Recognition:

Milkweed Inn LLC (DBA The Milkweed Inn) prompts guests to unlock their true self. Owner Lane Regan created the business because the city restaurant hustle had burnt them out. They wanted to highlight the best parts of the season and show their guests how much abundance is right beneath and above them. They forage, grow, fish, farm, and hunt on their 270 acres of land. They collaborate with local farmers and businesses to highlight each micro season to its fullest.

About:

Milkweed Inn LLC (DBA The Milkweed Inn) is an off-grid bed and breakfast serving all kinds of magic deep in the Hiawatha National Forest. Guests get a chance to unplug from their busy lives and sink into the surrounding world. Milkweed’s food and home tell a story about the land and people.
