RISK FACTORS

Risks Related to the Company's Business and Industry

The Company's success depends on the experience and skill of the board of directors, its executive officers and key employees.

In particular, the Company is dependent on Samuel Singer who is CEO of the Company. The Company has or intends to enter into employment agreements with Samuel Singer although there can be no assurance that it will do so or that they will continue to be employed by the Company for a particular period of time. The loss of Samuel Singer or any member of the board of directors or executive officer could harm the Company's business, financial condition, cash flow and results of operations.

Although dependent on certain key personnel, the Company does not have any key man life insurance policies on any such people.

The Company is dependent on its Officers in order to conduct its operations and execute its business plan, however, the Company has not purchased any insurance policies with respect to those individuals in the event of their death or disability. Therefore, if any of team members die or become disabled, the Company will not receive any compensation to assist with such a person's absence. The loss of such a person could negatively affect the Company and its operations.

We are subject to income taxes as well as non-income based taxes, such as payroll, sales, use, value-added, net worth, property and goods and services taxes, in both the U.S. and various foreign jurisdictions.

Significant judgment is required in determining our provision for income taxes and other tax liabilities. In the ordinary course of our business, there are many transactions and calculations where the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. Although we believe that our tax estimates are reasonable: (i) there is no assurance that the final determination of tax audits or tax disputes will not be different from what is reflected in our income tax provisions, expense amounts for non-income based taxes and accruals and (ii) any material differences could have an adverse effect on our financial position and results of operations in the period or periods for which determination is made.

We are not subject to Sarbanes-Oxley regulations and lack the financial controls and safeguards required of public companies.

We do not have the internal infrastructure necessary, and are not required, to complete an attestation about our financial controls that would be required under Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. There can be no assurance that there are no significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the quality of our financial controls. We expect to incur additional expenses and diversion of management's time if and when it becomes necessary to perform the system and process evaluation, testing and remediation required in order to comply with the management certification and auditor attestation requirements.

The Company's business operations may be materially adversely affected by a pandemic such as the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak.

In December 2019, a novel strain of coronavirus was reported to have surfaced in Wuhan, China, which spread throughout other parts of the world, including the United States. On January 30, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak of the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) a "Public Health Emergency of International Concern." On January 31, 2020, U.S. Health and Human Services Secretary Alex M. Azar II declared a public health emergency for the United States to aid the U.S. healthcare community in responding to COVID-19, and on March 11, 2020 the World Health Organization characterized the outbreak as a "pandemic." COVID-19 resulted in a widespread health crisis that adversely affected the economies and financial markets worldwide. The Company's business could be materially and adversely affected. The extent to which COVID-19 impacts the Company's business will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted, including new information which may emerge concerning the severity of COVID-19 and the actions to contain COVID-19 or treat its impact, among others. If the disruptions posed by COVID-19 or other matters of global concern continue for an extended period of time, the Company's operations may be materially adversely affected.

Changes in government regulation could adversely impact our business.

The media/internet/entertainment industry is subject to extensive legislation and regulation at the federal and local levels and, in some instances, at the state level. Additionally, our product/services are also subject to regulation, and additional regulation is under consideration. Many aspects of such regulation are currently the subject of judicial and administrative proceedings, legislative and administrative proposals, and lobbying efforts by us and our competitors. Legislation under consideration could entirely rewrite our principal regulatory statute, and the FCC and/or Congress may attempt to change the classification of or change the way that our product or service are regulated and/or change the framework under which broadcast signals are carried, remove the copyright compulsory license and changing rights and obligations of our competitors. We expect that court actions and regulatory proceedings will continue to refine our rights and obligations under applicable federal, state and local laws, which cannot be predicted. Modifications to existing requirements or imposition of new requirements or limitations could have an adverse impact on our business.

New technologies may make our products and services obsolete or unneeded.

New and emerging technological advances, such as mobile computing devices that allow consumers to obtain information and view content may adversely impact or eliminate the demand for our products and services. The increasing availability of content on such devices, the improved video quality of the content on such devices and faster wireless delivery speeds may make individuals less likely to purchase our services. Our success can depend on new product development. The entertainment and communications industry is ever-changing as new technologies are introduced. Advances in technology, such as new video formats, downloading or alternative methods of product delivery and distribution channels, such as the Internet, or certain changes in consumer behavior driven by these or other technologies and methods of delivery, could have a negative effect on our business. These changes could lower cost barriers for our competitors desiring to enter into, or expand their presence in, the interactive services business. Increased competition may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Piracy of the Company's content may decrease the revenues received from the sale of our content and adversely affect our businesses.

The piracy of our content, products and other intellectual property poses significant challenges for us. Technological developments, such as the proliferation of cloud-based storage and streaming, increased broadband Internet speed and penetration and increased speed of mobile data transmission have made it easier to create, transmit, distribute and store high quality unauthorized copies of content in unprotected digital formats, which has in turn encouraged the creation of highly scalable businesses that facilitate, and in many instances financially benefit from, such piracy. Piracy is particularly prevalent in many parts of the world that lack effective copyright and technical legal protections or enforcement measures, and illegitimate operators based in these parts of the world can attract viewers from anywhere in the world. The proliferation of unauthorized copies and piracy of the Company's content, products and intellectual property or the products it licenses from others could result in a reduction of the revenues that the Company receives from the legitimate sale, licensing and distribution of its content and products. The Company devotes substantial resources to protecting its content, products and intellectual property, but there can be no assurance that the Company's efforts to enforce its rights and combat piracy will be successful.

Our success depends on consumer acceptance of our content and we may be adversely affected if our content fails to achieve sufficient consumer acceptance or the costs to create or acquire content increase.

We create and acquire media and entertainment content, the success of which depends substantially on consumer tastes and preferences that change in often unpredictable ways. The success of these businesses depends on our ability to consistently create, acquire, market and distribute content that meets the changing preferences of the broad domestic and international consumer market. We have invested, and will continue to invest, substantial amounts in our content, including in the production of original content, before learning the extent to which it would earn consumer acceptance.

We also may obtain a significant portion of our content from third parties, and other suppliers. Competition for popular content is intense, and we may have to increase the price we are willing to pay or be outbid by our competitors for popular content. Entering into or renewing contracts for such programming rights or acquiring additional rights may result in significantly increased costs. There can be no assurance that revenue from these contracts will exceed our cost for the rights, as well as the other costs of producing and distributing the content. If our content does not achieve sufficient consumer acceptance, or if we cannot obtain or retain rights to popular content on acceptable terms, or at all, our businesses may be adversely affected.

