Netcapital and Portal do not make investment recommendations and no communication, through this website or in any other medium, should be construed as a recommendation for any security offered on or off this investment platform. Equity crowdfunding investments in private placements, Regulation A, D and CF offerings, and start-up investments in particular are speculative and involve a high degree of risk and those investors who cannot afford to lose their entire investment should not invest in start-ups. Companies seeking startup investments through equity crowdfunding tend to be in earlier stages of development and their business model, products and services may not yet be fully developed, operational or tested in the public marketplace. There is no guarantee that the stated valuation and other terms are accurate or in agreement with the market or industry valuations. Additionally, investors may receive illiquid and/or restricted stock that may be subject to holding period requirements and/or liquidity concerns. In the most sensible investment strategy for start-up investing, start-ups should only be part of your overall investment portfolio. Further, the start-up portion of your portfolio may include a balanced portfolio of different start-ups. Investments in startups are highly illiquid and those investors who cannot hold an investment for the long term (at least 5-7 years) should not invest.

Business and Anticipated Business Plan

6. Describe in detail the business of the issuer and the anticipated business plan of the issuer.

Agtools provides real-time market data on over 500 commodities (Fruits, Vegetables, Nuts, Herbs and Plants), empowering traders, financial institutions, farmers, and every player in the Agriculture & Food Supply Chain (AFSC) to make informed decisions. The AFSC poses significant challenges due to its complex and fragmented ecosystem, where the lack of reliable global market intelligence, coupled with limited integration of deep science insights, hampers businesses' ability to offer effective products and services that meet the evolving needs of the entire supply chain. Our platform leverages real-time access to accurate, objective, and trusted data, including advanced scientific insights, to enhance risk management, improve decision-making, and drive sustainability across the entire supply chain. By providing actionable insights, we enable farmers to optimize crop yields, traders to make informed decisions, financial institutions to manage risks, and governments to implement policies that support sustainable agriculture practices. At the heart of Agtools' platform is our advanced analytics engine, which combines multiple market variables with its advanced scientific-trained neural networks to analyze complex datasets with unprecedented precision. This enables us to identify subtle issues that may impact production costs and marketability, providing critical insights for businesses to make informed decisions. Our platform also incorporates cognitive computing techniques, such as natural language processing (NLP) and machine learning algorithms, to analyze vast amounts of data and provide meaningful recommendations. Our Advanced Sustainability Knowledge System (ASKS) curates a full value chain prism for each studied commodity, providing a comprehensive understanding of the entire supply chain. Meanwhile, our Advanced Phase Expert System (APExS) rigorously phenological research reconciles myriad intractable extrinsic facets influencing said commodities, ensuring that no critical information is missed. Our platform also incorporates neuroscience principles to analyze human behavior and decision-making patterns in the context of food supply chain management. We've applied TRIZ problem-solving principles to the field of supply chain, identifying the top 76 variables impacting positively risk mitigation across 23 industries. Our patented algorithms are built on different crops, varieties, climates, microclimates, and other variables, utilizing proprietary language to update the data every 15 seconds across all commodities at 1 billion transactions per second. Agtools also incorporates word mining and sequential-to-dimensional data, placing billions of records within context to different stakeholders. This means providing structured, unstructured, and word mining data to farmers, shippers, and retail buyers, who are the main actors making vital daily decisions involving food supply. Furthermore, our platform incorporates neuro-inspired algorithms, such as swarm intelligence and multi-agent systems, to analyze complex networks and identify optimal solutions. Our cognitive computing capabilities also include data mining and predictive analytics, enabling us to forecast market trends and provide critical insights for businesses to make informed decisions. By combining advanced technology with actionable insights, Agtools is empowering businesses to make more informed decisions, drive sustainability, and improve profitability across the entire Agriculture & Food Supply Chain. Our platform provides a comprehensive solution for supply chain stakeholders, enabling them to access real-time production cycles, trends, and market insights.

Agtools currently has 2 employees.

Risk Factors

A crowdfunding investment involves risk. You should not invest any funds in this offering unless you can afford to lose your entire investment.

