The Company's primary competitors are: Tony Robbins, Calm, Headspace, Insight Timer, Better Health, Aura, Mindvalley, Waking Up by Sam Harris. These companies offer a combination of training and coaching (live and on-demand). Some of these competitors also offer brain training.

Customer Base

The Company has had over 100,000 clients enroll into at least one of its programs, products, or services in the last 10 years. Approximately 68% of its customers have been women and most of its client base is between the ages of 40 and 75. The Company has served people in over 50 countries, predominantly those in English-speaking countries.

Supply Chain

Although the Company is dependent upon certain third party vendors, the Company has access in most situations to alternate service providers in the event its current third-party vendors are unable to provide services or any issues arise with its current vendors where a change is required to be made. Except for the loss of the license to use the Surf Lakes technology, the Issuer does not believe the loss of a current third-party vendor or service provider would cause a major disruption to its business, although it could cause short-term limitations or disruptions.

Further, under no circumstances may Bonus Class B Units issued to an Investor exceed 50%. For example, an Investor who invests $5,000 in the first 30 days of the Offering, will receive a maximum of 50% Bonus Class B Units by applying the 50% Time-Based Bonus Shares percentage in the table above. In such a case, the Investor would receive no additional Bonus Class B Units pursuant to the Large Investor Bonus Class B Units table above. The Perks will all be assigned to Investors at the termination of the Offering, unless otherwise decided between the Company and the registrar/transfer agent. DealMaker Securities LLC has not been engaged to assist in the distribution of the Bonus Shares or the Perks, and will not receive any compensation related to the Bonus Shares or Perks.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Securities involves a high degree of risk and may result in the loss of your entire investment. Before making an investment decision with respect to the Securities, we urge you to carefully consider the risks described in this section and other factors set forth in this Form C/A. The risks discussed below are not the only ones facing its business but do represent those risks that the Company believes are material to it. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to it or that the Company currently deems immaterial may also harm its business.

In addition to the risks specified below, the Company is subject to same risks that all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy, are exposed to. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events and technological developments (such as hacking and the ability to prevent hacking). Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently riskier than more developed companies. Prospective Investors should consult with their legal, tax and financial advisors prior to making an investment in the Securities. The Securities should only be purchased by persons who can afford to lose all of their investment.

Before investing, you should carefully read and carefully consider the following:

Risks Related to the Company's Business and Industry

The amount of capital the Company is attempting to raise in this Offering may not be enough to sustain the Company's current business plan.

In order to achieve the Company's near and long-term goals, the Company may need to procure funds in addition to the amount raised in the Offering. There is no guarantee the Company will be able to raise such funds on acceptable terms or at all. If we are not able to raise sufficient capital in the future, we may not be able to execute our business plan, our continued operations may be in jeopardy and we may be forced to cease operations and sell or otherwise transfer all or substantially all of our remaining assets, which could cause an Investor to lose all or a portion of their investment.

We may face potential difficulties in obtaining capital.

We may have difficulty raising the capital needed in the future as a result of, among other factors, our revenues from sales, as well as the inherent business risks associated with the Company and present and future market conditions. Additionally, our future sources of revenue may not be sufficient to meet our future capital requirements. As such, we may require additional funds to execute our business strategy and conduct our operations. If adequate funds are unavailable, we may be required to delay, reduce the scope of or eliminate one or more of our research, development or commercialization programs, product launches or marketing efforts, any of which may materially harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Company is substantially owned by the Company's Managers, and they will exercise voting control.

Prior to the Offering, the Company's CEO and Manager, John Assaraf, and Manager, Maria Assaraf, beneficially own a substantial majority of the Class A Units of the Company, which have all of the Company's voting rights. Subject to any fiduciary duties owed to other members under California law, the Managers will be able to exercise complete influence over matters requiring member approval, including the election of managers and approval of significant Company transactions, and will have significant control over the Company's management and policies. The Managers may have interests that are different from yours. For example, this entity may support proposals and actions with which you may disagree. The concentration of ownership could delay or prevent a change in control of the Company or otherwise discourage a potential acquirer from attempting to obtain control of the Company, which in turn could reduce the price potential investors are willing to pay for the Company. In addition, the Managers could use their voting influence to maintain the Company's existing management, delay or prevent changes in control of the Company, issue additional securities which may dilute you, repurchase securities of the Company, enter into transactions with related parties or support or reject other management and board proposals that are subject to member approval.

We may implement new lines of business or offer new products and services within existing lines of business.

We may implement new lines of business at any time. There are substantial risks and uncertainties associated with these efforts, particularly in instances where the markets are not fully developed. In developing and marketing new lines of business and/or new products and services, we may invest significant time and resources. Initial timetables for the introduction and development of new lines of business and/or new products or services may not be achieved, and price and profitability targets may not prove feasible. We may not be successful in introducing new products and services in response to industry trends or developments in technology, or those new products may not achieve market acceptance. As a result, we could lose business, be forced to price products and services on less advantageous terms to retain or attract clients or be subject to cost increases. As a result, our business, financial condition or results of operations may be adversely affected.

The Company's business plan is based on numerous assumptions and projections that may not prove accurate.

The Company's business plan and potential growth is based upon numerous assumptions. No assurance can be given regarding the attainability of the financial projections. The Company's ability to adhere to, and implement, its business plan will depend upon the Company's ability to successfully raise funds and a variety of other factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control. Likewise, management is not bound to follow the business plan and may elect to adopt other strategies based upon unanticipated opportunities, or changes in circumstances or market conditions. All financial projections contained in the business plan are based entirely upon management's assumptions and projections and should not be considered as a forecast of actual revenues or our liquidity. Actual operating results may be materially different.

Although the Company believes the assumptions upon which the Company's business and financial projections are based have reasonable bases, the Company cannot offer any assurance that its results of operations and growth will be as contemplated. If any of the assumptions upon which these opinions and projections are based prove to be inaccurate, including growth of the economy in general and trends in our industry, these opinions and projections could be adversely affected. Prospective investors should be aware that these opinions and other projections and predictions of future performance, whether included in the business plan, or previously or subsequently communicated to prospective investors, are based on certain assumptions which are highly speculative. Such projections or opinions are not (and should not be regarded as) a representation or warranty by the Company or any other person that the overall objectives of the Company will ever be achieved or that the Company will ever achieve significant revenues or profitability. These opinions, financial projections, and any other predictions of future performance should not be relied upon by potential investors in making an investment decision in regard to this Offering.

We rely on other companies to provide services for our products.

We depend on third-party vendors to meet our contractual obligations to our customers and to conduct our operations. Our ability to meet our obligations to our customers may be adversely affected if vendors do not provide the agreed-upon services in compliance with customer requirements and in a timely and cost-effective manner. Likewise, the quality of our services may be adversely impacted if companies to whom we delegate certain services do not perform to our, and our customers', expectations. Our vendors may also be unable to quickly recover from natural disasters and other events beyond their control and may be subject to additional risks such as financial problems that limit their ability to conduct their operations. The risk of these adverse effects may be greater in circumstances where we rely on only one or two vendors for a particular service.

We rely on various intellectual property rights, including trademarks, in order to operate our business.

The Issuer relies on certain intellectual property rights to operate its business. The Issuer's intellectual property rights may not be sufficiently broad or otherwise may not provide us a significant competitive advantage. In addition, the steps that we have taken to maintain and protect our intellectual property may not prevent it from being challenged, invalidated, circumvented or designed around, particularly in countries where intellectual property rights are not highly developed or protected. In some circumstances, enforcement may not be available to us because an infringer has a dominant intellectual property position or for other business reasons, or countries may require compulsory licensing of our intellectual property. Our failure to obtain or maintain intellectual property rights that convey competitive advantage, adequately protect our intellectual property or detect or prevent circumvention or unauthorized use of such property, could adversely impact our competitive position and results of operations. We also rely on nondisclosure and noncompetition agreements with employees, consultants and other parties to protect, in part, trade secrets and other proprietary rights. There can be no assurance that these agreements will adequately protect our trade secrets and other proprietary rights and will not be breached, that we will have adequate remedies for any breach, that others will not independently develop substantially equivalent proprietary information or that third parties will not otherwise gain access to our trade secrets or other proprietary rights. As we expand our business, protecting our intellectual property will become increasingly important. The protective steps we have taken may be inadequate to deter our competitors from using our proprietary information. In order to protect or enforce our intellectual property rights, we may be required to initiate litigation against third parties, such as infringement lawsuits. Also, these third parties may assert claims against us with or without provocation. These lawsuits could be expensive, take significant time and could divert management's attention from other business concerns. We cannot assure you that we will prevail in any of these potential suits or that the damages or other remedies awarded, if any, would be commercially valuable.

The Company's success depends on the experience and skill of its Managers, executive officers and key personnel.

We are dependent on our Managers, executive officers and key personnel. These people may not devote their full time and attention to the matters of the Company. The loss of all or any of our Managers, executive officers and key personnel could harm the Company's business, financial condition, cash flow and results of operations.

Although dependent on certain key personnel, the Company does not have any key person life insurance policies on any such people.

We are dependent on certain key personnel in order to conduct our operations and execute our business plan, however, the Company has not purchased any insurance policies with respect to those individuals in the event of their death or disability. Therefore, if any of these personnel die or become disabled, the Company will not receive any compensation to assist with such person's absence. The loss of such person could negatively affect the Company and our operations. We have no way to guarantee key personnel will stay with the Company, as many states do not enforce non-competition agreements, and therefore acquiring key man insurance will not ameliorate all of the risk of relying on key personnel.

In order for the Company to compete and grow, it must attract, recruit, retain and develop the necessary personnel who have the needed experience.

Recruiting and retaining highly qualified personnel is critical to our success. These demands may require us to hire additional personnel and will require our existing management and other personnel to develop additional expertise. We face intense competition for personnel, making recruitment time-consuming and expensive. The failure to attract and retain personnel or to develop such expertise could delay or halt the development and commercialization of our product candidates. If we experience difficulties in hiring and retaining personnel in key positions, we could suffer from delays in product development, loss of customers and sales and diversion of management resources, which could adversely affect operating results. Our consultants and advisors may be employed by third parties and may have commitments under consulting or advisory contracts with third parties that may limit their availability to us, which could further delay or disrupt our product development and growth plans.

The development and commercialization of our products is highly competitive.

We face competition with respect to any products that we may seek to develop or commercialize in the future. Our competitors include major companies worldwide. Many of our competitors have significantly greater financial, technical and human resources than we have and superior expertise in research and development and marketing approved products and thus may be better equipped than us to develop and commercialize products. These competitors also compete with us in recruiting and retaining qualified personnel and acquiring technologies. Smaller or early-stage companies may also prove to be significant competitors, particularly through collaborative arrangements with large and established companies. Accordingly, our competitors may commercialize products more rapidly or effectively than we are able to, which would adversely affect our competitive position, the likelihood that our products will achieve initial market acceptance, and our ability to generate meaningful additional revenues from our products.

We face various risks as an e-commerce retailer.

We operate a business that sells directly to consumers via e-commerce. This may require additional investments to sustain or grow our e-commerce business, including increased capital requirements. Additionally, there are business risks we face related to operating our e-commerce business which include our inability to keep pace with rapid technological change, failure in our security procedures or operational controls, failure or inadequacy in our systems or labor resource levels to effectively process customer orders in a timely manner, government regulation and legal uncertainties with respect to e-commerce, and the collection of sales or other taxes by one or more states or foreign jurisdictions. If any of these risks materialize, they could have an adverse effect on our business. In addition, we may face increased competition in the future from internet retailers who enter the market. Our failure to positively differentiate our product and services offerings or customer experience from these new internet retailers could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

If we are unsuccessful in adding users of our platform, or if our clients decrease their level of engagement, our revenue, financial results, and business may be significantly harmed.

We offer a platform that personalizes science-based mindset coaching, and mental fitness training using our proprietary innercise® methods. The amount of users of our platform and our client's level of engagement will be critical to our success. Our financial performance will be significantly determined by our success in adding, retaining, and engaging active users of our platform and the services offered. If clients do not perceive our platform or services provided thereunder to be useful, reliable, and trustworthy, we may not be able to attract or retain users or otherwise maintain or increase the frequency and duration of their engagement. There is no guarantee that we will not experience an erosion of our active client base or engagement levels in the future.

Damage to our reputation could negatively impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our reputation and the quality of our brand are critical to our business and success in existing markets, and will be critical to our success as we enter new markets. Any incident that erodes consumer loyalty for our brand could significantly reduce its value and damage our business. We may be adversely affected by any negative publicity, regardless of its accuracy. Also, there has been a marked increase in the use of social media platforms and similar devices, including blogs, social media websites and other forms of internet-based communications that provide individuals with access to a broad audience of consumers and other interested persons. The availability of information on social media platforms is virtually immediate as is its impact. Information posted may be adverse to our interests or may be inaccurate, each of which may harm our performance, prospects or business. The harm may be immediate and may disseminate rapidly and broadly, without affording us an opportunity for redress or correction.

Our business could be negatively impacted by cyber security threats, attacks and other disruptions.

We may face advanced and persistent attacks on our information infrastructure where we manage and store various proprietary information and sensitive/confidential data relating to our operations. These attacks may include sophisticated malware (viruses, worms, and other malicious software programs) and phishing emails that attack our products or otherwise exploit any security vulnerabilities. These intrusions sometimes may be zero-day malware that are difficult to identify because they are not included in the signature set of commercially available antivirus scanning programs. Experienced computer programmers and hackers may be able to penetrate our network security and misappropriate or compromise our confidential information or that of our customers or other third parties, create system disruptions, or cause shutdowns. Additionally, sophisticated software and applications that we produce or procure from third parties may contain defects in design or manufacture, including "bugs" and other problems that could unexpectedly interfere with the operation of the information infrastructure. A disruption, infiltration or failure of our information infrastructure systems or any of our data centers as a result of software or hardware malfunctions, computer viruses, cyber-attacks, employee theft or misuse, power disruptions, natural disasters or accidents could cause breaches of data security, loss of critical data and performance delays, which in turn could adversely affect our business.

Security breaches of confidential customer information, or confidential employee information may adversely affect our business.

Our business requires the collection, transmission and retention of personally identifiable information, in various information technology systems that we maintain and in those maintained by third parties with whom we contract to provide services. The integrity and protection of that data is critical to us. The information, security and privacy requirements imposed by governmental regulation are increasingly demanding. Our systems may not be able to satisfy these changing requirements and customer and employee expectations or may require significant additional investments or time in order to do so. A breach in the security of our information technology systems or those of our service providers could lead to an interruption in the operation of our systems, resulting in operational inefficiencies and a loss of profits. Additionally, a significant theft, loss or misappropriation of, or access to, customers' or other proprietary data or other breach of our information technology systems could result in fines, legal claims or proceedings.

The use of individually identifiable data by our business, our business associates and third parties is regulated at the state, federal and international levels.

The regulation of individual data is changing rapidly, and in unpredictable ways. A change in regulation could adversely affect our business, including causing our business model to no longer be viable. Costs associated with information security – such as investment in technology, the costs of compliance with consumer protection laws and costs resulting from consumer fraud – could cause our business and results of operations to suffer materially. Additionally, the success of our online operations depends upon the secure transmission of confidential information over public networks, including the use of cashless payments. The intentional or negligent actions of employees, business associates or third parties may undermine our security measures. As a result, unauthorized parties may obtain access to our data systems and misappropriate confidential data. There can be no assurance that advances in computer capabilities, new discoveries in the field of cryptography or other developments will prevent the compromise of our customer transaction processing capabilities and personal data. If any such compromise of our security or the security of information residing with our business associates or third parties were to occur, it could have a material adverse effect on our reputation, operating results and financial condition. Any compromise of our data security may materially increase the costs we incur to protect against such breaches and could subject us to additional legal risk.

The Company is not subject to Sarbanes-Oxley regulations and may lack the financial controls and procedures of public companies.

The Company may not have the internal control infrastructure that would meet the standards of a public company, including the requirements of the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002. As a privately held (non-public) issuer, the Company is currently not subject to the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002, and its financial and disclosure controls and procedures reflect its status as a development stage, non-public company. There can be no guarantee that there are no significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the quality of the Company's financial and disclosure controls and procedures. If it were necessary to implement such financial and disclosure controls and procedures, the cost to the Company of such compliance could be substantial and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations.

Changes in federal, state or local laws and government regulation could adversely impact our business.

The Company is subject to legislation and regulation at the federal, state and local levels. New laws and regulations may impose new and significant disclosure obligations and other operational, marketing and compliance-related obligations and requirements, which may lead to additional costs, risks of non-compliance, and diversion of our management's time and attention from strategic initiatives. Additionally, federal, state and local legislators or regulators may change current laws or regulations which could adversely impact our business. Further, court actions or regulatory proceedings could also change our rights and obligations under applicable federal, state and local laws, which cannot be predicted. Modifications to existing requirements or imposition of new requirements or limitations could have an adverse impact on our business.

We operate in a regulated environment, and if we are found to be in violation of any of the federal, state, or local laws or regulations applicable to us, our business could suffer.

We are also subject to a wide range of federal, state, and local laws and regulations. The violation of these or future requirements or laws and regulations could result in administrative, civil, or criminal sanctions against us, which may include fines, a cease-and-desist order against the subject operations or even revocation or suspension of our license to operate the subject business. As a result, we may incur capital and operating expenditures and other costs to comply with these requirements and laws and regulations.

Changes in employment laws or regulations could harm our performance.

Various federal and state labor laws govern our relationship with our employees and affect operating costs. These laws include minimum wage requirements, overtime pay, healthcare reform and the implementation of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, unemployment tax rates, workers' compensation rates, citizenship requirements, union membership and sales taxes. A number of factors could adversely affect our operating results, including additional government-imposed increases in minimum wages, overtime pay, paid leaves of absence and mandated health benefits, mandated training for employees, increased tax reporting and tax payment requirements for employees who receive tips, a reduction in the number of states that allow tips to be credited toward minimum wage requirements, changing regulations from the National Labor Relations Board and increased employee litigation including claims relating to the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Risks Related to the Offering

State and federal securities laws are complex, and the Company could potentially be found to have not complied with all relevant state and federal securities law in prior offerings of securities.

The Company has conducted previous offerings of securities and may not have complied with all relevant state and federal securities laws. If a court or regulatory body with the required jurisdiction ever concluded that the Company may have violated state or federal securities laws, any such violation could result in the Company being required to offer rescission rights to investors in such offering. If such investors exercised their rescission rights, the Company would have to pay to such investors an amount of funds equal to the purchase price paid by such investors plus interest from the date of any such purchase. No assurances can be given the Company will, if it is required to offer such investors a rescission right, have sufficient funds to pay the prior investors the amounts required or that proceeds from this Offering would not be used to pay such amounts.

In addition, if the Company violated federal or state securities laws in connection with a prior offering and/or sale of its securities, federal or state regulators could bring an enforcement, regulatory and/or other legal action against the Company which, among other things, could result in the Company having to pay substantial fines and be prohibited from selling securities in the future.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of the Securities or the terms of the Offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any Offering document or literature.

You should not rely on the fact that our Form C/A is accessible through the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's EDGAR filing system as an approval, endorsement or guarantee of compliance as it relates to this Offering. The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not reviewed this Form C/A, nor any document or literature related to this Offering.

Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws.

No governmental agency has reviewed or passed upon this Offering or the Securities. Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws. Investors will not receive any of the benefits available in registered offerings, which may include access to quarterly and annual financial statements that have been audited by an independent accounting firm. Investors must therefore assess the adequacy of disclosure and the fairness of the terms of this Offering based on the information provided in this Form C/A and the accompanying exhibits.

The Securities are offered on a "Best Efforts" basis and the Company may not raise the maximum amount being offered.

Since the Company is offering the Securities on a "best efforts" basis, there is no assurance that the Company will sell enough Securities to meet its capital needs. If you purchase Securities in this Offering, you will do so without any assurance that the Company will raise enough money to satisfy the full Use of Proceeds which the Company has outlined in this Form C/A or to meet the Company's working capital needs.

The Company's management may have broad discretion in how the Company uses the net proceeds of the Offering.

Unless the Company has agreed to a specific use of the proceeds from the Offering, the Company's management will have considerable discretion over the use of proceeds from the Offering. As is the case with any business, particularly one without a proven business model, it should be expected that certain expenses unforeseeable to management at this juncture will arise in the future. There can be no assurance that management's use of proceeds generated through this Offering will prove optimal or translate into revenue or profitability for the Company. You are urged to review the Use of Proceeds in this Offering Statement but to understand that the actual use of the net proceeds of this Offering may vary significantly. In all cases, you should consult with their attorneys, accountants and personal investment advisors prior to making any decision to invest in the Company. You may not have the opportunity, as part of your investment decision, to assess whether the proceeds are being used appropriately.

The Intermediary Fees paid by the Company are subject to change depending on the success of the Offering.

At the conclusion of the Offering, the Company shall pay the Intermediary a fee of eight and one-half percent (8.5%) of the dollar amount raised in the Offering, plus a $15,000 advance setup fee and $4,000 monthly fee for use of the platform. The compensation paid by the Company to the Intermediary may impact how the Company uses the net proceeds of the Offering.

The Company has the right to limit individual Investor commitment amounts based on the Company's determination of an Investor's sophistication.

The Company may prevent any Investor from committing more than a certain amount in this Offering based on the Company's determination of the Investor's sophistication and ability to assume the risk of the investment. This means that your desired investment amount may be limited or lowered based solely on the Company's determination and not in line with relevant investment limits set forth by the Regulation CF rules. This also means that other Investors may receive larger allocations of the Offering based solely on the Company's determination.

The Company has the right to extend the Offering Deadline.

The Company may extend the Offering Deadline beyond what is currently stated herein. This means that your investment may continue to be held in escrow while the Company attempts to raise the Target Offering Amount even after the Offering Deadline stated herein is reached. While you have the right to cancel your investment in the event the Company extends the Offering Deadline, if you choose to reconfirm your investment, your investment will not be accruing interest during this time and will simply be held until such time as the new Offering Deadline is reached without the Company receiving the Target Offering Amount, at which time it will be returned to you without interest or deduction, or the Company receives the Target Offering Amount, at which time it will be released to the Company to be used as set forth herein. Upon or shortly after the release of such funds to the Company, the Securities will be issued and distributed to you.