We derive substantial revenues from the sale of advertising, and a decrease in overall advertising expenditures could lead to a reduction in the amount of advertising that companies are willing to purchase and the price at which they purchase it.

Expenditures by advertisers tend to be cyclical and have become less predictable in recent years, reflecting domestic and global economic conditions. If the economic prospects of advertisers or current economic conditions worsen, such conditions could alter current or prospective advertisers' spending priorities. In particular, advertisers in certain industries that are more susceptible to weakness in domestic and global economic conditions, such as beauty, fashion and retail and food, account for a significant portion of our advertising revenues, and weakness in these industries could have a disproportionate negative impact on our advertising revenues.

Declines in consumer spending on advertisers' products due to weak economic conditions could also indirectly negatively impact our advertising revenues, as advertisers may not perceive as much value from advertising if consumers are purchasing fewer of their products or services. As a result, our advertising revenues are less predictable.

We rely heavily on our technology and intellectual property, but we may be unable to adequately or cost-effectively protect or enforce our intellectual property rights, thereby weakening our competitive position and increasing operating costs.

To protect our rights in our services and technology, we rely on a combination of copyright and trademark laws, patents, trade secrets, confidentiality agreements with employees and third parties, and protective contractual provisions. We also rely on laws pertaining to trademarks and domain names to protect the value of our corporate brands and reputation. Despite our efforts to protect our proprietary rights, unauthorized parties may copy aspects of our services or technology, obtain and use information, marks, or technology that we regard as proprietary, or otherwise violate or infringe our intellectual property rights. In addition, it is possible that others could independently develop substantially equivalent intellectual property. If we do not effectively protect our intellectual property, or if others independently develop substantially equivalent intellectual property, our competitive position could be weakened.

Effectively policing the unauthorized use of our services and technology is time-consuming and costly, and the steps taken by us may not prevent misappropriation of our technology or other proprietary assets. The efforts we have taken to protect our proprietary rights may not be sufficient or effective, and unauthorized parties may copy aspects of our services, use similar marks or domain names, or obtain and use information, marks, or technology that we regard as proprietary. We may have to litigate to enforce our intellectual property rights, to protect our trade secrets, or to determine the validity and scope of others' proprietary rights, which are sometimes not clear or may change. Litigation can be time consuming and expensive, and the outcome can be difficult to predict.

Cyclical and seasonal fluctuations in the economy, in internet usage and in traditional retail shopping may have an effect on our business.

Both cyclical and seasonal fluctuations in internet usage and traditional retail seasonality may affect our business. Internet usage generally slows during the summer months, and queries typically increase significantly in the fourth quarter of each year. These seasonal trends may cause fluctuations in our quarterly results, including fluctuations in revenues.

Industry consolidation may result in increased competition, which could result in a loss of customers or a reduction in revenue.

Some of our competitors have made or may make acquisitions or may enter into partnerships or other strategic relationships to offer more comprehensive services than they individually had offered or achieve greater economies of scale. In addition, new entrants not currently considered to be competitors may enter our market through acquisitions, partnerships or strategic relationships. We expect these trends to continue as companies attempt to strengthen or maintain their market positions. The potential entrants may have competitive advantages over us, such as greater name recognition, longer operating histories, more varied services and larger marketing budgets, as well as greater financial, technical and other resources. The companies resulting from combinations or that expand or vertically integrate their business to include the market that we address may create more compelling service offerings and may offer greater pricing flexibility than we can or may engage in business practices that make it more difficult for us to compete effectively, including on the basis of price, sales and marketing programs, technology or service functionality. These pressures could result in a substantial loss of our customers or a reduction in our revenue.

Our business could be negatively impacted by cyber security threats, attacks and other disruptions.

Like others in our industry, we continue to face advanced and persistent attacks on our information infrastructure where we manage and store various proprietary information and sensitive/confidential data relating to our operations. These attacks may include sophisticated malware (viruses, worms, and other malicious software programs) and phishing emails that attack our products or otherwise exploit any security vulnerabilities. These intrusions sometimes may be zero-day malware that are difficult to identify because they are not included in the signature set of commercially available antivirus scanning programs. Experienced computer programmers and hackers may be able to penetrate our network security and misappropriate or compromise our confidential information or that of our customers or other third-parties, create system disruptions, or cause shutdowns. Additionally, sophisticated software and applications that we produce or procure from third-parties may contain defects in design or manufacture, including "bugs" and other problems that could unexpectedly interfere with the operation of the information infrastructure. A disruption, infiltration or failure of our information infrastructure systems or any of our data centers as a result of software or hardware malfunctions, computer viruses, cyber attacks, employee theft or misuse, power disruptions, natural disasters or accidents could cause breaches of data security, loss of critical data and performance delays, which in turn could adversely affect our business.

If we do not respond to technological changes or upgrade our websites and technology systems, our growth prospects and results of operations could be adversely affected.

To remain competitive, we must continue to enhance and improve the functionality and features of our websites and technology infrastructure. As a result, we will need to continue to improve and expand our hosting and network infrastructure and related software capabilities. These improvements may require greater levels of spending than we have experienced in the past. Without such improvements, our operations might suffer from unanticipated system disruptions, slow application performance or unreliable service levels, any of which could negatively affect our reputation and ability to attract and retain customers and contributors. Furthermore, in order to continue to attract and retain new customers, we are likely to incur expenses in connection with continuously updating and improving our user interface and experience. We may face significant delays in introducing new services, products and enhancements. If competitors introduce new products and services using new technologies or if new industry standards and practices emerge, our existing websites and our proprietary technology and systems may become obsolete or less competitive, and our business may be harmed. In addition, the expansion and improvement of our systems and infrastructure may require us to commit substantial financial, operational and technical resources, with no assurance that our business will improve.

Risks Related to the Securities

The Company has the right to extend the Offering deadline.

The Company may extend the Offering deadline beyond what is currently stated herein. This means that your investment may continue to be held in escrow while the Company attempts to raise the Minimum Amount even after the Offering deadline stated herein is reached. Your investment will not be accruing interest during this time and will simply be held until such time as the new Offering deadline is reached without the Company receiving the Minimum Amount, at which time it will be returned to you without interest or deduction, or the Company receives the Minimum Amount, at which time it will be released to the Company to be used as set forth herein. Upon or shortly after release of such funds to the Company, the Securities will be issued and distributed to you.

