INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

February 19, 2024

Bennett Kim, President
ZNest Seniors Inc
4245 W Landberg Ave
Las Vegas, NV 89141

Dear Bennett Kim

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of ZNest Seniors Inc. (ZNest), which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2022, and the related statements of income, and cash flows for the period then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of ZNest as of December 31, 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS) and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in generally accepted Government Auditing Standards (GAGAS), issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Our responsibility is to express opinions on these financial statements based on our audit. We are required to be independent of ZNest and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about ZNest's ability to continue as a going concern. ZNest Inc is a startup company that is currently receiving funding for working capital. There are no such conditions that I have observed that would raise doubt about ZNest's ability to continue as a going concern.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS and GAGAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of these financial statements. In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS and GAGAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of ZNest's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about ZNest's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit. There were no findings that needed to be reported to ZNest's management.

Very truly yours,

Joseph Ruschak, CPA

If and upon a dissolution event, SAFE holders are entitled to payment of the purchase amount if such funds are available after satisfying senior liquidation rights such as the ZNest's debts and convertible notes. During the year ended December 31, 2022, the ZNest received total gross proceeds of $695,000 from this offering.

Subsequent Events

An independent auditor's report ordinarily is issued in connection with historical financial statements purport to present financial position at a stated date and results of operations and cash flows for a period ended on that date. However, events or transactions sometimes occur subsequent to the balance-sheet date, but prior to the issuance of the financial statements, that have a material effect on the financial statements and therefore require adjustment or disclosure in the statements. These occurrences hereinafter are referred as "subsequent events." We evaluated ZNest through the date of our Audit report, February 19, 2024. We did not find any reportable subsequent events.
