such defense but Athlete shall remain responsible for prompt reimbursement to Finlete of fees reasonably incurred by Finlete, including reasonable attorneys', expert witness, accountant and other professionals' fees. Athlete shall have the right to participate in such defense at its own expense. If Athlete controls the defense, it shall not agree to any settlement of, or the entry of any judgment arising from, any Claim without the prior written consent of the Finlete Indemnified Party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

Article VIII. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT TO THE CONTRARY AND TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW: (A) IN NO EVENT SHALL FINLETE BE LIABLE FOR ANY DAMAGES OR OTHER LOSSES FOR LOSS OF PROFITS, LOSS OF BUSINESS, INTERRUPTION OF BUSINESS, OR FOR ANY INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OF ANY KIND OR OTHER ECONOMIC LOSS ARISING FROM OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, EVEN IF FINLETE HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES, HOWEVER CAUSED, AND (B) TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT ALLOWED BY APPLICABLE LAW, FINLETE'S ENTIRE LIABILITY ARISING FROM OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE SUBJECT HEREOF, UNDER ANY LEGAL THEORY (WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, INDEMNITY OR OTHERWISE), IF ANY, SHALL NOT EXCEED THE FINLETE PAYMENT AMOUNT. PLAYER RELEASES FINLETE INDEMNIFIED PARTIES FROM ANY CLAIM, LOSS OR HARM UNDER ANY LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY OF LAW, ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO ANY PERMITTED USE BY FINLETE INDEMNIFIED PARTIES SET FORTH IN Section 3.02.

Article IX. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Section 9.01 Binding Arbitration. All claims with a value of $100,000.00 or more arising out of or relating to this Agreement, including their formation, performance, and breach, as well as any controversy related to the Parties' relationship with each other, shall be finally settled by binding arbitration administered by JAMS in accordance with the provisions of its Comprehensive Arbitration Rules & Procedures, available at https://www.jamsadr.com/rules-comprehensive-arbitration, but excluding any rules or procedures governing or permitting class actions. Claims under $100,000.00 will be governed by JAMS's Streamlined Arbitration Rules, available at https://www.jamsadr.com/rules-streamlined-arbitration/, excluding any rules or procedures governing or permitting class actions.

(a) An arbitration demand shall be made within a reasonable time after the claim, dispute, or other matter in question has arisen, and in no event shall it be made more than two years from when the aggrieved Party knew or should have known of the controversy, claim, dispute, or breach.

(b) The Parties shall negotiate in good faith to agree upon the selection of an arbitrator. If the Parties are not able to agree on an arbitrator, the arbitrator shall be a retired judge or attorney with no less than ten (10) years of experience in resolving disputes among parties in professional sports, the selection of who shall proceed under Rule 12 of the JAMS Streamlined Arbitration Rules.

(c) The arbitrator, and not any federal, state or local court or agency, shall have exclusive authority to resolve all disputes arising out of or relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability or formation of this Agreement, including, but not limited to any claim that all or any part of the terms of this Agreement are void or voidable, or whether a claim is subject to arbitration. The arbitrator shall be empowered to grant whatever relief would be available in a court under law or in equity. The arbitrator's judgment shall be memorialized in an opinion setting forth findings of fact and conclusion of law which shall not exceed ten (10) pages, and binding on the Parties, and may be entered as a judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(d) The Parties understand that, absent this mandatory provision, they would have the right to sue in court and have a jury trial. They further understand that, in some instances, the costs of arbitration could exceed the costs of litigation and the right to discovery may be more limited in arbitration than in court.

(e) If Athlete unsuccessfully attempts to void, nullify, or otherwise terminate this Agreement and is unsuccessful in whole or in part, Athlete agrees to pay all legal fees and costs incurred by Finlete related to the arbitration or legal proceeding in which such challenge has been made.