The Units of SAFE-T will not be freely tradable until one year from the initial purchase date. Although the Units of SAFE-T may be tradable under federal securities law, state securities regulations may apply and each Purchaser should consult with his or her attorney.

You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. There is not now and likely will not be a public market for the Units of SAFE-T. Because the Units of SAFE-T have not been registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state or non-United States jurisdiction, the Units of SAFE-T have transfer restrictions and cannot be resold in the United States except pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation CF. It is not currently contemplated that registration under the Securities Act or other securities laws will be affected. Limitations on the transfer of the Units of SAFE-T may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the Units of SAFE-T in a private sale. Purchasers should be aware of the long-term nature of their investment in the Company. Each Purchaser in this Offering will be required to represent that it is purchasing the Securities for its own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof.

Investors will not have voting rights, even upon conversion of the Securities into Preferred Stock.

Investors will not have the right to vote upon matters of the Company even if and when their Securities are converted into Preferred Stock. Upon such conversion, Preferred Stock will have no voting rights and even in circumstances where a statutory right to vote is provided by state law, the Preferred Stockholders are required to vote with the majority of the security holders in the new round of equity financing upon which the Securities were converted. Thus, Investors will never be able to freely vote upon any director or other matters of the Company.

Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws, leading to an absence of certain regulation applicable to the Company.

No governmental agency has reviewed or passed upon this Offering, the Company or any Securities of the Company. The Company also has relied on exemptions from securities registration requirements under applicable state securities laws. Investors in the Company, therefore, will not receive any of the benefits that such registration would otherwise provide. Prospective investors must therefore assess the adequacy of disclosure and the fairness of the terms of this Offering on their own or in conjunction with their personal advisors.

No Guarantee of Return on Investment

There is no assurance that a Purchaser will realize a return on its investment or that it will not lose its entire investment. For this reason, each Purchaser should read the Form C and all Exhibits carefully and should consult with its own attorney and business advisor prior to making any investment decision.

A majority of the Company is owned by a small number of owners.

Prior to the Offering the Company's current owners of 20% or more beneficially own up to 76.5% of the Company. Subject to any fiduciary duties owed to our other owners or investors under Delaware law, these owners may be able to exercise significant influence over matters requiring owner approval, including the election of directors or managers and approval of significant Company transactions, and will have significant control over the Company's management and policies. Some of these persons may have interests that are different from yours. For example, these owners may support proposals and actions with which you may disagree. The concentration of ownership could delay or prevent a change in control of the Company or otherwise discourage a potential acquirer from attempting to obtain control of the Company, which in turn could reduce the price potential investors are willing to pay for the Company. In addition, these owners could use their voting influence to maintain the Company's existing management, delay or prevent changes in control of the Company, or support or reject other management and board proposals that are subject to owner approval.

The Company has the right to extend the Offering deadline.

The Company may extend the Offering deadline beyond what is currently stated herein. This means that your investment may continue to be held in escrow while the Company attempts to raise the Minimum Amount even after the Offering deadline stated herein is reached. Your investment will not be accruing interest during this time and will simply be held until such time as the new Offering deadline is reached without the Company receiving the Minimum Amount, at which time it will be returned to you without interest or deduction, or the Company receives the Minimum Amount, at which time it will be released to the Company to be used as set forth herein. Upon or shortly after the release of such funds to the Company, the Securities will be issued and distributed to you.

There is no present market for the Securities and we have arbitrarily set the price.

We have arbitrarily set the price of the Securities with reference to the general status of the securities market and other relevant factors. The Offering price for the Securities should not be considered an indication of the actual value of the Securities and is not based on our net worth or prior earnings. We cannot assure you that the Securities could be resold by you at the Offering price or at any other price.

Your ownership of the Securities will be subject to dilution.

Owners of Securities do not have pre-emptive rights. If the Company conducts subsequent Offerings or issuances of Securities, Purchasers in this Offering who do not participate in those other Securities issuances will experience dilution in their percentage ownership of the Company's outstanding Securities. Furthermore, Purchasers may experience a dilution in the value of their interests depending on the terms and pricing of any future Securities issuances (including the Securities being sold in this Offering) and the value of the Company's assets at the time of issuance.

There can be no assurance that we will ever provide liquidity to Purchasers through either a sale of the Company or a registration of the Securities.

There can be no assurance that any form of merger, combination, or sale of the Company will take place, or that any merger, combination, or sale would provide liquidity for Purchasers. Furthermore, we may be unable to register the Securities for resale by Purchasers for legal, commercial, regulatory, market-related or other reasons. In the event that we are unable to effect a registration, Purchasers could be unable to sell their Securities unless an exemption from registration is available.

Income Tax Risks

Each prospective Purchaser is urged to consult with its own representatives, including its own tax and legal advisors, with respect to the federal (as well as state and local) income tax consequences of this investment before purchasing any of the Securities. Certain prospective Purchasers, such as organizations which are exempt from federal income taxes, may be subject to federal and state laws, rules and regulations which may prohibit or adversely affect their investment in the Company. We are not offering you any tax advice upon which you may rely.

In addition to the risks listed above, businesses are often subject to risks not foreseen or fully appreciated by the management. It is not possible to foresee all risks that may affect us. Moreover, the Company cannot predict whether the Company will successfully effectuate the Company's current business plan. Each prospective Purchaser is encouraged to carefully analyze the risks and merits of an investment in the Securities and should take into consideration when making such analysis, among other, the Risk Factors discussed above.

No Inspection or Information Rights.

Investors will not have the right to inspect the books and records of the Company or to receive financial or other information from the Company, other than as required by Regulation CF. Other security holders may have such rights. Regulation CF requires only the provision of an annual report on Form C-AR and no additional information. This lack of information could put Investors at a disadvantage in general and with respect to other security holders.

Investors will be unable to declare the Security in "default" and demand repayment.

Unlike convertible notes and some other securities, the Securities do not have any "default" provisions upon which the Investors will be able to demand repayment of their investment. The Company has ultimate discretion as to whether or not to convert the Securities upon a future equity financing and Investors have no right to demand such conversion. Only in limited circumstances, such as a liquidity event, may the Investors demand payment and even then, such payments will be limited to the amount of cash available to the Company.

The Company may never elect to convert the Securities or undergo a liquidity event.

The Company may never receive a future equity financing or elect to convert the Securities upon such future financing. In addition, the Company may never undergo a liquidity event such as a sale of the Company or an IPO. If neither the conversion of the Securities nor a liquidity event occurs, the Investors could be left holding the Securities in perpetuity. The Securities have numerous transfer restrictions and will likely be highly illiquid, with no secondary market on which to sell them. The Securities are not equity interests, have no ownership rights, have no rights to the Company's assets or profits and have no voting rights or ability to direct the Company or its actions.

