The Intermediary has the ability to reject any investment commitment and may cancel or rescind the Company’s offer to sell the Securities at any time for any reason.

Platform Compensation

As compensation for the services provided by DealMaker Securities LLC, the Company is required to pay to DealMaker Securities LLC a fee consisting of an eight and one-half percent (8.50%) cash commission based on the dollar amount of the Securities sold in the Offering and paid upon disbursement of funds from escrow at the time of a closing. There is also a $5,000 advance setup fee and a $2,000 monthly fee for the use of the platform. Additionally, the Company must reimburse certain expenses related to the Offering.

To help offset the platform fees indicated above, the Company will charge an 8.50% fee to investors who invest via this Regulation CF offering.

Investor Limitations

Investors are limited in how much they can invest on all crowdfunding offerings during any 12-month period. The limitation on how much they can invest depends on their net worth (excluding the value of their primary residence) and annual income. If either their annual income or net worth is less than $124,000, then during any 12-month period, they can invest up to the greater of either $2,500 or 5% of the greater of their annual income or Net worth. If both their annual income and net worth are equal to or more than $124,000, then during any 12-month period, they can invest up to 10% of annual income or net worth, whichever is greater, but their investments cannot exceed $124,000. If the investor is an “accredited investor” as defined under Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act, as amended, no investment limits apply.

The Company and Its Business

Company Overview

Legion M Film Fund - 1099, LLC (the "Company") is a Delaware limited liability company formed to operate as a financing and marketing partner for film distributors and other companies involved in the release of movies and other entertainment projects. The Company will directly participate in the business of financing and marketing entertainment projects released by Legion M and Legion M's third-party partners. The Company is an operating company and not an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act. The Company's primary business is the active financing and operation of entertainment projects, not the passive investment in securities. The Company's objective is to deliver consistent, risk-managed returns by participating in such projects.

Members' capital will be used by the Company to finance film and entertainment projects through contractual arrangements that may include revenue share agreements, P&A commitments, minimum guarantee advances, and similar operating arrangements. The Manager will utilize Legion M's platform and relationships to source and administer these opportunities on behalf of the Company.

In addition to providing capital, the Company will play an active role in the release of each project by providing meaningful consultation on marketing plans, strategies and budgets; providing approval over use of funds supplied by the Company; marketing the project's release to members of the fund; and providing members with marketing materials that enable them to share the project within their respective networks and communities.

The Company is managed by Legion M Entertainment, Inc. (the "Manager" or "Legion M"). Jeff Annison is the Co-Founder and President of Legion M and Paul Scanlan is the Co-Founder and CEO of Legion M.

The Company does not have any officers or directors. The Company's operations are actively managed by the Manager, which is responsible for sourcing opportunities, negotiating contracts, marketing the Company's projects, communicating with investors, and overseeing day-to-day operations.

Jeff Annison is Legion M's Co-Founder and has been the President of Legion M since its inception in March 2016. He has served as Producer or Executive Producer on several films, including William Shatner: You can Call Me Bill, My Dead Friend Zoe, Archenemy, Man in the White Van, and Nandor Fodor and the Talking Mongoose. Prior to Legion M, from 2009 to 2016, Mr. Annison served as co-founder and Chief Executive Officer of Underground Labs, Inc. From 1999 to 2009, Mr. Annison led MobiTV's engineering and product development teams as the company scaled operations from 3 to 300 employees and won an Emmy Award for Technical Achievement in Advancing Television. Mr. Annison earned his Bachelor degree of Science in Mechanical Engineering from University of California, Los Angeles.

Paul Scanlan is Legion M's Co-Founder and has been the Chief Executive Officer of Legion M since its inception in March 2016. He has served as Producer or Executive Producer on several films, including William Shatner: You Can Call Me Bill, My Dead Friend Zoe, The Man in the White Van, Fade to Black, Archenemy, and Nandor Fodor and the Talking Mongoose. From 2007 to 2016, Mr. Scanlan was the President of MobiTV and played a crucial role in MobiTV's success from a start-up to a market leader. In 2005, Mr. Scanlan and his MobiTV team earned an Emmy Award for Technical Achievement in Advancing Television. Mr. Scanlan earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Radio, TV & Film from the University of Wisconsin at Madison.

Strategy

The Company's strategy emphasizes automatic rollover of proceeds: as funds are recouped, capital is redeployed into subsequent projects, with a target project-level cycle of approximately 6 to 18 months from deployment to recoupment.

The Company intends to leverage Legion M's existing platform for sourcing, structuring, and administering opportunities. As a result, the Company does not expect to charge a management fee. The Company will leverage Legion M's industry platform and relationships with creators, distributors, sales agents, and financiers to identify and secure proprietary opportunities. The Company will participate in such opportunities through direct contractual arrangements (such as revenue-sharing and marketing arrangements with Legion M and other 3rd parties) rather than through the acquisition of securities issued by other entities. This operating model allows the Company to function as an active participant in film financing and distribution rather than as a passive investor.

The Company is engaged in the active business of financing and operating film projects, and its activities are more akin to those of a motion picture financing company than a passive investment vehicle. The Company's participation in projects typically involves direct contractual arrangements for marketing and revenue-sharing, rather than the purchase of securities issued by other entities.

Intellectual Property

The Company does not own any intellectual property. Legion M, the Fund's Manager, owns the trademark to the name "Legion M," as well as a trademark for "Archenemy" brand whiskey. The Company has a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use the "Legion M" name and mark in connection with the Company's operations and marketing activities. The Company's ability to use the Legion M name and brand is dependent upon Legion M's continued ownership and maintenance of such marks and the continuation of the license arrangement.

Litigation

The Company has not been involved in any litigation, and the Manager is not aware of any pending.

Employees

The Company currently has 0 employees.

Nature of Operations

The Company is engaged in the active business of financing and marketing the release of films and other entertainment projects. The Company's participation in projects typically involves contractual arrangements and revenue-sharing—rather than the purchase of securities issued by other entities. Examples of the Company's direct operating activities include:

- Distribution Financing: Committing capital related to print and advertising (P&A), minimum guarantees (MGs), secured advances and other distribution related activities.
- Distribution Consultation: Providing meaningful consultation on plans, strategies, and budgets, for marketing, distribution, and release activities — including providing approval on the use of funds supplied by the Company.
- Release Marketing: Supplementing the marketing of each release by actively marketing to the members of the Company and providing members with tools and materials to share the project within their own respective networks and communities.

In exchange for the services provided above, the Company receives a share of revenue generated by the exploitation of the project

The Company's use of Legion M's platform for sourcing and administering opportunities does not change the nature of the Company's direct participation in these operating activities. Legion M serves as a service provider and deal-sourcing platform for the Company, but the Company enters into its own contractual arrangements for each project.

Since its formation, the Company has not entered into any transaction, nor is it currently proposing any transaction, in which any director, officer, or other covered person has or will have a direct or indirect material interest.

As of the date of this Form C, the Company does not have any outstanding debt.

Strategy and Use of Proceeds

Strategy

The Company will engage directly in project financing and distribution activities. The Company may (i) enter into inter-company arrangements with Legion M for participation in Legion M-led projects, and/or (ii) contract directly with third-party distributors, production companies, and other counterparties for participation in projects sourced through Legion M's platform. Legion M may, from time to time, participate alongside the Company in the same projects.

Use of Proceeds

If we raise the Target Offering Amount of $108,500, we plan to use these proceeds as follows:

Use of Funds	Percentage of Funds Raised
3 rd Party Administration Costs/Fees*	10%
Intermediary Fee	8.5%
Participation into Projects	81.5%

*3rd Party Administrative Costs/Fees consist of fees and expenses charged to the Company by 3rd parties. They do not include any internal costs or expenses from related parties such as Legion M Entertainment, Inc. Please see "Company Expenses" section below for details.

 Paid to Dealmaker Securities LLC as compensation for services as an intermediary.

If we raise the Maximum Offering Amount of $651,000, we plan to use these proceeds as follows:

Use of Funds	Percentage of Funds Raised
3 rd Party Administration Costs/Fees	3%
Intermediary Fee	8.5%
Participation into Projects	88.5%

*3rd Party Administrative Costs/Fees consist of fees and expenses charged to the Company by 3rd parties. They do not include any internal costs or expenses from related parties such as Legion M Entertainment, Inc. Please see "Company Expenses" section below for details. "

 Paid to Dealmaker Securities LLC as compensation for services as an intermediary.

The Company may change the intended use of proceeds if the Manager believes it is in the best interests of the Company.

Competitor and Industry Overview

Film, television, and digital entertainment is a global industry that generates over $360 billion in revenue each year [Source: The Business Research Company (2026)]. Home to some of the largest and best-known corporations in the world (Disney, Sony, Netflix, Amazon, Apple, etc.), it is an extremely complex and competitive industry with stakeholders ranging from content creators and studios to networks, technology and distribution companies.

In recent years, changes in technology and consumer habits have ushered dramatic shifts in the industry. The COVID pandemic, the "streaming wars," the WGA/SAG strikes, and rapidly changing business landscape/consumer habits have led to significant fluctuations in demand for film and TV production. Throughout all this change, the one thing that remains constant is the importance of the audience.

Risk Factors

The SEC requires the Company to identify risks that are specific to its business and financial condition. The Company is subject to all the same risks that all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy, are exposed to. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events and technological developments. Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently more risky than more developed companies. You should consider general risks as well as specific risks when deciding whether to invest.

Speculative Investment. The Interests are speculative and illiquid securities involving substantial risk of loss and are suitable for investment only by persons who fully understand and are capable of assuming the risks of an investment in the Company. There can be no assurance that the Company will meet its investment objective or otherwise be able to successfully carry out its investment program. An investor should only invest in the Company as part of an overall investment strategy and only if the investor is able to withstand a total loss of its investment.

Risks of Film Investment. Investments in movies are speculative and involve a high degree of risk. While this Company intends to focus on distribution-oriented transactions, such as P&A investments, MG financing, etc. that are typically lower risk than other movie investments (e.g., equity financing or development), there is still a substantial amount of risk related to the release of motion pictures. Performance of movie releases are dependent upon many factors that are difficult or impossible to predict, including (but not limited to) competition, cultural events, strikes, economic conditions, bankruptcy or difficulty collecting funds from partners, scandals, politics, news/world events, storms, outages, natural disasters, tariffs, weather, and more.

Changes to the Entertainment Industry. The film and television industry is undergoing rapid transformation. Viewing habits are changing and competition for people's attention is increasing as people stream more, go to the theater less, and spend more time on alternative entertainment such as gaming, TikTok, and short-form content. AI is threatening to reshape how content is produced and potentially introduce entirely new products and mediums which have never existed before.

No Assurance on Investment. An investment in Interests is speculative and there is no assurance that investors will obtain any return on their investment. Investors will be subject to substantial risks involved in an investment in the Company, including the risk of losing their entire investment.

Lack of Operating History. The Company is a newly formed entity and has limited operating history.

Reliance on the Manager. The Company will be relying extensively on the experience, relationships and expertise of the Manager. There can be no assurance that these individuals will continue to be able to carry on their current duties or provide services to the Company throughout the term of the Company.

Reliance on Legion M. The Company's operations and investment activities are substantially dependent upon the ongoing support and resources of Legion M Entertainment, Inc. ("Legion M"). If Legion M were to experience financial distress, cease operations, or otherwise become unable or unwilling to provide such support, the Company's ability to identify, evaluate, and consummate transactions could be materially affected, and the Manager's operations could be disrupted.

