Recognition:

Lee and Son LLC (DBA The Soop) believes hydroponic farming is the future. They've found that a fresh, farm-to-table lifestyle is one that brings joy and trust to every meal. When they first started their restaurant, they wanted to make Korean food the way they remembered from their parents: comfort food made with love, completely from scratch, down to the gochujang and kimchi.

About:

Lee and Son LLC (DBA The Soop) is a Portland restaurant featuring an indoor hydroponic garden and microgreen farm that brings fresh ingredients directly to the table. They've created a menu that showcases microgreens in a way that everyone can appreciate, from bibimbap to BLT!