(f) The Parties further agree that any arbitration shall be conducted in their individual capacities only and not as a class action or other representative action, and the Parties expressly waive their right to file a class action or seek relief on a class basis. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT EACH MAY BRING CLAIMS AGAINST THE OTHER ONLY IN AN INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY, AND NOT AS A PLAINTIFF OR CLASS MEMBER IN ANY PURPORTED CLASS OR REPRESENTATIVE PROCEEDING. If any court or arbitrator determines that the class action waiver set forth in this paragraph is void or unenforceable for any reason or that an arbitration can proceed on a class basis, then the arbitration provisions set forth in this Section 9.01 shall be void in its entirety and the Parties shall be deemed to have not agreed to arbitrate disputes.

(g) The arbitration proceedings and arbitration award shall be maintained by the Parties as strictly confidential, except as is otherwise required by court order or as is necessary to confirm, vacate or enforce the award and for disclosure in confidence to the Parties' respective attorneys, tax advisors and senior management and to family members of Athlete.

(h) Any Arbitration shall be conducted in San Diego, California. The Parties agree to submit to the personal jurisdiction of the Selected Courts (as defined below), in order to compel arbitration, to stay proceedings pending arbitration, or to confirm, modify, vacate or enter judgment on the award entered by the arbitrator.

Section 9.02 Governing Law. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of New York as applied to agreements wholly signed and performed within the State of New York. Subject to the provisions of Section 9.01 each of the Parties (a) irrevocably consents and agrees that any legal or equitable action or proceedings arising under or in connection with this Agreement shall be brought exclusively in the state of Florida courts or federal courts of the United States with jurisdiction in New York City, New York (the "Selected Courts"). By execution and delivery of this Agreement, each Party hereto irrevocably submits to and accepts, with respect to any such action or proceeding, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction of the Selected Courts, and irrevocably waives any and all rights such Party may now or hereafter have to object to such jurisdiction.

Article X. TERM AND TERMINATION.

Section 10.01 Term. This term of this Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and, unless sooner terminated by either Party in accordance with this Agreement, shall continue in full force and effect until the twenty-fifth (25th) anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Term").

Section 10.02 Termination by Mutual Consent. The Agreement may be terminated by mutual written consent of Athlete and Finlete.

Section 10.03 Termination for Breach. Either Party may terminate this Agreement if the other Party is in breach of this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days after delivery of a written notice of such breach by the non-breaching Party.

Section 10.05 Additional Termination Provisions. This Agreement is not terminated by voluntary retirement or unconditional release under any circumstances.

Section 10.06 Effect of Termination. The provisions of Section 2.01, Section 2.02 (to the extent that any Athlete Payments due thereunder remain payable after termination or expiration of this Agreement) and Section 2.03, Section 2.04, Section 2.06, Section 2.07, Article IV, Article V, Article VI, Article VII, Article VIII, Section 10.04 and Article XI shall survive the expiration or any termination of this Agreement, and the provisions of Section 3.02 other than rights to make, develop or have made or developed new products, events or experiences shall survive for twelve (12) months following the expiration or any termination of this Agreement. Termination of this Agreement by either Party as provided for in Section 10.03 shall not act as a waiver of any breach of this Agreement and shall not act as a release of either Party from any liability (including, without limitation, for payments) for breach of such Party's obligations under this Agreement. Neither Party shall be liable to the other Party for damages of any kind solely as a result of terminating this Agreement in accordance with its terms, and termination of this Agreement by a Party shall be without prejudice to any other right or remedy of such Party under this Agreement or applicable law.

Article XI. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Section 11.01 Notices. Any notice, request, demand or other communication required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing, including by electronic mail, shall reference this Agreement and shall be deemed to be properly given: (a) when delivered personally or when receipt of email is provided or expressly acknowledged; (b) seven (7) days after having been sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid; or (c) two (2) business days after deposit with a private industry express courier, with written confirmation of receipt. Section 11.04 Waiver. The waiver by either Party of a breach of or a default under any provision of this Agreement, shall be in writing and shall not be construed as a waivel- of any subsequent breach of or default under the same or any other provision of this Agreement, nor shall any delay or omission on the part of either Party to exercise or avail itself of any right or remedy that it has or may have hereunder operate as a waiver of any right or remedy.