Absence of Regulatory Oversight; Not an Investment Company. The Company is not a registered investment company under the Investment Company Act, and the Manager is not registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the "Advisers Act"). The Company believes it is an operating company because it is primarily engaged in the business of financing and operating film and entertainment projects rather than investing in securities. If the SEC or a court were to find that the Company does not qualify for an exclusion from the Investment Company Act, the Company could be required to register as an investment company, which would subject it to significant limitations on its operations, including restrictions on leverage, affiliate transactions, and the composition of its board of managers. Compliance with such requirements could materially and adversely affect the Company's ability to achieve its investment objective. As a result of the Company's non-registered status, investors in the Company will not be afforded the protections and benefits they would have been afforded had the Company been a registered investment company, including, without limitation, the custody, disclosure, reporting, and fiduciary requirements of the Investment Company Act.

Compliance with Investment Company Act. The Company intends to operate as an operating company and in a manner that will not subject it to registration under the Investment Company Act. However, no assurance can be given that the SEC or a court would concur with the Company's determination that it is not required to register as an investment company. The determination of whether an entity is an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act depends on the facts and circumstances of a given entity's activities, which may change over time. If the Company were deemed to be an investment company, it would be subject to substantial regulation under the Investment Company Act that would materially change the manner in which it conducts its operations. Such registration or the consequences of failing to properly register could have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Members.

No Current Market for Interests. There is no formal marketplace for the resale of these securities. Investors should assume that they may not be able to liquidate their investment or pledge their interests as collateral for some time (if ever).

Redemptions. Any rights that investors may have to request redemption or repurchase of their investment are subject to the availability of cash, working capital needs, contractual limitations, and applicable law. The Company (or any affiliated entity or vehicle) may not have sufficient liquidity to satisfy redemption requests when made, and requests may be delayed, limited, prorated, or denied. Investors should not rely on any redemption feature as a source of liquidity and should be prepared to hold their investment for an indefinite period.

Lack of Voting Rights. Investors in this Offering will not have voting rights with respect to the Company, except as expressly required under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act. All voting power is held exclusively by Legion M Entertainment, Inc., as holder of the Company's sole Voting Interest. As a result, Investors will not have the ability to influence management decisions, approve amendments to the Operating Agreement, or vote on mergers, dissolutions, or other significant Company transactions. Investors must rely entirely on the Manager to operate the Company in the best interests of the Company and its Members.

Dilution. Investors should understand the potential for dilution. The investor's stake in the Company could be diluted due to the Company issuing additional Interests. When the Company issues more Interests, the percentage of the Company that you own will go down, even though the value of the Company may go up.

Credit Card Payment Risks. Investors in this Offering have the option of paying for their investment with a credit card, which is not usual in the traditional investment markets. Transaction fees charged by your credit card company (which can reach 5% of transaction value if considered a cash advance) and interest charged on unpaid card balances add to the effective purchase price of the Interests you buy.

Concurrent Offerings. The Company is being offered concurrently with similar securities offerings conducted by Legion M and its affiliates, including a concurrent Regulation D (Rule 506(c)) offering for the same Company available only to accredited investors. The existence of multiple concurrent offerings may result in competition for capital and could affect the amount of capital raised in any single offering. Additionally, investors should be aware that different offerings may have different terms, including different minimum investment thresholds and investor eligibility requirements.

Related Entity Offerings. Legion M controls and/or manages one or more other entities with substantially similar investment objectives and strategies, including Legion M Film Fund – K1, LLC with an offering under Rule 506(c) of Regulation D, which is conducting its own securities offerings. These related entities may compete with the Company for the same investment opportunities, and the Manager will have discretion in allocating opportunities among affiliated entities. There can be no assurance that any particular investment opportunity will be allocated to this Company rather than to an affiliated entity.

Manager Conflicts of Interest. Jeff Annison and Paul Scanlan serve as officers of Legion M Entertainment, Inc., which is also the Manager of other similar entities including Legion M Film Fund – K1, LLC. This affiliation creates potential conflicts of interest among the Company, its investors, Legion M, and Legion M's shareholders, including without limitation, negotiation of terms. Although the Manager intends to address such conflicts in accordance with applicable fiduciary duties, there can be no assurance that any measures taken will be successful or that such conflicts will be resolved in favor of the Company or its investors.

Allocation of Investment Opportunities. The Manager and its affiliates may manage multiple Companies with overlapping strategies. The Manager will have discretion in allocating opportunities among the Company and other vehicles, including Legion M itself, which may invest alongside the Company. There is no assurance that investment opportunities will be allocated fairly or that the Company will have priority access to any particular opportunity.

Operational Dependence on Legion M. The Company's operations and investment activities are substantially dependent upon the ongoing support and resources of Legion M Entertainment, Inc. Legion M relies on equity crowdfunding to fund its operations and has sustained net losses of $3,549,371 and $2,813,295 in the years ended December 31, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively and the financial statements included a going concern qualification. If Legion M were to experience financial distress, cease operations, or otherwise become unable or unwilling to provide such support, the Company's ability to identify, evaluate, and consummate transactions could be materially affected, and the Manager's operations could be disrupted.

Diverse Membership. The Members are expected to include a wide range of investors with varying investment horizons, tax situations, and financial sophistication. As a result, conflicts of interest may arise in connection with decisions made by the Manager that may be more beneficial for one type of Member than for another type of Member. In selecting investments appropriate for the Company, the Manager will consider the investment objectives of the Company as a whole, not the investment objectives of any Member individually.

Side Agreements. In accordance with common industry practice, the Manager may enter into one or more "side letters" or similar agreements with certain Members (particularly in the concurrent Regulation D offering) pursuant to which the Manager grants to such Members specific rights, benefits or privileges that are not made available to Members generally. Such agreements will be disclosed only to those actual or potential Members that have separately negotiated with the Manager for the right to review such agreements.

Risks Related to the Pricing of Membership Interests.

The offering price of $10.00 per membership interest is arbitrary and not based on the Company's asset value, net worth, revenues, or other established criteria of value. As a newly formed company with limited operating history, there is no established market for the membership interests, and valuations for companies at this stage are inherently speculative.

The redemption value for membership interests (see Redemption at Option of Members) is not tied to company valuation, but instead to the amount of funds in the capital account for each individual investor. The offering price should not be considered an indication of the actual value of the membership interests.

The Company has internally determined an arbitrary offering price for membership interests rather than one based on management's assessment of the Company's business and prospects; through any independent valuation, appraisal, or third-party analysis, or through a competitive market.

Our valuation has not been validated by any independent third party and may decline significantly in the future. Investors should carefully consider whether the offering price is appropriate in light of the speculative nature of the Company's business and the risks described in this offering.

Capitalization and Ownership

The Offering

The Company is offering up to 60,000 non-voting limited liability company membership Interests (the "Interests") at a price of $10.00 per Interest.

The Company has issued a single Voting Interest, which is held exclusively by Legion M Entertainment, Inc., the Manager. The Voting Interest represents 100% of the voting power of the Company.

The Interests offered hereby represent economic rights only and do not carry voting rights, except as expressly required under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act.

Terms of the Securities

Voting and Control

The Company has issued a single voting membership interest (the "Voting Interest"), which is held exclusively by Legion M Entertainment, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Manager"). The Voting Interest represents 100% of the voting power of the Company.

The limited liability company membership Interests offered in this Offering (the "Interests") are non-voting membership Interests and represent economic rights only. Holders of Interests are entitled to receive distributions, if any, as provided in the Operating Agreement, but do not have voting rights, except to the limited extent expressly required under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act.

The Manager has exclusive authority to manage the business and affairs of the Company, including, without limitation:

- identifying and approving projects in which the Company will participate;
- entering into and negotiating contractual arrangements on behalf of the Company;
- determining the timing and amount of distributions, if any;
- issuing additional membership interests or other securities in accordance with the Operating Agreement;
- approving amendments to the Operating Agreement; and
- determining whether to merge, dissolve, reorganize, or otherwise effect a transaction involving the Company.

Investors will not have the ability to vote on Company matters, elect managers, or participate in the management of the Company. As a result, Investors must rely entirely on the Manager to operate the Company in the best interests of the Company and its Members.

What it Means to be a Minority Holder

Investors in this offering will be minority holders and will have limited control over Company decisions. The Manager manages the Company's day-to-day operations and strategic decisions in accordance with the Operating Agreement. Investors will not possess voting rights and will not participate in Company governance, except as expressly required by the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act.

Subject to the terms of the Operating Agreement and applicable law, Investors may have limited or no ability to:

- Approve or block future issuances of securities,
- Approve Company borrowings or financings,
- Approve amendments to the Operating Agreement,
- Approve related-party transactions,
- Control the timing or structure of a sale of the Company or its assets, or
- Require distributions or redemptions.

Accordingly, Investors must rely on the Manager to operate the Company in the best interests of the Company and its members.

Valuation of Membership Interests

The membership interests are being offered at a price of $10.00 per interest. This price was determined solely by the Company and the Manager and was not based on any independent valuation, appraisal, or third-party analysis. The offering price does not necessarily bear any relationship to the Company's assets, book value, historical or projected financial performance, cash flow, or any established valuation methodology.

The Company does not maintain a formal methodology for determining the fair market value of its membership interests. Under the Operating Agreement, a member's capital account reflects accounting allocations of contributions, profits, and losses, and does not necessarily represent the fair market value of such member's interest.

In connection with future redemptions, financings, restructurings, or a liquidation of the Company, the value of a membership interest may differ significantly from the price paid in this offering.

There is currently no public market for the Securities, and none is expected to develop. As a result, Investors may not be able to sell their interests and should be prepared to hold their investment for an indefinite period of time.

Ownership

The table below lists the beneficial owners of twenty percent (20%) or more of the Company's outstanding voting equity securities as of the date of this Offering Statement filing.

Name	Type of Securities Owned	Percentage
Legion M Entertainment, Inc.	Voting Interests	100%*

* The Company has issued a single Voting Interest, which is held by Legion M Entertainment, Inc. and represents 100% of the voting power of the Company. The Interests offered in this Offering are non-voting membership Interests and represent economic rights only.

Previous Offerings of Securities

As of February 23, 2026, the Company has sold approximately $213,824 of non-voting membership Interests pursuant to a concurrent offering conducted under Rule 506(c) of Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The proceeds from the concurrent offering will be used in the same manner as this Offering.

Distributions

The Managers shall determine, in their sole discretion, the amount and timing of all distributions from the Company. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, distributions to Members generally will be treated as dividends to the extent of the Company's current or accumulated earnings and profits, then as a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of a Member's tax basis in its Interests, and thereafter as capital gain. The Company expects to provide Members with appropriate information returns (e.g., Form 1099-DIV or, as applicable, Form 1099-INT) rather than Schedule K-1.

Redemption at Option of Members

Members may request redemption of all or a portion of their Interests on a quarterly basis. Subject to the limits set forth in the Operating Agreement, any portion of a Member's capital that is not then invested in a project or otherwise reserved for Company expenses, together with any proceeds received by the Company from a project in which such Member's capital was invested (collectively, the "Available Capital") will be redeemed and distributed within 30 days following receipt of a valid redemption request subject to the availability of cash. Any portion of a Member's capital that is then invested in a project will be redeemed only as and when the Company receives proceeds from such project. A redeeming Member will not participate in any returns generated by such project after the redemption date; instead, the Member will receive a return of its invested capital attributable to that project as those amounts are realized by the Company.

Redemption in the Event of Death, Disability, or Bankruptcy

In the event of the death or incapacity of a Member, a holder of its Interests may request that the Company repurchase all of the Interests held by such Member for a purchase price per Interest equal to the most recently available net asset value per unit. Upon receipt of a redemption request in the event of death, disability or bankruptcy of a Member and subject to the availability of cash, the Company will designate a date for the redemption of such Interests, which date shall not be later than 90 days after documentation establishing the right to be redeemed is received.

Transferability of Securities

For a year, the securities can only be resold: (i) In an IPO; (ii) To the Company; (iii) To an accredited investor; and (iv) To a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

Company Expenses

Organizational Expenses

The Manager will be responsible for, and will not be reimbursed for, all organizational expenses incurred by the Company, the Manager or its affiliates in connection with the organization of the Company, including legal, accounting, and third-party administrative fees required to launch the Company.