The Company may also end the Offering early.

If the Target Offering Amount is met after 21 calendar days, but before the Offering Deadline, the Company can end the Offering by providing notice to Investors at least 5 business days prior to the end of the Offering. This means your failure to participate in the Offering in a timely manner, may prevent you from being able to invest in this Offering – it also means the Company may limit the amount of capital it can raise during the Offering by ending the Offering early.

The Company has the right to conduct multiple closings during the Offering.

If the Company meets certain terms and conditions, an intermediate close (also known as a rolling close) of the Offering can occur, which will allow the Company to draw down on Investor proceeds committed and captured in the Offering during the relevant period. The Company may choose to continue the Offering thereafter. Investors should be mindful that this means they can make multiple investment commitments in the Offering, which may be subject to different cancellation rights. For example, if an intermediate close occurs and later a material change occurs as the Offering continues, Investors whose investment commitments were previously closed upon will not have the right to re-confirm their investment as it will be deemed to have been completed prior to the material change.

Risks Related to the Securities

You will not be investing directly into the Company, but into a special purpose vehicle.

Changes to the securities laws that went into effect March 15, 2021, permit us to use a “special purpose vehicle” or “SPV” in this offering. That means that you will invest in NeuorGym CF Investors SPV, LLC, becoming a member of the SPV, and that investment purchases our Class B Units. A condition to using an SPV is that the SPV passes on the same economic and governance rights that are set out in the Company’s Operating Agreement, regarding the Class B Units. You will also be relying on us, as the Manager of the SPV, to make sure the SPV complies with Delaware law and functions in accordance with securities law. The structure of the SPV is explained further in the section entitled, “CAPITALIZATION AND OWNERSHIP”. The SPV will terminate and distribute the securities it holds to you, so that you may hold them directly, in certain circumstances. Due to this structure, there may be delays, complications and unexpected risks.

An investment in the Company's Securities could result in a loss of your entire investment.

An investment in the Company's Securities offered in this Offering involves a high degree of risk and you should not purchase the Securities if you cannot afford the loss of your entire investment. You may not be able to liquidate your investment for any reason in the near future.

The Securities will not be freely tradable under the Securities Act until one year from the initial purchase date. Although the Securities may be tradable under federal securities law, state securities regulations may apply, and each Investor should consult with their attorney.

You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. There is not now and may never be a public market for the Securities. Because the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction, the Securities have transfer restrictions and cannot be resold in the United States except pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation CF. It is not currently contemplated that registration under the Securities Act or other securities laws will be effected. Limitations on the transfer of the Securities may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the Securities in a private sale. In addition, even if a trading market develops, there is absolutely no assurance that the Securities could be sold under Rule 144 or otherwise unless the Company becomes a current public reporting company with the Securities and Exchange Commission and otherwise is current in the Company's business, financial and management information reporting, and applicable holding periods have been satisfied. Investors should be aware of the long-term nature of their investment in the Company. Each Investor in this Offering will be required to represent that they are purchasing the Securities for their own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof.

The securities in this Offering have no protective provisions.

The Securities in this Offering have no protective provisions. As such, you will not be afforded protection, by any provision of the Securities or as a member, in the event of a transaction that may adversely affect you, including a reorganization, restructuring, merger or other similar transaction involving the Company. If there is a liquidation event, or change of control for the Company, the Securities being offered do not provide you with any protection. In addition, there are no provisions attached to the Securities in the Offering that would permit you to require the Company to repurchase the Securities in the event of a takeover, recapitalization or similar transaction involving the Company.

Investors will not have voting rights.

Investors in the Securities will not have voting rights. Thus, Investors will never be able to vote upon any matters of the Company. Additionally, investors in the Co-Issuer will indirectly hold only Class B Units of the Company and are completely passive investors. Investors should not purchase the Securities if they are not comfortable with this lack of voting and control. Lastly, the Co-Issuer (and the Investors) will be subject to the provisions of the Operating Agreement.

Investors will not be entitled to any inspection or information rights other than those required by law.

Investors will not have the right to inspect the books and records of the Company or to receive financial or other information from the Company, other than as required by law. Other security holders of the Company may have such rights. Regulation CF requires only the provision of an annual report on Form C-AR and no additional information. Additionally, there are numerous methods by which the Company can terminate annual report obligations, resulting in no information rights, contractual, statutory or otherwise, owed to Investors. This lack of information could put Investors at a disadvantage in general and with respect to other security holders, including certain security holders who have rights to periodic financial statements and updates from the Company such as quarterly unaudited financials, annual projections and budgets, and monthly progress reports, among other things.

The Securities may be significantly diluted as a consequence of subsequent equity financings.

The Company's equity securities will be subject to dilution. The Company intends to issue additional equity to employees and third-party financing sources in amounts that are uncertain at this time, and as a consequence holders of the Securities will be subject to dilution in an unpredictable amount. Such dilution may reduce the Investor's control and economic interests in the Company.

The amount of additional financing needed by the Company will depend upon several contingencies not foreseen at the time of this Offering. Generally, additional financing (whether in the form of loans or the issuance of other securities) will be intended to provide the Company with enough capital to reach the next major corporate milestone. If the funds received in any additional financing are not sufficient to meet the Company's needs, the Company may have to raise additional capital at a price unfavorable to their existing investors, including the holders of the Securities. The availability of capital is at least partially a function of capital market conditions that are beyond the control of the Company. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to accurately predict the future capital requirements necessary for success or that additional funds will be available from any source. Failure to obtain financing on favorable terms could dilute or otherwise severely impair the value of the Securities.

Our valuation and our offering price have been established internally and are difficult to assess.

The Offering price was not established in a competitive market. We have arbitrarily set the price of the Securities with reference to the general status of the securities market and other relevant factors. The Offering price for the Securities should not be considered an indication of the actual value of the Securities and is not based on our asset value, net worth, revenues or other established criteria of value. The Company has set the price of its Class B Units at $5.00 per unit, plus a 3.5% Investor Processing Fee, with a maximum fee of $1,500, see "Offering" for further details on this fee. The Investor Processing Fee is intended to offset transaction costs and, though this fee is counted towards the amount the Company is seeking to raise under Regulation Crowdfunding and the limit each investor may invest pursuant to Regulation Crowdfunding, we did not value it in determining our valuation. Including this fee will increase our valuation for which you are paying for units in our Company accordingly. Valuations for companies at this stage are generally purely speculative. Our valuation has not been validated by any independent third-party and may decrease precipitously in the future. It is a question of whether you, the investor, are willing to pay this price for a percentage ownership of an early-stage company. We cannot guarantee that the Securities can be resold at the Offering price or at any other price.

The Investor Processing Fee may not count toward your cost basis for tax purposes.

The IRS and/or another relevant tax authority may consider the price of the Class B Units before including the Investor Processing Fee as the cost basis for determining any gain or loss at a realization event. You should discuss with your tax advisor the appropriate way to determine the relevant tax obligation.

There is no guarantee of a return on an Investor's investment.

There is no assurance that an Investor will realize a return on their investment or that they will not lose their entire investment. For this reason, each Investor should read this Form C/A and all Exhibits carefully and should consult with their attorney and business advisor prior to making any investment decision.

IN ADDITION TO THE RISKS LISTED ABOVE, RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES NOT PRESENTLY KNOWN, OR WHICH WE CONSIDER IMMATERIAL AS OF THE DATE OF THIS FORM C/A, MAY ALSO HAVE AN ADVERSE EFFECT ON OUR BUSINESS AND RESULT IN THE TOTAL LOSS OF YOUR INVESTMENT.

If an Investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the Target Offering Amount is reached, the funds will be released to the Company upon the closing of the Offering and the Investor will receive the Securities in exchange for their investment.

The Securities do not have voting rights. Investors in the Co-Issuer will indirectly hold only the Securities (the Class B Units) and are completely passive investors. Investors should not purchase the Securities if they are not comfortable with this lack of voting and control.

The primary documents governing voting and the rights of the Securities are the Company's A&R Operating Agreement attached as Exhibit E. Among other things, the A&R Operating Agreement provides for certain provisions related to (i) authorized classes of units, (ii) distributions and allocations; (iii) management, including the authority and appointment of the Managers; and (iv) transferability. All statements in this Form C/A regarding voting and control of the Securities being sold in this Offering are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Company's Governing Documents.

By executing the Subscription Agreement with the Co-Issuer, Investors will become members in the Co-Issuer. Additionally, the Co-Issuer will be required to execute a Subscription Agreement with the Company, attached as Exhibit E, and will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Company's A&R Operating Agreement.

Dilution

The Securities do not have anti-dilution rights, which means that future equity issuances and other events will dilute the ownership percentage that Investors may eventually have in the Company. Investors should understand and expect the potential for dilution. The Investor's stake in the Company could be diluted due to the Company issuing additional Units or other convertible securities to other parties. In other words, when the Company issues more Units, the percentage of the Company that you own will go down, even though the value of the Company may go up (there is no guarantee that it will). You will own a smaller piece of a larger Company (or, if the value goes down, then a smaller piece of a smaller company). This increase in number of Units outstanding could result from a Units offering (such as an initial public offering, another crowdfunding round, a venture capital round or angel investment), employees exercising options, or by conversion of certain instruments (e.g. convertible bonds or warrants) into Units. If the Company decides to issue more Units, an investor could experience value dilution, with each Unit being worth less than before, and control dilution, with the total percentage an investor owns being less than before. There may also be earnings dilution, with a reduction in the amount earned per Unit reducing the value of a Unit.

What it Means to be a Minority Holder

Investors in our Class B Units, which do not provide for voting rights, will not have any rights in regard to the corporate actions of the Company, including additional issuances of securities, Company repurchases of securities, a sale of the Company or its significant assets, or Company transactions with related parties.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

1. Subscription.

(a) The undersigned (“Subscriber”) hereby subscribes for and agrees to purchase limited liability company membership units (the “Securities”) of NeuroGym CF Investors SPV, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the “Co-Issuer”), upon the terms and conditions set forth herein. The Co-Issuer is serving as a “crowdfunding vehicle” as defined under Rule 3a-9 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, for Class B limited liability company common equity interests (“Class B Units”) to be acquired from NeuroGym LLC, a California limited liability company (the “Issuer”). The Securities being subscribed for under this Subscription Agreement constitute limited liability company membership units of the Co-Issuer which relate to Class B Units issued by the Issuer on a one-to-one basis. The rights of the Securities are as set forth in the Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Co-Issuer, dated as of September 16, 2025 (as the same may be amended or amended and restated from time to time, the “Operating Agreement”), and any description of the Securities that appears in the Offering Materials is qualified in its entirety by such document. Any capitalized term not specifically defined in this Subscription Agreement shall have the same meaning ascribed to such term in the Offering Materials.

(b) (i) By executing this Subscription Agreement, Subscriber acknowledges that Subscriber has received this Subscription Agreement, a copy of the Offering Statement of the Co-Issuer and Issuer filed with the SEC and any other information required by the Subscriber to make an investment decision. It is a condition of the Co-Issuer’s acceptance of this subscription that Subscriber becomes a party to the Operating Agreement;

(ii) Subscriber acknowledges that Subscriber has read the educational materials on the investor website page, and has been informed of Subscriber’s right to cancel the investment up to 48-hours prior to the Offering Deadline (as hereinafter defined); however, once the Subscription Agreement is accepted by the Co-Issuer and Issuer there is no cancelation right;

(iii) Subscriber acknowledges that there may be promoters for this Offering, and in the case that there are any communications from promoters, the promoter must clearly disclose in all communications the receipt of compensation, and that the promoter is engaged in promotional activities on behalf of the Co-Issuer and Issuer. A promoter may be any person who promotes the Co-Issuer and Issuer’s offering for compensation, whether past or prospective, or who is a founder or an employee of an issuer that engages in promotional activities on behalf of the Co-Issuer and Issuer; and

(iv) Subscriber acknowledges that Subscriber has been informed of the compensation that DealMaker Securities LLC and its affiliates have received or will receive in connection with the sale of the Securities in the Regulation CF offering and the manner in which it is received.

(c) Subscriber understands that the Issuer, as Manager of the Co-Issuer, will make all decisions for the Co-Issuer even though the Subscriber's investment is not made with the Issuer.

(d) This subscription may be accepted or rejected in whole or in part, at any time prior to a Closing Date (as hereinafter defined), by the Co-Issuer at its sole discretion. In addition, the Co-Issuer, at its sole discretion, may allocate to Subscriber only a portion of the number of Securities that Subscriber has subscribed for. The Co-Issuer will notify Subscriber whether this subscription is accepted (whether in whole or in part) or rejected. If Subscriber's subscription is rejected, Subscriber's payment (or portion thereof if partially rejected) will be returned to Subscriber without interest and all of Subscriber's obligations hereunder shall terminate.

(e) The aggregate value of Securities sold shall not exceed $5,000,000.00, which includes a 3.5% Investor Processing Fee (with a maximum fee of $1,500), on each single investment in the Offering. The Co-Issuer may accept subscriptions until April 30, 2027 (the "Offering Deadline"). Provided that subscriptions for $10,350.00 worth of Securities are received, which also includes a 3.5% Investor Processing Fee on each transaction (with a maximum fee of $1,500) (the "Target Offering Amount"), the Co-Issuer may elect at any time to close all or any portion of the Offering, on various dates at or prior to the Offering Deadline (each a "Closing Date").

(f) In the event of rejection of this subscription in its entirety, or in the event the sale of the Securities (or any portion thereof) is not consummated for any reason, this Subscription Agreement shall have no force or effect.

2. Joinder to Operating Agreement. By executing this Subscription Agreement, Subscriber will automatically become party to the Operating Agreement of the Co-Issuer as a Member holding the Securities of the Co-Issuer.

3. Purchase Procedure.

(a) Payment. The purchase price for the Securities shall be paid simultaneously with the execution and delivery to the Co-Issuer of the signature page of this Subscription Agreement, which signature and delivery may take place through digital online means. Subscriber shall deliver a signed copy of this Subscription Agreement, along with payment for the aggregate purchase price of the Securities in accordance with the online payment process established by the Intermediary.

(b) Escrow Arrangements. Payment for the Securities shall be received by the escrow agent appointed by the Intermediary in this Offering (the "Escrow Agent") from the undersigned by transfer of immediately available funds or other means approved by the Co-Issuer prior to the applicable Closing, in the amount as set forth in Appendix A on the signature page hereto and otherwise in accordance with the Intermediary's payment processing instructions. Upon such Closing, the Escrow Agent shall release such funds to the Issuer. The undersigned shall receive notice and evidence of the digital entry of the number of the Securities owned by undersigned reflected on the books and records of the Co-Issuer, which books and records shall bear a notation that the Securities were sold in reliance upon Regulation CF.

4. Representations and Warranties of the Co-Issuer and Issuer. The Co-Issuer and Issuer each represent and warrant to Subscriber that the following representations and warranties are true and correct in all material respects as of the date of each Closing Date, except as otherwise indicated. For purposes of this Subscription Agreement, an individual shall be deemed to have “knowledge” of a particular fact or other matter if such individual is actually aware of such fact. The Co-Issuer and Issuer will be deemed to have “knowledge” of a particular fact or other matter if one of the Co-Issuer’s or Issuer’s current officers has, or at any time had, actual knowledge of such fact or other matter.

(a) Organization and Standing. The Issuer is a limited liability company duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of California. The Issuer is duly qualified and is authorized to do business and is in good standing as a foreign limited liability company in all jurisdictions in which the nature of its activities and of its properties (both owned and leased) makes such qualification necessary, except for those jurisdictions in which failure to do so would not have a material adverse effect on the Co-Issuer or its business.

(b) Eligibility of the Co-Issuer and Issuer to Make an Offering under Section 4(a)(6). The Co-Issuer and the Issuer are eligible to make an offering under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act and the rules promulgated thereunder by the SEC.

The issuance, sale and delivery of the Securities in accordance with this Subscription Agreement and the underlying securities to be issued to the Co-Issuer have been duly authorized by all necessary limited liability company action on the part of the Co-Issuer, and by the Issuer. The Securities, when so issued, sold and delivered against payment therefor in accordance with the provisions of this Subscription Agreement, will be duly and validly issued and outstanding and will constitute valid and legally binding obligations of the Co-Issuer, and enforceable against the Co-Issuer in accordance with their terms. Further, the underlying securities to be issued by the Issuer to the Co-Issuer will be duly and validly issued and outstanding and will constitute valid and legally binding obligations of the Issuer, enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with their terms.

(d) Authority for Subscription Agreement. The execution and delivery by the Co-Issuer of this Subscription Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby (including the issuance, sale and delivery of the Securities) are within the Co-Issuer’s powers and have been duly authorized by all necessary actions on the part of the Co-Issuer. Upon full execution hereof, this Subscription Agreement shall constitute a valid and binding agreement of the Co-Issuer, enforceable against the Co-Issuer in accordance with its terms, except (i) as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, and other laws of general application affecting enforcement of creditors’ rights generally, (ii) as limited by laws relating to the availability of specific performance, injunctive relief, or other equitable remedies and (iii) with respect to provisions relating to indemnification and contribution, as limited by considerations of public policy and by federal or state securities laws.

(e) No Filings. Assuming the accuracy of the Subscriber’s representations and warranties set forth in Section 4 hereof, no order, license, consent, authorization or approval of, or exemption by, or action by or in respect of, or notice to, or filing or registration with, any governmental body, agency or official is required by or with respect to the Co-Issuer in connection with the execution, delivery and performance by the Co-Issuer of this Subscription Agreement except (i) for such filings as may be required under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act or the rules promulgated thereunder or under any applicable state securities laws, (ii) for such other filings and approvals as have been made or obtained, or (iii) where the failure to obtain any such order, license, consent, authorization, approval or exemption or give any such notice or make any filing or registration would not have a material adverse effect on the ability of the Co-Issuer to perform its obligations hereunder.

(f) Financial Statements. Complete copies of the Issuer's financial statements consisting of the reviewed balance sheet of the Issuer for the years ended December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively, and the related statements of operations, changes in member's deficit and cash flows at December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024 (the "Financial Statements") have been made available to the Subscriber and appear in the Offering Statement and on the Investor Website Page. The Financial Statements are based on the books and records of the Issuer and fairly present the financial condition of the Issuer as of the date they were prepared and the results of the operations and cash flows of the Issuer for the periods indicated. SetApart Accountancy Corp., who has provided the audited Financial Statements, is an independent accountant within the rules and regulations adopted by the SEC. The Financial Statements comply with the requirements of Rule 201 of Regulation Crowdfunding, as promulgated by the SEC. Additionally, the Co-Issuer has had audited financials for the period from inception date (September 16, 2025) through December 31, 2025 (the "Co-Issuer Financial Statements") prepared by SetApart Accountancy Corp., an independent accounting firm within the rules and regulations adopted by the SEC. The Co-Issuer Financial Statements comply with the requirements of Rule 201 of Regulation Crowdfunding, as promulgated by the SEC.

(g) Proceeds. The Co-Issuer shall use the proceeds from the issuance and sale of the Securities as set forth in "Use of Proceeds" in the Offering Materials.

(h) Litigation. Except as set forth in the Offering Materials, as of the date thereof, there is no pending action, suit, proceeding, arbitration, mediation, complaint, claim, charge or investigation before any court, arbitrator, mediator or governmental body, or to the Co-Issuer's and Issuer's knowledge, currently threatened in writing (a) against the Co-Issuer or Issuer or (b) against any consultant, officer, manager, director or key employee of the Co-Issuer or Issuer arising out of his or her consulting, employment or board relationship with the Co-Issuer or Issuer or that could otherwise materially impact the Co-Issuer or Issuer.

5. Representations and Warranties of Subscriber. By executing this Subscription Agreement, Subscriber (and, if Subscriber is purchasing the Securities subscribed for hereby in a fiduciary capacity, the person or persons for whom Subscriber is so purchasing) represents and warrants, which representations and warranties are true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the Subscriber's Closing Date(s):

(a) Requisite Power and Authority. Subscriber has all necessary power and authority under all applicable provisions of law to execute and deliver this Subscription Agreement, the Operating Agreement and other agreements required hereunder and to carry out their provisions. All action on Subscriber's part required for the lawful execution and delivery of this Subscription Agreement, the Operating Agreement and other agreements required hereunder have been or will be effectively taken prior to the Closing. Upon their execution and delivery, this Subscription Agreement, the Operating Agreement and other agreements required hereunder will be valid and binding obligations of Subscriber, enforceable in accordance with their terms, except (a) as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other laws of general application affecting enforcement of creditors' rights and (b) as limited by general principles of equity that restrict the availability of equitable remedies.

(b) Investment Representations. Subscriber understands that the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act. Subscriber also understands that the Securities are being offered and sold pursuant to an exemption from registration contained in the Securities Act based in part upon Subscriber's representations contained in this Subscription Agreement. Subscriber is a natural person.

(c) Manner of Holding. Subscriber understands that the Subscriber is investing into the Co-Issuer, which will serve as a "crowdfunding vehicle" for an investment between the Co-Issuer and the Issuer. The Co-Issuer will maintain records of securityholders and provide rights as if the Subscriber invested directly into the Issuer.

(d) Illiquidity and Continued Economic Risk. Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that there is no ready public market for the Securities and that there is no guarantee that a market for their resale will ever exist. Subscriber must bear the economic risk of this investment indefinitely and the Co-Issuer has no obligation to list the Securities on any market or take any steps (including registration under the Securities Act or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) with respect to facilitating trading or resale of the Securities. Subscriber acknowledges that Subscriber is able to bear the economic risk of losing Subscriber's entire investment in the Securities. Subscriber also understands that an investment in the Co-Issuer involves significant risks and has taken full cognizance of and understands all of the risk factors relating to the purchase of Securities.

(e) Resales. Subscriber agrees that during the one-year period beginning on the date on which it acquired Securities pursuant to this Subscription Agreement, it shall not transfer such Securities except:

(i) To the Co-Issuer;

(ii) To an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act;

(iii) As part of an offering registered under the Securities Act with the SEC;

(iv) To a member of the Subscriber's family or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the Subscriber, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the Subscriber or equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the Subscriber or other similar circumstance.

