Summary

With over a decade of leadership at MAF Hospitality Holdings, I have focused on fostering business growth, team leadership, and organizational expansion, all rooted in a passion for Italian heritage and authentic experiences. Our portfolio encompasses wineries, restaurants, boutique retail, and lodging, each designed to cultivate community and create lasting memories.

At MAF Hospitality, we are committed to redefining hospitality by blending tradition and innovation while creating a culture of empowerment and connection. My goal is to continue expanding our footprint with new locations and concepts, building a legacy that enriches both our team and the communities we serve.