In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, these authorities have not passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

7. Material factors that make an investment in Agtools Inc speculative or risky:

1. Dependence on Accuracy and Reliability of Agricultural Data AGTools's core value to customers is delivering real-time, accurate, and actionable data on over 500 commodities. Because our platform processes billions of data points across multiple sources, any inaccuracies or delays — whether due to human error, faulty algorithms, or unreliable third-party data — could compromise the integrity of our insights. If our data fails to reflect actual market conditions, customers such as farmers, traders, and financial institutions may make poor decisions about pricing, crop planning, or supply chain logistics. This could result in dissatisfaction, reputational harm, loss of customers, and potential legal claims. Our business relies on trust, and even isolated incidents of inaccurate reporting could materially impact our growth and credibility.
2. Complexity of Scaling Across a Fragmented Global Supply Chain The agriculture and food supply chain is highly fragmented and varies widely across different regions, climates, and commodity categories. AgTool's platform must integrate diverse datasets, regulatory requirements, and localized practices to deliver accurate global insights. Scaling to meet these demands is operationally complex and requires significant resources. If we fail to maintain consistent quality, coverage, and timeliness as we expand, our customers may lose confidence in our platform's ability to support their decision-making. Furthermore, entering new regions involves challenges such as language barriers, local agricultural practices, and differing technology adoption rates, any of which could slow our growth or increase operational costs.
3. Intellectual Property and Proprietary Technology Risk AGTool's has invested heavily in developing proprietary algorithms and systems, including our Advanced Sustainability Knowledge System (ASKS) and Advanced Phase Expert System (APExS). Protecting these technologies is essential to maintaining our competitive advantage. However, the rapidly evolving fields of artificial intelligence, machine learning, and cognitive computing are highly competitive, and competitors may attempt to replicate or reverse-engineer our solutions. If we cannot adequately protect our intellectual property, or if competitors develop similar or superior technologies, it may erode our market position. Defending our IP rights may require significant financial and managerial resources, and there is no guarantee of success in every jurisdiction where we operate.
4. Cybersecurity and Data Privacy Risk Our platform processes sensitive and high-value data, including real-time market information, agricultural production details, and potentially personally identifiable information (PII) from stakeholders. As such, AGTools could be a target for cyberattacks, data breaches, and other malicious activities. A successful attack on our systems could compromise the integrity, confidentiality, or availability of our data and services, leading to operational disruptions and reputational damage. The agriculture and food supply chain sector is becoming increasingly digitized, making it vulnerable to systemic risks and potential cascading failures caused by cyber incidents. Even with robust security measures in place, no system is entirely immune to sophisticated hacking attempts or insider threats. A significant breach could result in regulatory penalties, customer lawsuits, and the loss of key business relationships. Additionally, our operations may be subject to data protection laws and privacy regulations in various jurisdictions, which could change over time and impose additional compliance costs. Failure to comply with these evolving requirements could expose us to legal liabilities and hinder our ability to operate globally.