Section 11.05 Severability. If the application of any provision of this Agreement to any particular facts or circumstances shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then (a) the validity and enforceability of such provision as applied to any other particular facts or circumstances and the validity of other provisions of this Agreement shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby; and (b) such provision shall be enforced to the maximum extent possible so as to effect the intent of the Parties and reformed without further action by the Parties to the extent necessary to make such provision valid and enforceable.

Subscription Agreement

CROWDFUNDING OFFERING SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

SHARES OF LUINDER AVILA PREFERRED STOCK

FINLETE FUNDING, INC.

This Subscription Agreement relates to my/our agreement to purchase shares of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock, $0.00001 par value per share (the “Shares”), to be issued by Finlete Funding, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), for a purchase price of $1.46 per Share, for a total purchase price described on the signature page to this Agreement. (“Subscription Price”), subject to the terms, conditions, acknowledgments, representations and warranties stated herein and in the Offering Statement for the sale of the Shares, dated August 12, 2025 contained in the offering statement on Form C filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on August 12, 2025 (the “Offering Statement”). Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Offering Statement.

Simultaneously with the execution and delivery hereof, I have paid the Subscription Price in accordance with the online payment process established by the intermediary, DealMaker Securities LLC, a FINRA/SIPC member broker-dealer which is registered with Securities and Exchange Commission and applicable state jurisdictions (“Intermediary”).

The Company is offering up to $109,500 worth of Shares. The minimum target offering is $10,000 (the "Target Offering Amount"). Unless the Company raises at least the Target Offering Amount by August 12, 2026 (the “Termination Date”), no Shares will be sold in this Offering, investment commitments will be cancelled, and committed funds will be returned. The Company will accept oversubscriptions in excess of the Target Amount for the Offering up to $109,500 (the "Maximum Amount") at the Company’s discretion. If the Company reaches its Target Amount prior to the Termination Date, the Company may conduct the first of multiple closings, provided that the Offering Statement has been posted for 21 days and that investors who have committed funds will be provided notice (5) five business days prior to the close. Investors will have up to 48 hours prior to the end of the offering period to change their minds and cancel their investment commitments for any reason. Once the offering period is within 48 hours of ending, investors will not be able to cancel for any reason, even if they make a commitment during this period. The funds constituting the Subscription Price shall be held at Enterprise Bank & Trust until the applicable closing.

In order to induce the Company to accept this Subscription Agreement for the Shares and as further consideration for such acceptance, I hereby make, adopt, confirm and agree to all of the following covenants, acknowledgments, representations and warranties with the full knowledge that the Company and its affiliates will expressly rely thereon in making a decision to accept or reject this Subscription Agreement.

Investor Eligibility Certifications

1. I understand that to purchase Shares, I must either be an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Act"), or, I must limit my investment in the Shares to a maximum as follows, (i) if either my annual income or net worth is less than $124,000, then during any 12-month period, I can only invest up to the greater of either $2,500 or 5% of the greater of my annual income or Net worth or (ii) if both my annual income and net worth are equal to or more than $124,000, then during any 12-month period, I can only invest up to 10% of annual income or net worth, whichever is greater, but the investments cannot exceed $124,000. I understand that if I am a natural person I should determine my net worth for purposes of these representations by calculating the difference between my total assets and total liabilities. I understand this calculation must exclude the value of my primary residence and may exclude any indebtedness secured by my primary residence (up to an amount equal to the value of my primary residence). In the case of fiduciary accounts, net worth and/or income suitability requirements may be satisfied by the beneficiary of the account or by the fiduciary, if the fiduciary directly or indirectly provides funds for the purchase of the Shares.

