Hi Friends & Family,

First and most importantly: thank you and sincere gratitude to everyone who has already reserved their investment in Aivana. The trust and confidence you're placing in me and in this mission is truly special, and I don't take it lightly. 🙏

I wanted to share a quick update:

1. Strong first week momentum. We're on track to secure $73K+ in reservations from ~36 investors in just our first week. That early momentum is a huge signal to the wider community that Aivana is real, live, and growing.
2. Soft launch ending soon. We're just 4.5 days away from moving beyond our friends-and-family soft launch. After that, the campaign opens up to Wefunder's 1.5M+ angel investors — meaning even more visibility and reach.
3. Early bird terms are limited. We've set aside only $100K in early bird allocations (with a 10% discount and first access to perks). Once that's filled, new investments will be at standard terms. If you're considering investing, acting now increases your chance of securing the discount.
4. New to crowdfunding? If you're curious but not sure how crowdfunding or SAFE agreements work, I put together a 20-minute overview on my Facebook page that walks through the basics. You can check it out here: Aivana Fundraising Explained.

Thank you again for supporting me and Aivana — whether through an investment, by sharing this opportunity with others, or simply by cheering us on. Every bit of momentum makes a difference.

With deep appreciation,
Chris