5. Exposure to Regulatory and Policy Changes in Global Agriculture AGTools operates at the intersection of agriculture, technology, and global trade. This exposes us to a variety of evolving regulations related to data usage, environmental sustainability, food safety, and cross-border information flows. Changes in government policies, such as trade tariffs or agricultural subsidies, could alter market dynamics in ways that affect the demand for our services. If we fail to comply with new or existing regulations, we may face fines, legal challenges, or restrictions on our ability to operate in certain regions. The complexity and variability of these rules across different countries create an ongoing compliance challenge and add cost to our operations.
6. Scalability and Operational Execution Risk AGTools growth strategy depends on our ability to scale our technology infrastructure, expand our customer base, and maintain a high level of service quality as we grow. Our platform processes billions of transactions per second and updates commodity data every 15 seconds. This requires significant technical resources and robust infrastructure. Any failure to manage this growth effectively could lead to system outages, slow response times, or degraded performance, which would negatively impact customer satisfaction and retention. As we expand into new markets and onboard additional commodities, we will face challenges related to staffing, logistics, and maintaining consistent data quality across diverse regions and supply chains. If our internal processes, management systems, or human resources fail to keep pace with the company's growth, it could result in operational inefficiencies, increased costs, or missed opportunities. Additionally, our future success depends on hiring and retaining highly skilled personnel, particularly in data science, engineering, and agriculture domain expertise. Competition for talent in these areas is intense, and if we cannot attract or retain key employees, our ability to execute our strategic objectives may be compromised.
7. We are highly dependent on the services of our founder. Our future business and results of operations depend in significant part upon the continued contributions of our CEO and founder. If we lose those services or if they fail to perform in their current position, or if we are not able to attract and retain skilled employees in addition to our CEO and the current team, this could adversely affect the development of our business plan and harm our business. In addition, the loss of any other member of the board of directors or executive officers could harm the Company's business, financial condition, cash flow and results of operations.
8. Start-up investing is risky. Investing in early-stage companies is very risky, highly speculative, and should not be made by anyone who cannot afford to lose their entire investment. Unlike an investment in a mature business where there is a track record of revenue and income, the success of a startup or early-stage venture often relies on the development of a new product or service that may or may not find a market. Before investing, you should carefully consider the specific risks and disclosures related to both this offering type and the Company.
9. You may only receive limited disclosure. While the Company must disclose certain information, since the Company is at an early-stage they may only be able to provide limited information about its business plan and operations because it does not have fully developed operations or a long history. The Company may also only be obligated to file information periodically regarding its business, including financial statements. A publicly listed company, in contrast, is required to file annual and quarterly reports and promptly disclose certain events — through continuing disclosure that you can use to evaluate the status of your investment.

10. The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

You should not rely on the fact that our Form C, and if applicable Form D is accessible through the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's EDGAR filing system as an approval, endorsement or guarantee of compliance as it relates to this Offering.

11. Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws, leading to an absence of certain regulation applicable to the Company.

The securities being offered have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act"), in reliance on exemptive provisions of the Securities Act. Similar reliance has been placed on apparently available exemptions from securities registration or qualification requirements under applicable state securities laws. No assurance can be given that any offering currently qualifies or will continue to qualify under one or more of such exemptive provisions due to, among other things, the adequacy of disclosure and the manner of distribution, the existence of similar offerings in the past or in the future, or a change of any securities law or regulation that has retroactive effect. If, and to the extent that, claims or suits for rescission are brought and successfully concluded for failure to register any offering or other offerings or for acts or omissions constituting offenses under the Securities Act, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or applicable state securities laws, the Company could be materially adversely affected, jeopardizing the Company's ability to operate successfully. Furthermore, the human and capital resources of the Company could be adversely affected by the need to defend actions under these laws, even if the Company is ultimately successful in its defense.

12. The Company has the right to extend the Offering Deadline, conduct multiple closings, or end the Offering early.

The Company may extend the Offering Deadline beyond what is currently stated herein. This means that your investment may continue to be held in escrow while the Company attempts to raise the Minimum Amount even after the Offering Deadline stated herein is reached. While you have the right to cancel your investment up to 48 hours before an Offering Deadline, if you choose to not cancel your investment, your investment will not be accruing interest during this time and will simply be held until such time as the new Offering Deadline is reached without the Company receiving the Minimum Amount, at which time it will be returned to you without interest or deduction, or the Company receives the Minimum Amount, at which time it will be released to the Company to be used as set forth herein. Upon or shortly after release of such funds to the Company, the Securities will be issued and distributed to you. If the Company reaches the target offering amount prior to the Offering Deadline, they may conduct the first of multiple closings of the Offering prior to the Offering Deadline, provided that the Company gives notice to the investors of the closing at least five business days prior to the closing (absent a material change that would require an extension of the Offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). Thereafter, the Company may conduct additional closings until the Offering Deadline. The Company may also end the Offering early; if the Offering reaches its target offering amount after 21-calendar days but before the deadline, the Company can end the Offering with 5 business days' notice. This means your failure to participate in the Offering in a timely manner, may prevent you from being able to participate – it also means the Company may limit the amount of capital it can raise during the Offering by ending it early.