Management Fees

The Company does not expect to charge a management fee.

Other Company Expenses

The Company will bear all costs and expenses incurred in maintaining and operating the Company, including legal and accounting expenses, crowdfunding platform fees, finance charges, escrow costs, appraisal fees, transfer agent fees, the cost of preparing the Company's financial statements, tax returns, the cost of annual financial statement audits, insurance, litigation and indemnification expenses, if any, taxes and other governmental fees and charges, and expenses of any meetings of the Members. The Company will also bear all expenses associated with identifying, structuring and negotiating any potential Investments, including Investments that are not consummated by the Company, and the acquisition, holding, sale, proposed sale, other disposition or valuation of any Investment.

Tax Treatment

The Company intends to be classified and treated as an association taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and, to the extent applicable, for state and local income tax purposes), and not as a partnership. As a result, items of the Company's income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit will be taken into account at the Company level and will not be allocated or passed through to the Members for tax purposes. The Company expects to provide Members with appropriate information (e.g., Form 1099-DIV or, as applicable, Form 1099-INT) rather than Schedule K-1.

Financial Conditions

The Company was formed on December 22, 2025 and has limited operating history. As of February 20, 2026 the Company has not generated any revenue and its activities have primarily consisted of organizational activities and preparing for this offering.

As of February 20, 2026 the Company had minimal cash on hand and has funded its operations primarily through initial capital contributions and support from its manager. The Company does not currently have any lines of credit or other committed sources of financing.

The Company's liquidity is dependent on the successful completion of this offering. The proceeds from the offering are expected to be used to fund operating expenses, including administrative costs, professional fees, and other expenses necessary to maintain ongoing operations.

If the Company does not raise sufficient proceeds in this offering, it may be required to seek additional financing or delay the implementation of its business plan.

Regulatory Status and Investment Company Act

Regulatory Status and Investment Company Act

The Company will not be registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act and the Manager is not registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the "Advisers Act"). The Company is an operating company engaged in the business of financing and operating film and entertainment projects, and is not an investment fund that primarily invests in, trades, or otherwise deals in securities. Consequently, investors will not be afforded the protections under the Investment Company Act or the Advisers Act that they would have if the Company were a registered investment company and if the Manager were a registered investment adviser.

Investment Company Act Compliance. The Company intends to operate in a manner that will not subject it to registration under the Investment Company Act. The Company believes it is primarily engaged in the business of financing and operating film and entertainment projects rather than investing in securities and therefore is not an investment company within the meaning of the Investment Company Act. The Company may participate in projects alongside Legion M through a variety of structures, including direct contractual arrangements (such as distribution agreements, P&A financing commitments, and revenue-sharing arrangements).

Investing Process

Information Regarding Length of Time of Offering

Investment Confirmation Process: In order to purchase the Securities, you must make a commitment to purchase by completing the subscription process hosted by the Intermediary, including complying with the Intermediary's know your customer (KYC) and anti-money laundering (AML) policies. If an Investor makes an investment commitment under a name that is not their legal name, they may be unable to redeem their Security indefinitely, and neither the Intermediary nor the Company are required to correct any errors or omissions made by the Investor.

Investor funds will be held in escrow with the Escrow Agent until the Target Amount has been met or exceeded and one or more closings occur. Investors may cancel an investment commitment until up to 48 hours prior to the Offering Deadline, or such earlier time as such earlier time the Company designates pursuant to Regulation CF, using the cancellation mechanism provided by the Intermediary. If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the Offering Deadline the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment.

The Company will notify Investors when the Target Amount has been reached. If the Company reaches the Target Amount prior to the Offering Deadline, it may close the Offering early provided (i) the expedited Offering Deadline must be twenty-one (21) days from the time the Offering opened, (ii) the Company must provide at least five (5) business days' notice prior to the expedited Offering Deadline to the Investors and (iii) the Company continues to meet or exceed the Target Amount on the date of the expedited Offering Deadline.

Investment Cancellations: Investors will have up to 48 hours prior to the end of the offering period to change their minds and cancel their investment commitments for any reason. Once the offering period is within 48 hours of ending, investors will not be able to cancel for any reason, even if they make a commitment during this period.

Notifications: Investors will receive periodic notifications regarding certain events pertaining to this offering, such as the company reaching its Target Amount, the company making an early closing, the company making material changes to its Form C, and the offering closing at its Termination Date.

Material Changes: Material changes to an offering include but are not limited to:

A change in minimum offering amount, change in security price, change in management, etc. If an issuing company makes a material change to the offering terms or other information disclosed, including a change to the offering deadline, investors will be given five business days to reconfirm their investment commitment. If investors do not reconfirm, their investment will be cancelled, and the funds will be returned.

Rolling and Early Closings: The company may elect to undertake rolling closings, or an early closing after it has received investment interests for its Target Amount. During a rolling closing, those investors that have committed funds will be provided five days' notice prior to acceptance of their subscriptions, release of funds to the company, and issuance of securities to the investors. During this time, the company may continue soliciting investors and receiving additional investment commitments. Investors should note that if investors have already received their securities, they will not be required to reconfirm upon the filing of a material amendment to the Form C. In an early closing, the offering will terminate upon the new Termination Date, which must be at least five days from the date of the notice.

Investor Limitations

Investors are limited in how much they can invest on all crowdfunding offerings during any 12-month period. The limitation on how much they can invest depends on their net worth (excluding the value of their primary residence) and annual income. If either their annual income or net worth is less than $124,000, then during any 12-month period, they can invest up to the greater of either $2,500 or 5% of the greater of their annual income or Net worth. If both their annual income and net worth are equal to or more than $124,000, then during any 12-month period, they can invest up to 10% of annual income or net worth, whichever is greater, but their investments cannot exceed $124,000. If the investor is an “accredited investor” as defined under Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act, as amended, no investment limits apply.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members and Management
Legion M Film Fund – 1099, LLC

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statement of Legion M Film Fund – 1099, LLC (the “Fund”), which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2025, and the related statements of operations, changes in member’s deficit, and of cash flows for the period from December 22, 2025 (Inception) through December 31, 2025 and the related notes to the financial statements (referred to as “financial statements”).

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Fund as of December 31, 2025 and for the period then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Fund and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Substantial Doubt About the Fund’s Ability to Continue as a Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Fund will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Fund recently incorporated and requires capital to operate and commence planned principal operations and has stated that substantial doubt exists about the Fund’s ability to continue as a going concern. Management’s evaluation of the events and conditions and management’s plans regarding these matters are also described in Note 1. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Fund’s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Fund's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

LEGION M FILM FUND-1099, LLC
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 22, 2025 (INCEPTION) TO DECEMBER 31, 2025

NOTE 1: NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Legion M Film Fund - 1099, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the “Fund”, the “Company”), was formed on December 22, 2025 (“Inception”) and was established as one of two parallel vehicles to make investments in film and related media projects. The Company is headquartered in Los Angeles, California.

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Legion M Entertainment, Inc. (“Legion M”), a corporation organized on March 4, 2016, under the laws of Delaware. Legion M partners with creators and other entertainment companies - from independent filmmakers to large Hollywood studios and distributors -- to develop, produce, distribute, market and monetize entertainment content including movies, television shows, virtual reality, digital content, live events, and mor

The investment objective of the Fund is to deliver consistent, risk- managed returns by investing in film and related media projects, including Legion M–led releases and Legion M–facilitated participation in third-party projects (the “Investment”). The Investments may be made either (i) directly in Legion M or (ii) indirectly to third-party projects through Legion M. Legion M may, from time to time, invest alongside the Fund.

The Fund is managed by Jeff Annison and Paul Scanlan, the founders and executives of Legion M (the collectively the “Manager”). The Manager is responsible for the management and administration of the Fund, including the investment and management of the Fund’s assets.

NOTE 2: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). The Company has adopted a calendar year as its fiscal year.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ significantly from those estimates.

Cash Equivalents and Concentration of Cash Balance

The Company considers all highly liquid securities with an original maturity of less than three months to be cash equivalents. The Company’s cash and cash equivalents in bank deposit accounts, at times, may exceed federally insured limits.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) guidance specifies a hierarchy of valuation techniques based on whether the inputs to those valuation techniques are observable or unobservable. Observable inputs reflect market data obtained from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect market assumptions. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurement). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the reporting entity has the ability to access at the measurement date. Level 1 primarily consists of financial instruments whose value is based on quoted market prices such as exchange-traded instruments and listed equities.

Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly (e.g., quoted prices of similar assets or liabilities in active markets, or quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active).

LEGION M FILM FUND-1099, LLC
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
As of DECEMBER 22, 2025 (Inception)

Level 3 – Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability. Financial instruments are considered Level 3 when their fair values are determined using pricing models, discounted cash flows or similar techniques and at least one significant model assumption or input is unobservable.

The carrying amounts reported in the financial statements approximates their fair value.

Organizational Costs

In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 720, organizational costs, including accounting fees, legal fees, and costs of incorporation, are expensed as incurred.

Revenue Recognition

ASC Topic 606, “Revenue from Contracts with Customers” establishes principles for reporting information about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from the entity’s contracts to provide goods or services to customers.

Revenues are recognized when control of the promised goods or services are transferred to a customer, in an amount that reflects the consideration that the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. The Company applies the following five steps in order to determine the appropriate amount of revenue to be recognized as it fulfills its obligations under each of its agreements: 1) identify the contract with a customer; 2) identify the performance obligations in the contract; 3) determine the transaction price; 4) allocate the transaction price to performance obligations in the contract; and 5) recognize revenue as the performance obligation is satisfied.

To date, the Company has not generated any revenue.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company.

The Company complies with FASB ASC 740 for accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in a company’s financial statement, which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement process for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. For those benefits to be recognized, a tax position must be more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. FASB ASC 740 also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition. Based on the Company’s evaluation, it has been concluded that there are no significant uncertain tax positions requiring recognition in the Company’s financial statements. The Company believes that its income tax positions would be sustained on audit and does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material change to its financial position.

The Company may in the future become subject to federal, state and local income taxation though it has not been since its inception. The Company is not presently subject to any income tax audit in any taxing jurisdiction.

The Company is treated as a corporation and issues Forms 1099 to its investors.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting standards could have a material effect on the accompanying financial statements. As new accounting pronouncements are issued, the Company will adopt those that are applicable under the circumstances.

NOTE 3: GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company incurred a net loss of $8,000 for the period ended December 31, 2025. The Company is a business that plans to incur significant costs in pursuit of its capital financing plans and costs associated with its film production, and has not generated any revenues as of December 31, 2025. These factors, among others, raise substantial doubt about the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern in the next twelve months is dependent upon its ability to obtain capital financing from investors sufficient to meet current and future obligations and deploy such capital to produce profitable operating results. No assurance can be given that the Company will be successful in these efforts. The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts or the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

LEGION M FILM FUND-1099, LLC
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
As of DECEMBER 22, 2025 (Inception)

NOTE 4: COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company may be subject to pending legal proceedings and regulatory actions in the ordinary course of business. The results of such proceedings cannot be predicted with certainty, but the Company does not anticipate that the final outcome, if any, arising out of any such matters will have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition or results of operations.

NOTE 5: MEMBER'S DEFICIT

The Company is wholly owned by Legion M Entertainment, Inc. and 100% of the member's deficit belongs to Legion M Entertainment.

The Fund is authorized to issue a single class of limited liability company ownership interests ("Interests") to its members. The Manager is seeking capital contributions for limited liability company ownership interests in the Fund up to an aggregate amount of $1 million from a limited number of sophisticated investors who will be admitted as limited liability company members of the Fund ("Members"); provided, that the Manager may accept contributions in excess of $1 million in the Manager's sole discretion. The price per Interests in the offering will be $10.00. The Manager intends that the minimum investment from each Member shall be $100, although the Manager may, in its sole discretion, accept lesser amounts.