In addition to the risks listed above, businesses are often subject to risks not foreseen or fully appreciated by the management. It is not possible to foresee all risks that may affect us. Moreover, the Company cannot predict whether the Company will successfully effectuate the Company's current business plan. Each prospective Purchaser is encouraged to carefully analyze the risks and merits of an investment in the Securities and should take into consideration when making such analysis, among other, the Risk Factors discussed above.

THE SECURITIES OFFERED INVOLVE A HIGH DEGREE OF RISK AND MAY RESULT IN THE LOSS OF YOUR ENTIRE INVESTMENT. ANY PERSON CONSIDERING THE PURCHASE OF THESE SECURITIES SHOULD BE AWARE OF THESE AND OTHER FACTORS SET FORTH IN THIS FORM C AND SHOULD CONSULT WITH HIS OR HER LEGAL, TAX AND FINANCIAL ADVISORS PRIOR TO MAKING AN INVESTMENT IN THE SECURITIES. THE SECURITIES SHOULD ONLY BE PURCHASED BY PERSONS WHO CAN AFFORD TO LOSE ALL OF THEIR INVESTMENT.

The Economic Impact of the Global Non-Profit Sector

GLOBAL CHALLENGES AND URGENCY FOR ACTION

The non-profit sector is a critical player in addressing global issues. Despite its economic significance, numerous challenges remain unresolved. This section explores the economic impact of the global non-profit sector and highlights persistent global issues that necessitate urgent action.

THE ECONOMIC IMPACT OF THE GLOBAL NON-PROFIT SECTOR

The global non-profit sector plays a vital role in the global economy and in addressing pressing societal needs.

Key Statistics:

- Economic Value: The non-profit sector's estimated economic value is $2.2 trillion, comparable to the ninth-largest economy in the world.
- Non-Profit Organizations: There are over ten million non-profit organizations worldwide, including 1.5 million in the U.S. alone.
- Global Participation: More than a billion people globally participate in the non-profit sector.

The sector's economic footprint underscores its potential to drive significant social change. The reason many of these issues remain unsolved is not due to a lack of funding but because the effectiveness of these organizations is hampered by a combination of operational and financial inefficiencies, both of which Earthy is addressing directly.

PERSISTENT GLOBAL ISSUES

Despite considerable resources and efforts directed at solving global challenges, many critical issues remain unresolved.

Key Challenges:

- Food Insecurity: Over 820 million people suffer from food insecurity worldwide, with at least 6,200 children dying daily due to malnutrition-related causes.
- Air Pollution: Air pollution is responsible for approximately 8.43 million premature deaths annually.
- Disasters: In 2023, disasters affected millions globally, with disaster-related giving reaching $32 billion.
- Accountability and Transparency: Only 4.5% of corporate philanthropy offers a searchable grant database, highlighting the need for increased accountability and awareness of how funds are utilized. The lack of reliable data and clear reporting standards often leads to donor mistrust and inefficient allocation of resources.

- Impact Management: Achieving large-scale impact is challenging due to the lack of comprehensive systems to manage the complexities of the philanthropic industry and impact projects. Current platforms are unable to efficiently coordinate efforts, track progress, and measure outcomes.
- Community Engagement: Engaging the global community effectively remains a challenge, as existing platforms do not leverage social and community functionalities to foster collaboration and sustained involvement.

THE NEED FOR A UNIFIED WEB3 PLATFORM

The philanthropic sector faces significant challenges due to the lack of financing, accountability, and the inability to effectively solve complex real-world problems through traditional Web2 or other social platforms. Effective philanthropy requires capabilities such as complex task and people management, event coordination, handling international financial transactions, and ensuring the utmost accountability and efficiency for projects.

The traditional systems often fall short in several critical areas:

- Complex Task Management: Current platforms struggle with managing multi-faceted projects that require coordination across various stakeholders, timelines, and deliverables. A unified Web3 platform will provide a more structured and automated approach to task management, ensuring that all activities are tracked, monitored, and executed efficiently.
- Event Coordination: Organizing and managing events, whether fundraising campaigns, community engagement activities, or project milestones, demands a robust system that can handle multiple facets like scheduling, ticketing, resource allocation, participant engagement, and real-time updates. A unified web3 platform streamlines these processes, offering better tools for both virtual and in person coordination and execution.
- International Financial Transactions: Handling donations and funding across borders involves complex financial regulations and procedures. Traditional systems often face delays and high transaction fees, which can deter donors and impact project funding. A unified web3 platform would use blockchain technology to facilitate faster, more cost-effective and innovative methods of funding important projects internationally, ensuring that funds are transferred securely and transparently.
- Transparency and Accountability: One of the biggest challenges in the philanthropic sector is ensuring that funds are used as intended and that donors can see the impact of their contributions. An AI and blockchain-enabled funding system that is fully automated and scalable globally, would address this issue by ensuring that charitable funds are deployed effectively. Such a system would revolutionize the industry, providing immense benefits to both people and the planet.

By integrating these capabilities into a single, unified platform, Earthy can overcome these challenges and significantly enhance the efficiency and impact of philanthropic efforts. This approach not only addresses the current limitations of Web2 and social media platforms but also introduces new possibilities for collaboration, innovation, and growth within the philanthropic sector.

Technology and Innovation

The "Technology and Innovation" section delves into the core technological components and innovative approaches that underpin Earthy's mission to revolutionize philanthropy. This section outlines how Earthy's blockchain infrastructure, coupled with innovative AI and decentralized technologies, forms a robust foundation for impactful and transparent philanthropic activities. It also highlights the seamless integration of various applications and tools designed to enhance operational efficiency, transparency, and accountability within the philanthropic sector.

Tokenomics

Earthy's token ecosystem is meticulously designed to support seamless transactions, reward community contributions, and establish a resilient governance framework. Through the innovative Proof of Impact (PoI) consensus mechanism, Earthy ensures network security and equitable reward distribution, fostering long-term sustainability and growth.