I hereby represent and warrant that I meet the qualifications to purchase Shares because either (i) if either my annual income or net worth is less than $124,000, the greater of either $2,500 or 5% of the greater of my annual income or Net worth or (ii) if both my annual income and net worth are equal to or more than $124,000, then either 10% of annual income or net worth, whichever is greater, but my not exceeding $124,000, or I am an accredited investor and have completed the accredited investor certification as described on the signature page.

2. I understand that the Company reserves the right to, in its sole discretion, accept or reject this subscription, in whole or in part, for any reason whatsoever.

3. I have received and read the Offering Statement and have been informed of my right to cancel the investment up to 48-hours prior to the end of the offering period.

4. I hereby agree that any and all disputes, claims, or controversies arising out of, relating to, or in connection with this Subscription Agreement, including but not limited to its formation, performance, or breach, shall be resolved exclusively by the federal and state courts located in the Southern District of the State of California. Each party irrevocably submits to the personal jurisdiction of such courts for the purpose of any suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Subscription Agreement and agrees that such courts are a convenient forum for such purposes. This provision shall not be construed to waive any rights that are not capable of being waived under applicable law. By signing this Subscription Agreement, each investor acknowledges and agrees to the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal and state courts in the Southern District of the State of California for the resolution of any disputes arising under this agreement.

5. I accept the terms of the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company and the Certificate of Designations of Preferences and Rights of Luinder Avila Preferred Stock of the Company.

6. I am purchasing the Shares for my own account.

7. I understand that the Shares have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act, by reason of a specific exemption from the registration provisions of the Securities Act which depends upon, among other things, the bona fide nature of the investment intent and the accuracy of my representations as expressed herein. I understand that the Shares are "restricted securities" under applicable U.S. federal and state securities laws and that, pursuant to these laws, I must hold the Shares indefinitely unless they are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and qualified by state authorities, or an exemption from such registration and qualification requirements is available. I acknowledge that the Company has no obligation to register or qualify the Shares for resale. I further acknowledge that if an exemption from registration or qualification is available, it may be conditioned on various requirements including, but not limited to, the time and manner of sale, the holding period for the Shares, and on requirements relating to the Company which are outside of my control, and which the Company is under no obligation and may not be able to satisfy.

8. I hereby represent and warrant that I am not on, and am not acting as an agent, representative, intermediary or nominee for any person identified on, the list of blocked persons maintained by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, U.S. Department of Treasury. In addition, I have complied with all applicable U.S. laws, regulations, directives, and executive orders relating to anti-money laundering, including but not limited to the following laws: (1) the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001, Public Law 107-56; and (2) Executive Order 13224 (Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions with Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism) of September 23, 2001. By making the foregoing representations you have not waived any right of action you may have under federal or state securities law. Any such waiver would be unenforceable. The Company will assert your representations as a defense in any subsequent litigation where such assertion would be relevant. This Subscription Agreement and all rights hereunder shall be governed by, and interpreted in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to the principles of conflict of laws.

9. I acknowledge that I have read the educational materials on the landing page, and has been informed of Subscriber's right to cancel the investment up to 48 hours before the Termination Date (defined below); however, once the Subscription Agreement is accepted by the Company and Crowdfunding Issuer there is no cancelation right.

10. I acknowledge that there may be promoters for this Offering, and in the case that there are any communications from promoters, the promoter must clearly disclose in all communications the receipt of compensation, and that the promoter is engaged in promotional activities on behalf of the Company. A promoter may be any person who promotes the Company's offering for compensation, whether past or prospective or who is a founder or an employee of an issuer that engages in promotional activities on behalf of the Company.