(v) Subscriber understands and agrees that Subscriber will not attempt to transfer or engage in any resales and that such transfers and resales may be prohibited by the Manager of the Co-Issuer in its sole discretion, but for very limited situations.

(f) Investment Limits. Subscriber represents that either:

(i) Either of Subscriber's net worth or annual income is less than $124,000, and that the amount it is investing pursuant to this Subscription Agreement, together with all other amounts invested in offerings under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act within the previous 12 months, is either less than (A) 5% of the greater of its annual income or net worth, or (B) $2,500; or

(ii) Both of Subscriber's net worth and annual income are more than $124,000, and that the amount it is investing pursuant to this Subscription Agreement, together with all other amounts invested in offerings under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act within the previous 12 months, is less than 10% of the greater of its annual income or net worth, and does not exceed $124,000; or

(iii) Subscriber is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act, and no investment limits shall apply.

(g) Subscriber information. Within five days after receipt of a request from the Co-Issuer, the Subscriber hereby agrees to provide such information with respect to its status as a securityholder and to execute and deliver such documents as may reasonably be necessary to comply with any and all laws and regulations to which the Co-Issuer or the Issuer is or may become subject. Subscriber further agrees that in the event it transfers any Securities, it will require the transferee of such Securities to agree to provide such information to the Co-Issuer or the Issuer as a condition of such transfer.

(h) Issuer Information. Subscriber has read the Offering Statement. Subscriber understands that the Issuer is subject to all the risks that apply to early-stage companies, whether or not those risks are explicitly set out in the Offering Materials. Subscriber has had an opportunity to discuss the Issuer's business, management and financial affairs with managers, officers and management of the Issuer and has had the opportunity to review the Issuer's operations and facilities. Subscriber has also had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers from the Issuer and its management regarding the terms and conditions of this investment. Subscriber acknowledges that except as set forth herein, no representations or warranties have been made to Subscriber, or to Subscriber's advisors or representatives, by the Issuer or others with respect to the business or prospects of the Issuer or its financial condition.

(i) Valuation. The Subscriber acknowledges that the price of the Securities was set by the Issuer on the basis of the Issuer's internal valuation and no warranties are made as to value. The Subscriber further acknowledges that future offerings of Securities may be made at lower valuations, with the result that the Subscriber's investment will bear a lower valuation.

(j) Domicile. Subscriber maintains Subscriber's domicile (and is not a transient or temporary resident) at the address shown on the signature page.

(k) Foreign Investors. If Subscriber is not a United States person (as defined by Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended), Subscriber hereby represents that it has satisfied itself as to the full observance of the laws of its jurisdiction in connection with any invitation to subscribe for the Securities or any use of this Subscription Agreement, including (i) the legal requirements within its jurisdiction for the purchase of the Securities, (ii) any foreign exchange restrictions applicable to such purchase, (iii) any governmental or other consents that may need to be obtained, and (iv) the income tax and other tax consequences, if any, that may be relevant to the purchase, holding, redemption, sale, or transfer of the Securities. Subscriber's subscription and payment for and continued beneficial ownership of the Securities will not violate any applicable securities or other laws of the Subscriber's jurisdiction.

6. Indemnity. The representations, warranties and covenants made by the Subscriber herein shall survive the closing of this Subscription Agreement. The Subscriber agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Co-Issuer, the Issuer and their respective officers, directors, managers and affiliates, and each other person, if any, who controls the Co-Issuer or the Issuer, as the case may be, within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act, against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense whatsoever (including, but not limited to, any and all reasonable attorneys' fees, including attorneys' fees on appeal) and expenses reasonably incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any false representation or warranty or breach of failure by the Subscriber to comply with any covenant or agreement made by the Subscriber herein or in any other document furnished by the Subscriber to any of the foregoing in connection with this transaction.

7. Transfer Restrictions.

(a) "Market Stand-Off" Agreement. Subscriber hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Co-Issuer will not be permitted to, without the prior written consent of the managing underwriter or financial advisor to the Issuer (as applicable), during the period commencing on the date of the final prospectus relating to the registration by the Issuer of its securities under the Securities Act on a registration statement on Form S-1 or Form S-3, and ending on the date specified by the Issuer and the managing underwriter (such period not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) days in the case of the initial public offering (the "IPO") or any merger with or into a special purpose acquisition vehicle ("SPAC"), or such other period as may be requested by the Issuer or an underwriter or financial advisor to accommodate regulatory restrictions on (1) the publication or other distribution of research reports, and (2) analyst recommendations and opinions, including, but not limited to, the restrictions contained in FINRA Rule 2711(f)(4) or NYSE Rule 472(f)(4), or any successor provisions or amendments thereto), or ninety (90) days in the case of any registration other than an IPO, or such other period as may be requested by the Issuer, its financial advisors or an underwriter to accommodate regulatory restrictions on (1) the publication or other distribution of research reports and (2) analyst recommendations and opinions, including, but not limited to, the restrictions contained in FINRA Rule 2711(f)(4) or NYSE Rule 472(f)(4), or any successor provisions or amendments thereto, (i) lend; offer; pledge; sell; contract to sell; sell any option or contract to purchase; purchase any option or contract to sell; grant any option, right, or warrant to purchase; or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any securities of the Issuer (whether such securities are then owned by the Co-Issuer or are thereafter acquired) or (ii) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of such securities, whether any such transaction described in clause (i) or (ii) above is to be settled by delivery of securities of the Issuer, in cash, or otherwise. The foregoing provisions of this Section 7(a) shall not apply to the sale of any securities of the Issuer to an underwriter pursuant to an underwriting agreement, and shall be applicable to the Co-Issuer only if all officers and directors of the Issuer are subject to the same restrictions. The financial advisors of the Issuer or its underwriters in connection with such registration are intended third party beneficiaries of this Section 7(a) and shall have the right, power and authority to enforce the provisions hereof as though they were a party hereto.

For purposes of this Section 7(a), the term "Issuer" shall include any wholly owned subsidiary of the Issuer into which the Issuer merges or consolidates. In order to enforce the foregoing covenant, the Issuer may impose stop transfer instructions with respect to the Co-Issuer's registrable securities of the Issuer (and the Issuer units or securities of every other person subject to the foregoing restriction) until the end of such period. The Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that a legend reading substantially as follows may be placed on all certificates representing all of Co-Issuer's registrable securities of the Issuer (and the Issuer units or securities of every other person subject to the restriction contained in this Section 7(a)):

"THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO A LOCK-UP PERIOD BEGINNING ON THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT OF NEUROGYM LLC ("NEUROGYM"), FILED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, AS SET FORTH IN AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN NEUROGYM AND THE ORIGINAL HOLDER OF THESE SECURITIES, A COPY OF WHICH MAY BE OBTAINED AT NEUROGYM'S PRINCIPAL OFFICE. SUCH LOCK-UP PERIOD IS BINDING ON TRANSFEREES OF THESE SECURITIES."

(b) Further Limitations on Disposition. Without in any way limiting the representations and warranties set forth in this Subscription Agreement, the Subscriber agrees not to make any disposition of all or any portion of the Securities and the Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that the Co-Issuer will not be permitted to make any disposition of all or any portion of the Issuer's Common Interests or any securities which may be converted into the Issuer's Common Interests, in each case, unless and until the transferee has agreed in writing for the benefit of the Co-Issuer and the Issuer, respectively, to make the representations and warranties set out in Section 5 and the undertaking set out in Section 7(a) of this Subscription Agreement and:

(i) there is then in effect a registration statement under the Securities Act covering such proposed disposition, and such disposition is made in connection with such registration statement; or

(ii) Subscriber or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, has (A) notified the Co-Issuer or the Issuer, as applicable, of the proposed disposition; (B) furnished the Co-Issuer or the Issuer, as applicable, with a detailed statement of the circumstances surrounding the proposed disposition; and (C) if requested by the Co-Issuer or the Issuer, as applicable, furnished the Co-Issuer or the Issuer, as applicable, with an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Co-Issuer or the Issuer, as applicable, that such disposition will not require registration under the Securities Act.

The Subscriber agrees that it will not make any disposition of any of the Securities, and acknowledges and agrees that the Co-Issuer will not be permitted to make any disposition of any of the Issuer's securities, to any competitor of the Issuer, as determined in good faith by the Issuer.

8. Applicable Law; Jurisdiction & Venue. All questions concerning the construction, validity and interpretation of this Subscription Agreement and the performance of the obligations imposed by this Subscription Agreement shall be governed by the internal laws of the State of Delaware without the application of conflicts of law principals. The parties (a) hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submit to the jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery and to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware for the purpose of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon this Subscription Agreement, (b) agree not to commence any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon this Subscription Agreement except in the above-named courts, except as provided for in Section 10, and (c) hereby waive, and agree not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, or otherwise, in any such suit, action or proceeding, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that the suit, action or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the suit, action or proceeding is improper or that this Subscription Agreement or the subject matter hereof may not be enforced in or by such court.

9. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES ITS RIGHTS TO A JURY TRIAL OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF THIS SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT, THE OTHER TRANSACTION AGREEMENTS, THE SECURITIES OR THE SUBJECT MATTER HEREOF OR THEREOF. THE SCOPE OF THIS WAIVER IS INTENDED TO BE ALL-ENCOMPASSING OF ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY BE FILED IN ANY COURT AND THAT RELATE TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, CONTRACT CLAIMS, TORT CLAIMS (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), BREACH OF DUTY CLAIMS, AND ALL OTHER COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY CLAIMS. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Subscription Agreement or the breach thereof or otherwise arising by or between any parties hereto (including the Subscriber and the Co-Issuer or the Issuer), whether arising in tort or contract outside or under the provisions of this Subscription Agreement, shall be settled by mediation in Tampa, Florida. The parties shall, before the commencement of judicial proceedings, attempt in good faith to settle their dispute by mediation using American Arbitration Association under its Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures within twenty (20) miles of the City of Solana Beach, State of California. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in Article X.

WHEREAS, the Company was formed to serve as a “crowdfunding vehicle” as that term is defined in Rule 3a-9 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “Investment Company Act”), which provides that the Company must be organized and operated for the sole purpose of directly acquiring, holding, and disposing of securities issued by a single crowdfunding issuer and raising capital in one or more offerings made in compliance with Regulation Crowdfunding under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”).

WHEREAS, the Company will undertake the limited purpose of acquiring, holding, and disposing of Securities (defined below) issued by NeuroGym LLC (the “Crowdfunding Issuer”), which will also serve as the Manager of the Company.

WHEREAS, it is the intent of the Company to issue Interests (defined below) that maintain a one-to-one relationship between the number, denomination, type and rights of the securities issued by the Crowdfunding Issuer to the Company pursuant to Regulation Crowdfunding.

NOW THEREFORE, the limited liability company agreement of the Company is hereby adopted to read in its entirety as agreed upon the Company, its Manager, and the Members as follows:

Section 1.03 Registered Office; Registered Agent. The registered office of the Company and the registered agent for service of process on the Company in the State of Delaware shall be that office and Person named in the Certificate of Formation or such other office (which need not be a place of business of the Company) or such other Person or Persons as the Manager may designate from time to time in the manner provided by the Delaware Act and Applicable Law.

(a) The purpose of the Company to serve as a “crowdfunding vehicle” pursuant to Rule 3a-9 under the Investment Company Act, specifically, to undertake the acquiring, holding, and disposing of the Securities issued by the Crowdfunding Issuer and to engage in any and all activities necessary or incidental thereto.

(b) If there is any uncertainty regarding the interpretation of any provision of this Agreement, the uncertainty shall be resolved in favor of maintaining the Company’s status as a “crowdfunding vehicle.”

Section 1.05 Term. The term of the Company commenced on the date and time the Certificate of Formation was filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and shall continue in existence perpetually or until any earlier date when the Company is terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as provided by law.

To the extent possible, the Manager shall give Members the same notice as provided for in the Crowdfunding Issuer's constitutive documents.

(c) Any Member may participate in a meeting of the Members by means of telephone or other electronic communications equipment by means of which all Persons participating in the meeting hear each other, and participation in a meeting by such means shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

(d) On any matter that is to be voted on by the Members, a Member may vote in person or by proxy, and such proxy may be granted in writing, by means of Electronic Transmission, or as otherwise permitted by Applicable Law. Every proxy shall be revocable in the discretion of the Member executing it unless otherwise provided in such proxy; provided, that such right to revocation shall not invalidate or otherwise affect actions taken under such proxy prior to such revocation.

(e) The business to be conducted at such meeting need not be limited to the purpose described in the notice and can include other business to be conducted by the Members; provided, that the Members shall have been notified of the meeting in accordance with Section 2.06(b). (c) Dissolve, wind up, or liquidate the Company or initiate a bankruptcy proceeding involving the Company, at the sole discretion of the Manager; provided that no vote shall be required when such dissolution, winding up, or liquidation occurs under the terms of the Securities or Interests.

Notwithstanding the above, the Manager shall be able to take all actions necessary without the consent of the Members in order to maintain the Company's status as a crowdfunding vehicle.

Section 3.03 Prohibited Actions. The Manager is prohibited from having the Company take the following actions, or any other action which would result in the Company violating the conditions to be a "crowdfunding vehicle" pursuant to Rule 3a-9 under the Investment Company Act, except for transactions with the Crowdfunding Issuer pursuant to Regulation Crowdfunding. Such prohibited actions include, but are not limited to:

An Officer is not required to be a Member of the Company. Any individual may hold two or more offices of the Company. Each Officer shall hold office until his or her successor is designated by the Manager or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. Any Officer may resign at any time upon written notice to the Manager. Any Officer may be removed by the Manager at any time, with or without cause. A vacancy in any office occurring because of death, resignation, removal, or otherwise may, but need not, be filled by the Manager.

The Manager may resign at any time by delivering a written resignation to the Company, which resignation shall be effective upon receipt thereof unless it is specified to be effective at some other time or upon the occurrence of a particular event. Following the Manager’s removal or resignation, a successor Manager shall be elected by the affirmative vote of the Members holding a majority of the Interests. The removal of the Manager shall not affect the Manager’s rights as a Member and shall not constitute a withdrawal of such Member from the Company.

held the Securities directly. The Manager may instruct the Crowdfunding Issuer to make such distribution directly to the holders of the Interests.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company shall not make any distribution to Members if such distribution would violate the Delaware Act or other Applicable Law.

(a) No Member shall Transfer all or any portion of its Interests in the Company, except with the written consent of the Manager. No Transfer of Interests to a Person not already a Member of the Company shall be deemed completed until the prospective Transferee is admitted as a Member of the Company in accordance with Section 2.03 hereof.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement (including Section 6.02), each Member agrees that it will not Transfer all or any portion of its Interests in the Company, and the Company agrees that it shall not issue any Interests:

(i) except as permitted under the Securities Act and other applicable federal or state securities or blue sky laws;

(ii) if such Transfer or issuance would affect the Company's existence or qualification as a limited liability company under the Delaware Act;

(iii) if such Transfer or issuance would cause the Company to be required to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended; or

(iv) if such Transfer or issuance would cause the assets of the Company to be deemed "Plan Assets" as defined under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or its accompanying regulations or result in any "prohibited transaction" thereunder involving the Company.

(c) Any Transfer or attempted Transfer of any Interest in violation of this Agreement shall be null and void, no such Transfer shall be recorded on the Company's books, and the purported Transferee in any such Transfer shall not be treated (and the purported Transferor shall continue to be treated) as the owner of such Interest for all purposes of this Agreement.

(d) Except as provided in Section 2.05(b), no Transfer (including a permitted Transfer) of Interests to a Person not already a Member of the Company shall be deemed completed until the prospective Transferee (including a permitted Transferee) is admitted as a Member of the Company in accordance with Section 2.03(b) hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, any Transfer of a Interest permitted by this Agreement shall be deemed a sale, transfer, assignment, or other disposal of such Interest in its entirety as intended by the parties to such Transfer, and shall not be deemed a sale, transfer, assignment, or other disposal of any less than all of the rights and benefits described in the definition of the term "Interest," unless otherwise explicitly agreed to by the parties to such Transfer.

Section 6.02 Further Restrictions on Transfer.

(a) During the one-year period beginning on the date on which it acquired the Interest, a Member may not transfer such Interest except:

- (i) To the Crowdfunding Issuer;
- (ii) To an “accredited investor” within the meaning of Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act;
- (iii) As part of an offering registered under the Securities Act; or
- (iv) To a member of the Interest holder’s family or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the Interest holder, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the Interest holder or equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the Interest holder or other similar circumstance.

ARTICLE VII – NO PERSONAL LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 7.01 No Personal Liability: Members; Manager.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the Delaware Act, by Applicable Law, or expressly in this Agreement, no Member will be obligated personally for any debt, obligation, or liability of the Company or other Members, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, solely by reason of being a Member.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in the Delaware Act, by Applicable Law, or expressly in this Agreement, no Manager will be obligated personally for any debt, obligation, or liability of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, solely by reason of being a Manager.

Section 7.02 Indemnification.

(a) To the fullest extent permitted under the Delaware Act, any Covered Person (as defined in section (c) below) shall be entitled to indemnification and reimbursement of expenses by the Crowdfunding Issuer for and against any loss, damage, claim, or expense (including attorneys’ fees) (collectively, “Losses”) whatsoever incurred by the Covered Person relating to or arising out of any act or omission or alleged acts or omissions (whether or not constituting negligence) performed or omitted by any Covered Person on behalf of the Company; provided, however, that (i) any indemnity under this Section 7.02 shall be provided by the Crowdfunding Issuer, and neither any Member nor any other Person shall have any personal liability to contribute to such indemnity by the Crowdfunding Issuer; (ii) such Covered Person acted in good faith and in a manner believed by such Covered Person to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; and (iii) such Covered Person’s conduct did not constitute fraud or willful misconduct, in either case as determined by a final, nonappealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Upon receipt by the Company of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Covered Person to repay such amounts if it is finally judicially determined that the Covered Person is not entitled to indemnification under this Section 7.02, the Crowdfunding Issuer shall advance, to the extent reasonably required, each Covered Person for reasonable legal or other expenses (as incurred) of such Covered Person in connection with investigating, preparing to defend, or defending any claim, lawsuit, or other proceeding relating to any Losses for which such Covered Person may be indemnified pursuant to this Section 7.02.

(c) For purposes of this Section 7.02, “Covered Person” means (i) each Member of the Company; (ii) each Manager and Officer of the Company; and (iii) each officer, director, shareholder, partner, manager, member, Affiliate, employee, agent, or representative of each Member and of each Manager.

ARTICLE VIII – REPORTS, ACCOUNTING, AND TAX MATTERS

Section 8.01 Inspection Rights. Upon reasonable notice from a Member and in accordance with a proper purpose under the Delaware Act, the Company shall afford the Member access during normal business hours to the corporate, financial, and similar records, reports, and documents of the Company, and shall permit the Member to examine such documents and make copies thereof. Further, upon reasonable notice from a Member, the Manager shall make available the same such information of the Crowdfunding Issuer so long as it is for a proper purpose in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Section 8.02 Income Tax Status. It is the intent of this Company and the Members that this Company shall be treated as partnership for US, federal, state, and local income tax purposes. Neither the Manager nor any Member shall make an election for the Company to be classified as other than a partnership pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 301.7701-3.

Section 8.03 Tax Matters Representative.

(a) Appointment; Resignation. The Members hereby appoint the Manager as the “partnership representative” as provided in Section 6223(a) of the Code (the “Partnership Representative”). The Partnership Representative can be removed at any time by a vote of Members holding 85% of the Interests of the Company, and shall resign if it is no longer the Manager. In the event of the resignation or removal of the Partnership Representative, the holders of a majority of the Interests of the Company shall appoint a new Partnership Representative.

(b) Tax Examinations and Audits. The Partnership Representative is authorized and required to represent the Company (at the Company’s expense) in connection with all examinations of the Company’s affairs by any federal, state, local, or foreign taxing authority, including resulting administrative and judicial proceedings, and to expend Company funds for professional services and costs associated therewith.

The Partnership Representative shall have sole authority to act on behalf of the Company in any such examinations and any resulting administrative or judicial proceedings, and shall have sole discretion to determine whether the Company (either on its own behalf or on behalf of the Members) will contest or continue to contest any tax deficiencies assessed or proposed to be assessed by any taxing authority.

(c) US Federal Tax Proceedings. To the extent permitted by applicable law and regulations, the Partnership Representative will cause the Company to annually elect out of the partnership audit procedures set forth in Subchapter C of Chapter 63 of the Code as amended by the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2015 (the “Revised Partnership Audit Rules”) pursuant to Section 6221(b) of the Code. For any year in which applicable law and regulations do not permit the Company to elect out of the Revised Partnership Audit Rules, then within forty-five (45) days of any notice of final partnership adjustment, the Partnership Representative will cause the Company to elect the alternative procedure under Section 6226 of the Code, and furnish to the Internal Revenue Service and each Member (including former Members) during the year or years to which the notice of final partnership adjustment relates a statement of the Member’s share of any adjustment set forth in the notice of final partnership adjustment.

(d) Section 754 Election. The Partnership Representative shall make an election under Section 754 of the Code only with the agreement in writing of a majority of the outstanding Interests.

(e) Indemnification. The Company, through the Crowdfunding Issuer, shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Partnership Representative against any and all liabilities sustained as a result of any act or decision concerning Company tax matters and within the scope of such Member's responsibilities as Partnership Representative, so long as such act or decision was done or made in good faith and does not constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Section 8.04 Tax Returns.

(a) At the expense of the Crowdfunding Issuer, the Manager will cause the preparation and timely filing (including extensions) of all tax returns required to be filed by the Company pursuant to the Code as well as all other required tax returns in each jurisdiction in which the Company owns property or does business. As soon as reasonably possible after the end of each Fiscal Year, the Manager will deliver to each Member, Company information necessary for the preparation of such Member's federal, state, and local income tax returns for such Fiscal Year.

(b) Each Member agrees that such Member shall not treat any Company item on such Member's federal, state, foreign, or other income tax return inconsistently with the treatment of the item on the Company's return.

Section 8.05 Reports under Regulation Crowdfunding.

(a) The Manager shall provide all information necessary to the Crowdfunding Issuer for the Crowdfunding Issuer to make such ongoing reports as required by Regulation Crowdfunding.