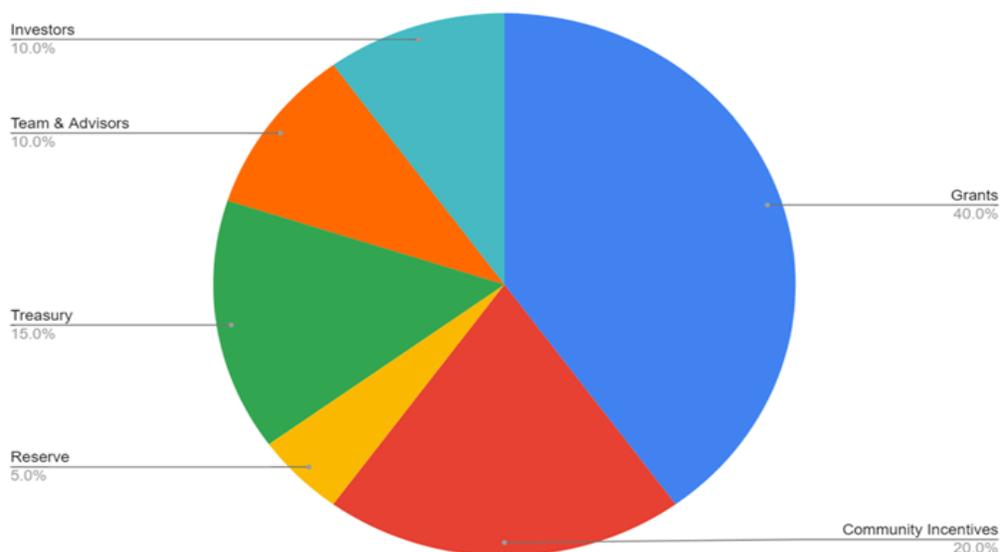

Economic Model Including Incentives, Rewards, and Token Circulation

The PoI consensus mechanism anchors Earthy's economic model. This evolved Proof of Stake (PoS) variant incorporates a dynamic nominator-validator structure. Validators validate blocks and maintain the network, rewarded with Earthy tokens for their technical acumen and infrastructure. Nominators stake Earthy to elect validators and share in the rewards, balancing their risk. A calibrated inflation model with a soft cap supports a stable yet growing supply, key to Earthy's scalability.

Allocation and Emissions: Earthy's token allocation and emission strategy is methodically planned to ensure long-term sustainability and support for various stakeholders within the network. With a total supply capped at 1,000,000,000 Earthy tokens, the distribution extends over a 60-month period to align with Earthy's growth and development goals.

Allocation:

- Investors (10%): Allocated to early backers, recognizing their pivotal role and trust in Earthy's vision.
- Team & Advisors (10%): Reserved for individuals driving Earthy's technological and strategic direction.
- Treasury (15%): Serving as a buffer and resource pool for unforeseen necessities and ongoing operations.
- Reserve (5%): A safeguard to ensure liquidity and address market fluctuations proactively.
- Community Incentives (40%): Aimed at fostering user participation, rewarding contributions, and engaging the broader Earthy community.
- Grants (20%): Dedicated to funding initiatives and projects aligning with Earthy's mission, encouraging innovation and public good development.

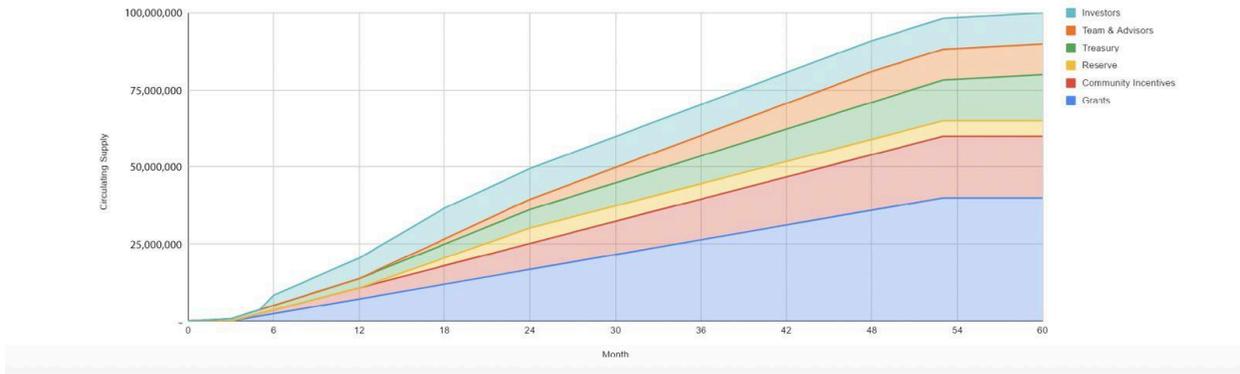

2. EMISSIONS

Earthy's emission strategy focuses on creating a balanced inflow of tokens into the market, utilizing a controlled inflationary mechanism to incentivize network participation without devaluing the token. The emission schedule supports network security, rewards participation, and facilitates the ecosystem's expansion.

- Inflationary Policy: A controlled inflationary mechanism is utilized to incentivize network participation without devaluing the token.
- Emission Schedule: Emissions are carefully scheduled to support network security, reward participation, and facilitate the ecosystem's expansion.
- Rewards for Earthy Stakeholders: Based on participation in user-directed donations, people who stake the token benefit from base and adjustable rewards, encouraging early adoption and securing the network's initial stages.

Emissions

A meticulous emission schedule governs the release of tokens, with an eye on incentivizing network security and participation without fostering inflationary pressures. The system is designed to be a soft cap on inflation because rewards are only minted when claimed, allowing for the possibility that not all allocated rewards are disbursed if they remain unclaimed

Sustainability and Value Capture

Earthy's longevity is rooted in an economic framework that internalizes value via transaction fees, creating a self-sustaining loop that directly finances public goods and reduces external dependency. User-directed donations empower developers, fostering an interdependent ecosystem thriving on collaborative success.

Token Sale and Allocation

With the goal of securing $5.5 million in early funding, Earthy envisions an infrastructure supporting and propelling community-led ventures, laying the groundwork for expansive growth and sustainable platform evolution.

INCENTIVES FOR DEVELOPERS AND STAKERS

A system of user-directed donations incentivizes developers, moving away from traditional funding dependencies. Stakers benefit from the network's growth through potentially appreciating token values and attractive return rates.

IDENTITY AND REPUTATION LAYER

Earthy's identity layer safeguards against fraudulent exploits, ensuring that rewards and governance remain in the hands of verified users. This maintains trust and integrity within the ecosystem. Earthy redistributes network-generated financial value back into public goods, fostering broad-based community involvement and enhancing the spectrum of supported projects.