13. The Company's management may have broad discretion in how the Company uses the net proceeds of the Offering.

Despite that the Company has agreed to a specific use of the proceeds from the Offering, the Company's management will have considerable discretion over the allocation of proceeds from the Offering. You may not have the opportunity, as part of your investment decision, to assess whether the proceeds are being used appropriately.

14. The Securities issued by the Company will not be freely tradable until one year from the initial purchase date. Although the Securities may be tradable under federal securities law, state securities regulations may apply, and each Investor should consult with his or her attorney.

You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. There is not now and likely will not be a public market for the Securities. Because the Securities offered in this Offering have not been registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state or non-United States jurisdiction, the Securities have transfer restrictions and cannot be resold in the United States except pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation CF. It is not currently contemplated that registration under the Securities Act or other securities laws will be affected. Limitations on the transfer of the shares of Securities may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the shares of Securities in a private sale. Investors should be aware of the long-term nature of their investment in the Company. Investors in this Offering will be required to represent that they are purchasing the Securities for their own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof.

15. Investors will not be entitled to any inspection or information rights other than those required by Regulation CF.

Investors will not have the right to inspect the books and records of the Company or to receive financial or other information from the Company, other than as required by Regulation CF. Other security holders of the Company may have such rights. Regulation CF requires only the provision of an annual report on Form C and no additional information – there are numerous methods by which the Company can terminate annual report obligations, resulting in no information rights, contractual, statutory or otherwise, owed to Investors. This lack of information could put Investors at a disadvantage in general and with respect to other security holders.

16. The shares of Securities acquired upon the Offering may be significantly diluted as a consequence of subsequent financings.

Company equity securities will be subject to dilution. Company intends to issue additional equity to future employees and third-party financing sources in amounts that are uncertain at this time, and as a consequence, holders of Securities will be subject to dilution in an unpredictable amount. Such dilution may reduce the purchaser's economic interests in the Company.

17. The amount of additional financing needed by Company will depend upon several contingencies not foreseen at the time of this Offering. Each such round of financing (whether from the Company or other investors) is typically intended to provide the Company with enough capital to reach the next major corporate milestone. If the funds are not sufficient, Company may have to raise additional capital at a price unfavorable to the existing investors. The availability of capital is at least partially a function of capital market conditions that are beyond the control of the Company. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to predict accurately the future capital requirements necessary for success or that additional funds will be available from any source. Failure to obtain such financing on favorable terms could dilute or otherwise severely impair the value of the investor's Company securities.

18. There is no present public market for these Securities and we have arbitrarily set the price.

The offering price was not established in a competitive market. We have arbitrarily set the price of the Securities with reference to the general status of the securities market and other relevant factors. The Offering price for the Securities should not be considered an indication of the actual value of the Securities and is not based on our net worth or prior earnings. We cannot assure you that the Securities could be resold by you at the Offering price or at any other price.

19. In addition to the risks listed above, businesses are often subject to risks not foreseen or fully appreciated by the management. It is not possible to foresee all risks that may affect us. Moreover, the Company cannot predict whether the Company will successfully effectuate the Company's current business plan. Each prospective Investor is encouraged to carefully analyze the risks and merits of an investment in the Securities and should take into consideration when making such analysis, among other, the Risk Factors discussed above.
20. THE SECURITIES OFFERED INVOLVE A HIGH DEGREE OF RISK AND MAY RESULT IN THE LOSS OF YOUR ENTIRE INVESTMENT. ANY PERSON CONSIDERING THE PURCHASE OF THESE SECURITIES SHOULD BE AWARE OF THESE AND OTHER FACTORS SET FORTH IN THIS OFFERING STATEMENT AND SHOULD CONSULT WITH HIS OR HER LEGAL, TAX AND FINANCIAL ADVISORS PRIOR TO MAKING AN INVESTMENT IN THE SECURITIES. THE SECURITIES SHOULD ONLY BE PURCHASED BY PERSONS WHO CAN AFFORD TO LOSE ALL OF THEIR INVESTMENT.

The Offering

Agtools Inc (“Company”) is offering securities under Regulation CF, through Netcapital Funding Portal Inc. (“Portal”). Portal is a FINRA/SEC registered funding portal and will receive cash compensation equal to 4.9% of the value of the securities sold through Regulation CF. Investments made under Regulation CF involve a high degree of risk and those investors who cannot afford to lose their entire investment should not invest.