(b) The Manager will cause the prompt distribution of any disclosure, and ongoing reports prepared by the Crowdfunding Issuer as soon as such disclosures and ongoing reports are completed by the Crowdfunding Issuer.

ARTICLE IX – DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

Section 9.01 Events of Dissolution. The Company shall be dissolved and its affairs wound up only upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(a) An election to dissolve the Company made by holders of 85% of the Interests;

(b) The sale, exchange, involuntary conversion, or other disposition or Transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Crowdfunding Issuer;

(c) Declaration of effectiveness of a registration statement covering the Securities under the Securities Act or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, by the Crowdfunding Issuer; or

(d) The entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under the Delaware Act.

Section 9.02 Effectiveness of Dissolution. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective on the day on which the event described in Section 9.01 occurs, but the Company shall not terminate until the winding up of the Company has been completed, the assets of the Company have been distributed as provided in Section 9.03, and the Certificate of Formation shall have been cancelled as provided in Section 9.04.

Section 9.03 Liquidation. If the Company is dissolved pursuant to Section 9.01, the Company shall be liquidated and its business and affairs wound up in accordance with the Delaware Act and the following provisions:

(a) The Manager, or another Person selected by the Manager, shall act as liquidator to wind up the Company (the “Liquidator”). The Liquidator shall have full power and authority to distribute, sell, assign, and encumber any or all of the Company’s assets and to wind up and liquidate the affairs of the Company in an orderly and business-like manner, in compliance with rules and regulations applicable to a “crowdfunding vehicle.”

(b) As promptly as possible after dissolution and again after final liquidation, the Liquidator shall cause a proper accounting to be made of the Company’s Securities, assets, liabilities, and operations through the last day of the calendar month in which the dissolution occurs or the final liquidation is completed, as applicable.

(c) The Liquidator shall transfer ownership of the Securities to the Interest holders.

(d) The Liquidator shall then liquidate the assets of the Company, if any, and distribute the proceeds of such liquidation in the following order of priority, unless otherwise required by mandatory provisions of Applicable Law, and with any amounts to be paid to creditors to be paid by the Crowdfunding Issuer:

(i) First, to the payment of the Company’s debts and liabilities to its creditors (including Members, if applicable) and the expenses of liquidation (including sales commissions incident to any sales of assets of the Company);

(ii) Second, to the establishment of and additions to reserves that are determined by the Manager to be reasonably necessary for any contingent unforeseen liabilities or obligations of the Company; and

(iii) Third, to the Members, on a pro rata basis, in accordance with the positive balances in their respective Capital Accounts, as determined after taking into account all Capital Account adjustments for the taxable year of the Company during which the liquidation of the Company occurs.

Section 9.04 Required Filings. Upon completion of the winding up of the Company, the Liquidator shall make all necessary filings required by the Delaware Act.

Each Unit shall carry an incremental dollar amount established by the Manager for the sale of Interests that investors can purchase in order to become Members of the Company.

ARTICLE XI – MISCELLANEOUS

Section 11.01 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Delaware or any jurisdiction).

Section 11.02 Submission to Jurisdiction. The parties hereby agree that any suit, action, or proceeding based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, shall be brought in the federal courts of the United States of America or the courts of the State of Delaware. Each of the parties hereby irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of such courts (and of the appropriate appellate courts therefrom) in any such suit, action, or proceeding.

Section 11.03 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES AND, THEREFORE, EACH SUCH PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LEGAL ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 11.04 Waiver. No waiver by any party of any of the provisions hereof shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and signed by the party so waiving. No failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any right, remedy, power, or privilege arising from this Agreement shall operate or be construed as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power, or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power, or privilege. Nothing contained in this Section 11.04 shall diminish the waiver described in Section 11.03.

Section 11.05 Notices. All notices, requests, consents, claims, demands, waivers, and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given:

- (a) when delivered by hand;

Section 11.06 Remedies. In the event of any actual or prospective breach or default by any party, the other parties shall be entitled to equitable relief, including remedies in the nature of injunction and specific performance, awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction (without being required to post a bond or other security or to establish any actual damages). In this regard, the parties acknowledge and agree that they will be irreparably damaged in the event this Agreement is not specifically enforced, since (among other things) the Interests are not readily marketable. All remedies hereunder are cumulative and not exclusive, may be exercised concurrently, and nothing herein shall be deemed to prohibit or limit any party from pursuing any other remedy or relief available at law or in equity for any actual or prospective breach or default, including recovery of damages. In addition, the parties hereby waive and renounce any defense to such equitable relief that an adequate remedy at law may exist.

Section 11.07 Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable under Applicable Law in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 11.12 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Certificate of Formation and all related Exhibits and Schedules, constitutes the sole and entire agreement of the parties to this Agreement with respect to the subject matter contained herein and therein, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings, agreements, representations, and warranties, both written and oral, with respect to such subject matter.

Section 11.13 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as provided in ARTICLE VII, this Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties hereto (and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors, and permitted assigns) and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person, including any creditor of the Company, any legal or equitable right, benefit, or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

The rights and liabilities of the Members shall be determined pursuant to the Act and this Agreement. To the extent that the rights or obligations of any Member are different by reason of any provision of this Agreement than they would be in the absence of such provision, this Agreement shall, to the extent permitted by the Act, control.

2.2 Name. The name of the Company shall be “NeuroGym LLC.” The business of the Company may be conducted under that name or, upon compliance with applicable laws, any other name that the Managers deem appropriate or advisable. The Managers shall file any fictitious name certificates and similar filings, and any amendments thereto, that the Managers consider appropriate or advisable.

2.3 Term. The term of this Agreement commenced on the date hereof and shall continue indefinitely, unless terminated as hereinafter provided.

2.4 Office and Agent. The Company shall continuously maintain an office and registered agent in the State of California. The principal office of the Company shall be [18025 Calle Ambente, Suite 204, Rancho Santa Fe, California 92067] or as the Members may otherwise determine. The Company may also have such other offices, anywhere within and without the State of California, as the Members may determine from time to time, or the business of the Company may require. The registered agent shall be as stated in the Articles or as otherwise determined by the Members.

2.5 Addresses of the Members and the Managers. The respective addresses of the Members and the Managers are set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto. A Member and a Manager may change its, his or her address upon notice thereof to the Company.

2.6 Purpose and Business of the Company. The purpose of the Company is to (i) sell products and services pertaining to a brain training system, innercising, smart apps, coaching and software platforms for the foregoing (collectively, the “Business”) and (ii) engage in any lawful activity incident thereto, and for which a limited liability company may be organized under the Act.

2.7 Qualification in Other Jurisdictions. The Managers shall cause the Company to be qualified or registered in any jurisdiction in which the Company owns property or transacts business to the extent such qualification or registration is necessary or, in the judgment of the Managers, advisable in order to preserve the limited liability of Members or to permit the Company to lawfully own property or transact business. The Managers shall execute, file and publish all such certificates, notices, statements or other instruments necessary to permit the Company to lawfully own property and conduct business as a Company in all jurisdictions where the Company elects to own property or transact business and to maintain the limited liability of Members.

2.8 Intent. It is the intent of the Members that the Company shall always be operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a partnership for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Members that the Company not be operated or treated as a “partnership” for purposes of Section 303 of the United States Bankruptcy Code or for any purposes other than federal and state tax purposes. No Member shall take any action inconsistent with that express intent.

ARTICLE III CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

3.1 Current Capital Contributions. Each Member has made Capital Contributions and is deemed to own Membership Interests in the amounts set forth opposite such Member’s name on Exhibit A attached hereto. The Members shall update Exhibit A upon the issuance or transfer of any Membership Interests to any new or existing Member in accordance with this Agreement.

3.2 Additional Capital Contributions. With the prior approval of a Majority Interest of the Members, upon written notice from the Managers to the Class A Members (“Capital Call”), each Class A Member shall have the right, but not the obligation, to tender to the Company additional Capital Contributions proportionately based on his/her/its Percentage Interest. The Managers’ notice to each Class A Member shall include (i) the total amount of additional Capital Contribution requested, (ii) the reason the additional Capital Contribution is requested, (iii) such Class A Member’s proportionate share of the total additional Capital Contribution (determined in accordance with this Section 3.2), (iv) the number of additional Class A Units to be issued in return for the additional capital contributions, and (v) the date such Member’s additional Capital Contribution would be due and payable, which date shall be no less than fifteen (15) days after the notice has been given. A Class A Member’s share of the total additional Capital Contributions shall be equal to the product obtained by multiplying the Class A Member’s Percentage Interest by the total additional Capital Contributions requested. Each Class A Member’s share of the additional Capital Contributions shall be payable in cash or by certified check or wire transfer.

(a) If a Class A Member elects not to contribute all or any portion of any additional Capital Contribution requested under Section 3.2 (each, a “Noncontributing Member”), then each Class A Member other than any Non Contributing Member (each, a “Contributing Member”) shall have the right, but not the obligation, to contribute to the Company (in addition to its initial pro rata share of the additional Capital Contributions) its pro rata portion of those amounts that the Noncontributing Members fail to contribute (the “Remaining Contribution”). Following the receipt by the Company of any additional Capital Contributions pursuant to this Section 3.2, the Company shall issue additional Units to the Contributing Members with respect to their additional Capital Contributions, and the Percentage Interests of the Members shall be recalculated by the Managers to take account of such additional Capital Contributions. Exhibit A hereto shall be revised to reflect the issuance of additional Units in accordance therewith and any such adjustment of the Percentage Interests of the Members. Any revision of Exhibit A hereto in accordance with the preceding sentence shall require only the consent of the Managers (and not any consent of the Members).

(b) No Class B Member shall be required to make any additional Capital Contributions.

3.3 Capital Accounts. The Company shall establish and maintain an individual Capital Account for each Member in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv). If a Member transfers all or a part of his/her/its Membership Interest in accordance with this Agreement, such Member's Capital Account attributable to the transferred Membership Interest shall carry over to the new owner of such Membership Interest pursuant to Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(1).

3.4 No Priorities of Members; No Withdrawals of Capital. Except as otherwise provided in the Act or as specifically provided for in this Agreement, no Member shall have a priority over any other Member as to any distributions, and no member shall have the right to demand the return of, or withdraw, any or all of that Member's Capital Contributions in the Company. No Member guarantees the return of another Member's Capital Contribution.

3.5 Member Loans. No Member shall lend or advance money to or for the Company's benefit without the Managers' prior consent. A loan by a Member shall not be treated as a Capital Contribution by that Member or entitle that Member to an increase in that Member's Percentage Interest. The loan amount shall be a debt due from the Company, repayable out of the Company's cash, and shall be on such terms as the Company and that Member shall agree. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Member shall be required to make any loans to the Company, or guarantee the payment or performance of any Company obligation, and no Member shall have any personal liability for the repayment of any Capital Contribution of any other Member.

3.6 No Interest. No Member shall be entitled to receive any interest on his or her Capital Contributions.

ARTICLE IV MEMBERS

4.1 Limited Liability. Except as otherwise provided expressly in this Agreement or provided in the Act, no Member shall be bound by, nor be personally liable for, the expenses, liabilities, indebtedness, and/or obligations of the Company, solely by reason of being a Member of the Company, whether such expenses, liabilities, indebtedness, and/or obligations of the Company arise in contract, tort, or otherwise.

4.2 Admission of Additional Members. Subject to compliance with applicable law, by the approval of the Majority Interest of the Members, the Company may admit additional Members in any and all classes upon such terms and conditions as the Members may determine in their sole and absolute discretion. Any such additional Members shall obtain Membership Interests and will participate in the Net Profits, Net Losses, Distributable Cash and other distributions of the Company and voting rights on such terms as are determined by the Members and set forth in accordance with this Agreement. The Members shall amend Exhibit A to reflect the admission of any additional Members to the Company and the adjustment of any or all of the Members' Percentage Interests as a result thereof. In connection with the addition of additional Members, the Percentage Interests of the Members shall be diluted on a pro rata basis. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Economic Interest Owners may only be admitted as Members in accordance with Article VII.

4.3 Member Unit Options/Member Unit Grants. Notwithstanding Section 4.2 above, by the majority vote of the Managers, Class B Units may be granted to employees, consultants or advisors to Company, as either an option to purchase Units at a specified dollar amount per Unit or as an outright Unit grant at no charge, in return for services, or a combination of the two.

4.4 New Class of Members. By the approval of a majority vote of the Managers, the Managers may also have the right to create additional classes of membership. Any additional classes of membership shall obtain Membership Interests and will participate in the Net Profits, Net Losses, and distributions from the Company and voting rights, if any, on such terms as are determined by the majority of the Managers. In connection with the addition of additional classes of membership, the Percentage Interests of the Members may be diluted on a pro rata basis.

4.5 Withdrawal. No Member may withdraw or resign from the Company except with the prior consent of a Majority Interest of the Members. If a Member withdraws or resigns in violation of this Agreement, such Member shall forfeit his/her/its Membership Interest without compensation. In addition, such Member shall be liable to the Company and/or the other Members for all damages suffered by the Company and the other Members as a result of such withdrawal or resignation.

4.6 Competing Activities. The Members and their officers, directors, shareholders, partners, members, managers, agents, employees, and Affiliates may not engage or invest in, independently or with others, any business activity of any type or description that is directly competitive with the Company's business or that might be in direct or indirect competition with the Company, without the prior approval the Majority Interest of the Members, which consent can be withheld, delayed, denied, or conditioned for any reason whatsoever or for no reason. Neither the Company nor any Member shall have any right in or to such other ventures or activities or to the income or proceeds derived therefrom. The Members shall be obligated to present any investment opportunity or prospective economic advantage to the Company, if the opportunity is of the character that, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company. [For the avoidance of doubt, all books, articles or other publications ("Publications") written by John Assaraf and all speaking engagements by Mr. Assaraf shall be owned by Mr. Assaraf and not the Company, unless otherwise specifically assigned by Mr. Assaraf to the Company. Neither the Company nor any Member shall have any rights to any profits earned by Mr. Assaraf from such speaking engagements or publications.]

4.7 Transactions between the Company and the Members. Notwithstanding that it may constitute a conflict of interest, and subject to any limitations set forth in this Agreement, with the prior approval of the majority of all the Managers having no direct or indirect interest in such matter (other than their interests as Members), any Member may, and may cause his/her/its Affiliates to, lend money to and engage in any transaction (including, without limitation, the purchase, sale, lease, license, sublicense, or exchange of any property or the rendering of any service, or the establishment of any salary, other compensation, or other terms of employment) with the Company, so long as such transaction is not expressly prohibited by this Agreement and the terms and conditions of such transaction, on an overall basis, are fair and reasonable to the Company and are at least as favorable to the Company as those that are generally available from Persons capable of similarly performing them and in similar transactions between parties operating at arm's length. Subject to other applicable law, such Member has the same rights and obligations with respect thereto as a Person who is not a Member.

4.8 Remuneration To Members.

(a) Remuneration. Except for any "guaranteed payment" within the meaning of Section 707(c) of the Code, no Member or Affiliate thereof is entitled to remuneration for acting in the Company business. Any remuneration for a Member or Affiliate thereof for acting in the Company business (including any “guaranteed payment”) shall be subject to a vote of a Majority Interest of the Members having no direct or indirect interest in such matter (other than their interests as Members).

(b) Reimbursement. Notwithstanding Section 4.8(a) above, the Company shall reimburse a Member for all reasonable pre-approved out-of-pocket expenses incurred by such Member in the proper conduct of the Company’s business. The Member requesting such reimbursement must first present to the Company expense statements, vouchers and such other supporting information that complies with the requirements of Code Section 274.

4.9 Members Are Not Agents. Pursuant to Section 5.1 and the Articles, the management of the Company is vested in the Managers. The Members, other than in the capacity of a Manager, shall have no power to participate in the management of the Company except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or the Articles and except as expressly required by the Act. No Member, acting solely in the capacity of a Member, is an agent of the Company nor does any Member, unless expressly and duly authorized in writing to do so by the Managers, have any power or authority to bind or act on behalf of the Company in any way, to pledge its credit, to execute any instrument on its behalf or to render it liable for any purpose.

4.10 Voting Rights. Class A Members shall have the right to approve or disapprove matters as specifically stated in this Agreement. No other classes of membership shall have any voting rights.

(a) Majority Interest Approval. In all matters in which a vote, approval, or consent of the Members is required, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, approval (whether by vote or consent) of the Majority Interest of the Members shall be required to authorize or approve such act.

(b) Approval Standard. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, all votes, approvals, or consents of the Members may be given or withheld, delayed, denied, or conditioned as the Members may determine in their sole and absolute discretion.

4.11 Meetings of Members.

(a) Annual Meetings. To the extent the Managers elect to schedule an annual meeting during any calendar year, an annual meeting of the Members shall be held at such time as shall be determined by the Managers. Failure to hold an annual meeting in any calendar year shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the Company.

(b) Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Members may be called for any purpose, unless otherwise prescribed by statute, by the majority of the Managers. The Managers shall be permitted to call special meetings of only the Class A Members.

(c) Place of Meetings. The Managers may designate any place, either within or outside the State of California, as the place of meeting for any annual or special meeting. If no designation is made, the place of meeting shall be the principal office of the Company.

(d) Notice of Meetings. The Managers shall cause written notice stating the place, day, and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose for which the meeting is called, to be delivered not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, to each Member entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be given when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the Member as provided on Exhibit B, with postage prepaid. If a meeting is adjourned to another place or time, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each Member entitled to vote at the meeting. Notice of meetings shall be sent only to Class A Members, and do not have to be sent to any other classes of Members.

(e) Meetings of All Members. If all of the Members entitled to attend a meeting shall meet at any time and place, either within or outside of the State of California, and consent to the holding of a meeting at such time and place, such meeting shall be valid without call or notice, and any action taken at such meeting shall be lawful.

(f) Quorum. Members holding at least a majority of the Class A Units, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of Members. In the absence of a quorum at any such meeting, a majority of the Class A Units so represented may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice, unless notice is required by Section 4.11(d) hereof. At such adjourned meetings at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the meeting originally noticed. The Members present at a duly organized meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal during such meeting of that number of Members and their Class A Units whose absence would cause there to be less than a quorum.

(g) Proxies. At any meeting of Members, a Class A Member may vote in person or by proxy executed in writing by the Member or by a duly authorized attorney-in-fact. Such proxy shall be filed with a Manager before or at the time of the meeting. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

(h) Action by Members Without a Meeting. Action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of Members may be taken without a meeting if the action is evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by each Class A Member. Such consent(s) shall have the same force and effect as a vote of the Class A Members and may be stated as such in any document. Action taken under this Section 4.11(h) is effective when Class A Members comprising the required vote have signed the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date. The record date for determining Members entitled to take action without a meeting shall be the date the first Voting Member signs a written consent. All consents signed pursuant to this Section 4.11(h) shall be delivered to the Board of Managers for inclusion in the minutes or for filing with the Company's records.

(i) Waiver of Notice. When any notice is required to be given to any Member, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person entitled to such notice, whether before, at, or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. By attending a meeting, a Member (a) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of such meeting unless the Member, at the beginning of the meeting, objects to the holding of the meeting or the transaction of business at the meeting and (b) waives objection to consideration at such meeting of a particular matter not within the purpose or purposes described in the notice of such meeting unless the Member objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

(j) Telephonic Participation by Member at Meetings. Members may participate in any Members' meeting through the use of any means of conference telephones or similar communications equipment as long as all Members participating can hear one another. A Member so participating is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

(k) Delegation. The Members may delegate any or all of their authority, rights, and/or obligations, whether arising hereunder, under the Act or otherwise, to any one or more officers, agents, or other duly authorized representatives of the Company.

(l) General Duties and Obligations. The Members shall devote such time to the Company's business and affairs as is reasonably necessary to carry out that Member's obligations under this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, no Member shall have any authority to hold itself out as a general or special agent of the Company in any business or other activity.

4.12 Waiver of Partition. Except as otherwise expressly provided for in this Agreement, each of the Members hereby irrevocably waives any right or power that such Member might have:

(a) to cause the Company or any of its assets to be partitioned;

(b) to cause the appointment of a receiver for all or any portion of the assets of the Company;

(c) to compel any sale of all or any portion of the assets of the Company pursuant to any applicable law; or

(d) to file a complaint, or to institute any proceeding at law or in equity, to cause the termination, dissolution or liquidation of the Company.

Each of the Members has been induced to enter into this Agreement in reliance upon the waivers set forth in this Section 4.12, and without such waivers no Member would have entered into this Agreement. The interests of all Members in this Company are personal property.

4.13 SPV Class B Units.

(a) All Class B Units of the Company issued to and held by NeuroGym CF Investors SPV, LLC (the "SPV") are treated, for all purposes of the Agreement, as a single block of Class B Units.

(b) The Manager of the SPV (NeuroGym LLC) exclusively exercises all voting, consent, and approval rights with respect to such Class B Units on behalf of the SPV's members.

(c) The SPV's individual investors are not Members of the Company and have no direct voting, consent, or approval rights under the Agreement; their rights are solely the economic rights flowing through the SPV.

(d) Any action, consent, or vote taken by the SPV Manager with respect to the Class B Units held by the SPV is the valid and binding action, consent, or vote of the holders of such Class B Units for all purposes of the Agreement.

ARTICLE V MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL OF THE COMPANY

5.1 Management.

(a) Subject to such matters that are expressly reserved hereunder to the Members for decision, the business, property, and affairs of the Company shall be managed exclusively by a Board of Managers, which shall be responsible for policy setting and approval of the overall direction of the Company. References to the Manager in the singular or as his, her, or it or other like references, may also, where there is more than one Manager, be deemed to include the plural or the feminine or masculine reference, as the case may be. Except for situations in which the approval of the Class A Members is expressly required by this Agreement, the Board of Managers shall have full, complete, and exclusive authority, power, and discretion to manage and control the business, property and affairs of the Company, to make all decisions regarding those matters and to perform any and all other acts or activities customary or incident to the management of the Company's business, property and affairs. The Board of Managers may in writing delegate any day to day or other decisions to any one or more of the Managers or to any officer, if any.

