Re - Questions

Summary

Sithuthi,

The following questions were received from [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Please get back to him when you can.
Much appreciated.

[REDACTED]'s message:
"I have many questions..."

What's the differentiator with your product? Is there any intellectual property that is defensible or would require a licensing agreement for others to use?
Wise, Zelle, and others seem to offer similar services. Why would the cost be so low for such a high-margin service today, like Amex or Visa? Is the goal to be acquired, or do you plan to pursue an IPO and go public?"