11. The Company has agreed to pay Intermediary eight and one-half percent (8.5%) commission and a $1,000 activation fee.

12. Digital ("electronic") signatures, often referred to as an "e-signature", enable paperless contracts and help speed up business transactions. The 2001 E-Sign Act was meant to ease the adoption of electronic signatures. The mechanics of this Subscription Agreement's electronic signature include your signing this Subscription Agreement below by typing in your name, with the underlying software recording your IP address, your browser identification, the timestamp, and a securities hash within an SSL encrypted environment. This electronically signed Subscription Agreement will be available to both you and the Company, as well as any associated brokers, so they can store and access it at any time, and it will be stored by and accessible from the online platform established by Intermediary. You and the Company each hereby consent and agree that electronically signing this Subscription Agreement constitutes your signature, acceptance and agreement as if actually signed by you in writing. Further, all parties agree that no certification authority or other third party verification is necessary to validate any electronic signature; and that the lack of such certification or third party verification will not in any way affect the enforceability of your signature or resulting contract between you and the Company. You understand and agree that your e-signature executed in conjunction with the electronic submission of this Subscription Agreement shall be legally binding and such transaction shall be considered authorized by you. You agree your electronic signature is the legal equivalent of your manual signature on this Subscription Agreement and you consent to be legally bound by this Subscription Agreement's terms and conditions. Furthermore, you and the Company each hereby agree that all current and future notices, confirmations and other communications regarding this Subscription Agreement specifically, and future communications in general between the parties, may be made by email, sent to the email address of record as set forth in this Subscription Agreement or as otherwise from time to time changed or updated and disclosed to the other party, without necessity of confirmation of receipt, delivery or reading, and such form of electronic communication is sufficient for all matters regarding the relationship between the parties. If any such electronically sent communication fails to be received for any reason, including but not limited to such communication being diverted to the recipient's spam filters by the recipient's email service provider, or due to a recipient's change of address, or due to technology issues by the recipient's service provider, the parties agree that the burden of such failure to receive is on the recipient and not the sender, and that the sender is under no obligation to resend communications via any other means, including but not limited to postal service or overnight courier, and that such communications shall for all purposes, including legal and regulatory, be deemed to have been delivered and received. No physical, paper documents will be sent to you, and if you desire physical documents then you agree to be satisfied by directly and personally printing, at your own expense, the electronically sent communication(s) and maintaining such physical records in any manner or form that you desire.

13. Delivery Instructions. The Company has engaged DealMaker Transfer Agent, LLC as its transfer agent to maintain current records of investors. On closing you will receive a notice of your holdings delivered to the address of record above.

14. Jury Trial Waiver. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT BUT NOT INCLUDING CLAIMS UNDER THE FEDERAL SECURITIES LAWS) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT OR THE ACTIONS OF EITHER PARTY IN THE NEGOTIATION, ADMINISTRATION, PERFORMANCE AND ENFORCEMENT THEREOF. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO ALSO WAIVES ANY BOND OR SURETY OR SECURITY UPON SUCH BOND WHICH MIGHT, BUT FOR THIS WAIVER, BE REQUIRED OF SUCH PARTY. THIS WAIVER IS IRREVOCABLE, MEANING THAT IT MAY NOT BE MODIFIED EITHER ORALLY OR IN WRITING, AND THIS WAIVER SHALL APPLY TO ANY SUBSEQUENT AMENDMENTS, RENEWALS, SUPPLEMENTS OR MODIFICATIONS TO THIS SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT. IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, THIS SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT MAY BE FILED AS A WRITTEN CONSENT TO A TRIAL BY THE COURT. BY AGREEING TO THIS WAIVER, I AM NOT DEEMED TO WAIVE THE COMPANY'S COMPLIANCE WITH THE FEDERAL SECURITIES LAWS AND THE RULES AND REGULATIONS PROMULGATED THEREUNDER.

Your Consent is Hereby Given: By signing this Subscription Agreement electronically, you are explicitly agreeing to receive documents electronically including your copy of this signed Subscription Agreement as well as ongoing disclosures, communications and notices.