The Fund intends to issue a single class of Interests, with ownership percentages generally based on each Member's relative capital contributions. Distributions, when declared by the Manager, will be made on a pro-rata basis in accordance with members' interest percentages, first to return capital contributions and thereafter to Members.

Members may request redemption of all or a portion of their Interests on a quarterly basis. HOW IT WORKS:

The Legion M Film Fund provides capital and marketing support for Legion M distribution deals. While all deals carry risk, the Film Fund intends to focus on projects with "last-in, first-out" economics that are generally more secure than typical movie investments. Our first investment is Fackham Hall (see below).

As money is recouped from each movie, it automatically rolls over into the next. Or investors can request a "cash out" to redeem their interest and withdraw their money from

INVEST NOW

Our strategy is to create consistent compounding returns for investors. We're not swinging for the fences – we're attempting to string together singles and doubles that add up to wins over time.

WHY ARE WE DOING THIS?

With "fan-first" terms and no annual fees, Legion M puts investors in the driver's seat. It's pretty much the opposite of how Hollywood normally works.

That's because Legion M is more than just another studio. We're owned by fans, so we put fans first. We believe the best way to reach our goal of 1 million investors is to provide opportunities so good you'll want to tell all your friends.

And the bigger the Film Fund gets, the more strategic value it provides for Legion M.

We're not an investment company trying to make a profit managing your money – we're a fan-owned studio launching a Film Fund in pursuit of our larger goals.

SUMMARY OF TERMS

Business Model: The fund plans to make investments in the marketing, finance and distribution of film projects from Legion M and our partners. Terms vary per-project, with "Fan-First" preferences for investors.

Risk Profile: Our intent is to find secured and/or "last-in, first-out" positions we believe have potential to recoup principal + limited upside (typically capped at 10%-20%) within 12-18 months.

Target Annual Return: 7.5% to 15%+

Automatic Rollover: Returns from each project are automatically reinvested into subsequent projects. Or you can elect to "cash out" as funds are recouped.

Liquidity: Investors can elect to "cash out" each quarter (see below).

Credits: Investments of $500,000 or more are eligible to earn EP credits in Legion M projects and other professional opportunities.

This summary of terms represents our goals, which are not guaranteed. This is a new fund, and has no track record. Read the PPM for a comprehensive overview of the investment and risks.

INVESTMENT #1 - FACKHAM HALL

Fackham Hall | Official Trailer | Bleecker Street & Legion M

The fund's first investment is Fackham Hall, a movie Legion M is co-distributing in partnership with Bleecker Street. Legion M is investing both money and time into the project in exchange for a percentage of distribution fees and revenue from the film.

The Legion M Film Fund participates alongside Legion M until the fund receives 115% (original investment plus 15% profit). Our hope is to achieve this within 12-18 months. All proceeds that are recouped go back into the pool (unless you've requested a cash-out) so they can roll over into the next project.

INVEST NOW

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

All investments carry risk, and the movie industry is riskier than most. Our intent is to find distribution investments (e.g. P&A) that are more secure than those Hollywood is typically known for.

That said, outcomes are never guaranteed and there are a litany of reasons why Hollywood investments go sideways. Read the risk factors in the offering document before investing, and never invest more than you can afford to lose – not in this or in any speculative investment.

For a comprehensive list of risk factors, please review the Offering Document.

LIQUIDITY

By default, returns from one investment are automatically rolled over into the next. However as an investor you have the ability to request a full or partial redemption of your membership interest (i.e. "cash out") each quarter.

When you request a cash out, we'll return any funds from your capital account that are currently within our possession. Your share of money currently invested in a project can be paid out to you once that investment is complete.

FAQ

What is the Film Fund?

The Legion M Film Fund is an investment offering that allows you to invest in the distribution of movies. It's a different type of investment, with different risk/reward characteristics than other types of movie investments. For more information, please check out the offering page.

How is it different from the investments Legion M has offered before?

The offerings Legion M have made in the past are all long-term, high risk/reward investments. For example, if you invest in Legion M, you own stock in the company and a stake in our long-term success. If you invest in a film, you own a royalty stream related to that movie that lasts in perpetuity. The Legion M film fund is different. We're targeting finished films with "last-in, first-out" financial terms, shorter timelines, and lower risk/reward profiles. The returns from one film automatically roll over to the next, and investors can "cash out" by redeeming some or all of their investments.

What sort of deals are you targeting?

With the Film Fund, we're targeting deals with "last money in, first money out" terms. "Last money in" means we're investing in the release of finished films. "First money out" means we're at the front of the line to receive revenue. Both of these factors can dramatically reduce risks inherent in the movie industry.

Is the Film Fund part of Legion M?

The Legion M Film Fund is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Legion M. It is owned and managed by Legion M, but is a distinct legal entity with its own operating agreement and bank account.

Does the Film Fund help Legion M?

100%! In the past, Legion M's releases have relied on 3rd party distribution, financing. Now we're allowing our community to participate via the Film Fund. The bigger the Film Fund gets, the stronger Legion M becomes -- and the larger the projects we can pursue.

Does the Film Fund "take" profits that would otherwise go to Legion M?

No. The type of financing provided by the film fund is typically provided by professional 3rd party investors. With the Film Fund, Legion M has opened this opportunity to fans rather than seeking it from 3rd parties. In addition, the Film Fund helps promote each project by empowering Film Fund investors to share the movie with their communities.

What kind of projects does the Film Fund invest in?

With the Film Fund, we're targeting distribution projects we believe have potential to provide a conservative return (typically capped per project) within 6-24 months. Returns from one investment automatically roll over to the next.

What kind of return can I expect as an investor?

It's impossible to say with certainty, as this is a new fund without an operating history. Your return as an investor will depend on several factors, including the performance of each movie, the percentage of assets the fund is able to deploy, and the costs incurred in operating the fund. Our goal is to provide an annual return of 7.5% to 15% or more, but as with any investment, there are no guarantees.

Can you lose money?

Yes - risk is part of any investment. We're working to reduce it, but there are plenty of ways things can go wrong— from partners who refuse to pay to companies that go bankrupt, contracts that are disputed, or movies that flop hard. As always, you should never invest more than you can afford to lose in any speculative investment.

What's the first project?

The first Film Fund investment is Fackham Hall, a movie Legion M is co-distributing with Bleecker Street.

How is Fackham Hall performing?

We don't have any official data yet, but the movie's performance has been very encouraging. The film was a top 10 comedy (and top 40 release overall!) on Amazon for 7+ weeks after release. We have every reason to believe this will be a great flagship project for the Film Fund!

What is an "Accredited Investor"?

"Accredited" is an SEC designation for investors that meet personal wealth thresholds. There are several ways to qualify, but the most common is to have at least $1 million in liquid assets OR $300,000 in annual salary for the last two years. To participate as an accredited investor in this offering you will need to provide backup documentation or verification from a tax advisor/money manager. If you are unsure whether you qualify, click here to learn more.

How do redemptions ("Cash Out") work?

You have the opportunity to request a full or partial redemption of your membership interests (i.e. "cash out") each quarter, subject to availability of funds. If your money is currently invested in a project, you'll need to wait until the project returns funds to receive them.

Will the fund pay distributions?

The fund has the option to pay distributions, but does not currently have a plan to do so. If enough investors are interested in receiving regular distributions, we're happy to consider them. Otherwise you can do a partial cash-out.

Can I invest through an IRA?

Yes. Dealmaker (our intermediary) allows you to invest through a self-directed IRA. You can learn more about that here.

If I invest now, am I automatically in future projects too?

As returns come back from one project, they are automatically rolled into the next - unless you cash out.

Can I roll over proceeds from past projects like You Can Call Me Bill or My Dead Friend Zoe directly into the Film Fund without fees?

Unfortunately, no. Returns from movie projects are held by Wefunder -- you'll need to pull the money out of your

Why is Legion M offering the Film Fund now?

After nearly a decade in the industry, we believe Legion M has leveled-up to the point where we have access to the kind of deals that make a fund like this work. We are growing as a distributor, and are at the point where we can release (or co-release) larger and larger films. We believe the Film Fund is a critical strategic asset that will allow Legion M to continue our growth as a distributor.

Most importantly, when we polled our community, the idea was met with overwhelmingly positive feedback. You liked the idea, so we built it!

INVESTOR EDUCATION

Why invest in startups?

Regulation CF allows investors to invest in startups and early-growth companies. This is different from helping a company raise money on Kickstarter; with Regulation CF Offerings, you aren't buying products or merchandise - you are buying a piece of a company and helping it grow.

How much can I invest?

Accredited investors can invest as much as they want. If you are NOT an accredited investor, your investment limit depends on either your annual income or net worth, whichever is greater. If the number is less than $124,000, you can only invest 5% of it. If both are greater than $124,000 then your investment limit is 10%.

How do I calculate my net worth?

To calculate your net worth, just add up all of your assets and subtract all of your liabilities (excluding the value of your primary residence). The resulting sum is your net worth.

What are the tax implications of this investment?

We cannot give tax advice, and we encourage you to talk with your accountant or tax advisor before making an investment. When you invest in this offering, you'll receive 1099s when you receive distribution or redeem your interests (i.e. "cash out").

Who can invest in this Regulation CF Offering?

Individuals over 18 years of age can invest.

What do I need to know about early-stage investing? Are these investments risky?

There is always risk involved when investing in a startup or small business. And the earlier you get in, the more risk is usually present. If we go out of business, your ownership interest could lose all value. You have little to no voting power to direct the company. As an early-stage company, we are still in the process of perfecting our products, services, and business model. Nothing is guaranteed - you shouldn't invest more than you can comfortably afford to lose.

When will I get my investment back?

This offering has certain redemption rights that allow you redeem or "cash out" your membership interests under certain conditions. Redemptions are subject to limitations and risks that are fully explained in the offering document. As with any investment, there's no guaranteed return, but there is risk you could lose your entire investment.

Can I sell my membership interests?

Membership interests sold via Regulation CF offerings have a one-year lockup period before those shares can be sold under certain conditions. The exceptions are sales to:

(i) to the Company (i.e. via a redemption or "cash out"); (ii) to an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act; (iii) as part of an offering registered under the Securities Act with the SEC; or (iv) to a member of the Investor's family or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the Investor, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the Investor or equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the Investor or other similar circumstance.

What happens if a company does not reach their funding target?

If a company does not reach their minimum funding target, all funds will be returned to the investors after the close of the offering.

How can I learn more about a company's offering?

All available disclosure information can be found on the landing page for our Regulation Crowdfunding offering.

What if I change my mind about investing?

You can cancel your investment at any time, for any reason, until 48 hours prior to a closing occurring. If you've already funded your investment and your funds are in escrow, your funds will be promptly refunded to you upon cancellation. To process your refund see the instructions here.

How do I keep up with how the company is doing?

At a minimum, the company will be filing with the SEC and posting on its website an annual report, along with certified financial statements. Those should be available 120 days after the fiscal year end. If the company meets a reporting exception, or eventually has to file more reported information to the SEC, the reporting described above may end. If these reports end, you may not continually have current financial information about the company.

What relationship does the company have with DealMaker Securities?

DealMaker Securities is serving as the intermediary for this offering. Once an offering ends, there is no guarantee that DealMaker Securities will have a relationship with the company. The company may continue its relationship with DealMaker Securities for additional offerings in the future. DealMaker Securities' affiliates may also provide ongoing services to the company. There is no guarantee any services will continue after the offering ends.

(g) Proceeds. The Company shall use the proceeds from the issuance and sale of the Securities as set forth in the Offering Materials.