History of the Business

Earthy was started 9 months ago with the goal to help people around the world and create a platform which unites and empowers individuals to take action in their local areas to make a difference, since then Earthy has worked tirelessly with its team to create world changing products based off of feedback from various environmental and charitable organizations, distilling down how exactly technology could be used to better serve and assist them.

Since then they have developed an entire layer one blockchain network as well as the beta of the application, proving they are not only capable of developing but also very resourceful and dedicated to the mission and vision of the project.

As of recently they realized in order for the project to get the traction and momentum it needs, it needs to raise a lot more funding than it currently has.

The Company is attempting to raise a minimum amount of $50,000 in this Offering (the "Minimum Amount"). The Company must receive commitments from investors in an amount totaling the Minimum Amount by July 10, 2025 (the "Offering Deadline") in order to receive any funds. If the sum of the investment commitments does not equal or exceed the Minimum Amount by the Offering Deadline, no Securities will be sold in the Offering, investment commitments will be cancelled and committed funds will be returned to potential investors without interest or deductions. If a Purchaser does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the terms of the Offering, the Purchaser's investment commitment will be canceled and the committed funds will be returned without interest or deductions. Events

Liquidity Event. If there is a Liquidity Event before the termination of this SAFE-T, this SAFE-T will automatically be entitled (subject to the liquidation priority set forth in Section 1(e) below) to receive a portion of Proceeds, due and payable to the Investor immediately prior to, or concurrent with, the consummation of such Liquidity Event, equal to the greater of (i) the Purchase Amount (the “Cash-Out Amount”) or (ii) the amount payable on the number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the Liquidity Price (the “Conversion Amount”). If any of the Company’s securityholders are given a choice as to the form and amount of Proceeds to be received in a Liquidity Event, the Investor will be given the same choice, provided that the Investor may not choose to receive a form of consideration that the Investor would be ineligible to receive as a result of the Investor’s failure to satisfy any requirement or limitation generally applicable to the Company’s securityholders, or under any applicable laws.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in connection with a Change of Control intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization, the Company may reduce the cash portion of Proceeds payable to the Investor by the amount determined by its board of directors in good faith for such Change of Control to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, provided that such reduction (A) does not reduce the total Proceeds payable to such Investor and (B) is applied in the same manner and on a pro rata basis to all securityholders who have equal priority to the Investor under Section 1(d).

Token Generation Event (sometimes referred to herein as the “ICO”). On the Initial Token Generation Date, provided it takes place before the expiration or termination of this Agreement, the Issuer will automatically issue to the Purchaser a number of units of the Token set forth above, which shall be equal to the Purchaser’s Investment divided by the Token Price; provided that, in connection with and prior to the issuance of Tokens by the Company to the Purchaser pursuant to this Section.

(i) The Purchaser will execute and deliver to the Company or the Issuer any and all other transactional documents related to this Agreement, including at the Issuer’s option a purchase agreement that will provide that the issuance of the Tokens is without recourse.

(ii) The Purchaser will provide to the Issuer a public cryptocurrency wallet address to which the Issuer may deliver Tokens after the anticipated Token Generation Event, disbursed in accordance with the seed round schedule described in the Earthy Tokenomics Report or similar documentation. For the avoidance of doubt, the public wallet address must be under the direct or indirect control of the Purchaser and shall not be under the control of a third-party.

Dissolution Event. If there is a Dissolution Event before the termination of this SAFE-T, the Investor will automatically be entitled (subject to the liquidation priority set forth in Section 1(c) below) to receive a portion of Proceeds equal to the Cash-Out Amount, due and payable to the Investor immediately prior to the consummation of the Dissolution Event. Further, if there is a Dissolution Event before the Token Generation Event, to the extent funds are available from the proceeds of all Investments, the Company will pay an amount equal to the Investment (the “Returned Investment”), which shall be due and payable to the Purchaser immediately prior to, or concurrent with, the consummation of the Dissolution Event. For the avoidance of doubt, funds from business operations of the Company other than the proceeds received from the Purchaser under this Agreement shall not be available for the Returned Investment. Where the amount of funds available for all Returned Investments is less than that which would be required to make the Returned Investment to all Purchasers, the Company will make Returned Investments pro rata to all purchasers under this and other SAFE-T agreements, which distributions shall take priority over any distributions to officers, directors, advisors, managers or other persons or firms affiliated with the Company or the Issuer. Any Returned Investment amounts shall be in U.S. Dollars or stablecoin equivalent.

Liquidation Priority. In a Liquidity Event or Dissolution Event, this SAFE-T is intended to operate like standard non-participating Preferred Stock. The Investor's right to receive its Cash-Out Amount is:

Junior to payment of outstanding indebtedness and creditor claims, including contractual claims for payment and convertible promissory notes (to the extent such convertible promissory notes are not actually or notionally converted into Capital Stock);

On par with payments for other SAFE-Ts and/or Preferred Stock, and if the applicable Proceeds are insufficient to permit full payments to the Investor and such other SAFE-Ts and/or Preferred Stock, the applicable Proceeds will be distributed pro rata to the Investor and such other SAFE-Ts and/or Preferred Stock in proportion to the full payments that would otherwise be due; and Senior to payments for Common Stock.

The Investor's right to receive its Conversion Amount is (A) on par with payments for Common Stock and other SAFE-Ts and/or Preferred Stock who are also receiving Conversion Amounts or Proceeds on a similar as-converted to Common Stock basis, and (B) junior to payments described in clauses (i) and (ii) above (in the latter case, to the extent such payments are Cash-Out Amounts or similar liquidation preferences).

Termination. This SAFE-T will automatically terminate (without relieving the Company of any obligations arising from a prior breach of or non-compliance with this SAFE-T) immediately following the earliest to occur of: (i) the issuance of Capital Stock to the Investor pursuant to the automatic conversion of this SAFE-T under Section 1(a); or (ii) the payment, or setting aside for payment, of amounts due the Investor pursuant to Section 1(b) or Section 1(c).

All Payments Final: Except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, all payments referred to herein shall be deemed final and non-refundable to the Purchaser under any circumstances whatsoever.

No "MFN" Amendment Rights.

The Company and/or the Issuer may offer SAFE-T Agreements in multiple rounds and on different terms. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event the Purchaser determines that the terms of another SAFE-T Agreement are preferable to the terms of this Agreement, the Company is under no obligation to the Purchaser to amend and restate the terms of this Agreement in any manner whatsoever.

Notes to the Financial Statements

As of December 31, 2023

1. DESCRIPTION OF THE BUSINESS

Earthy Inc. was formed on May 25, 2023 in the state of Wyoming. Earthy is dedicated to revolutionizing global philanthropy by utilizing blockchain and AI technologies to empower individuals and organizations worldwide.

