Faizan Naveed

Founder @ Swift Ride | Chief Operations Officer
Atlanta, Georgia, United States

Summary

As the Chief Operations Officer at Swift Ride, my focus is on leveraging my Electrical Engineering background from the Rochester Institute of Technology to enhance our company's telecommunications systems. Our team has developed innovative solutions that streamline operations, ensuring exceptional service delivery.

With competencies in both teaching and customer service, I prioritize knowledge sharing and client satisfaction. These core values are reflected in my commitment to continuous process improvement, a principle honed through my tenure at Siemens as a Process Improvement Engineer.