4. Representations and Warranties of Subscriber.

By executing this Subscription Agreement, Subscriber (and, if Subscriber is purchasing the Securities subscribed for hereby in a fiduciary capacity, the person or persons for whom Subscriber is so purchasing) represents and warrants, which representations and warranties are true and complete in all material respects as of the date of the Subscriber's respective Closing Date(s):

(a) Requisite Power and Authority. Such Subscriber has all necessary power and authority under all applicable provisions of law to execute and deliver this Subscription Agreement, the Operating Agreement and other agreements required hereunder and to carry out their provisions. All action on Subscriber's part required for the lawful execution and delivery of this Subscription Agreement and other agreements required hereunder have been or will be effectively taken prior to the Closing. Upon their execution and delivery, this Subscription Agreement and other agreements required hereunder will be valid and binding obligations of Subscriber, enforceable in accordance with their terms, except (a) as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other laws of general application affecting enforcement of creditors' rights and (b) as limited by general principles of equity that restrict the availability of equitable remedies.

(b) Investment Representations. Subscriber understands that the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act. Subscriber also understands that the Securities are being offered and sold pursuant to an exemption from registration contained in the Act based in part upon Subscriber's representations contained in this Subscription Agreement.

(c) Illiquidity and Continued Economic Risk. Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that there is no ready public market for the Securities and that there is no guarantee that a market for their resale will ever exist. Subscriber must bear the economic risk of this investment indefinitely and the Company has no obligation to list the Securities on any market or take any steps (including registration under the Securities Act or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) with respect to facilitating trading or resale of the Securities. Subscriber acknowledges that Subscriber is able to bear the economic risk of losing Subscriber's entire investment in the Securities. Subscriber also understands that an investment in the Company involves significant risks and has taken full cognizance of and understands all of the risk factors relating to the purchase of Securities.

(d) Resales. Subscriber agrees that during the one-year period beginning on the date on which it acquired Securities pursuant to this Subscription Agreement, it shall not transfer such Securities except:

- (i) To the Company;
 - (ii) To an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act;
 - (iii) In an IPO;
 - (iv) To a member of the Subscriber's family or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the Subscriber, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the Subscriber or equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the Subscriber or other similar circumstance.
- (e) Investment Limits. Subscriber represents that:
- (i) Subscriber meets the definition of Accredited Investor under Rule 501 as set forth in Appendix A; or
 - (ii) Subscriber's net worth or annual income is less than $124,000, and that the amount it is investing pursuant to this Subscription Agreement, including investor fees if any, together with all other amounts invested in offerings under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act within the previous 12 months, does not exceed the greater of (A) 5% of the greater of its annual income or net worth, or (B) $2,500; or
 - (iii) Both of Subscriber's net worth and annual income are more than $124,000, and that the amount it is investing pursuant to this Subscription Agreement, including investor fees if any, together with all other amounts invested in offerings under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act within the previous 12 months, does not exceed 10% of the greater of its annual income or net worth, and does not exceed $124,000.

Subscriber represents that to the extent it has any questions with respect to its status as an accredited investor, or the application of the investment limits, it has sought professional advice.

(f) Shareholder information. Within five days after receipt of a request from the Company, the Subscriber hereby agrees to provide such information with respect to its status as a shareholder (or potential shareholder) and to execute and deliver such documents as may reasonably be necessary to comply with any and all laws and regulations to which the Company is or may become subject. Subscriber further agrees that in the event it transfers any Securities, it will require the transferee of such Securities to agree to provide such information to the Company as a condition of such transfer.

(g) Company Information. Subscriber has read the Offering Statement. Subscriber understands that the Company is subject to all the risks that apply to early-stage companies, whether or not those risks are explicitly set out in the Form C. Subscriber has had an opportunity to discuss the Company's business, management and financial affairs with managers, officers and management of the Company and has had the opportunity to review the Company's operations and facilities. Subscriber has also had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers from the Company and its management regarding the terms and conditions of this investment. Subscriber acknowledges that except as set forth herein, no representations or warranties have been made to Subscriber, or to Subscriber's advisors or representative, by the Company or others with respect to the business or prospects of the Company or its financial condition.

(h) Subscriber acknowledges that Subscriber has read the educational materials on the landing page, and has been informed of Subscriber's right to cancel the investment up to 48-hours prior to a Offering Deadline; however, once the Subscription Agreement is accepted by the Company there is no cancelation right.

(i) Subscriber acknowledges that there may be promoters for this Offering, and in the case that there are any communications from promoters, the promoter must clearly disclose in all communications the receipt of compensation, and that the promoter is engaged in promotional activities on behalf of the Issuer. A promoter may be any person who promotes the Issuer's offering for compensation, whether past or prospective, or who is a founder or an employee of an issuer that engages in promotional activities on behalf of the Issuer.

(j) Subscriber acknowledges that Subscriber has been informed of the compensation that DealMaker Securities LLC and affiliates receives in connection with the sale of securities in the Regulation CF offering and the manner in which it is received.

(k) Valuation. The Subscriber acknowledges that the price of the Securities was set by the Company on the basis of the Company's internal valuation and no warranties are made as to value. The Subscriber further acknowledges that future offerings of Securities may be made at lower valuations, with the result that the Subscriber's investment will bear a lower valuation.

(l) Domicile. Subscriber maintains Subscriber's domicile (and is not a transient or temporary resident) at the address shown on the signature page.

(m) Foreign Investors. If Subscriber is not a United States person (as defined by Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended), Subscriber hereby represents that it has satisfied itself as to the full observance of the laws of its jurisdiction in connection with any invitation to subscribe for the Securities or any use of this Subscription Agreement, including (i) the legal requirements within its jurisdiction for the purchase of the Securities, (ii) any foreign exchange restrictions applicable to such purchase, (iii) any governmental or other consents that may need to be obtained, and (iv) the income tax and other tax consequences, if any, that may be relevant to the purchase, holding, redemption, sale, or transfer of the Securities. Subscriber's subscription and payment for and continued beneficial ownership of the Securities will not violate any applicable securities or other laws of the Subscriber's jurisdiction.

(n) Subscriber acknowledges that the Company is being offered concurrently with a similar securities offering conducted under Rule 506(c) of Regulation D under the Securities Act, available only to accredited investors.

5. Voting Rights and Redemption.

(a) Subscriber acknowledges that the Securities offered hereby are non-voting limited liability company membership interests and represent economic rights only. The Company has issued a single voting membership interest (the "Voting Interest"), which is held exclusively by Legion M Entertainment, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Manager"), and which represents 100% of the voting power of the Company. Holders of interests are entitled to receive distributions, if any, as provided in the Operating Agreement, but do not have voting rights, except to the limited extent expressly required under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act. The Manager has exclusive authority to manage the business and affairs of the Company, including, without limitation, identifying and approving projects in which the Company will participate, entering into and negotiating contractual arrangements on behalf of the Company, determining the timing and amount of distributions, issuing additional membership interests or other securities in accordance with the Operating Agreement, approving amendments to the Operating Agreement, and determining whether to merge, dissolve, reorganize, or otherwise effect a transaction involving the Company. As a result, Subscriber will not have the ability to vote on Company matters, elect managers, or participate in the management of the Company, and must rely entirely on the Manager to operate the Company in the best interests of the Company and its Members.

(b) Subscriber further acknowledges that, subject to the terms and conditions of the Operating Agreement, members may request redemption of all or a portion of their interests on a quarterly basis. Any portion of a member's capital that is not then invested in a project or otherwise reserved for Company expenses, together with any proceeds received by the Company from a project in which such member's capital was invested (collectively, the "Available Capital"), will be redeemed and distributed within 30 days following receipt of a valid redemption request, subject to the availability of cash. Any portion of a member's capital that is then invested in a project will be redeemed only as and when the Company receives proceeds from such project, and a redeeming Member will not participate in any returns generated by such project after the redemption date. In the event of the death, disability, or bankruptcy of a member, a holder of its interests may request that the Company repurchase all of the interests held by such member for a purchase price per interest equal to the most recently available net asset value per unit, and the Company will designate a date for such redemption, which date shall not be later than 90 days after documentation establishing the right to be redeemed is received, subject to the availability of cash. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may not have sufficient liquidity to satisfy redemption requests when made, and requests may be delayed, limited, prorated, or denied. Subscriber should not rely on any redemption feature as a source of liquidity and should be prepared to hold the investment for an indefinite period.

6. Indemnity. The representations, warranties and covenants made by the Subscriber herein shall survive the closing of this Agreement. The Subscriber agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company and its respective officers, directors and affiliates, and each other person, if any, who controls the Company within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense whatsoever (including, but not limited to, any and all reasonable attorneys' fees, including attorneys' fees on appeal) and expenses reasonably incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any false representation or warranty or breach of failure by the Subscriber to comply with any covenant or agreement made by the Subscriber herein or in any other document furnished by the Subscriber to any of the foregoing in connection with this transaction.

The name, address, e-mail address and Capital Contribution of each Person admitted to the Company as a Member shall be maintained on file in the Company records (the “Member Records”). The Manager shall cause such Member Records to be revised, without the necessity of obtaining the consent of any other Member, to reflect any changes in the names, addresses, e-mail addresses, Capital Contribution of Member or the admission of Members occurring pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Unless waived by the Manager, the Member’s Capital Contribution were made no less than three (3) Business Days prior to the closing date on which such Member was admitted as a Member of the Company. The Manager has made an initial Capital Contribution to the Company in the amount of $100 in exchange for the issuance of the Voting Interest. The Voting Interest shall not constitute an “Interest” for purposes of determining Percentage Interests or distributions and shall not entitle the holder thereof to receive distributions unless the holder also holds Interests.

(b) A Member that has failed to make a Contribution when due and who has also failed to make such Contribution on or before the date that is five (5) days after the Manager has delivered written notice to such Member that it intends to designate such Member as a Defaulting Member hereunder, shall be deemed to be a “Defaulting Member.” Except to the extent that a Member is excused pursuant to any provision of this Agreement from paying all or any part of a required Contribution, upon any failure by a Member to pay in full when due the Contribution to be paid, interest will accrue at the Default Rate on the outstanding unpaid balance of such Contribution, from the day after the date that the Manager notifies such Member in writing that it is in default until the date of payment of such Contribution.

If a Defaulting Member has failed to make a Contribution required pursuant to this Agreement (such amount, the “Deficiency Contribution Amount”), then the Manager may deliver a notice (a “Deficiency Contribution Notice”) to the non-Defaulting Members advising such non-Defaulting Members of the identity of the Defaulting Member and the amount of Deficiency Contribution Amount. The non-Defaulting Members shall have the right, but not the obligation, to elect to fund their pro rata portions (in proportion to the Members’ respective Contributions) of all or any portion of the Deficiency Contribution Amount by notice to the Manager, delivered within five (5) days after the non-Defaulting Member’s receipt of the Deficiency Contribution Notice, specifying the portion of the Deficiency Contribution Amount that such non-Defaulting Member has elected to fund. Each non-Defaulting Member shall be obligated to fund that portion of the Deficiency Contribution Amount that it elected to fund in its notice within ten (10) days after delivery of the foregoing notice to the Manager. For the avoidance of doubt, holders of Interests shall have no voting or management rights except as expressly required by the Act.

(e) Unless admitted to the Company as a Member, as provided in this Agreement, no Person shall be considered a Member. The Company need deal only with Persons so admitted as Members. They shall not be required to deal with any other Person (other than with respect to distributions to assignees pursuant to assignments in compliance with Article VI) merely because of an assignment or transfer of Interests to such Person whether by reason of the Incapacity of a Member or otherwise; provided, however, that any distribution by the Company to the Person shown on the Member Records as a Member or to its legal representatives, or to the assignee of the right to receive Company distributions as provided herein, shall relieve the Company of all liability to any other Person who may be interested in such distribution by reason of any other assignment by the Member or by reason of his Incapacity, or for any other reason.