Our mission is to provide robust economic and technological tools that simplify and enhance the effectiveness of local and global humanitarian and environmental efforts. By enabling transparent and impactful action, Earthy supports nonprofits, impact organizations, and individuals in orchestrating successful projects that deliver meaningful change and aid to communities in need.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1. Basis of Presentation

The Company has earned no revenues from limited principal operations. Accordingly, the Company's activities have been accounted for as those of a "Development Stage Enterprise" as set forth in Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 7 ("SFAS 7"). Among the disclosures required by SFAS 7 are that the Company's financial statements be identified as those of a development stage company, and that the statements of operations, stockholders' equity (deficit) and cash flows disclose activity since the date of the Company's inception.

2.2. Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

2.3. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Management evaluates the estimates and assumptions based on historical experience and believes those estimates and assumptions are reasonable based on the information available to them.

Earthy, Inc.

Notes to the Financial Statements

As of December 31, 2023

2.4. Cash

The Company deposits its cash with financial institutions that the management believes are of high credit quality. The Company's cash consists primarily of cash deposited in U.S. dollar-denominated investment accounts.

2.5. Going Concern

The company is a start-up and funding its operational expenses from the financing activities. Management plans to include plans to raise additional equity financing. However, there can be no assurance that the company will be successful in obtaining sufficient equity financing on acceptable terms, if at all.

Failure to generate sufficient revenues, achieve planned gross margins, control operating costs or raise sufficient additional financing may require the Company to modify, delay or abandon some of its planned future expenditures, which could have material adverse effect on the company's business, operating results, financial condition and ability to achieve its intended business objectives. These circumstances raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as going concern for a reasonable period of time.

2.6. Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes using the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

3. NET EQUITY

The company is authorized to issue 10,000,000 shares of common stock at $0.0001 par value and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock at $0.0001 par value. The company has 2,883,500 shares issued and outstanding as of December 31, 2023.

For: EARTHY TOKENS (X) AND X PERCENT (X%) EQUITY IN EARTHY, INC.

Investment Amount:	$ X.XX USD
Purchase Price Per Token:	$ 0.275 USD	Purchase Price Per Share/Unit:	$ 1.833 USD
Number of Tokens:	$(0.275 * X.XX) / 2$	Number of Shares:	$(1.833 * X.XX) / 2$

THIS SIMPLE AGREEMENT FOR FUTURE EQUITY PLUS TOKENS (the “Agreement”), dated as of April 20, 2024, certifies that in consideration of the payment of $X USD or cryptocurrency stablecoin equivalent (the “Payment”) by Purchaser (the “Purchaser”), an individual and/or corporation having an address of receipt of which is hereby acknowledged by Earthy, Inc. , a Wyoming C-Corporation (the “Company”), directly or indirectly through a subsidiary (collectively, the “Issuer”), hereby grants to the Purchaser the right to receive X (X%) equity in the Company as well as X units of Earthy Tokens (tentative symbol $ERTH) to be issued by the Issuer (the “Token(s)”), subject to the terms set forth below.

1. Events.

(a) Liquidity Event. If there is a Liquidity Event before the termination of this SAFE-T, this SAFE-T will automatically be entitled (subject to the liquidation priority set forth in Section 1(e) below) to receive a portion of Proceeds, due and payable to the Investor immediately prior to, or concurrent with, the consummation of such Liquidity Event, equal to the greater of (i) the Purchase Amount (the “Cash-Out Amount”) or (ii) the amount payable on the number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the Liquidity Price (the “Conversion Amount”). If any of the Company’s securityholders are given a choice as to the form and amount of Proceeds to be received in a Liquidity Event, the Investor will be given the same choice, provided that the Investor may not choose to receive a form of consideration that the Investor would be ineligible to receive as a result of the Investor’s failure to satisfy any requirement or limitation generally applicable to the Company’s securityholders, or under any applicable laws.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in connection with a Change of Control intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization, the Company may reduce the cash portion of Proceeds payable to the Investor by the amount determined by its board of directors in good faith for such Change of Control to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, provided that such reduction (A) does not reduce the total Proceeds payable to such Investor and (B) is applied in the same manner and on a pro rata basis to all securityholders who have equal priority to the Investor under Section 1(d).

(b) Token Generation Event (sometimes referred to herein as the “ICO”). On the Initial Token Generation Date, provided it takes place before the expiration or termination of this Agreement, the Issuer will automatically issue to the Purchaser a number of units of the Token set forth above, which shall be equal to the Purchaser’s Investment divided by the Token Price; provided that, in connection with and prior to the issuance of Tokens by the Company to the Purchaser pursuant to this Section.

(i) The Purchaser will execute and deliver to the Company or the Issuer any and all other transactional documents related to this Agreement, including at the Issuer’s option a purchase agreement that will provide that the issuance of the Tokens is without recourse.

(ii) The Purchaser will provide to the Issuer a public cryptocurrency wallet address to which the Issuer may deliver Tokens after the anticipated Token Generation Event, disbursed in accordance with the seed round schedule described in the Earthy Tokenomics Report or similar documentation. For the avoidance of doubt, the public wallet address must be under the direct or indirect control of the Purchaser and shall not be under the control of a third-party.

(c) Dissolution Event. If there is a Dissolution Event before the termination of this SAFE-T, the Investor will automatically be entitled (subject to the liquidation priority set forth in Section 1(c) below) to receive a portion of Proceeds equal to the Cash-Out Amount, due and payable to the Investor immediately prior to the consummation of the Dissolution Event. Further, if the is a Dissolution Event before the Token Generation Event, to the extent funds are available from the proceeds of all Investments, the Company will pay an amount equal to the Investment (the “Returned Investment”), which shall be due and payable to the Purchaser immediately prior to, or concurrent with, the consummation of the Dissolution Event. For the avoidance of doubt, funds from business operations of the Company other than the proceeds received from Purchaser under this Agreement shall not be available for the Returned Investment. Where the amount of funds available for all Returned Investments is less than that which would be required to make the Returned Investment to all Purchasers, the Company will make Returned Investments pro rata to all purchasers under this and other SAFE-T agreements, which distributions shall take priority over any distributions to officers, directors, advisors, managers or other persons or firms affiliated with the Company or the Issuer. Any Returned Investment amounts shall be in U.S. Dollars or stablecoin equivalent.