The Company plans to raise between $10,000 and $1,235,000 through an offering under Regulation CF. Specifically, if we reach the target offering amount of $10,000, we may conduct the first of multiple or rolling closings of the offering early if we provide notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). Oversubscriptions will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. Changes to the offering, material or otherwise, occurring after a closing, will only impact investments which have yet to be closed.

In the event The Company fails to reach the offering target of $10,000, any investments made under the offering will be cancelled and the investment funds will be returned to the investor.

8. What is the purpose of this offering?

With the investment provided by investors, we will prioritize scaling up our support for our existing customers, focusing on sustaining their growth and driving ARR expansion. By enhancing our information technology and data science capabilities, we will be able to deliver more value-added services that meet the evolving needs of our clients, while also improving operational efficiency and reducing costs. This proactive approach will help us to enhance our market position and further establish ourselves as a trusted partner for our customers. To complement this growth strategy, we will also focus on expanding our sales efforts into existing verticals where our model has been proven successful. By scaling up our operations in these existing markets, we will be able to capitalize on the established reputation of our brand and deliver similar value propositions to new customers. This targeted approach will enable us to accelerate revenue growth while minimizing the risks associated with entering new markets. Furthermore, to ensure seamless execution of this strategy, we plan to bring on board a dedicated Operations Manager to oversee daily operations, manage key performance indicators, and ensure that all initiatives align with our overall growth objectives.

10. How will the issuer complete the transaction and deliver securities to the investors?

In entering into an agreement on the Netcapital Funding Portal to purchase securities, both investors and Agtools Inc must agree that a transfer agent, which keeps records of our outstanding Common stock (the "Securities"), will issue digital Securities in the investor's name (a paper certificate will not be printed). Similar to other online investment accounts, the transfer agent will give investors access to a web site to see the number of Securities that they own in our company. These Securities will be issued to investors after the deadline date for investing has passed, as long as the targeted offering amount has been reached. The transfer agent will record the issuance when we have received the purchase proceeds from the escrow agent who is holding your investment commitment.

11. How can an investor cancel an investment commitment?

You may cancel an investment commitment for any reason until 48 hours prior to the deadline identified in the offering by logging in to your account with Netcapital, browsing to the Investments screen, and clicking to cancel your investment commitment. Netcapital will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met. If the issuer reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the offering deadline, the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment. If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned.

12. Can the Company perform multiple closings or rolling closings for the offering?

If we reach the target offering amount prior to the offering deadline, we may conduct the first of multiple closings of the offering early, if we provide notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). Thereafter, we may conduct additional closings until the offering deadline. We will issue Securities in connection with each closing. Oversubscriptions will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. Changes to the offering, material or otherwise, occurring after a closing, will only impact investments which have yet to be closed.

Ownership and Capital Structure

The Offering

13. Describe the terms of the securities being offered.

We are issuing Securities at an offering price of $1 per share.

14. Do the securities offered have voting rights?

The Securities are being issued with voting rights. However, so that the crowdfunding community has the opportunity to act together and cast a vote as a group when a voting matter arises, a record owner will cast your vote for you. Please refer to the record owner agreement that you sign before your purchase is complete.

15. Are there any limitations on any voting or other rights identified above?

You are giving your voting rights to the record owner, who will vote the Securities on behalf of all investors who purchased Securities on the Netcapital crowdfunding portal.

16. How may the terms of the securities being offered be modified?

Any provision of the terms of the Securities being offered may be amended, waived or modified by written consent of the majority owner(s) of the Company. We may choose to modify the terms of the Securities before the offering is completed. However, if the terms are modified, and we deem it to be a material change, we need to contact you and you will be given the opportunity to reconfirm your investment. Your reconfirmation must be completed within five business days of receipt of the notice of a material change, and if you do not reconfirm, your investment will be canceled and your money will be returned to you.