(f) No Member may be admitted if, as a result of such admission, the Company would be considered an “investment company” or it would require the Company to register as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act, as determined in the Manager’s sole discretion.

The Manager shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, to appoint, remove or replace any member of the Investment Committee at any time.

(b) Whenever the Manager determines to make a Distribution, the Company shall deliver written notice to each Member, no fewer than 30 days prior to the Distribution date, indicating (i) the amount of Distributable Cash, (ii) the payment date, (iii) the Distribution Option described below in paragraph (c), and (iv) the deadline by which the Member may elect to receive cash rather than participate in automatic reinvestment.

(c) Unless a Member notifies the Company in writing of its election to receive the Distribution in cash no later than 15 days after the Manager’s notice is delivered, such Distribution will be automatically retained by the Company to make new investments or additional investments in existing investments (the “Distribution Option”).

(d) To the extent a Member complies with the election requirements set forth in paragraph (c) and elects to receive the Distribution in cash, such Distributable Cash will be apportioned among the Members’ pro rata in accordance with their respective Percentage Interest. The amount apportioned to the Members shall be distributed in the following order and priority:

(i) First, 100% pari passu based upon Percentage Interest until each Member has received a return of all of its Capital Contributions; and

(ii) Thereafter, 100% pari passu based upon Percentage Interest.

IV.8 Withholding. The Company shall withhold from payments and distributions to a Member and remit to the appropriate Governmental Entity any amounts required to be withheld under the Code, Treasury Regulations, or Applicable Law. All amounts so withheld shall be treated as amounts paid or distributed to such Member for purposes of this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, the Company may withhold pursuant to Sections 1441, 1442, 3406 or Chapter 4 of the Code (FATCA) and any corresponding state or local provisions. Each Member hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company from and against any liability with respect to any obligation of the Company to withhold and to pay over, or otherwise pay, any withholding or other taxes payable by the Company with respect to such Member or as a result of such Member’s interest in the Company. To the extent that the Code, Treasury Regulations, or Applicable Law requires the Company to remit to a Governmental Entity an amount with respect to a Member that exceeds the amount then otherwise distributable to such Member, the Company shall notify such Member as to the amount of such excess, and such Member shall make a prompt contribution to the Company of such amount by wire transfer within forty-five (45) days following delivery of such notice. If such Member fails to make such contribution, then the Company shall remit such excess to the relevant Governmental Entity and (i) the excess shall constitute a loan from the Company to such Member which shall be payable upon demand and shall bear interest, from the date that the Company makes the payment to the relevant Governmental Entity, at the lesser of (a) the Prime Rate plus ten percent (10%) per annum or (b) the maximum legal interest rate under Applicable Law, compounded annually, (ii) the Company shall be entitled to collect such sum from amounts otherwise distributable to such Member under this Agreement, and (iii) the Company may exercise any and all rights and remedies to collect such sum from such Member that a creditor would have to collect a debt from a debtor under Applicable Law. Any contribution made by a Member to the Company pursuant to this Section IV.8 shall not constitute a Capital Contribution.

Article V
MANAGEMENT AND GOVERNANCE OF THE COMPANY

V.1 Management.

(a) With the exception of the actions requiring Supermajority Approval of the Members as set forth in Section III.3, the property, affairs and business of the Company shall be under the direction of and managed exclusively by the Manager. The Manager is hereby vested with the full, exclusive and complete right, power and discretion to operate, manage and control the affairs and business of the Company, and to make all decisions and take all actions affecting the Company's affairs and business as deemed proper, convenient or advisable by them or any of them to carry on the business of the Company as described herein. The Manager may delegate to Officers or committees, acting alone, the authority to make decisions or to take actions specified by the Manager. The Manager may amend, modify, restate, or repeal the Company's Certificate of Formation, this Operating Agreement, or any other organizational or governance document of the Company.

(b) The Manager shall devote to the Company such time as the Manager reasonably believes shall be necessary to conduct the Company's business and affairs in an appropriate manner and in good faith.

V.2 Management Composition. The Company shall have one Manager unless otherwise determined by the holder of the Voting Interest. Notwithstanding, any increase or decrease in the number of Managers shall be subject to the Manager(s)'s sole discretion. If at any time there is more than one Manager, the provisions of this Agreement will be adjusted appropriately to account for more than one Manager.

V.3 Removal of a Manager.

(a) The Manager may not be removed as Manager except by the affirmative approval of the other Manager(s). The Manager may resign at any time by giving written notice of such resignation to the Members. Upon the removal or vacancy of the Manager, the remaining Manager(s) may, but shall not be obligated to appoint a successor Manager. If the remaining Manager does not appoint a successor Manager within 90 days of the date of removal of the Manager, the Company shall be dissolved and liquidated in accordance with Article VII.

(b) Legion M Entertainment, Inc. ("Legion M") is hereby elected to serve as the Manager as of the Effective Date. Legion M shall act through its duly authorized officers and directors.

V.4 Third Parties. Third parties dealing with the Company may rely conclusively upon any certificate of the Manager to the effect that they are acting on behalf of the Company. The signature of the Manager shall be sufficient to bind the Company in every manner to any agreement or on any document, including, but not limited to, documents drawn or agreements made in connection with the acquisition or Disposition of any assets or other properties in furtherance of the purposes of the Company.

V.5 Authority to Elect Officers and Election of Officers.

(a) Without limiting the scope of the above delegation provisions, the Manager shall have the authority, but not the obligation, to elect any officers of the Company (the “Officers”). The Officers, if any, shall have (i) such duties, powers, titles, status and tenure as determined by the Manager from time to time in the Manager’s sole discretion; and (ii) authority over the daily operations of the Company and may implement all decisions of the Manager, subject to the express provisions of this Agreement (including its Exhibits). Unless the Manager otherwise determines, if a title assigned to an Officer is one commonly used for officers of a corporation formed under Delaware law, the assignment of such title shall constitute the delegation to such Officer of the authorities and duties that are customarily associated with such office, subject to any specific delegation of authorities and duties made pursuant to clause (i) above.

V.6 Intentionally Omitted.

V.7 Exculpation and Indemnification.

(a) To the maximum extent not prohibited by Applicable Law, no Covered Person will be liable to the Company or the Members for (i) any action taken or failure to act unless and only to the extent that it has been determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable ruling that such action taken or failure to act was in bad faith taken or failed to be taken, or with respect to any Covered Person, is a material, uncured violation of the material provisions of this Agreement or constitutes fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct by such Person; (ii) any action or inaction arising from reliance in good faith upon the opinion or advice as to legal matters of legal counsel or as to accounting matters of accountants selected and monitored by any of them with reasonable care; or (iii) the action or inaction of any agent, contractor or consultant selected and monitored by any of them with reasonable care.

(b) To the maximum extent not prohibited by Applicable Law, the Company will indemnify and hold harmless the Covered Persons from and against any and all direct or indirect claims, demands, losses, liabilities, damages, costs or expenses, suits, proceedings and actions (collectively, “Losses”) to which any of such Covered Persons may directly or indirectly become subject in connection with any such Covered Person’s involvement with the Company, except to the extent that it has been determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable ruling that such Loss was directly and proximately caused by (i) such Person acting or failing to act in bad faith, or (ii) with respect to a Covered Person, a material, uncured violation of the material provisions of this Agreement by such Covered Person or such Covered Person acting in a manner that constituted (or failing to act, which failure constituted) fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct; provided that any Person entitled to indemnification from the Company hereunder shall first seek recovery under any insurance policies by which such Person is covered and shall obtain the written Consent of the Manager prior to entering into any compromise or settlement that would result in an obligation of the Company to indemnify such Person; and, provided, further, that each Covered Person shall be required, as a condition to advances of expenses under this Section V.7 in connection with any dispute commenced by Members together holding Interests representing more than fifty percent (50%) of the Percentage Interests against a Covered Person, to deliver to the Company a binding written undertaking of such Covered Person, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Manager, obligating such Covered Person to promptly repay such advanced expenses to the Company in full in the event of a final determination of such dispute against such Covered Person, and any such repayments to the Company shall not constitute a Capital Contribution.

(c) Promptly after receipt by a Covered Person of notice of the commencement of any dispute, such Covered Person shall, if a claim for indemnification in respect thereof is to be made against the Company, give written notice to the Company of the commencement of such dispute; provided, however, that the failure of any Covered Person to give such notice shall not relieve the Company of its obligations under this Section V.7. If any such dispute is brought against a Covered Person, the Company will be entitled to participate in and assume the defense thereof to the extent that the Company may wish, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such Covered Person. The provisions of this Section V.7 shall continue to afford protection to each Covered Person (i) following termination of such Covered Person's employment with or engagement by the Company, (ii) regardless of whether such Covered Person remains in the position or capacity pursuant to which such Covered Person became entitled to indemnification under this Section V.7, and (iii) regardless of any subsequent amendment to this Agreement (and no amendment to this Agreement shall reduce or restrict the extent to which these indemnification provisions apply to actions taken or omissions made prior to the date of such amendment).

(d) The right of any Covered Person to the indemnification provided herein shall be cumulative with, and in addition to, any and all rights to which such Covered Person may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law or equity and shall extend to such Covered Person's successors, assigns, heirs and legal representatives.

(e) The Company shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Covered Person (each an "Insured Party") against any liability asserted against such Insured Party by reason of actions or omissions or alleged actions or omissions taken or omitted to be taken by the Insured Party in connection with or on behalf of the Company, or in furtherance of the Company's interests or its business or affairs, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such Insured Party against such liability under this Article V.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if there is more than one Manager, the Company shall not indemnify any Manager with regard to any disputes arising solely between or among any one or more Managers, on the one hand, and any one or more Managers on the other hand.

(g) No Member shall be liable (in full or in part) for the return of the Capital Contributions of any Member, and any return of the Capital Contributions of any Member upon dissolution of the Company pursuant to Article VII shall be made solely from the assets of the Company or the proceeds from liquidation thereof.

(h) No Member or Manager shall be liable to the Company or any Member for any action taken by any other Member or Manager. The provisions of this Section V.7 shall survive the liquidation and termination of the Company.

V.8 Concurrent Directorships. The Manager and other employees of the Company may maintain board directorships or similar roles with other entities.

V.9 Intentionally omitted.

V.10 Parallel Investment Vehicles. The Members acknowledge and agree that from time to time the Manager may, in its sole discretion, form one or more other limited partnerships, limited liability companies or other investment vehicles (collectively, the “Parallel Investment Vehicles”) to invest in parallel with the Company as the Manager may determine in its sole discretion. The cost of organizing a Parallel Investment Vehicles shall be borne by the investors in such Parallel Investment Vehicles.

V.11 Organizational Expenses. The Manager shall bear and be charged with all costs and expenses pertaining to the organization and formation of the Company and the offering and sale of interests in the Company, including all legal, accounting and filing fees and expenses, and third-party administrative fees (collectively, “Organizational Expenses”).

Article VI TRANSFERABILITY OF A MEMBER’S INTERESTS

VI.1 Restrictions on Transfers of Interests.

(a) No sale, exchange, transfer, assignment, pledge, hypothecation, encumbrance or other disposition (herein collectively called a “Transfer”) of all or any portion of the Interests may be made except with the prior written Consent of the Manager, which Consent may be given, conditioned or withheld in the sole discretion of the Manager. However, this restriction shall not apply to Transfers made to family members or to a trust established for the benefit of family members.

(b) Intentionally omitted.

(c) Unless effected in accordance with and as permitted by this Agreement, no attempted Transfer shall be recognized by the Company, and any purported Transfer not effected in accordance with and as permitted by this Agreement shall, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, be void and the Company shall recognize no rights of the purported transferee, including the right to receive distributions from the Company.

VI.2 Assignees.