(d) Liquidation Priority. In a Liquidity Event or Dissolution Event, this SAFE-T is intended to operate like standard non-participating Preferred Stock. The Investor’s right to receive its Cash-Out Amount is:

- (i) Junior to payment of outstanding indebtedness and creditor claims, including contractual claims for payment and convertible promissory notes (to the extent such convertible promissory notes are not actually or notionally converted into Capital Stock);
- (ii) On par with payments for other SAFE-Ts and/or Preferred Stock, and if the applicable Proceeds are insufficient to permit full payments to the Investor and such other SAFE-Ts and/or Preferred Stock, the applicable Proceeds will be distributed pro rata to the Investor and such other SAFE-Ts and/or Preferred Stock in proportion to the full payments that would otherwise be due; and
- (iii) Senior to payments for Common Stock.

The Investor’s right to receive its Conversion Amount is (A) on par with payments for Common Stock and other SAFE-Ts and/or Preferred Stock who are also receiving Conversion Amounts or Proceeds on a similar as-converted to Common Stock basis, and (B) junior to payments described in clauses (i) and (ii) above (in the latter case, to the extent such payments are Cash-Out Amounts or similar liquidation preferences).

(e) Termination. This SAFE-T will automatically terminate (without relieving the Company of any obligations arising from a prior breach of or non-compliance with this SAFE-T) immediately following the earliest to occur of: (i) the issuance of Capital Stock to the Investor pursuant to the automatic conversion of this SAFE-T under Section 1(a); or (ii) the payment, or setting aside for payment, of amounts due the Investor pursuant to Section 1(b) or Section 1(c).

(f) All Payments Final: Except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, all payments referred to herein shall be deemed final and non-refundable to the Purchaser under any circumstances whatsoever.

Hey everyone, how's it going? I'm Sam Singer, the founder of Earthy. Today I'm going to be walking through some of the tools that we've developed to help solve environmental, humanitarian, and social issues across the globe. Earthy is redefining charity and philanthropy by providing tools to regular people to champion causes in their local communities and make a difference. And today I'm going to be showing you some of these tools and how they work. So here is the created a project on this app called Feed Ghana's Kids. This is just an example demonstration of a project, but all the same things would apply for a real project. And so what Earthy allows you to do is create posts similar to other social platforms where I can educate my community and update them about how the project is going.

It allows me to create what's known as tasks where I can assign specific tasks to people in the community to complete whether they're paid or volunteer tasks. I can find the right talent and people for the job so that I can get my project done effectively. And there's another thing that I can do on Earthy, which is create events and also sell tickets to events. And these events can be virtual or in-person events depending on the circumstance. And so Earthy is providing tools that make projects very easy to manage and organize and execute, as well as raising funds for these projects across the globe. And so today I'm going to show you an example of what a virtual meeting would look like. And I can see here that our friends are diligently working on the project.

And there they are, there they are, sitting and hanging out. And so this is something that you could use as a tool to connect friends and people all over the world to better communicate and organize. I'm going to disconnect from this meeting here and show you what it's like to complete a task. So I'm going to switch to this alternate account here. And as you can see here, there's this task where I can volunteer cook for kids. I'm going to go ahead and apply to this task and say, hey, I can finish this task by Thursday at 4:30. And I am a great cook. Please let me help. I'm going to submit this task request. Great. And I'm going to switch back to the account which has the project.

And I'm going to look here and see the task request. And I can now accept this task request.

And in this circumstance, it's a volunteer task. But the same thing applies for paid tasks where I can actually pay individuals money which is stored in all the information and data about when and how and why I paid that person is stored. We can create an audit trail and ensure that funds that are being donated are used appropriately. So I'm going to continue with this task and confirm him and now he's assigned to this task. And once he completes the task, there'll be a review and rating system, which allows for the credibility of our ecosystem to maintain itself. And a project using both fiat and cryptocurrencies. So I'm going to go through the process here where I'm just going to enter into this project and I'm going to donate from my card $2,500. Go through the process here, show you how it works. Centering in some information And as you can see, My donation has gone through and now the project has $2,400. Okay. The next thing I'm going to be talking about is the sort of monitoring and security, how products are approved. So when I want to create a new project, I basically would fill out this form information about the project. This is a user initiative, and there's also a way to submit information about nonprofit projects and legally established organizations, which is a little bit more in depth.

I can also make a donation to

But once that information is submitted, a member of the Earthy team will be able to review the different projects which have been applied for, look at the information. There's also a KYC and KYB process for all new projects and people, and I can confirm that project into the ecosystem.

So we have a pretty secure and gated community where we can trust that these projects are legitimate. There's going to be a bunch of other features which we're going to be rolling out on the platform before our launch in by the end of the year, or beta release in August. And that is team management tools and collaborating with other individuals on a project and making it easy for organizations to manage these projects, not just with individuals, but as a unit.

The other thing that we're going to be adding is the earthy banking and finance tools, where I can actually have my own earthy debit card, which will be attached to the project, which I can use to buy any goods or things that I need from my project, all of which are tracked and traced and accounted for using our system. So anybody could see what you're spending funds for, for a project that you're raising money, which is great. It keeps everybody accountable and makes it so that you can trust that when you donate to projects, it's actually going to a good cause. I'm going to show you this, I can approve projects, I can ban users, I can report, block people. All of these things are capable.

So we're going to be developing this as well for scaling. We're going to be able to handle massive amounts of users. Now I'm showing you guys the layer one blockchain network, which is another key part of the financial ecosystem of what we're developing. And the layer one network allows users to earn money through our consensus process while supporting impact initiatives. And they can essentially take their money and stake it into these various impact projects. These impact projects receive a portion of the rewards that are staked into them. We can also enable the ability for people to stake not only into impact projects, but technical teams building applications on our network so that we provide developers of real world impact applications with a source of passive income, encouraging the development of real world impact apps on our network.

Earthy also provides immense amounts of real world data available on chain, whether it's species data, environmental data, carbon footprint data, compliance and legal data, energy market data. All of these things are available within our layer one ecosystem, which allows for developers to really seamlessly integrate their ideas and concepts from Web3 to the real world. We will also be releasing the beta of the application, which I demonstrated to you today in August as well. And we're going to be onboarding projects and users en masse onto the ecosystem in preparation for our production launch by the end of the year. So both the testnet and beta of the app will be in production versions and tradable and available on public markets by the end of 2024, which is very exciting.

I'm very glad that you guys spent the time today to learn a little bit more about Earthy, and I can't wait to be the change with people just like you.