(b) If there is more than one Manager, then, unless otherwise stated in this Agreement to the contrary, all decisions or acts on behalf of the Company or to be made by the Managers shall be by approval of a majority of the Managers. In the event of a deadlock vote of the Managers, the Chairman of the Board of Managers shall have the deciding vote. In the event that the position of the Chairman is vacant, or the Chairman abstains from a vote, and a deadlock still occurs, then the vote shall be decided by the Majority Interest of the Members.

(c) Subject to Section 5.3, the Managers are authorized to endorse checks, drafts, and other evidence of indebtedness made payable to the order of the Company, and may sign all checks, drafts, and other instruments obligating the Company to pay money, and may sign contracts, notes, deeds, deeds of trust and other instruments and obligations of every description on behalf of the Company.

5.2 Authority of Managers. Without limiting the generality of Section 5.1, but subject to Section 5.3 and to the express limitations set forth elsewhere in this Agreement, the Managers, individually or collectively, but only after receiving approval of the majority of all the Managers for each action, shall have all necessary powers to manage and carry out the purposes, business, property and affairs of the Company, including, without limitation, the power to exercise on behalf and in the name of the Company, all of the powers described in Corporations Code Section 17701.05, including, without limitation, the power to:

(a) Acquire, purchase, license, sublicense, improve, alter, replace, and own property (tangible or intangible) that the Managers determine are necessary or appropriate or in the interest of the business of the Company, and to acquire options for the purchase, license, or sublicense of any such property;

(b) Sell, exchange, lease, license, sublicense, or otherwise dispose of the property owned or licensed by the Company, or any part thereof, or any interest therein, but subject to the limitations set forth in Section 5.3(a) below;

(c) Guarantee the payment of money or the performance of any contract or obligation of any Person;

(d) Sue on, defend, or compromise any and all claims or liabilities in favor of or against the Company; submit any or all such claims or liabilities to arbitration; and confess a judgment against the Company in connection with any litigation in which the Company is involved;

(e) Determine the amount of Distributable Cash;

(f) Change the Company's tax or accounting standards or methods; and

(g) Retain legal counsel, accountants, auditors, and other professionals in connection with the Company business and to pay therefore such remuneration as the Managers may determine.

5.3 Limitations on Power of Manager. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, the Managers shall not have authority hereunder to cause the Company to engage in the following transactions without first obtaining the approval or written consent of a Majority Interest of the Members:

(a) Make a Capital Call pursuant to Section 3.2;

(b) Sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of the Company's assets, with or without the goodwill, occurring as part of a single transaction or plan, or in multiple transactions over a twelve (12)-month period, except in the orderly liquidation and winding up of the business of the Company upon its authorized dissolution;

(c) Approve of a merger or conversion of the Company under Corporations Code 17710;

(d) Borrow money from any party including the Managers and Members and their Affiliates, issue evidences of indebtedness in connection therewith, refinance, increase the amount of, modify, amend, change the terms of, or extend the time for the payment of any indebtedness or obligation of the Company, and secure such indebtedness by mortgage, deed of trust, pledge, security interest, or other lien on Company assets;

(e) Amend the Articles or this Agreement except an amendment to conform to the provisions of the Act, the Code, or the Regulations that does not materially affect the rights of any Member;

(f) Make any expenditure or enter into any contract in excess of $50,000; (g)

Admit a Person as a Member in accordance with Section 4.2:

(h) Liquidate, dissolve or wind up the Company;

(i) Engage in a transaction in which a Manager has a material financial interest (other than in his/her/its capacity as a Member);

(j) Make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or take any action under any insolvency or bankruptcy act, or admit in writing an act of insolvency;

(k) Undertake any other act outside the ordinary course of the Company's activities;

(l) [Approve of any salary increases or decreases for officers of the Company and other employees, employee benefit programs, and other remuneration, as recommended by the Chairman pursuant to Section 5.10 below];

(m) Any act that would make it impossible to carry on the ordinary business of the Company; and

(n) Any other transaction described in this Agreement as requiring the vote, consent, or approval of the Members or the Class A Members.

5.4 Use of Agents. The Managers may, from time to time, retain any Person to provide services to the Company, but only if the Managers reasonably believe that such Person is qualified to provide such services. The Managers are entitled to rely in good faith upon the recommendations, reports, advice, or other services provided by any such agent.

5.5 Managers.

(a) Number, Term, Election, and Qualifications of Manager. The Board of Managers shall initially have two (2) Managers. The initial Managers shall be John Assaraf and Maria Middaugh. The number of Managers of the Company may be changed from time to time, by the Majority Interest of the Members, but in no instance shall there be less than one (1) Manager. Each Manager shall hold office until his or her death, resignation or removal. The Managers shall be elected by approval of a Majority Interest of the Members. A Manager need not be a Member, an individual, a resident of the State of California, or a citizen of the United States.

(b) Resignation. A Manager may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Class A Members without prejudice to the rights, if any, of the Company under any contract to which the Manager is a party. The resignation of the Manager shall take effect upon receipt of that notice or at such later time as shall be specified in the notice. Unless otherwise specified in the notice, the acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. The resignation of a Manager who is also a Member shall not affect the Manager's rights as a Member and shall not constitute a withdrawal of a Member.

(c) Removal. At a meeting called expressly for that purpose, any Manager may be removed at any time, with Cause (as hereinafter defined in Section 5.5(e)), by the approval of a Majority Interest of the Members, excluding the vote of the Member subject to the vote, if applicable. The removal of any Manager shall take effect immediately upon the approval of the Majority Interest of the Members entitled to vote. The removal of a Manager who is also a Member shall not affect the Manager's rights as a Member and shall not constitute a withdrawal of a Member.

(d) Vacancies. Vacancies in the position of Manager (whether due to the resignation or removal of the Manager as provided above) may be filled by the vote of a Majority Interest of the Members. The replacement Manager, as a condition precedent to becoming a Manager of the Company, shall sign a counterpart or consent to be bound by this Agreement, whereby such replacement Manager shall agree to be admitted to the Company as a Manager and be bound by all of the obligations hereunder of the Manager being replaced.

(e) Liability for Certain Acts. Each Manager shall exercise his or her business judgment in managing the business, operations, and affairs of the Company. Absent fraud, dishonesty or deceit, gross negligence, willful misconduct, or a wrongful taking (collectively "Cause"), no Manager shall be liable or obligated to the Members or to the Company for any mistake of fact or judgment, for the doing of any act, or for the failure to do any act in conducting the business, operations and affairs of the Company, which may cause or result in any loss or damage to the Company or its Members. The Managers do not guarantee the return of the Members' Capital Contributions or a profit for the Members from the operations of the Company. No Manager shall be responsible to any Member because of a loss of such Member's investment, unless the loss shall have been the result of such Manager's fraud, dishonesty or deceit, gross negligence, willful misconduct, or a wrongful taking by such Manager. No person who is a Manager shall be personally liable under any judgment of a court, or in any other manner, for any debt, obligation, or liability of the Company, whether that liability or obligation arises in contract, tort, or otherwise, solely by reason of such person being a Manager.

(f) Devotion of Time. Each Manager is obligated to devote all of his or her time or business efforts to the affairs and operations of the Company, unless otherwise permitted by the prior consent of the majority of the other Managers.

5.6 Competing Activities. The Managers and their Affiliates may not engage or invest in, independently or with others, any business activity of any type or description, that is directly competitive with the Company's business or might be in direct or indirect competition with the Company, without the prior approval of the Majority Interest of the Members, which consent can be withheld, delayed, denied, or conditioned for any reason whatsoever or for no reason. Neither the Company nor any Member shall have any right in or to such other ventures or activities or to the income or proceeds derived therefrom. The Managers shall be obligated to present any investment opportunity or prospective economic advantage to the Company, if the opportunity is of the character that, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company. [For the avoidance of doubt, all books, articles or other publications ("Publications") written by John Assaraf and all speaking engagements by Mr. Assaraf shall be owned by Mr. Assaraf and not the Company, unless otherwise specifically assigned by Mr. Assaraf to the Company. Neither the Company nor any Member shall have any rights to any profits earned by Mr. Assaraf from such speaking engagements or publications.]

5.7 Transactions between the Company and a Manager. Notwithstanding that it may constitute a conflict of interest, and subject to any limitations set forth in this Agreement, with the prior approval of the Majority Interest of Members having no direct or indirect interest in such matter (other than their interests as Members), any Manager may, and may cause his or her Affiliates to, engage in any transaction (including, without limitation, the purchase, sale, lease, license, sublicense, or exchange of any property or the rendering of any service, or the establishment of any salary, other compensation, or other terms of employment) with the Company so long as the terms and conditions of such transaction, on an overall basis, are fair and reasonable to the Company and are at least as favorable to the Company as those that are generally available from Persons capable of similarly performing them and in similar transactions between parties operating at arm's length.

5.8 Payments to a Manager. Except with the approval of a Majority Interest of the Members, neither a Manager nor any Affiliate of a Manager is entitled to remuneration for services rendered to the Company. The Company shall reimburse the Managers and their Affiliates for the actual cost of materials used for or by the Company. If not previously occurred, the Company shall also pay or reimburse the Managers and their Affiliates for organizational expenses (including, without limitation, legal and accounting fees and costs) incurred to form the Company and prepare and file the Articles and this Agreement.

5.9 Tax Matters Partner.

(a) Designation. John Assaraf is hereby designated the Tax Matters Partner.

(b) Responsibilities. The Tax Matters Partner shall, from time to time, cause the Company to make such tax elections as it deems to be in the best interests of the Company and the Members. The Tax Matters Partner shall have all of the rights, duties, and powers provided for in Sections 6221 through 6232 inclusive, of the Code; provided, however, that the Tax Matters Partner shall not take any action without the approval of the Majority Interest of the Members, including the Tax Matters Partner. The Tax Matters Partner, as an authorized representative of the Company, shall direct the defense of any claims made by the Internal Revenue Service to the extent that such claims relate to adjustment of the Company items at the Company level and, in connection therewith, shall retain and pay the fees and expenses of counsel and other advisors chosen by the Tax Matters Partner, as approved by the Majority Interest of the Members. All reasonable expenses of the Tax Matters Partner and his or her Affiliates and other reasonable fees and expenses in connection with such defense shall be borne by the Company. Except as may otherwise be specifically provided in this Agreement, neither the Tax Matters Partner nor the Company shall be liable for any additional tax, interest or penalties payable by a Member or any costs of separate counsel chosen by such Member to represent the Member with respect to any aspect of such challenge. The Tax Matters Partner shall promptly deliver to each Member a copy of all notices and communications with respect to income or similar taxes received from the Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authority relating to the Company that might materially adversely affect such Member, and shall consult with and keep all Members advised of all significant developments in such matters coming to the attention of the Tax Matters Partner. If for any reason the Tax Matters Partner can no longer serve in that capacity or ceases to be a Member, the Members shall appoint another Member to be Tax Matters Partner.

(c) Accountants and Lawyers. Any reasonable third-party costs incurred by the Tax Matters Partner for retaining accountants, lawyers, and other professionals on behalf of the Company in connection with any tax matters of the Company shall be expenses of the Company. The fees of any accountants, attorneys, and other professionals retained by or on behalf of the Company in connection with any tax matters of the Company shall be expenses of the Company.

5.10 Officers.

(a) Appointment of Officers. The Managers may appoint officers of the Company at any time to conduct or to assist the Managers in the conduct and day-to-day business and affairs of the Company. The officers of the Company may include, without limitation, a Chairman, a Chief Executive Officer, a President, one or more Vice Presidents, a Secretary, one or more Assistant Secretaries, a Chief Financial Officer, a Treasurer, one or more Assistant Treasurers, and such other officers as may from time to time be appointed by the Managers. The officers shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Managers but subject in all cases to the supervision and control of the Managers. Any individual may hold any number of offices. Any such officer (i) shall serve at the pleasure of the Managers and may be removed for any reason, with or without Cause, or for no reason by the Managers and (ii) may resign at any time by delivering his or her written resignation to the Managers, and any such resignation shall be effective upon receipt thereof unless it is specified to be effective at some other time or upon the occurrence of some other event. Without limiting the generality of this Section, the Board of Managers hereby appoint the following officers:

Chief Executive Officer: John Assaraf is hereby appointed as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company with the authority to supervise, oversee, and manage the day-to-day operations of the Company. Subject to the direction of the Board of Managers, the Chief Executive Officer will be responsible for the strategy as well as the general direction and supervision of the business and affairs of the Company and will perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Managers. The Chief Executive Officer, in general, shall have, and shall be entitled to exercise, all the powers generally appertaining to the chief executive officer of a United States business enterprise. In the absence or disability of the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Executive Officer's duties will be performed and powers may be exercised by the Chairman of the Board of Managers or other individual that shall be appointed by the Board of Managers.

Chairman: John Assaraf is hereby appointed as the Chairman of the Board of Managers. The Chairman of the Board of Managers will preside over meetings of the Managers and Members, and will be the deciding vote in the event of deadlock among the Managers as set forth in Section 5.1(b). The Chairman shall also review and recommend salary increases or decreases for officers of the Company and other employees, employee benefit programs, and other remuneration, subject to the approval of [a Majority Interest of the Members.]

Treasurer: Maria Middaugh is hereby appointed as the Treasurer of the Company. The Treasurer will (i) have active control of and will be responsible for all matters pertaining to the accounts of the Company; (ii) have care and custody of all funds of the Company and will deposit the same in such banks or other depositories as the Board of Managers, or any officer or officers, or any officer and agent jointly, duly authorized by the Board of Managers, will from time to time direct or approve; (iii) supervise the auditing of all payrolls and vouchers of the Company and will direct the manner of certifying all other documents relating to such payments; (iv) receive, audit and consolidate all operating financial statements of the Company, its various departments, divisions and subsidiaries, their arrangement and classification; (v) keep a full and accurate account of all funds received and paid on account of the Company; and (vi) render a statement of his accounts whenever the Board of Managers or the Chief Executive Officer will require. The Treasurer will perform all other necessary acts and duties in connection with the administration of the financial affairs of the Company, and will generally perform all the duties usually pertaining to the office of treasurer of a United States business enterprise. In the absence of the Treasurer, such person as will be designated by the Chief Executive Officer will perform the Treasurer's duties.

Secretary: Maria Middaugh is hereby appointed as the Secretary of the Company. The Secretary will attend all meetings of the Board of Managers and the Members and will record all votes and the minutes of all proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose. The Secretary will attend to the giving of notice of all meetings of the Members and special meetings of the Board of Managers. The Secretary will generally perform all the duties usually pertaining to the office of secretary of a United States business enterprise.

(b) Signing Authority of Officers. The officers, if any, shall have the authority to sign checks, instruments, and other documents on behalf of the Company as may be delegated to them by the Managers.

(c) Acts of Officers as Conclusive Evidence of Authority. Any note, mortgage, deed of trust, evidence of indebtedness, contract, certificate, statement, conveyance, or other instrument or obligation in writing, and any assignment or endorsement thereof, executed or entered into between the Company and any other Person, when signed by any officer so authorized by the Managers, is not invalidated as to the Company by any lack of authority of the signing officer(s) in the absence of actual knowledge on the part of the other Person that the signing officer(s) had no authority to execute the same.

ARTICLE VI ALLOCATIONS OF NET PROFITS AND NET LOSSES, DISTRIBUTIONS

6.1 Allocations of Net Profits and Net Losses. Subject to Section 6.2, the Net Profits or Net Losses for each Fiscal Year of the Company shall be allocated to the Members in such a manner that, at the end of such Fiscal Year, the Adjusted Capital Account balance of each Member shall, to the extent possible, equal the amount that would have been distributed to such Member pursuant to a Hypothetical Liquidation as of the end of the last day of such Fiscal Year. For this purpose, a "Hypothetical Liquidation" means that all assets of the Company are disposed of in a taxable disposition for the Book Value of such assets (but in the case of assets subject to the rules governing Company Minimum Gain chargeback or Member Minimum Gain chargeback, such provisions would apply), the debts of the Company are paid, and the remaining amounts are distributed to the Members pursuant to Section 6.3. If for any Fiscal Year, such an allocation of Net Profits or Net Losses does not permit the Adjusted Capital Accounts of the Members to be made to equal the amount that would have been distributed to the Members pursuant to a Hypothetical Liquidation as of the end of the last day of such Fiscal Year, individual items of gross income, gain, loss, or deduction (which were the components of Net Profits or Net Losses) shall be allocated among the Members in such a manner that, at the end of such Fiscal Year, the Adjusted Capital Account of each Member shall, to the extent possible, equal the amount that would have been distributed to such Member pursuant to a Hypothetical Liquidation as of the end of the last day of such Fiscal Year.

6.2 Regulatory Allocations. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the following special allocations shall be made in the following order:

(a) The Company Minimum Gain Chargeback. In the event that there is a net decrease in the Company Minimum Gain during any taxable year, the minimum gain chargeback described in Sections 1.704-2(f) and (g) of the Regulations shall apply.

(b) Member Minimum Gain Chargeback. If during any taxable year there is a net decrease in Member Minimum Gain, the partner minimum gain chargeback described in Section 1.704-2(i)(4) of the Regulations shall apply.

(c) Qualified Income Offset. Any Member who unexpectedly receives an adjustment, allocation, or distribution described in subsections (4), (5), or (6) of Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) of the Regulations, which adjustment, allocation, or Distribution creates or increases a deficit balance in that Member's Adjusted Capital Account, such Member shall be allocated items of income and book gain in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate the deficit balance in such Member's Adjusted Capital Account as quickly as possible, provided that an allocation pursuant to this Section 6.2(c) shall be made if and only to the extent that such Member would have a deficit balance in the Member's Adjusted Capital Account after all other allocations provided in this Article VI have been tentatively made as if this Section 6.2(c) were not in the Agreement. This Section 6.2(c) is intended to constitute a "qualified income offset" as provided by Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) of the Regulations and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

(d) Nonrecourse Deductions. Except as otherwise provided under the Regulations, the Member Nonrecourse Deductions shall be allocated to the Members in proportion to their Percentage Interests.

(e) Member Nonrecourse Deductions. Member Nonrecourse Deductions shall be allocated among the Members who bear the Economic Risk of Loss for the Member Nonrecourse Debt to which such Member Nonrecourse Deductions are attributable in the ratio in which they share the Economic Risk of Loss for such Member Nonrecourse Debt. This provision is to be interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements of Section 1.704-2(b)(4) and (i)(1) of the Regulations.

(f) Regulatory Allocations. The allocations set forth in this Section 6.2 (the "Regulatory Allocations") are intended to comply with certain requirements of the applicable Regulations promulgated under Code Section 704(b). Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article VI, the Regulatory Allocations shall be taken into account in allocating other operating Net Profits, Net Losses and other items of income, gain, loss and deduction to the Members for Capital Account purposes so that, to the extent possible, the net amount of such allocations of Net Profits, Net Losses and other items shall be equal to the amount that would have been allocated to each Member if the Regulatory Allocations had not occurred.

6.3 Distributions.

(a) Subject to applicable law and any limitations contained elsewhere in this Agreement, the Managers may elect from time to time to cause the Company to distribute Distributable Cash to the Members, which distributions shall be made to the Members in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, on each Tax Distribution Date, the Company shall distribute to each Member in cash an amount equal to such Member's Assumed Tax Liability, if any. Distributions pursuant to this Section 6.3(b) shall be treated as an advance distribution under Section 6.3(a) or Section 9.4, as applicable, and shall offset future Distributions that a Member would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to Section 6.3(a) or Section 9.4. Determinations of allocations of taxable income or loss for purposes of this Section 6.3(b) shall disregard adjustments to such allocations or those otherwise made pursuant to Section 704(c) of the Code (or the Regulations promulgated thereunder). If on a Tax Distribution Date, there are not sufficient funds on hand to distribute to each Member the full amount of such Member's Assumed Tax Liability, Distributions pursuant to this Section 6.3(b) shall be made to the Members to the extent of the available funds in proportion to each Member's Percentage Interest.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, on or before December 1st of each calendar year, the Managers shall make a good faith estimation of the Company's taxable Net Profits for the entire calendar year. By December 15th, the Managers shall cause the Company to make a distribution of Distributable Cash to the Members in an amount equal to forty percent (40%) of the Managers' estimation of such taxable Net Profits for the entire calendar year, allocated to the Members pursuant to Section 6.1. The Managers shall then cause the Company to distribute annually within ninety (90) days after the end of each calendar year, any additional amount to each Member so that each Member shall have received an amount equal to a minimum of forty percent (40%) of his/her/its allocation of taxable Net Profits for such prior calendar year allocated pursuant to Section 6.1. For this purpose, a payment of compensation to a Member pursuant to this Section 6.3 shall not be deemed a distribution of profits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, no Manager shall be liable to any Member for the Company's failure to accurately estimate taxable Net Profits as provided in this Section.

All such distributions shall be made only to the Persons who, according to the books and records of the Company, are the holders of record of the Economic Interests in respect of which such distributions are made on the actual date of distribution. Neither the Company nor the Managers shall incur any liability for making distributions in accordance with this Section 6.3.

6.4 Allocation of Net Profits and Losses in Respect of a Transferred Interest. If any Membership Interest or Economic Interest is transferred or is increased or decreased by reason of the admission of a new Member or otherwise during any Fiscal Year, each item of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit of the Company for that Fiscal Year shall be assigned pro rata to each day in the particular period of that Fiscal Year to which such item is attributable (i.e., the day on or during which it is accrued or otherwise incurred) and the amount of each item so assigned to any such day shall be allocated to the Member based upon that Member's respective Membership Interest or Economic Interest at the close of that day. Notwithstanding any provision above to the contrary, gain or loss of the Company realized in connection with a sale or other disposition of any of the assets of the Company shall be allocated solely to the parties owning Membership Interests or Economic Interests as of the date that sale or other disposition occurs.

6.5 Tax Allocation Matters.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Section 6.5, all items of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit for federal, state, and local income tax purposes will be allocated in the same manner as the corresponding “book” items are allocated under Section 6.1 (as a component of Net Profits or Net Losses), or Section 6.2.

(b) Each Member’s allocable share of the taxable income or loss of the Company, depreciation, depletion, amortization and gain or loss with respect to any contributed property, or with respect to revalued property where the Company’s property is revalued pursuant to Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(f) of the Regulations, shall be determined in the manner (and as to revaluations, in the same manner as) provided in Section 704(c) of the Code. The allocation shall take into account, to the full extent required or permitted by the Code, the difference between the adjusted basis of the property to the Member contributing it and the Fair Market Value of the property determined by the Members at the time of its contribution or revaluation, as the case may be. The Company shall apply Section 704(c)(1)(A) by using any permissible method selected by the Members.