Restrictions on Transfer of the Securities Offered

The securities being offered may not be transferred by any purchaser of such securities during the one-year period beginning when the securities were issued, unless such securities are transferred:

- to the issuer;
- to an accredited investor;
- as part of an offering registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; or
- to a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

The term “accredited investor” means any person who comes within any of the categories set forth in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D, or who the seller reasonably believes comes within any of such categories, at the time of the sale of the securities to that person.

The term “member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent” includes a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the purchaser, and includes adoptive relationships.

18. How may the rights of the securities being offered be materially limited, diluted or qualified by the rights of any other class of securities?

The existing convertible debt is subject to conversion into equity under certain circumstances, and if they convert you will be diluted by that conversion.

19. Are there any differences not reflected above between the securities being offered and each other class of security of the issuer?

The Company has granted a perpetual waiver of the transfer restrictions listed in the bylaws of the Company for all Securities sold in this Offering.

20. How could the exercise of rights held by the principal owners identified in Question 5 above affect the purchasers of Securities being offered?

The Company's bylaws can be amended by the shareholders of the Company, and directors can be added or removed by shareholder vote. As minority owners, you are subject to the decisions made by the majority owners. The issued and outstanding common stock gives management voting control of the Company. As a minority owner, you may be outvoted on issues that impact your investment, such as the issuance of additional shares, or the sale of debt, convertible debt or assets of the Company.

21. How are the securities being offered being valued? Include examples of methods for how such securities may be valued by the issuer in the future, including during subsequent corporate actions.

The Comparable Company Analysis was one of the methods used to determine Agtools' valuation. This involved comparing Agtools to other early-stage companies in the data industry, such as Granular, to establish a reasonable market value. Additionally, the Venture Capital Method was utilized, as recent investments in the company by venture capital firms have been based on a pre-money valuation cap of $15 million.

22. What are the risks to purchasers of the securities relating to minority ownership in the issuer?

As the holder of a majority of the voting rights in the Company, our majority shareholders may make decisions with which you disagree, or that negatively affect the value of your investment in the Company, and you will have no recourse to change those decisions. Your interests may conflict with the interests of other investors, and there is no guarantee that the Company will develop in a way that is advantageous to you. For example, the majority shareholders may decide to issue additional shares to new investors, sell convertible debt instruments with beneficial conversion features, or make decisions that affect the tax treatment of the Company in ways that may be unfavorable to you. Based on the risks described above, you may lose all or part of your investment in the securities that you purchase, and you may never see positive returns.

23. What are the risks to purchasers associated with corporate actions including:

- additional issuances of securities,
- issuer repurchases of securities,
- a sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer or
- transactions with related parties?

The issuance of additional shares of our common stock will dilute your ownership. As a result, if we achieve profitable operations in the future, our net income per share will be reduced because of dilution, and the market price of our common stock, if there is a market price, could decline as a result of the additional issuances of securities. If we repurchase securities, so that the above risk is mitigated, and there are fewer shares of common stock outstanding, we may not have enough cash available for marketing expenses, growth, or operating expenses to reach our goals. If we do not have enough cash to operate and grow, we anticipate the market price of our stock would decline. A sale of our company or of the assets of our company may result in an entire loss of your investment. We cannot predict the market value of our company or our assets, and the proceeds of a sale may not be cash, but instead, unmarketable securities, or an assumption of liabilities. In addition to the payment of wages and expense reimbursements, we may need to engage in transactions with officers, directors, or affiliates. By acquiring an interest in the Company, you will be deemed to have acknowledged the existence of any such actual or potential related party transactions and waived any claim with respect to any liability arising from a perceived or actual conflict of interest. In some instances, we may deem it necessary to seek a loan from related parties. Such financing may not be available when needed. Even if such financing is available, it may be on terms that are materially averse to your interests with respect to dilution of book value, dividend preferences, liquidation preferences, or other terms. No assurance can be given that such funds will be available or, if available, will be on commercially reasonable terms satisfactory to us. If we are unable to obtain financing on reasonable terms, we could be forced to discontinue our operations. We anticipate that any transactions with related parties will be vetted and approved by executives(s) unaffiliated with the related parties.