(a) The Company shall not recognize for any purpose any Transfer unless the provisions of Section VI.1 shall have been complied with and the Company has received from the assignee (and in the case of clause (iii) below, from the transferring Member to the extent specified by the Manager) (i) such documents, instruments and certificates as may be requested by the Manager, pursuant to which such assignee shall agree to become bound by this Agreement, (ii) a certificate or agreement to the effect that the representations set forth in the form of Subscription Agreement are (except as otherwise disclosed to the Manager) true and correct with respect to such assignee as of the date of such Transfer and (iii) such other documents, legal opinions, instruments, certificates and representation letters (which may be required to cover matters including the effect of such Transfer under the Securities Act, other federal and state securities laws and regulations, the Code, the Treasury Regulations, ERISA and other Applicable Law, or such other matters as required by any lender who has made a loan secured by or otherwise with respect to the assets of the Company) as the Manager shall request.

(b) Unless and until an assignee of the Interests becomes a Substituted Member, such assignee shall not be entitled to give Consents with respect to such Interests.

(c) Any Member which Transfers all of its Interests shall cease to be a Member and shall cease to have the rights of a Member hereunder.

(d) Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Company shall be entitled to treat the assignor of the Interests as the absolute owner thereof in all respects, and shall incur no liability for distributions made in good faith to it, until such time as a written assignment that conforms to the requirements of this Section VI.2 has been received by the Company and accepted by the Manager.

(e) A Person who is the assignee of all or any portion of the Interests of a Member as permitted hereby but does not become a Substituted Member and who desires to make a further Transfer of such Interests, shall be subject to all of the provisions of this Section VI.2 to the same extent and in the same manner as any Member desiring to make a Transfer of its Interests.

VI.3 Substituted Members.

(a) No Member shall have the right to substitute a purchaser, assignee, transferee, heir, legatee, distributee or other recipient of all or any portion of such Member's Interests as a Member in its place. Any such purchaser, assignee, transferee, heir, legatee, distributee or other recipient of Interests (whether pursuant to a voluntary or involuntary Transfer) shall be admitted to the Company as a substituted Member ("Substituted Member") only (i) with the Consent of the Manager, which Consent may be given or withheld in the sole discretion of the Manager and (ii) by satisfying the requirements of Section VI.1 and VI.2 (unless the Manager shall otherwise Consent).

(b) Each Substituted Member, as a condition to its admission as Member, shall execute and acknowledge such instruments in form and substance satisfactory to the Manager, as it reasonably deems necessary or desirable to effectuate such admission and to confirm the agreement of the Substituted Member to be bound by all the terms and provisions of this Agreement with respect to the Interests acquired. All reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees that are incurred by the Company in this connection shall be borne by such Substituted Member. At the election of the Manager, such expenses may be paid by the Company and deducted from the Capital Account of the Substituted Member.

VI.4 Redemption at Option of Members.

(a) Subject to the limitations and procedures set forth herein, each Member may, on a quarterly basis, submit a written request to the Company to redeem all or any portion of such Member's Interests. Subject to the Annual Redemption Cap, any portion of a Member's capital that is not then invested in a project or otherwise reserved for Company Expenses, together with any proceeds received by the Company from a project in which such Member's capital was invested (collectively, the "Available Capital") will be redeemed and distributed within 30 days following our receipt of a valid redemption request. Any portion of a Member's capital that is then invested in a project will be redeemed only as and when the Company receives proceeds from such project. A redeeming Member will not participate in any returns generated by such project after the redemption date; instead, the Member will receive a return of its invested capital attributable to that project as those amounts are realized by the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Manager may, in its sole discretion, redeem and distribute to a Member the entirety of such Member's outstanding capital at any time.

(b) The Company's aggregate obligation to honor redemption requests in any calendar year pursuant to this Section shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the total capital raised by the Company (the "Annual Redemption Cap"), subject to the availability of cash. For purposes of determining the Annual Redemption Cap: (i) the total capital raised shall be calculated as of the most recent January 1, April 1, July 1, or October 1 preceding the applicable redemption (each, a "Measurement Date"). Special Redemption Right subject to Section VI.5 shall not be counted toward the Annual Redemption Cap.

(c) Redemption requests shall be processed strictly in the order in which valid notices are received by the Company, on a first-in, first-out basis. Each redemption request shall be submitted in such form and manner, and shall include such information and documentation, as the Manager may reasonably require from time to time, including without limitation the identity of the requesting Member, the number or percentage of Interests to be redeemed, and wiring instructions.

(d) The Company's ability to redeem Interests shall at all times be subject to the availability of cash legally available therefor, the Company's then-current and anticipated liquidity needs, and compliance with Applicable Law and contractual obligations. No assurance can be given that cash will be available to effect any redemption, and the Company shall have no obligation to dispose of assets, incur indebtedness or otherwise raise capital to fund redemptions.

(e) The Company shall have the right, but not the obligation, to establish and maintain a sinking fund or other reserve for the purpose of funding redemptions, in such amounts and on such terms as the Manager may determine in its sole discretion.

(f) If, at the time a valid redemption notice is received, the Company determines that sufficient cash is available, the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to remit the redemption proceeds to the redeeming Member within thirty (30) days following receipt of such valid notice; provided, that the Company may, in its sole discretion, accelerate the redemption and remit the proceeds at any earlier time. If sufficient cash is not then available, the redemption shall remain pending and shall be funded when and to the extent cash becomes available, subject to the Annual Redemption Cap and the order-of-receipt provisions herein.

(g) The redemption price for Interests redeemed pursuant to this Section VI.5 shall be shall equal the portion of the Member's invested capital attributable to the Interests being redeemed, as reflected on the Company's books and records as of the Valuation Date, and adjusted as follows:

(i) reduced by any amounts reserved or retained by the Company as of the Valuation Date for accrued but unpaid Company Expenses or anticipated liquidity needs; and

(ii) reduced by any distributions with respect to such Interests that have been made or declared by the Company on or prior to the Valuation Date.

VI.5 Special Redemption Right.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, within ninety (90) days following the death, Disability or bankruptcy of a Member who is a natural person (or, in the case of a beneficial holder, the beneficial holder of the Interests), the estate of such Member or the duly appointed legal representative of such Member (or beneficial holder) may deliver to the Company a written request for the Company to repurchase, in whole but not in part, all Interests then held by such Member (a "Special Redemption Request"). Any Special Redemption Request shall specify the event giving rise to such right and shall be accompanied by such documentation or certifications as the Manager may reasonably require to establish the occurrence of such event and the authority of the requesting party to act.

(b) If Interests are held jointly by natural persons who are legally married, a Special Redemption Request may be made by (i) the surviving Member upon the death of the spouse, or (ii) the disabled Member (or such Member's legal representative) upon the Disability of the spouse. If Interests are held jointly by two or more natural persons who are not legally married to each other, no joint holder shall have the right to submit a Special Redemption Request unless each such joint holder has been affected by an event described in Section VI.5(a).

(c) Upon receipt of a Special Redemption Request and satisfactory documentation and/or certifications, to the Company's satisfaction, the right to be redeemed, the Company shall designate a redemption date for such Interests, which date shall be no later than ninety (90) days after the Company's receipt of such documentation and/or certifications; provided, however, that any such redemption shall be subject to the availability of cash and may be deferred to the extent necessary to ensure sufficient liquidity. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to remit the redemption proceeds on or promptly following the designated redemption date; provided, that the Company may accelerate the redemption and remit proceeds earlier in its sole discretion.

(d) The redemption price for Interests redeemed pursuant to this Section VI.5 shall be shall equal the portion of the Member's invested capital attributable to the Interests being redeemed, as reflected on the Company's books and records as of the Valuation Date, and adjusted as follows:

(i) reduced by any amounts reserved or retained by the Company as of the Valuation Date for accrued but unpaid Company Expenses or anticipated liquidity needs; and

(ii) reduced by any distributions with respect to such Interests that have been made or declared by the Company on or prior to the Valuation Date.

VI.6 Redemption at Option of the Company.

(a) The Company may, at any time and from time to time, redeem all or any portion of any Member's Interests (a "Company Redemption") upon not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to such Member (the "Company Redemption Notice"). The Company Redemption Notice shall specify the number or percentage of Interests to be redeemed, the proposed redemption date (the "Company Redemption Date"), and the Valuation Date used to determine the Company Redemption Price (as defined hereinafter).

(b) The redemption price for the Interests (or portion thereof) subject to a Company Redemption (the "Company Redemption Price") shall equal the greater of: (i) the positive balance, if any, of the redeeming Member's Capital Account attributable to such Interests as of the Valuation Date; or (ii) the Fair Market Value of such Member as of the Valuation Date. "Fair Market Value" means the amount a willing buyer would pay and a willing seller would accept for the Interests, neither being under any compulsion to buy or sell and both having reasonable knowledge of relevant facts, determined as of the Valuation Date by the Manager in good faith.

Article VII
DISSOLUTION, LIQUIDATION AND TERMINATION OF THE COMPANY

VII.1 Dissolution. The Company shall be dissolved, and its affairs wound up upon the happening of any of the following events:

- (a) the Supermajority Approval of the Members to dissolve the Company; or
- (b) the entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under Act.

Dissolution of the Company shall be effective on the day on which the event occurs giving rise to the dissolution, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company have been distributed as provided in Section VII.2 and the Certificate of Formation of the Company has been cancelled.

VII.2 Liquidation.

(a) Upon dissolution of the Company, the Liquidating Trustee shall wind up the affairs of the Company in an orderly manner and shall proceed within a reasonable period of time to sell or otherwise liquidate the assets of the Company and, after paying or making provision by the setting up of reasonable reserves for all liabilities to creditors of the Company, to distribute the assets among the Members in accordance with the provisions for the making of distributions set forth in this Agreement. The Members acknowledge and agree (i) that under certain circumstances the Company will realize the highest value for an asset through a sale or other Disposition to a Member or its Affiliates, or a group in which a Member, its Affiliates or the Manager participate, and (ii) that in such a sale or other Disposition of such asset, the Members may elect to forego their pro rata portion of the sale or proceeds in return for a continuing interest in such asset or in the purchasing group. Each Member hereby Consents to the participation by Members, their Affiliates and the Manager in such sales and other Dispositions, and to any resulting non-ratable distribution of cash, securities, property or other assets.

(b) Notwithstanding Section VII.2(a), in the event that the Liquidating Trustee shall, in its absolute discretion, determine a sale or other Disposition of part or all of the Company's assets would cause undue loss to the Members or otherwise be impractical or undesirable, the Liquidating Trustee may either defer liquidation of, and withhold from distribution for a reasonable time, any such assets, or distribute part or all of such assets, pro rata (or as otherwise contemplated by Section VII.2(a)), to the Members in kind.

(c) The assets of the Company or the proceeds from liquidation thereof shall be paid or distributed in the following manner: (i) first, payment shall be made to the creditors of the Company (including Members and their Affiliates) to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, (ii) second, unless otherwise determined by the Manager, to the establishment of reasonable reserves for any claims against the Company; and (iii) third, all remaining proceeds shall be distributed to the Members in accordance with Section IV.7(a).

(d) In any such liquidation, the Company may distribute (after payment, or the making of reasonable provision for payment, of the Company's obligations) the assets of the Company in cash, ratably in kind, or any combination thereof as the Liquidating Trustee shall determine; provided, however, that no distribution of securities, property or other assets shall be made to any Member to the extent such Member would be prohibited by Applicable Law from holding such securities, property or other assets (it being understood and agreed that under such circumstances and under the circumstances contemplated by the last two sentences of Section VII.2(a), a non-ratable distribution may be made). To the extent deemed desirable by the Liquidating Trustee, distributions may be made into a liquidating trust or other appropriate Entity, and reserves may be established for contingencies.