(c) In the event the Company has in effect an election under Section 754 of the Code, allocations of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit to affected Members for federal, state, and local tax purposes will take into account the effect of such election pursuant to applicable provisions of the Code.

(d) In the event that the Company has taxable income that is characterized as ordinary income under the recapture provisions of the Code, each Member’s distributive share of taxable gain or loss from the sale of the Company assets (to the extent possible) shall include a proportionate share of this recapture income equal to that Member’s share of prior cumulative depreciation deductions with respect to the assets that gave rise to the recapture income.

(e) Allocations pursuant to this Section 6.5 are solely for federal, state, and local tax purposes and, except to the extent allocations under this Section 6.5 are reflected in the allocations of the corresponding “book” items pursuant to Section 6.1 (as a component of Net Profits or Net Losses) or Section 6.2, allocations under this Section 6.5 will not affect, or in any way be taken into account in computing, any Member’s Capital Account or share of Net Profits, Net Losses, other items or distributions pursuant to any provision of this Agreement.

6.6 Allocation of Liabilities. Each Member’s interest in Company profits for purposes of determining that Member’s share of the nonrecourse liabilities of the Company, as used in Section 1.752-3(a)(3) of the Regulations, shall be equal to that Member’s Percentage Interest.

6.7 Form of Distribution. No Member, regardless of the nature of his/her/its Capital Contribution, has the right to demand and receive any distribution from the Company in any form other than money. No Member may be compelled to accept from the Company a Distribution of any asset in kind in lieu of a proportionate distribution of money being made to other Member(s) and, except upon a dissolution and the winding up of the Company, no Member may be compelled to accept a distribution of any asset in kind.

6.8 Amounts Withheld. Any amounts withheld from a distribution by the Company to a Member pursuant to any federal, state, local or foreign tax law shall be treated as if the same had been distributed to that Member pursuant to Section 6.3. Any other amount required to be paid by the Company to a taxing authority with respect to a Member pursuant to any federal, state, local or foreign tax law in connection with any payment to or tax liability (estimated or otherwise) of the Member shall be treated as a loan from the Company to such Member. If such loan is not repaid within thirty (30) calendar days from the date the Company notifies such Member of the withholding, the loan shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the lesser of (a) ten percent (10%) per annum or (b) the highest non-usurious rate permitted by applicable law under such circumstances from the date of the applicable notice to the date of repayment. In addition to all other remedies the Company may have, the Company (acting through a majority in number of the Members other than such Member) may withhold distributions that would otherwise be payable to such Member and apply those distributions instead to the repayment of the loan and accrued interest.

6.9 Obligations of Members to Report Allocations. The Members are aware of the income tax consequences of the allocations made by this Article VI and hereby agree to be bound by the provisions of this Article VI in reporting their shares of the Company income and loss for income tax purposes.

ARTICLE VII TRANSFER AND ASSIGNMENT OF INTERESTS

7.1 Transfer and Assignment of Interests.

(a) Except as otherwise permitted and provided in this Agreement, no Member shall be entitled to transfer, assign, convey, sell, encumber or in any way alienate all or any part of his/her/its Membership Interest (collectively, “transfer”) without the prior approval of a Majority Interest of the Members, which consent may be given, or withheld, delayed, denied, or conditioned (as allowed by this Agreement or the Act), as the Class A Members may determine in their sole and absolute discretion. Transfers in violation of this Article VII shall only be effective to the extent set forth in Section 7.4. After the consummation of any transfer of any part of a Membership Interest, the Membership Interest so transferred shall continue to be subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement and any further transfers shall be required to comply with all the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

(b) The transfer of a Membership Interest, or part thereof, by an individual Member to a revocable, inter vivos trust of which such Member (and/or his or her spouse) is the trustor, trustee, and beneficiary, or by such trust to the Member, shall not be subject to the restrictions of this Section 7.1. However, as a condition to any such transfer, the trustee of such trust shall agree in writing to be bound by all of the provisions of this Agreement and if the transferring Member is not the sole trustee of the trust, all trustees must agree that only the transferring Member can act on behalf of the trust with respect to the Membership Interest.

7.2 Further Restrictions on Transfer of Interests. In addition to other restrictions found in this Agreement, no Member shall transfer all or any part of his/her/its Membership Interest if the Membership Interest to be transferred, when added to the total of all other Membership Interests transferred in the preceding twelve (12) consecutive months prior thereto, would cause the tax termination of the Company under Code Section 708(b)(1)(B).

7.3 Effective Date of Permitted Transfers. Any permitted transfer of all or any portion of a Membership Interest or an Economic Interest shall be effective as of the date provided in Section 6.4 following the date upon which the requirements of Sections 7.1, 7.2, and 4.2 have been met. The Managers shall provide the members with written notice of such transfer as promptly as possible after the requirements of Sections 7.1, 7.2, and 4.2 have been met. Any transferee of a Membership Interest shall take subject to the restrictions on transfer imposed by this Agreement.

7.4 No Effect to Transfers in Violation of Agreement. Upon any transfer of a Membership Interest in violation of this Article VII, the transferee shall have no right to vote or participate in the management of the business, property and affairs of the Company or to exercise any rights of a Member. Such transferee shall become an Economic Interest Owner and thereafter shall only receive the share of one or more of the Company's Net Profits, Net Losses and distributions of the Company's assets to which the transferor of such Economic Interest would otherwise be entitled. Each Member acknowledges and agrees that such termination of a Membership Interest upon the occurrence of any of the foregoing events is not unreasonable under the circumstances existing as of the date hereof. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding sentences, if, in the determination of the Managers, a transfer in violation of this Article VII would cause the tax termination of the Company under Code Section 708(b)(1)(B), the transfer shall be null and void and the purported transferee shall not become either a Member or an Economic Interest Owner.

7.5 Right of First Negotiation. If any Member desires to transfer all of his/her/its Membership Interest, such Member shall notify the Company and the Class A Members in writing of such desire and, for a period of [ten] Business Days thereafter, the transferring Member and the Company shall negotiate in good faith with respect to the purchase of such Member's Membership Interest. During such period, the Member desiring to transfer such Membership Interest may not solicit a transferee for such Membership Interest.

7.6 Right of First Refusal. If the period described in Section 7.5 expires without an agreement being reached as to the purchase of the Membership Interest referred to therein, then the Member desiring to transfer his/her/its Membership Interest ("Offeror") may solicit transferees for all, but not part of his/her/its Membership Interest. In such event, each time the Offeror proposes to transfer all of his/her/its Membership Interest (or as required by operation of law or other involuntary transfer to do so), such Member shall first offer such Membership Interest to the Company and the non-transferring Class A Members ("Non-transferring Members") in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) Option Notice. The Offeror shall deliver a written notice ("Option Notice") to the Company and the Non-transferring Members stating (i) the Offeror's bona fide intention to transfer such Membership Interest, (ii) the purchase price and terms of payment for which the Offeror proposes to transfer such Membership Interest, and (iii) the name and address of the proposed transferee.

(b) The Company Option. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Option Notice, the Company shall have the right, but not the obligation, to elect to purchase all or part of the Membership Interest upon the price and terms of payment designated in the Option Notice or for a purchase price determined in accordance with Section 7.12, if lower. If the Option Notice provides for the payment of non-cash consideration, the Company may elect to pay the consideration in cash equal to the good faith estimate of the present fair market value of the non-cash consideration offered as determined by the parties or by appraisal if the parties cannot agree. If the Company exercises such right within such thirty (30)-day period, the Managers shall give written notice of that fact to the Offeror and Non-transferring Members.

(c) Member Option. If the Company fails to elect to purchase the entire Membership Interest proposed to be transferred within the thirty (30)-day period described in Section 7.6(b) above, the Non-transferring Members shall have the right, but not the obligation, to elect to purchase any remaining share of such Membership Interest upon the price and terms of payment designated in the Option Notice or the fair market value if the Company elects to pay fair market value. If the Option Notice provides for the payment of non-cash consideration, such purchasing Members each may elect to pay the consideration in cash equal to the good faith estimate of the present fair market value of the non-cash consideration offered as determined by the parties or by appraisal if the parties cannot agree. Within sixty (60) days after receipt of the Option Notice, each Non-transferring Member shall notify the Managers in writing of his/her/its desire to purchase a portion of the Membership Interest proposed to be so transferred. The failure of any Non-transferring Member to submit a notice within the applicable period shall constitute an election on the part of that Member not to purchase any of the Membership Interest that may be so transferred. Each Non-transferring Member so electing to purchase shall be entitled to purchase a portion of such Membership Interest in the same proportion that the Percentage Interest of such Non-transferring Member bears to the aggregate of the Percentage Interests of all of the Non-transferring Members electing to so purchase the Membership Interest being transferred. In the event any Member elects to purchase none or less than all of his/her/its pro rata share of such Membership Interest, then the other Members can elect to purchase more than their pro rata share.

(d) Closing. If the Company and the Non-transferring Members elect to purchase all of the Membership Interest designated in the Option Notice, then the closing of such purchase shall occur within ninety (90) days after receipt of the Option Notice and the Offeror, the Company and/or the Non-transferring Members shall execute such documents and instruments and make such deliveries as may be reasonably required to consummate such purchase.

(e) Non-Exercise of Option. If the Company and the Non-transferring Members elect not to purchase, or default in their obligation to purchase, all of the Membership Interest of the transferring Member, then the transferring Member may transfer his/her/its Membership Interest to the proposed transferee, providing such transfer (i) is completed within sixty (60) days after the expiration of the Company's and the Non-transferring Members' right to purchase such Membership Interest, (ii) is made on terms and for a price no less favorable to the transferring Member than as designated in the Option Notice, and (iii) complies with Sections 7.1, 7.2, and 4.2. Any Class A Membership Interest transferred shall become a Class B Membership Interest in the hands of the transferee, unless the Majority Interest of the Members approve of such interest being transferred as a Class A Membership Interest. If such Membership Interest is not so transferred, the transferring Member must give notice in accordance with this Article VII prior to any other or subsequent transfer of such Membership Interest.

7.7 Transfer of Membership Interest on Death or Incompetency. If a Member who is an individual dies or is adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be incompetent to manage the Member's person or property, then upon such death or adjudication of such Member, his or her Membership Interest shall be transferred to his or her spouse, successor(s)-in-interest, estate, or trust, as applicable (the "Successor") as a Class A Membership Interest, effective as of the date of death or adjudication, provided that: (i) as a condition to any such transfer, the Successor must agree in writing to be bound by all of the provisions of this Agreement and (ii) if requested by the Company, such Successor shall provide to the Company sufficient evidence of the legal right and authority of such party to have the Membership Interest so transferred and registered.

7.8 Rights of Legal Representatives. If a Member who is an individual dies, is adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be incompetent to manage the Member's person or property, or files for Bankruptcy, the Member's executor, administrator, guardian, conservator, or other legal representative may exercise all of the Member's rights for the purpose of settling the Member's estate or administering the Member's property. If a Member is a corporation, trust, or other entity and is dissolved, terminated, or files for Bankruptcy, the powers of that Member may be exercised by its legal representative or successor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Member's rights are being administered other than by the Member, then, at such time, if the Member is a Class A Member, his, her, or its Class A Membership shall be converted to a Class B Membership Interest, and whomever shall be administering such Member's rights shall promptly provide a notice of such transfer to the Managers, unless or until whomever is administering such Member's rights becomes a Member in accordance with Section 7.7 or another provision in this Agreement.

7.9 Transfer of Membership Interest Pursuant to Bankruptcy. If a Person succeeds to, receives, acquires, or is otherwise the transferee of a Membership Interest, or any portion thereof, as a result of a Bankruptcy, such Person shall become an Economic Interest Owner (but not a Member), and shall not have any Membership Interest other than an Economic Interest.

7.10 Drag-Along Rights. If a Majority Interest of the Members ("Initial Selling Members") desire to sell or otherwise transfer all of such Initial Selling Members' Membership Interests, to an unrelated third party transferee who desires to acquire one hundred percent (100%) of the Company, then the other Class A Members and Class B Members ("Other Members"), or any of them, within thirty (30) days after receipt of a written notice from the Initial Selling Members, can elect to exercise the rights to purchase the Membership Interest of the Initial Selling Members pursuant to Section 7.6, above. If no such election is made within such period, the Other Members shall be deemed to have agreed to sell otherwise transfer all of the Other Members Membership Interest to such transferee, and the aggregate purchase price of all the Membership Interest shall be allocated to each Member for all of their Membership Interest in accordance with Section 9.4.

7.11 Tag-Along Rights. If the Initial Selling Members desire to sell or otherwise transfer all of such Initial Selling Members' Membership Interest to an unrelated third-party transferee who desires to acquire such Membership Interest, but does not desire to acquire one hundred percent (100%) of the Company, and the Company and Other Members do not exercise their rights as provided in Section 7.6, then the Initial Selling Members shall be permitted to enter into such sale or other transfer arrangement. However, if any of the Other Members also desires to sell or otherwise transfer such Other Member's Membership Interest, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of a written notice from the Selling Members to the Other Members, such Other Members may participate in the Initial Selling Members' sale (on a proportionate basis based on their respective Percentage Interests) at the same price per percentage point of Membership Interest and on the same other terms and conditions to be received by the Initial Selling Members from such transferee for their Membership Interest.

7.12 Purchase Price. Unless otherwise provided for herein, the purchase price shall be the fair market value of the Membership Interest as determined by agreement of the seller of the Membership Interest ("Seller") and the Company. If the Seller and the Company cannot agree on the purchase price within thirty (30) days after the Sale Date or date of exercise of the Company's option to purchase such Membership Interest, as applicable, then the purchase price shall be determined by an independent appraiser jointly selected by the Seller and the Company. The Seller and the Company shall each pay one-half of the cost of the appraisal. If the Seller and the Company cannot agree on a single appraiser within sixty (60) days after the Sale Date or date of exercise of the Company's option to purchase the Membership Interest, as applicable, each shall choose, at its own cost, its own appraiser experienced in appraising the type of business of the Company, within fifteen (15) days thereafter and any appraiser they select, must agree to complete its appraisal within sixty (60) days of being selected. If either party fails to select an appraiser within such fifteen (15)-day period, the determination of the appraiser selected within such fifteen (15)-day period, shall be binding on the parties. If both parties select an appraiser within such fifteen (15)-day period, and if the higher appraisal is within ten percent (10%) of the lower appraisal, then the fair market value of the Membership Interest shall be the average of the two appraisals. If such appraisals are more than ten percent (10%) apart, then the two appraisers shall, within ten (10) days after the date of the second appraisal, appoint a third, similarly qualified, appraiser, and the Seller and the Company shall each pay half of the cost for the third appraiser, who must agree to complete the appraisal within sixty (60) days of being selected. The appraisal of such third appraiser shall be averaged with the closest appraisal of the prior two appraisers to determine the fair market value of the Membership Interest and, if both such appraisals are equally as close, the appraisal of such third appraiser shall be determinative of the fair market value of the Membership Interest. If said two appraisers are unable to agree on such third appraiser within the specified time period, then the parties shall apply to the American Arbitration Association requesting it to appoint a third such appraiser, and such decision of the American Arbitration Association as to the selection of a third such appraiser shall be binding on the parties, and any costs associated with the selection of, or performance of services by, the third appraiser shall be shared equally by the parties. For purposes of determining the fair market value of the Membership Interest, the value shall be based on the value of the Company as a going concern, but shall take into consideration any minority discount or other appropriate discount when appraising the Membership Interest being sold.

At the closing for the sale of the Membership Interest, the Seller and the Company shall do all things and execute and deliver all documents as may be necessary fully to consummate such sale and purchase in accordance with the terms, and provisions of this Agreement. Unless otherwise provided for in this Agreement, and unless otherwise agreed by the Seller and the Company, the closing shall take place within thirty (30) days after the purchase price has been determined and the purchase price shall be paid in five (5) equal annual installments with the first installment being paid at the closing and the balance of principal payable on the same date of each of the next four (4) years. Interest shall accrue on the unpaid principal at the applicable federal rate for mid-term obligations announced during the month of the purchase. Interest shall be payable with each installment of principal. All or a portion of the principal may be prepaid at any time or from time to time, without penalty.

7.13 Substitution of Members. A transferee shall have the right to become a substitute Member only if (i) the requirements of Sections 7.1 and 7.2 relating to consent of the Class A Members and tax requirements hereof are met, (ii) the transferee executes an instrument satisfactory to the Manager accepting and adopting the terms and provisions of this Agreement, and (iii) the transferee pays any reasonable expenses in connection with his/her/its admission as a substitute Member. The admission of a transferee as a substitute Member shall not result in the release of the Member who assigned the Membership Interest from any liability that such Member may have to the Company.

7.14 Spousal Consent and Acknowledgement. Each Member and each other individual who is a Member of this Company or who purchases Membership Interests, shall cause his or her spouse, if applicable, to execute and deliver to the Company a Spousal Consent and Acknowledgement in substantially the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit C. Any Member who marries subsequent to the Member's admission as a Member of the Company shall cause the Member's spouse to execute such consent and deliver it to the Company. Notwithstanding the execution and delivery thereof, such Consent of Spouse shall not be deemed to confer or convey to the spouse any rights in such Member's share that do not otherwise exist by operation of law or the agreement of the parties.

ARTICLE VIII ACCOUNTING, RECORDS, REPORTING BY MEMBERS

8.1 Books and Records. The books and records of the Company shall be kept, and the financial position and the results of its operations recorded, in accordance with the accounting methods followed for federal income tax purposes. The books and records of the Company shall reflect all the Company transactions and shall be appropriate and adequate for the Company's business. The Company shall maintain at its principal office in California all of the following:

- (a) A current list of the full name and last known business or residence address of each Member and Economic Interest Owner, together with the Capital Contributions, Capital Account, and Percentage Interest of each Member and Economic Interest Owner;
- (b) The full name and business or residence address of each Manager;
- (c) A copy of the Articles and any and all amendments thereto, together with executed copies of any powers of attorney pursuant to which the Articles or any amendments thereto have been executed;
- (d) Copies of the Company's federal, state, and local income tax or information returns and reports, if any, for the six (6) most recent taxable years;
- (e) A copy of this Agreement and any and all amendments thereto, together with executed copies of any powers of attorney pursuant to which this Agreement or any amendments thereto have been executed;
- (f) Copies of the financial statements of the Company, if any, for the six (6) most recent Fiscal Years; and
- (g) The Company's books and records as they relate to the internal affairs of the Company for at least the current and past four (4) Fiscal Years.

8.2 Delivery to Members and Inspection.

(a) Upon the request of any Member or Economic Interest Owner for purposes reasonably related to the interest of that Person as a Member or Economic Interest Owner, the Managers shall promptly deliver to the requesting Member or Economic Interest Owner, at the expense of the Company, a copy of the information required to be maintained under Sections 8.1 (a), (b) and (d) and a copy of this Agreement.

(b) Each Member, Manager and Economic Interest Owner has the right, upon reasonable request for purposes reasonably related to the interest of the Person as Member, Manager or Economic Interest Owner, to:

(i) inspect and copy during normal business hours any of the Company records described in Sections 8.1(a) through (g); and

(ii) obtain from the Managers, promptly after their becoming available, a copy of the Company's Federal, state, and local income tax or information returns for each Fiscal Year.

(c) Any request, inspection or copying by a Member or Economic Interest Owner under this Section 8.2 may be made by that Person or that Person's agent or attorney.

8.3 Reports; Annual Statements.

(a) Governmental Reports. The Managers shall cause, at the Company's expense, all documents and reports required to be filed with any governmental agency in accordance with the Act.

(b) Financial Reports. The Managers shall cause to be prepared at least annually, at the Company's expense, information necessary for the preparation of each Member's and Economic Interest Owner's federal and state income tax returns. The Managers shall send or cause to be sent to each Member and Economic Interest Owner within ninety (90) calendar days after or as soon as reasonably practical thereafter: (i) such information as is necessary to complete federal and state income tax or information returns and (ii) a copy of the Company's federal, state, and local income tax or information returns for that year.

8.4 Financial and Other Information. The Managers shall provide such financial and other information relating to the Company or any other Person in which the Company owns, directly or indirectly, an equity interest, as a Member may reasonably request. The Managers shall distribute to the Members, promptly after the preparation or receipt thereof by the Managers, any financial or other information relating to any Person in which the Company owns, directly or indirectly, an equity interest, including any filings by such Person under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that is received by the Company with respect to any equity interest of the Company in such Person.

8.5 Filings. The Managers, at the Company's expense, shall cause the income tax returns for the Company to be prepared and timely filed with the appropriate authorities. The Managers, at the Company's expense, shall also cause to be prepared and timely filed, with appropriate Federal and state regulatory and administrative bodies, amendments to, or restatements of, the Articles and all reports required to be filed by the Company with those entities under the Act or other then current applicable laws, rules, and regulations. If the Managers being required by the Act to execute or file any document fails, after demand, to do so within a reasonable period of time or refuses to do so, any Member may prepare, execute, and file that document with the California Secretary of State.

8.6 Bank Accounts. The Managers shall maintain the funds of the Company in one or more separate bank accounts in the name of the Company and shall not permit the funds of the Company to be commingled in any fashion with the funds of any other Person.

8.7 Accounting Decisions; Reliance on Others. All decisions as to accounting matters, except as otherwise specifically set forth herein, shall be made by the majority of the Managers. The Managers may rely upon the advice of their accountants as to whether such decisions are in accordance with accounting methods followed for Federal income tax purposes.

8.8 Confidentiality. All books, records, financial statements, tax returns, budgets, business plans and projections of the Company, all other information concerning the business, affairs and properties of the Company and all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall be held in confidence by each Member and his/her/its Affiliates, subject to any obligation to comply with (a) any applicable law, (b) any rule or regulation of any legal authority or securities exchange, or (c) any subpoena or other legal process to make information available to the Persons entitled thereto. Such confidentiality shall be maintained until such time, if any, as any such confidential information either is, or becomes, published or a matter of public knowledge.