AGTools Inc. was incorporated on August 28, 2020, in the state of Delaware. The Company's headquarters are located in Orange, California. Agtools Inc. is a data science company providing a SaaS platform that delivers curated market data and realtime forecasts to decision-makers in the global food supply chain. The platform sources extensive data from countries worldwide to support leading retailers, distributors, and restaurant chains in reducing inefficiencies, food waste, and financial risk. The seasoned management team combines deep agricultural, technological, and analytical expertise to enhance decision-making and profitability in the Agri-finance market. In 2024, Agtools directed significant efforts to build additional intellectual property and was issued a US patent in that year for systems and methods of supply chain intelligence. This forward-thinking focus on deep science was done to ensure that future customers would receive more value from the data service. This resulted in a pause in revenue growth, and for the year ended December 31, 2024, it decreased by $334,104 to $203,792, compared to $537,896 reported for the year ended December 31, 2023. Cost of goods sold for the year ended December 31, 2024 decreased by $26,327 to $67,260, as compared to $93,587 reported for the year ended December 31, 2023. Gross profit for the year ended December 31, 2024 decreased by $307,777 to $136,532, as compared to gross profit of $444,309 reported for the year ended December 31, 2023. Operating expenses for the year ended December 31, 2024 decreased by $1,429,759 to $1,686,736 as compared to $2,562,977 reported for the year ended December 31, 2023. Interest expense for the year ended December 31, 2024 decreased by $29,623 to $19,357, as compared to $48,980 reported for the year ended December 31, 2023. Liquidity & Capital Resources: On December 31, 2024, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $128,868 and negative working capital position of $1,234,486 as compared to cash and cash equivalents of $416,892 and working capital of $319,383 on December 31, 2023. During the first three quarters of 2025, Agtools has improved its system and processes to deliver key data on fresh fruits and vegetables to food supply chain businesses. This achievement includes an application for a second patent covering the curation process. We believe Agtools has become a leader in the industry in forecasting the viability of thousands of crops, based on their Phenological stage. Phenological forecasting determines how a crop grows and develops over time, from seed to harvest, as well as how these stages are influenced by location, climate, and seasons, among other variables. Ultimately, this data is a vital resource for empowering corporate food buyers to source their crops more profitably and for assisting growers to sell their crops more profitably, as they can see the timing of harvests, their competitors, and optimize their farming practices. Revenue has increased by over 30% in this same ninth-month period year over year. In the period from January to September 2025, revenue has reached $277,000 and is on track to reach $375,000 by year's end, almost doubling the revenue of 2024. During the first 3 quarters, expenses for Agtools included engineering salaries, marketing, customer and sales support, additional hirings and scaling operations as needed, this resulted in expenses totaling roughly $427,000 for the first 9 months of 2025. The result is a net loss of $150,000 for the current year. The company has reported a decrease in operating expenses as a favorable trend in addition to their clients increased daily usage as well as a 90% retention rate on the Agtools platform. The Company is authorized to issue 18,755,297 shares of common stock with a par value of $0.0001 per share. As of December 31, 2024, and 2023, 9,748,745 shares of common stock were issued and outstanding. After considering outstanding preferred shares, warrants, and shares reserved under the Company's 2020 Equity Incentive Plan, there are a total of 18,255,297 fully diluted shares. The Company is authorized to issue 6,044,650 shares of preferred stock with a par value of $0.0001 per share. Preferred stockholders rank senior to common stockholders in the event of liquidation. Each series of preferred stock has distinct rights and preferences, as described below: The Company is authorized to issue 2,317,034 shares of Series Seed Preferred Stock. On March 13, 2023, the Company issued to Reinventure Capital Fund I, LP, a warrant to purchase up to 324,609 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $1.54 per share. The warrant was issued in connection with the Company's Series Seed-2 Preferred Stock financing and is exercisable immediately. The warrant expires on March 13, 2028. In April 2025, the Company entered into a Simple Agreement for Future Equity ("SAFE") with RevTech Labs Capital Fund 2, LP, as part of its participation in the RevTech financial accelerator program. Under the SAFE, the Company received $20,000 in cash, primarily to cover program-related expenses, and was granted access to the accelerator program and related services, which are valued at $200,000.