ARTICLE IX TERMINATION AND DISSOLUTION

9.1 Dissolution. The Company shall be dissolved, its assets shall be disposed of, and its affairs wound up on the first to occur of the following:

(a) The entry of a decree of judicial dissolution pursuant to Corporations Code Section 17707.03; or

(b) The approval of the Majority Interest of the Members to dissolve the Company.

9.2 Date of Dissolution. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective on the day on which the event occurs giving rise to the dissolution; but, the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company have been liquidated and distributed as provided herein. Notwithstanding the dissolution of the Company, prior to the termination of the Company the business of the Company and the rights and obligations of the Members, as such, shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

9.3 Winding Up. Upon the occurrence of any event specified in Section 9.1, the Company shall continue solely for the purpose of winding up its affairs in an orderly manner, liquidating its assets and satisfying the claims of its creditors. The Members or any Person(s) designated by the Members (the Members or such Person(s), as the case may be, the "Liquidating Trustee") shall be responsible for overseeing the winding up and liquidation of the Company, shall take full account of the assets and liabilities of the Company and shall adhere to the following procedure:

(a) all the Company assets shall be marshaled;

(b) all outstanding debts, expenses, and liabilities to third parties other than the Members shall be paid;

(c) all debts to Members other than capital and Profits shall be paid;

(d) after payment of all of the foregoing debts, expenses, and liabilities, Members shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of Section 9.4 hereof; and

(e) the Company shall execute a Certificate of Dissolution that shall be filed in the office of the California Secretary of State as provided by the Act (or shall execute and file with the California Secretary of State such other documents required under the Act).

9.4 Distributions in Liquidation.

(a) Priority of Distributions. Upon liquidation of the Company, all distributions shall be made first in accordance with the Members' positive Capital Account balances, as determined after taking into account all contributions, distributions, and allocations for all periods and, to the extent permitted under the Treasury Regulations, in a manner that, to the extent possible, will result in distributions, when made, in accordance with the positive Capital Account balances. Any remaining funds will be distributed according to the Member's Percentage Interests. All distributions under this Section 9.4(a) shall be made by the later of (1) the end of the taxable year of the Company in which the liquidation of the Company occurs or (2) within (ninety) 90 days after the date of the liquidation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, upon a liquidation within the meaning of Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(g) of the Treasury Regulations, if any Member's Capital Account has a negative balance (after giving effect to all contributions, distributions, allocations, and other Capital Account adjustments for all taxable years, including the year during which such liquidation occurs), such Member shall have no obligation to make any Capital Contribution, and the negative balance of such Member's Capital Account shall not be considered a debt owed by such Member to the Company or to any other person for any purpose whatsoever.

(b) Definitions. For purposes of this Section 9.4(b):

(i) the taxable year of the Company shall be determined without regard to Section 706(c)(2)(A) of the Code;

(ii) a liquidation of a Member's Membership Interest shall be deemed to occur on the earlier of (A) the date upon which there is a liquidation of the Company, or (B) the date upon which there is a liquidation of the Members' Membership Interest under Section 1.761-1(d) of the Regulations; and

(iii) a liquidation of the Company shall be deemed to occur upon the earlier of (A) the date upon which the Company is terminated under Section 708(b)(1) of the Code or (B) the date upon which the Company ceases to be a going concern (even though it may continue in existence for the purpose of winding up its affairs, paying its debts, and distributing any remaining balance to the Members).

9.5 Distributions in Kind. Any non-cash asset distributed to one or more Members shall first be valued at its Fair Market Value to determine the Net Profit or Net Loss that would have resulted if that asset had been sold for that value; then, the Net Profit or Net Loss shall be allocated pursuant to Article VI; and, finally, the Members' Capital Accounts shall be adjusted to reflect those allocations. The amount distributed and charged to the Capital Account of each Member receiving an interest in the distributed asset shall be the Fair Market Value of the interest (net of any liability secured by the asset that the Member assumes or takes subject to). The Fair Market Value of that asset shall be determined by the Managers or by the Members or if any Member objects by an independent appraiser (any such appraiser must be recognized as an expert in valuing the type of asset involved) selected by the Managers or liquidating trustee and approved by the Members.

9.6 Provision for Debts and Liabilities. The payment of a debt or liability, whether the whereabouts of the creditor is known or unknown, has been adequately provided for if (i) the payment has been assumed or guaranteed in good faith by one or more financially responsible Persons or by the United States government or any agency thereof and (ii) the provision, including the financial responsibility of the Person, was determined in good faith and with reasonable care by the Members or Managers to be adequate at the time of any distribution of the assets pursuant to Section 9.4. This Section 9.6 shall not prescribe the exclusive means of making adequate provision for debts and liabilities.

9.7 No Liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, upon a liquidation within the meaning of Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(g) of the Regulations, if any Member has a negative deficit Capital Account balance (after giving effect to all contributions, distributions, allocations, and other Capital Account adjustments for all taxable years, including the year during which such liquidation occurs), (i) that Member shall not have any obligation to make any contribution to the capital of the Company, and (ii) the negative balance of that Member's Capital Account shall not be considered a debt owed by that Member to the Company or to any other Person for any purpose whatsoever.

9.8 Limitations on Payments Made in Dissolution. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, each Member shall be entitled to look only to the assets of the Company for the return of his/her/its positive Capital Account balance and shall have no recourse for his/her/its Capital Contributions and/or share of Net Profits (upon dissolution or otherwise) against any other Member or the Managers.

9.9 Compensation for Services. The Liquidating Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation from the Company for its services in winding up the affairs of the Company.

9.10 No Action for Dissolution. The Members acknowledge that irreparable damage would be done to the goodwill and reputation of the Company if any Member should bring an action in court to dissolve the Company under circumstances where dissolution is not required by Section 9.1. The Members further acknowledge that this Agreement has been drawn carefully to provide fair treatment to all parties and equitable payment in liquidation of the Membership Interests. Accordingly, except as expressly permitted in this Agreement, no Member may take any voluntary action that directly causes the Company to dissolve, and unless the Members fail to liquidate the Company as required by this Article IX, each Member waives and renounces its right to initiate legal action to seek the appointment of a receiver or trustee to liquidate the Company or to seek a decree of judicial dissolution of the Company on the ground that it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the business of the Company in conformity with the Articles or this Agreement or that dissolution is reasonably necessary for the protection of the rights or interests of the complaining Member. Damages for breach of this Section 9.10 shall be monetary damages only (and not specific performance), and the damages may be offset against distributions by the Company to which such Member would otherwise be entitled.

ARTICLE X INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

10.1 Indemnification. The Company shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless any Person (each, an “Indemnified Person”) made, or threatened to be made, a party to an action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal or investigative (a “Proceeding”), including an action by or in the right of the Company, by reason of the fact that such Indemnified Person was or is (a) a Member (including in the capacity of the Tax Matters Partner) of the Company, (b) an officer of the Company, (c) an Affiliate of a Member or an officer of the Company, or (d) an officer, director, shareholder, partner, member, employee, manager or agent of any of the foregoing, or by reason of the fact that such Indemnified Person was or is serving at the request of the Company as a manager, director, officer, employee, or other agent of another limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against all judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement, and reasonable expenses (including investigation, accounting and attorneys’ fees) incurred as a result of such Proceeding, or any appeal therein (and including, without limitation, indemnification against active or passive negligence or breach of duty) if such Person acted in good faith, for a purpose that he/she/it reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company and in criminal Proceedings, in addition, had no reasonable cause to believe that his/her/its conduct was unlawful. The termination of any such Proceeding by judgment, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, shall not in itself create a presumption that any such Indemnified Person did not act in good faith, for a purpose that he/she/it reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company or that he/she/it had reasonable cause to believe that his/her/its conduct was unlawful; provided, however, that no such Person shall be indemnified or held harmless if and to the extent that the liability sought to be indemnified or held harmless against results from (a) any act or omission of such Person that involves actual fraud, willful misconduct, gross negligence, or reckless disregard of duty or (b) any transaction from which such Person derives an improper personal benefit (unless such transaction was approved by the other Members). The Company’s indemnification obligations hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company. Each Indemnified Person shall have a claim against the property and assets of the Company for payment of any indemnity amounts from time to time due hereunder, which amounts shall be paid or properly reserved for prior to the making of distributions by the Company to the Members. No Member shall be subject to personal liability or required to provide any funds, or to cause any funds to be provided, to Company to satisfy any indemnification obligation of the Company under this Article X.

10.2 Contract Right; Expenses. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article X shall be a contract right and shall include the right to require the Company to advance the expenses incurred by the Indemnified Person in defending any such Proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that the payment of such expenses in advance of the final disposition of a Proceeding shall be made only upon receipt by the Company of an undertaking, by or on behalf of the Indemnified Person, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such Indemnified Person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article X or otherwise.

10.3 Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Company may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Members, grant rights to indemnification and to advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Company to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article X with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of the Members and officers of the Company.

10.4 Nonexclusive Right. The right to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in defending a Proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred in this Article X shall not be exclusive of any other right that any Person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute or agreement, or under any insurance policy obtained for the benefit of the Company or any Member and/or any officer of the Company.

10.5 Insurance. The Members may cause the Company to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Person (including, without limitation, any Member and/or officer of the Company) who is or was an agent of the Company against any liability asserted against that Person and incurred by that Person in any such capacity or arising out of that Person's status as an agent, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify that Person against liability under the provisions of Sections 10.1 and 10.3 or under applicable law.

ARTICLE XI MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Governing Law and Venue. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without regard to any conflicts of laws principles of the State of California or any other jurisdiction that would call for the application of the law of any jurisdiction other than the State of California. Each Member hereby consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts sitting in California in any action on a claim arising out of, under or in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, provided such claim is not required to be mediated or arbitrated pursuant to Section 11.2. Each Member further agrees that personal jurisdiction over him or her may be affected by service of process by registered or certified mail addressed as provided in Section 11.11 of this Agreement, and that when so made shall be as if served upon him personally within the State of California.

11.2 Dispute Resolution. Upon the occurrence of any dispute or disagreement between the parties hereto arising out of or in connection with any term or provision of this Agreement, the subject matter hereof, or the interpretation or enforcement hereof, or the organization or internal affairs of either party (in each case, a "Dispute"), the parties shall engage in informal, good faith discussions and attempt to resolve the Dispute. If the parties are unable to resolve the Dispute, then the parties shall comply with the following dispute resolution procedure:

(a) Mediation. The Dispute shall first be submitted to mediation on an expedited basis in Orange County, California, or if the Company is no longer located in Orange County, California, then in the city in which the Company's headquarters are located at the time dispute resolution is sought, administered by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), or its successor, in accordance with the AAA rules and procedures then in effect. Any party may commence mediation by providing to AAA and the other party a written request for mediation, setting forth the subject of the Dispute and the relief requested, with the expectation that the first mediation session shall occur within forty-five (45) days of such written request. The parties will cooperate with AAA and with one another in selecting a neutral mediator and in scheduling the mediation proceedings. The mediator must be a retired judge or an attorney licensed to practice law in California and experienced in commercial transactions. If the parties are unable to select the mediator within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of the mediation notice by AAA, then AAA shall designate the mediator. The parties covenant that they will (i) participate in the mediation in good faith, (ii) share equally in the costs of the mediator and related AAA administrative costs, and (iii) pay in advance the estimated reasonable fees and costs of the mediation, as may be specified in advance by the mediator provided, however, that each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs associated with the mediation. All offers, promises, conduct, and statements, whether oral or written, made in the course of the mediation by any of the parties, their agents, employees, experts, and attorneys, and by the mediator and any AAA employees, are confidential, privileged, and inadmissible for any purpose, including impeachment, in any reference, arbitration, litigation, or other proceeding involving the parties, provided that evidence that is otherwise admissible or discoverable shall not be rendered inadmissible or non-discoverable as a result of its use in the mediation. Either party may seek equitable relief in a Superior Court of Orange County, California prior to the mediation to preserve the status quo pending the completion of that process. In the event it is necessary, any party may file a motion in the Superior Court of Orange County, California to compel the other party to participate in the mediation and the prevailing party shall be awarded his/her/its costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with such motion. If the Dispute is not resolved within ten (10) Business Days after the first mediation session, either party may (a) give written notice to AAA and the other party that the mediation is terminated and (b) submit any remaining Disputes to arbitration.

(b) Arbitration. If the parties are unable to resolve the Dispute in mediation, then the parties shall submit the Dispute to final and binding arbitration in Orange County, California, or if the Company is no longer located in Orange County, California then in the county in which the Company's headquarters are located at the time dispute resolution is sought, administered by AAA, or its successor, in accordance with the rules and procedures of AAA then in effect. The parties agree that any and all Disputes that are submitted to arbitration in accordance with this Agreement shall be decided by a neutral arbitrator who is a retired judge or attorney licensed to practice law in California and who is experienced in commercial transactions. If the parties are unable to select the arbitrator within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of the arbitration notice by AAA, then AAA shall designate the arbitrator. The parties will cooperate with AAA and with one another in selecting such arbitrator and in scheduling the arbitration proceedings in accordance with applicable AAA procedures. Any party may commence the arbitration process called for in this Agreement by filing a written demand for arbitration with AAA, with a copy to the other party. The parties covenant that they will (i) participate in the arbitration in good faith, (ii) share equally in the administrative costs and arbitrator's fees associated with the arbitration, and (iii) pay in advance the estimated reasonable fees and costs of the arbitration, as may be specified in advance by the arbitrator; provided, however, that each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs associated with the arbitration, unless a party is ordered to pay reasonable costs and expenses. The arbitrator shall apply California law without reference to conflicts of laws principles. Any award issued as a result of such arbitration shall be final and binding between the parties thereto and shall be enforceable by any court having jurisdiction over the party against whom enforcement is sought. The parties expressly acknowledge and understand that, by entering into this Agreement, they each are waiving their respective rights to have any Dispute between the parties hereto adjudicated by a court or by a jury.

11.3 No Waiver. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, no provision of this Agreement may be waived except by an agreement in writing signed by the waiving party. A waiver of any term or provision shall not be construed as a waiver of any other term or provision.

11.4 Amendment. All amendments to this Agreement will be in writing and signed by a Majority Interest of the Members. In the absence of any opinion of counsel as to the effect thereof, no amendment to this Agreement or the Articles shall be made that violates the Act or is likely to cause the Company to be taxed as a corporation.

11.5 Successors and Permissible Assigns. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement relating to transferability, the terms and provisions of this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Members, and their respective successors and permissible assigns.

11.6 References to this Agreement. Numbered or lettered Articles, Sections, and subsections herein contained refer to Articles, Sections, and subsections of this Agreement unless otherwise expressly stated.

11.7 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is declared by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid for any reason, such invalidity shall not affect the remaining provisions. Such remaining provisions shall be fully severable, and this Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such invalid provisions never had been inserted in this Agreement.

11.8 Exhibits. All Exhibits attached to this Agreement are incorporated and shall be treated as if set forth herein.

11.9 Interpretation. In the event any claim is made by any Member or Manager relating to any conflict, omission, or ambiguity in this Agreement, no presumption or burden of proof or persuasion shall be implied by virtue of the fact that this Agreement was prepared by or at the request of a Member and/or a Manager or that Member's and/or Manager's counsel.

11.10 Legal Representation. EACH MEMBER AND MANAGER REPRESENTS AND WARRANTS THAT SUCH MEMBER AND/OR MANAGER HAS BEEN ADVISED THAT SUCH MEMBER AND MANAGER MAY BE REPRESENTED BY COUNSEL OF SUCH MEMBER'S AND MANAGER'S OWN CHOOSING IN THE PREPARATION AND ANALYSIS OF THIS AGREEMENT AND EITHER DID SO OR ELECTED NOT TO DO SO AT HIS, HER, OR ITS OWN FREE WILL WITHOUT THE UNDUE INFLUENCE OF ANY PERSON WHOMSOEVER AND THAT EACH HAS READ THIS AGREEMENT WITH CARE AND BELIEVES THAT SUCH MEMBER AND/OR MANAGER IS FULLY AWARE OF AND UNDERSTANDS THE CONTENTS THEREOF AND THEIR LEGAL EFFECT.

11.11 Notices. All notices, requests, and other communications to a party under this Agreement must be in writing (including email) and will be given to Members and Managers at the addresses set forth on Exhibit "B" hereto and to the Company at its principal place of business. All notices, requests, demands, waivers and other communications must be delivered by (a) personal delivery, (b) reputable overnight delivery service (including Federal Express, UPS and DHL), or (c) email (provided that concurrently such notice is also given by one of the other methods or service), in each case to the respective address or number indicated on Exhibit "B" attached hereto or later provided by a party pursuant to this Section 11.11. A notice will be deemed to have been made on the date (i) of delivery with respect to (a), (ii) of delivery or the date on which delivery was refused as indicated on the delivery service's record of delivery with respect to (b), and (iii) indicated in the confirmation of transmission or receipt if transmitted during business hours, or the next business day if transmitted after business hours, with respect to (c). Any party may, at any time by giving prior written notice to the other parties, designate any other address in substitution of the foregoing address to which such notice will be given.

11.12 Entire Agreement. This Agreement embodies the entire understanding and agreement among the parties concerning the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes any and all prior negotiations, understandings or agreements in regard thereto. No representation, statement, condition or warranty not contained in this Agreement or the Articles will be binding on the Members or have any force or effect whatsoever. To the extent that any provision of the Articles conflicts with any provision of this Agreement, the Articles shall control.

11.13 Headings. All headings herein are inserted only for convenience and ease of reference and are not to be considered in the construction or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement.

11.14 Additional Documents and Acts. Each Member agrees to execute and deliver such additional documents and instruments and to perform such additional acts as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, carry out, and perform all of the terms, provisions, and conditions of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

11.15 No Interest in the Company Property; Waiver of Action for Partition. No Member or Economic Interest Owner has any interest in specific property of the Company. Without limiting the foregoing, each Member and Economic Interest Owner irrevocably waives during the term of the Company any right that he or she may have to maintain any action for partition with respect to the property of the Company.

11.16 Attorneys' Fees. In the event that any dispute between the parties to this Agreement should result in litigation or arbitration, the prevailing party in such dispute shall be entitled to recover from the other party all reasonable fees, costs, and expenses of enforcing any right of the prevailing party, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, all of which shall be deemed to have accrued upon the commencement of such action and shall be paid whether or not such action is prosecuted to judgment. Any judgment or order entered in such action shall contain a specific provision providing for the recovery of attorneys' fees and costs incurred in enforcing such judgment and an award of prejudgment interest from the date of the breach at the maximum rate of interest allowed by law. For the purposes of this Section 11.16, (i) attorneys' fees shall include, without limitation, fees incurred in post-judgment motions, contempt proceedings, garnishment, levy, and debtor and third-party examinations, discovery, and bankruptcy litigation and (ii) prevailing party shall mean the party who is determined in the proceeding to have prevailed or who prevails by dismissal, default, or otherwise.

11.17 Time is of the Essence. All dates and times in this Agreement are of the essence.

11.18 Specific Performance; Remedies Cumulative. The Members agree that (i) irreparable damage will result if this Agreement is not performed in accordance with its terms and (ii) any damages available at law for a breach of this Agreement would not be an adequate remedy. Therefore, the provisions hereof and the obligations of the Members hereunder shall be enforceable in a court of equity, or other tribunal with jurisdiction, by a decree of specific performance, and appropriate injunctive relief may be applied for and granted in connection therewith. Such remedies and all other remedies provided for in this Agreement shall, however, be cumulative and not exclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedies that a Member may have under this Agreement in law or in equity.

11.19 Parties in Interest. Except as expressly provided in the Act, nothing in this Agreement shall confer any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement on any Persons other than the Members and the Economic Interest Owners and their respective successors and assigns, nor shall anything in this Agreement relieve or discharge the obligation or liability of any third Person to any party to this Agreement, nor shall any provision give any third Person any right of subrogation or action over or against any party to this Agreement.

11.20 Spousal Consent. Each spouse of a Member or other signatory hereto hereby acknowledges, by executing a copy of a Consent of Member's Spouse substantially in the form of Exhibit C attached hereto, that he or she has read and understands the contents of this Agreement and agrees that the ownership and transfer of any Membership Interest subject to this Agreement, including any community property interest he or she may have in such Membership Interest, shall be governed by this Agreement. In the event that a Member marries subsequently to the execution of this Agreement, the Member agrees, warrants, and covenants that (i) any interest in the Membership Interest that the subsequent spouse shall obtain by virtue of marriage, shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement and (ii) the subsequent spouse shall either (x) execute a copy of a Consent of Member's Spouse substantially in the form of Exhibit C attached hereto as soon as practical following the marriage or (y) have executed a separate binding agreement prior to the marriage of such spouse-to-be's understanding and agreement that the Member's Membership Interest shall be and remain such Member's sole and separate property following the marriage of the parties and subject to the provisions of this Agreement as such.

11.21 Multiple Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement may be executed and delivered by PDF and/or facsimile signatures.

11.22 Special Power of Attorney.

(a) Attorney-in-Fact. Each Member grants to the Managers a special power of attorney irrevocably making, constituting, and appointing each Manager as the Member's attorney-in-fact, with all power and authority to act in the Member's name and on the Member's behalf to execute, acknowledge, and deliver and swear to in the execution, acknowledgement, delivery, and filing of the following documents: (i) Assignments of Membership Interests or other documents of transfer to be delivered pursuant to Article VII and (ii) any other instrument or document that may be reasonably required by the Managers.

(b) Irrevocable Power. The special power granted in Section 11.22(a) is irrevocable, is coupled with an interest, and shall survive a Member's death, incapacity, or dissolution.

CLASS B UNITS PURCHASE AGREEMENT

This Class B Units Purchase Agreement (this “Agreement”) is made as of this _____ day of _____, 2025 by and among NeuroGym LLC, a California limited liability company (the “Company”), and NeuroGym CF Investors SPV, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the “SPV” or “Purchaser,” and together with the Company, the “Parties”). The Parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Purchase and Sale of Class B Units.

1.1 Sale and Issuance of Class B Units. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Purchaser agrees to purchase at the Closing and the Company agrees to sell and issue to the Purchaser at the Closing up to _____ shares of Class B Units (the “Shares”) at a purchase price of $5.00 per Share (the “Price”).

1.2 Closing. The purchase and sale of the Shares shall take place remotely via the exchange of documents and signatures on the date of this Agreement or at such other time and place as the Company and the Purchaser mutually agree upon, orally or in writing (which time and place are designated as the “Closing”). The Company and the Purchaser will execute counterpart signature pages to this Agreement and any other documents required by the Company (the “Transaction Documents”).

2. Representations and Warranties of the Company. The Company hereby represents and warrants to the Purchaser that the following representations are true and complete as of the date of the Closing, except as otherwise indicated:

2.1 Organization, Good Standing, Corporate Power and Qualification. The Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has all power and authority required to (a) carry on its business as presently conducted and as presently proposed to be conducted, and (b) execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

2.2 Valid Issuance of the Shares. The Shares, when issued, sold, and delivered in accordance with the terms and for the consideration set forth in this Agreement, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of restrictions on transfer other than restrictions on transfer under the Transaction Documents, applicable state and federal securities laws, and liens or encumbrances by or imposed by the Purchaser.

2.3 Compliance with Other Instruments. To the Company’s knowledge, the sale of the Shares will not place the Company in violation or default (a) of any provisions of the Company’s Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, (b) of any judgment, order, writ or decree of any court or governmental authority, (c) under any agreement, instrument, contract, lease, note, indenture, mortgage or purchase order, or (d) of any provision of federal or state statute, rule or regulation materially applicable to the Company. The execution, delivery and performance of the Transaction Documents and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents will not result in any such violation or default, or constitute, with or without the passage of time and giving of notice, either (i) a default under any such judgment, order, writ, decree, agreement, instrument, contract, lease, note, indenture, mortgage or purchase order or (ii) an event which results in the creation of any lien, charge or encumbrance upon any assets of the Company or the suspension, revocation, forfeiture, or nonrenewal of any material permit or license applicable to the Company.

3. Representations and Warranties of the Purchaser. The Purchaser hereby represents and warrants to the Company as follows:

3.1 Purchase for Own Account. The Purchaser is acquiring and will hold the Shares for investment for its account only and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any “distribution” thereof within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”).

3.2 Access to Information. The Purchaser has been furnished with, and has had access to, all information that he/she/it considers necessary or appropriate for deciding whether to invest in the Shares, including the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation, and the Purchaser has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the issuance of the Shares.

3.3 Speculative Investment. The Purchaser is aware that his/her/its investment in the Company is a speculative investment that has limited liquidity and is subject to the risk of complete loss. The Purchaser is able, without impairing his/her/its financial condition, to hold the Shares for an indefinite period and to suffer a complete loss of his investment in the Shares.

3.4 Authorization. The Purchaser has full power and authority to enter into the Transaction Documents. The Transaction Documents to which such Purchaser is a party, when executed and delivered by the Purchaser, will constitute valid and legally binding obligations of the Purchaser, enforceable in accordance with their terms, except (a) as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance, and any other laws of general application relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors’ rights generally, or (b) the effect of rules of law governing the availability of equitable remedies.

3.5 No Public Market. The Purchaser understands that no public market now exists for the Shares, and that the Company has made no assurances that a public market will ever exist for the Shares.

3.6 Exculpation Among Purchasers. The purchaser acknowledges that it is not relying upon any person, other than the Company and its officers and directors, in making its investment or decision to invest in the Company. The Purchaser agrees that neither any Purchaser nor the respective controlling persons, officers, directors, partners, agents, or employees of any Purchaser shall be liable to any other Purchaser for any action heretofore taken or omitted to be taken by any of them in connection with the purchase of the Shares.

3.7 Residence. If the Purchaser is an individual, then the Purchaser resides in the state identified in the address of the Purchaser set forth on Exhibit A; if the Purchaser is a partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other entity, then the office or offices of the Purchaser in which its principal place of business is identified in the address or addresses of the Purchaser set forth on Exhibit A.

3.8 Bad Actor. None of the Purchaser, its principals or its affiliates (each a “Purchaser Party”) meet any of the disqualifying criteria described in Rule 506(d)(1)(i) through (viii) promulgated under the Securities Act (each a “Rule 506 Disqualification”).

4. General Provisions.

4.1 Company Covenants. Within one (1) year of the date first set forth herein, the Company shall amend and modify its books and records to reflect the purchase of the Shares outlined herein.

4.2 Successors and Assigns. The terms and conditions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the respective successors and assigns of the parties. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party other than the parties hereto or their respective successors and assigns any rights, remedies, obligations, or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement, except as expressly provided in this Agreement.

4.3 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflicts of law.

4.4 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. Counterparts may be delivered by any electronic signature complying with the U.S. federal ESIGN Act of 2000, and any counterpart so delivered shall be deemed to have been duly and validly delivered and be valid and effective for all purposes.

4.5 Titles and Subtitles. The titles and subtitles used in this Agreement are used for convenience only and are not to be considered in construing or interpreting this Agreement.

4.6 Notices. All notices and communications given or made pursuant hereto shall be in writing and shall be deemed effectively given upon the earlier of actual receipt or: (a) personal delivery to the party to be notified, (b) when sent, if sent by facsimile during normal business hours of the recipient, and if not sent during normal business hours, then on the recipient's next business day, (c) five (5) days after having been sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or (d) one (1) business day after deposit with a nationally recognized overnight courier, freight prepaid, specifying next business day delivery, with written verification of receipt. All communications shall be sent to the respective Parties at their address as set forth on the signature page or Exhibit A, or to such address or facsimile number as subsequently modified by written notice given in accordance with this Section.

4.7 Attorneys' Fees. If any action (including arbitration) is necessary to enforce or interpret the terms of any of the Transaction Documents, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and necessary disbursements in addition to any other relief to which such party may be entitled. Each party shall pay all costs and expenses that it incurs with respect to the negotiation, execution, delivery, and performance of the Agreement.

4.8 Amendments and Waivers. Except as specified in this Agreement, any term of this Agreement may be amended, terminated, or waived only with the written consent of the Company. Any amendment or waiver effected in accordance with this Section shall be binding upon the Purchaser and each transferee of the Shares, and each future holder of all such securities, and the Company.

4.9 Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision hereof shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision.

4.10 Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power, or remedy accruing to any party hereunder, upon any breach or default of any other party under this Agreement, shall impair any such right, power, or remedy of such non-breaching or non-defaulting party nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or an acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring; nor shall any waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval on the part of any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, or any waiver on the part of any party of any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, must be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing. All remedies, either under this Agreement or by law or otherwise afforded to any party, shall be cumulative and not alternative.

4.11 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the Exhibits hereto), the Articles of Incorporation and the other Transaction Documents constitute the full and entire understanding and agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and any other written or oral agreement relating to the subject matter hereof existing between the parties are expressly canceled.

4.12 Securities Law Restrictions. Regardless of whether the offering and sale of Shares under this Agreement have been registered under the Securities Act or have been registered or qualified under the securities laws of any state, the Company may, at its discretion, impose restrictions upon the sale, pledge, or other transfer of the Shares if, in the judgment of the Company, such restrictions are necessary or desirable in order to achieve compliance with the Securities Act, the securities laws of any state, or any other law.

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of NeuroGym LLC (the "Company"), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2025, and 2024, the related statements of operations, changes in members' deficit, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2025, and 2024 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 11, certain conditions indicate that the Company may not be able to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events considered in the aggregate that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of twelve months from the date of issuance of these financial statements.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of these financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The summary of significant accounting policies is presented to assist in understanding the Company’s financial statements. The accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP” and “US GAAP”).

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with US GAAP and the Company has adopted the calendar year as its basis for reporting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash

Cash includes cash held in bank deposit accounts and amounts held with third-party payment processors, including PayPal and Stripe, that are available for current operations. The Company maintains cash balances with financial institutions and payment processors that management believes are creditworthy. At times during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, cash balances may have exceeded federally insured limits. NEUROGYM LLC

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AS OF AND FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025 AND DECEMBER 31, 2024

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are stated net of an allowance for expected credit losses. The Company evaluates the collectability of accounts receivable based on historical experience, current economic conditions, aging of receivables, and specific customer collection issues identified by management.

The Company recognized provision for expected credit losses of approximately $199,345 and $281,341 during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company is subject to concentrations of credit risk primarily related to cash and accounts receivable.

The Company maintains cash balances with financial institutions and third-party payment processors. Cash balances held with payment processors are not covered by FDIC insurance. Management monitors its exposure related to such balances and believes the related credit risk is not significant.

The Company's accounts receivable are primarily derived from customer program and application-related receivables. The Company generally does not require collateral and performs ongoing evaluations of customer creditworthiness and collectability.

Management believes the allowance for expected credit losses adequately reflects the credit risk associated with outstanding receivables as of December 31, 2025 and 2024. Management believes no other significant concentrations of credit risk existed as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Intangible Assets and Impairment

The Company's intangible assets consist primarily of capitalized internal-use software development costs and capitalized content creation costs related to the Company's digital platform and mobile application. Capitalized costs include direct costs incurred during the application development stage, including payments to third-party developers, contractors, and technology-related platform and hosting costs. These assets are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful life of three years.

The Company evaluates long-lived assets for impairment in accordance with ASC 360, Property, Plant, and Equipment, whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset group may not be recoverable. Indicators considered by management include recurring operating losses, negative cash flows, declines in revenue trends, technological obsolescence, changes in business strategy, or other adverse changes in business conditions. Recoverability is assessed by comparing the carrying amount of the asset group to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to result from the use and eventual disposition of the assets. If the carrying amount exceeds the estimated undiscounted future cash flows, an impairment loss is recognized for the amount by which the carrying value exceeds fair value.

Convertible Notes

The Company accounts for convertible notes in accordance with ASC 470 – Debt, and evaluates embedded features in accordance with ASC 815 – Derivatives and Hedging.

Convertible notes are initially recorded as liabilities at the proceeds received, net of any issuance costs. Interest is recognized in accordance with the contractual terms of the instruments and recorded as interest expense.

NEUROGYM LLC

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AS OF AND FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025 AND DECEMBER 31, 2024

The Company evaluates the terms of its convertible instruments to determine whether any embedded features require separate accounting as derivatives under ASC 815. If no such features require separate accounting, the convertible notes are accounted for as a single liability.

Upon conversion, the carrying amount of the convertible notes, including any accrued and unpaid interest, is reclassified to equity, and no gain or loss is recognized.

Notes and Loans Payable

Notes and loans payable are initially recognized at the principal amount received, net of any debt issuance costs. Interest expense is recognized using the effective interest method. The Company evaluates debt for modifications or extinguishments and derecognizes the liability when legally released from the obligation.

Related Party Transactions

The Company identifies and discloses related party transactions in accordance with ASC 850 – Related Party Disclosures. Related parties generally include key management personnel, significant shareholders, board members, and entities under common control.

Transactions with related parties are conducted in the normal course of business and are recorded at the exchange amount established and agreed to by the parties. These may include loans, advances, or other funding arrangements.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Revenue is recognized when control of the promised goods or services is transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services.

The Company applies the following five-step model in determining revenue recognition:

1. Identify the contract with a customer;
2. Identify the performance obligations in the contract;
3. Determine the transaction price;
4. Allocate the transaction price to performance obligations in the contract; and
5. Recognize revenue when (or as) the performance obligation is satisfied.

The Company generates revenue from subscription-based access to its digital platform, online courses, coaching and consulting services, live events, and affiliate and sponsorship arrangements.

The Company's revenues are derived from both point-in-time and over-time performance obligations. Subscription-based services are generally recognized over time throughout the subscription period, while online courses, digital content, and certain event-related revenues are generally recognized at a point in time when access to the content or services is provided to the customer. Coaching, consulting, and certain live event revenues are recognized over the period services are performed.

Amounts received in advance of providing services are recorded as deferred revenue and recognized as revenue when the related performance obligations are satisfied.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AS OF AND FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025 AND DECEMBER 31, 2024

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company that has elected to be taxed as an S corporation for federal and applicable state income tax purposes. Accordingly, taxable income or loss is generally passed through to the members and reported on their individual tax returns. As a result, the Company is generally not subject to federal income taxes at the entity level, although it may be subject to certain state income taxes, franchise taxes, and other minimum taxes.

Accordingly, no provision for federal income taxes has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements. The Company accounts for uncertainty in income taxes in accordance with ASC 740, Income Taxes. Management evaluated the Company's tax positions and determined that no uncertain tax positions requiring recognition or disclosure existed as of December 31, 2025 and 2024. The Company recognizes interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions, if any, as a component of income tax expense.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying value of the Company's financial instruments included in current assets and current liabilities (such as cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses) approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of such instruments.

The inputs used to measure fair value are based on a hierarchy that prioritizes observable and unobservable inputs used in valuation techniques. These levels, in order of highest to lowest priority, are described below:

Level 1 — Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 — Observable prices that are based on inputs not quoted on active markets but corroborated by market data.

Level 3 — Unobservable inputs reflecting the Company's assumptions, consistent with reasonably available assumptions made by other market participants. These valuations require significant judgment.

Share-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for share-based compensation to both employees and non-employees in accordance with ASC 718, Compensation - Stock Compensation. Under the fair value recognition provisions of ASC 718, share-based compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the fair value of the award and is recognized as expense ratably over the requisite service period, which is generally the option vesting period. The Company uses the Black-Scholes option pricing model to determine the fair value of stock options.

Advertising and Promotion

Advertising and promotional costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising and promotional expenses for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, amounted to $138,552 and $2,492,928, respectively, which is included in sales and marketing expenses.

Subsequent Events

The Company considers events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date, but prior to the issuance of the financial statements to provide additional evidence relative to certain estimates or to identify matters that require additional disclosure. Subsequent events have been evaluated through the date the financial statements were issued.

Management evaluated recoverability by comparing the carrying amount of the asset group to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to result from the continued use and eventual disposition of the assets. In performing this assessment, management considered historical operating results, ongoing use of the software and content, remaining amortization periods, expected future platform usage, and anticipated future revenues. NEUROGYM LLC

AS OF AND FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025 AND DECEMBER 31, 2024

During 2023, the Company issued unsecured convertible promissory notes to various investors pursuant to note purchase agreements. The notes generally bear interest at 8% per annum and originally matured between March 2025 and June 2025. During 2025, certain notes were extended through dates ranging from February 2026 through July 2026.

The convertible promissory notes provide the holders with the option, upon the occurrence of a qualified equity financing, to either convert the outstanding principal and accrued interest into preferred membership interests or receive repayment of the outstanding balances. The conversion price is generally based on the lower of (i) a price derived from a $25,000,000 valuation cap or (ii) a 20% discount to the price offered to investors in the qualified equity financing.

The agreements contain customary events of default, including nonpayment, covenant breaches, insolvency events, and bankruptcy-related matters.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, outstanding convertible promissory notes had aggregate original principal balances of approximately $1,200,000 and $1,200,000, respectively. Certain note holders elected to reinvest accrued interest into the outstanding note balances in accordance with the terms of the agreements. As a result, total indebtedness, including capitalized and accrued interest, totaled approximately $1,322,000 and $1,250,000 as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Interest expense during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 amounted to $103,743 and $98,580, respectively.

The Company accounts for its convertible instruments as liabilities in accordance with ASC 470. The Company evaluated the terms of these instruments and determined that no features require separate accounting as derivatives under ASC 815.

Loans Payable

In May 2024, the Company entered into a business loan agreement through the Stripe Capital Program with Celtic Bank. The agreement provided for a loan amount of $250,000 with a fixed fee of $35,250, resulting in a total repayment obligation of $285,250. The loan bears an effective fixed financing cost and repayments are made through automatic withholding of a percentage of the Company's daily merchant receivables processed through Stripe.

The agreement required minimum periodic repayments and was secured by substantially all business assets of the Company, including merchant receivables and funds held in the Company's Stripe account.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the outstanding balance related to the loan payable was approximately $0 and $123,195, respectively.

Line of Credit

During 2023, the Company entered into a revolving line of credit arrangement with Bank of America. The arrangement bears variable interest rates ranging from approximately 9% to 10% during the periods presented and matures annually unless renewed by the lender. Borrowings under the arrangement are repayable on demand and are subject to monthly minimum payment requirements.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AS OF AND FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025 AND DECEMBER 31, 2024

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, outstanding borrowings under the line of credit totaled approximately $92,855 and $94,396, respectively.

7. STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

During 2016, the Company adopted the NeuroGym LLC Equity Incentive Plan (the “Plan”), which was amended and restated effective October 4, 2025. Under the Plan, the Company may grant options and other equity awards to employees, consultants, advisors, and service providers. The Company reserved up to 2,000,000 Class B Units for issuance under the Plan.

The exercise price of each option is determined by management and approved in accordance with the Company’s Operating Agreement and Equity Incentive Plan.

The Company accounts for share-based compensation in accordance with ASC 718, Compensation—Stock Compensation, and recognizes compensation expense over the applicable vesting period based on the estimated grant-date fair value of the awards granted.

Stock Options

The Company granted stock options to employees, executives, consultants, and advisors at various times. The stock options were valued using the Black-Scholes option pricing model using the assumptions discussed below.

As of Year Ended December 31,	2025	2024
Expected life (years)	7 years	7 years
Risk-free interest rate	3.95% - 4.05%	4.05% - 4.15%
Expected volatility	75%	75%
Annual dividend yield	0%	0%

The risk-free interest rate assumption for options granted is based upon observed interest rates on the United States government securities appropriate for the expected term of the Company’s employee stock options.

The expected term of employee stock options is calculated using the simplified method, which takes into consideration the contractual life and vesting terms of the options.

The Company determined the expected volatility assumption for options granted using the historical volatility of a comparable public company’s Common Stock. The Company will continue to monitor peer companies and other relevant factors used to measure expected volatility for future stock option grants until such time that the Company’s Common Stock has enough market history to use historical volatility.

The dividend yield assumption for options granted is based on the Company’s history and expectation of dividend payouts. The Company has never declared or paid any cash dividends on its Common Stock, and the Company does not anticipate paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

The estimated fair value of the underlying Class B Units was determined by management based on available valuation information, including historical financing transactions and other relevant factors considered appropriate under the circumstances. Forfeitures are recognized as incurred.

8. RELATED PARTY

The Company enters into transactions with related parties in the normal course of business. Related parties include entities under common control and the Company's Chief Executive Officer.

During the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company incurred rent expense to John Assaraf, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, of approximately $35,125 and $32,438, respectively. In addition, the Company incurred consulting fee expense to John Assaraf of approximately $0 and $168,106 during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Details of the related party promissory notes, including outstanding principal balances, accrued interest, interest rates, and maturity dates, are disclosed in Note 6.

In addition, the Company had notes receivable from John Assaraf totaling approximately $260,454 and $295,579 as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. The notes bear interest at rates ranging from 2.89% to 3.15% and mature through March 2029 and December 2028.

9. INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed as an S corporation for federal and applicable state income tax purposes. Accordingly, taxable income or loss is generally passed through to the members and reported on their individual income tax returns.

Because the Company is treated as a pass-through entity for income tax purposes, deferred tax assets and liabilities related to temporary differences and net operating loss carryforwards are generally attributable to the members rather than the Company and, accordingly, are not reflected in the accompanying financial statements.

The Company may be subject to certain state income taxes, franchise taxes, and minimum taxes in various jurisdictions.

10. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Contingencies

The Company's operations are subject to a variety of local, state, and federal regulations. Failure to comply with these requirements may result in fines, penalties, restrictions on operations, or losses of permits, which will have an adverse impact on the Company's operations and might result in an outflow of economic resources.

Litigation and Claims

From time to time, the Company may be involved in litigation relating to claims arising out of operations in the normal course of business. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, there were no pending or threatened lawsuits that could reasonably be expected to have a material effect on the results of the Company's operations.

11. GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As of December 31, 2025, the Company had an accumulated deficit and incurred a net loss of $86,837 for the year then ended. In addition, the Company continues to rely on debt financing and related party support to fund operations. These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date these financial statements are issued.

Management's plans to address these conditions include implementing cost containment measures, increasing revenues through continued growth in operations, and pursuing additional financing arrangements. However, management's plans are dependent on future events that are outside the Company's control, including the Company's ability to successfully improve operating performance and obtain additional financing.

As of the date these financial statements were issued, management has not secured sufficient financing or obtained binding commitments that alleviate the substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Accordingly, substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern has not been alleviated. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

12. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company evaluated subsequent events from the balance sheet date through the date these financial statements were issued.

There have been no events or transactions during this period that would have a material effect on these financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Members of
NeuroGym CF Investors SPV, LLC
Solana Beach, CA

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of NeuroGym CF Investors SPV, LLC (hereinafter referred to as "the Company"), which comprises the balance sheet as of December 31, 2025, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity/(deficit), and cash flows for the period from inception date (September 16, 2025) through December 31, 2025, and the related notes to the financial statements. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2025, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period from inception date (September 16, 2025) through December 31, 2025, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Going Concern

As discussed in Note 7, certain conditions indicate that the Company may be unable to continue as a going concern. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of twelve months from the date of issuance of these financial statements.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of these financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Related Parties

The Company discloses transactions with related parties in accordance with ASC 850, Related Party Disclosures. Related parties include directors, officers, principal owners, their immediate family members, and entities under common ownership or control. Transactions with related parties are recorded at amounts agreed upon between the parties, which may not necessarily be equivalent to amounts that would have been incurred in an arm's-length transaction. The Company evaluates related party arrangements on a periodic basis to determine the appropriate recognition, measurement, and disclosure in the financial statements.

Contingencies and Commitments

The Company accounts for commitments and contingencies in accordance with ASC 450, Contingencies. A liability for a loss contingency is recognized when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. 7. GOING CONCERN

The Company lacks significant working capital and has only recently commenced operations. We will incur significant additional costs before significant revenue is achieved. These matters raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. During the next 12 months, the Company intends to fund its operations with funding from our proposed Regulation Crowdfunding campaign, and additional debt and/or equity financing as determined to be necessary. There are no assurances that management will be able to raise capital on terms acceptable to the Company. If we are unable to obtain sufficient amounts of additional capital, we may be required to reduce the scope of our planned development, which could harm our business, financial condition and operating results. The balance sheet and related financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from these uncertainties.