(e) When the Liquidating Trustee has complied with the foregoing liquidation plan, the Liquidating Trustee, on behalf of all Members, shall promptly execute, acknowledge and cause to be filed an instrument evidencing the cancellation of the Certificate of Formation of the Company (or the equivalent thereof).

Article VIII
AMENDMENTS; CHANGE IN BUSINESS FORM; MERGER

VIII.1 Adoption of Amendments; Limitations Thereon.

(a) This Agreement is subject to Manager's sole discretion; provided, however, that no amendment to this Agreement may:

(i) modify the limited liability of a Member, modify the indemnification or exculpation rights of the Covered Persons, or increase in any material respect the liabilities or responsibilities of, or diminish in any material respect the rights or protections of, any Member under this Agreement, in each case, without the further Consent of the holder of the Voting Interest; provided, however, that no amendment shall materially adversely affect the economic rights of holders of Interests without the approval of holders of a majority of the outstanding Interests.

(ii) amend any provisions hereof that require the Consent of the holder of the Voting Interest without the approval of holders of a majority of the outstanding Interests.

(b) Notwithstanding the limitations of Section VIII.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Manager (i) to cure any ambiguity or correct or supplement any provisions hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof; and (ii) to effect any amendment, modification or change that is not adverse to the Members and does not result in non-uniform treatment of the Members (as reasonably determined by the Manager in good faith), other than the matters enumerated in Section VIII.1(c) below; provided, however, that no amendment shall be adopted pursuant to this Section VIII.1(b) unless such amendment would not alter, or result in the alteration of, the limited liability of the Members or the status of the Company as a "corporation" for federal income tax purposes.

(c) Notwithstanding the limitations of Section VIII.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Manager without the Consent of any of the Members in order to: (i) correct any printing, stenographic or clerical errors or omissions; (ii) update the Member Records from time to time to reflect the Persons from time to time admitted as Members or Substituted Members, their respective addresses, Capital Contributions and other information; (iii) admit one or more additional Members or Substituted Members in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; (iv) effect any amendment required by any lender that has made a loan to the Company, provided that the Manager determines in good faith that such amendment (A) is for the benefit of or not adverse to the interests of the Company and (B) does not affect the limited liability of the Members; (v) satisfy any requirements, conditions, guidelines or opinions contained in any opinion, directive, order, ruling or regulation of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the Department of the Treasury, the IRS or any other federal, state or local governmental authority, or in any applicable statute or regulation, compliance with which the Manager deems to be in the best interests of the Company; (vi) change the name of the Company; provided, however, that no amendment adopted pursuant to this Section VIII.1(c) shall (A) increase or extend any financial obligation or liability of a Member beyond that expressly set forth herein without the consent of such adversely affected Member, or (B) materially adversely affect the rights of a Member in a manner that disproportionately or discriminatorily affects such Member as compared to other Members without the consent of such adversely affected Member.

(d) Upon the adoption of any amendment to this Agreement, the amendment shall be executed by the Manager and, if required, shall be recorded in the proper records of each jurisdiction in which recordation is necessary for the Company to conduct business. Any such adopted amendment may be executed by the Manager on behalf of the Members pursuant to the power of attorney granted in Section IX.1.

VIII.2 Reorganization of the Company.

(a) Except as set forth in Section III.3, the Manager may for reasons that the Manager deems in the best interests of the Company and/or its Members, cause the Company to incorporate its business, or any portion thereof or reorganize its business into a different type of Entity (e.g., foreign or domestic limited partnership or similar type of Entity), including by (i) the transfer of all of the assets of the Company, subject to the Company's liabilities, or the transfer of any portion of such assets and liabilities, to one or more Entities in exchange for shares (or similar ownership interests) of such Entity or Entities and the subsequent distribution of such shares (or similar ownership interests), at such time as the Manager may determine, to the Members on a pro rata basis, (ii) conversion of the Company into a corporation pursuant to §18-216 of the Act (or any successor section thereto) or conversion of the Company into another Entity, (iii) Transfer by each Member of Interests held by such Member to one or more Entities in exchange for shares (or similar ownership interests) of such Entity or Entities (including by merger of the Company into a corporation) or (iv) causing an Entity to be admitted as a member of the Company, with such Entity purchasing interests in the Company from the Company or the Members (as determined by the Manager) with the proceeds of a Public Offering of the Entity's stock (or similar ownership interests) and, in connection therewith, each Member agrees to the Transfer of its Interests in accordance with the terms of exchange as provided by the Manager and further agrees that as of the effective date of such exchange any Interest outstanding thereafter which shall not have been tendered for exchange shall represent only the right to receive a certificate representing the number of shares (or similar ownership interests) of such Entity or Entities as provided in the terms of such exchange.

(b) The Company shall pay any and all organizational, legal and accounting expenses and filing fees incurred in connection with such reorganization transaction.

(c) In connection with any such reorganization or change, subject to the terms of this Section VIII.2, no Member shall have the right or power to veto, vote for or against, amend, modify or delay any such reorganization or exchange. Further, each Member shall execute and deliver any documents and instruments and perform any additional acts that may be necessary or appropriate, as determined by the Manager, to effectuate and perform any such reorganization or change undertaken in accordance with the terms of this Section VIII.2.

Article IX POWER OF ATTORNEY

IX.1 Power of Attorney.

(a) Each Member hereby appoints the Manager or Liquidating Trustee applicable, through its Members, as such Member's attorney-in-fact, to execute and deliver all documents and instruments required to liquidate such Member's Interests as provided herein, or discharge any obligations of such Member under this Agreement or under the Act if such Member fails or refuses to comply with such obligations. This power of attorney is coupled with an interest, and as such (a) this power may not be revoked without the written Supermajority Approval of the Members; (b) this power does not terminate on the death or Disability of any Member; and (c) this power continues during the term of this Agreement, and thereafter, for so long as is reasonably necessary to discharge any of the obligations of the parties that arose prior to the Effective Date.

Article X RECORDS AND ACCOUNTING; REPORTS; FISCAL AFFAIRS

X.1 Records and Accounting.

(a) Proper and complete records and books of account of the business of the Company, including a list of the names, addresses and Interests of all Members, shall be maintained at the Company's principal place of business. Each Member and its duly authorized representatives shall be permitted for any purpose reasonably related to a Member's interest as a Member of the Company to inspect and review the books and records of the Company that are not required to be kept confidential pursuant to Applicable Law or in accordance with reasonable policies and procedures established by the Manager. For the avoidance of doubt, and without in any way diminishing the applicability of Section XII.9 to other provisions of this Agreement, any information provided to a Member pursuant to this Section X.1 is expressly made subject to Section XII.9.

(b) The books and records of the Company shall be kept in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied, or any successor accounting principles or standards adopted by the Financial Accounting Standards Board to govern preparation of financial reports by non-Governmental Entities (“GAAP”). The accrual basis of accounting shall be followed by the Company for federal income tax purposes. The taxable year of the Company shall be its Fiscal Year.

X.2 Annual Reports. The Manager shall cause to be delivered to each Person who was a Member at any time during the Fiscal Year annual financial statements with regard to the Company prepared in accordance with GAAP and audited by an independent auditor of national or regional standing (each, an “Annual Report”), which the Manager shall make commercially reasonable efforts to deliver within one hundred and fifty (150) days after the end of each Fiscal Year. Each such Annual Report shall contain financial statements of the Company, including, without limitation, a balance sheet as of the end of the Fiscal Year and statements of income, Members’ equity and cash flow for such Fiscal Year.

X.3 Tax Information. The Company intends to be, and shall be operated so as to be, classified as an association taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and, to the extent applicable, for state and local income tax purposes). The Manager shall cause the Company to prepare and file all information returns required of a corporation and to deliver to each Person who was a Member at any time during the relevant period any information statements required by Applicable Law. The Manager shall make commercially reasonable efforts to deliver any such recipient statements within the time periods required by Applicable Law.

X.4 Interim Reports. The Manager shall cause to be delivered to each Person who was a Member at any time during a Fiscal Quarter an internally prepared quarterly report with regard to the Company (each, a “Quarterly Report”), which the Manager shall make commercially reasonable efforts to deliver within sixty (60) days after the end of such quarter, beginning with the first full such Fiscal Quarter following the Effective Date. Each such Quarterly Report shall contain the following:

- (a) a balance sheet as of the end of the Fiscal Quarter and a year-to-date income statement; and
- (b) a report containing an overview of the Company acquisitions (if any).

X.5 Company Funds. Subject to any express limitations in this Agreement, the funds of the Company may be invested as determined by the Manager. No funds of the Company shall be kept in any account other than a Company account; and funds shall not be commingled with the funds of any other Person. Withdrawal from such accounts shall be made upon such signature(s) as the Manager may designate.

X.6 Elections. The determinations of the Manager with respect to the Company’s tax treatment for federal, state, or local tax purposes shall be binding upon all Members so long as such determinations are not inconsistent with any express term hereof. The Company and each Member agree to take all actions (and refrain from taking any actions) reasonably necessary to cause and maintain the Company's classification as an association taxable as a corporation under Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-3 for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and, to the extent applicable, for state and local income tax purposes), and not as a partnership or disregarded entity. The Company shall not make, and no Member shall request that the Company make, an election to be treated as an "S corporation" unless expressly approved by the Manager. The Manager may, in its discretion, cause the Company to make or refrain from making any elections available to corporations under the Code and Applicable Law (including, without limitation, elections with respect to methods of accounting, taxable year, and consolidated return filings, if applicable).

X.7 Tax Matters.

(a) The Manager (or such officer, employee, or agent as the Manager designates) shall act as the Company's tax administration officer with authority to represent the Company (at the Company's expense) in connection with all examinations and audits of the Company's tax affairs by any taxing authority, including any resulting administrative and judicial proceedings, and to engage advisors and expend Company funds for professional services and costs associated therewith. Any reasonable decision of the Manager or its designee with respect to the conduct and defense of any such proceeding that is made in compliance with this Section X.7 shall be final and binding on the Company and each Member. The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless the Manager and its designee for any liabilities and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in such capacities, provided that their actions were taken in good faith.

(b) The Members intend that the Company shall be classified and taxed as an association taxable as a corporation under Subchapter C of the Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and, to the extent applicable, for state and local income tax purposes). Accordingly, this Agreement shall be construed in a manner that ensures such corporate classification at all times. All decisions as to tax and accounting matters shall be made by the Manager in its reasonable discretion, including decisions regarding the Company's methods of accounting, taxable year, tax return positions, and any elections available to corporations under the Code and Applicable Law.

(c) Each Member agrees to furnish to the Company, upon request, such information and forms (including IRS Forms W-9 or W-8, as applicable) as the Manager reasonably determines are necessary for the Company to comply with its tax reporting and withholding obligations (including, without limitation, under Chapters 3 and 4 of the Code and any state or local equivalents). To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, any amounts withheld or paid by the Company with respect to amounts payable to a Member shall be treated as a distribution or advance to such Member for purposes of this Agreement.

(d) The Manager shall keep the Members reasonably informed of (i) material audits, examinations, or other administrative and judicial proceedings involving the Company's tax matters and (ii) the status of any such proceedings. Upon request to the Manager, each Member shall have the right to receive copies of material notices or correspondence from taxing authorities and the results of any such audits or proceedings, in each case to the extent relating to the Company.

(e) The obligations of each Member (or former Member) under this Section X.7 shall survive the Transfer by such Member of its Interest and the liquidation and termination of the Company.

XII.8 Reproduction of Documents. This Agreement and all documents relating thereto, including, without limitation, Consents, waivers, amendments and modifications which may hereafter be executed, and certificates and other information previously or hereafter furnished to any Member, may be reproduced by it by any digital, photographic, photostatic, or other similar process, and any Member may destroy any original document so reproduced. XII.9 Confidentiality. Each Member will maintain the confidentiality of information that is, to the knowledge of such Member, non-public information regarding the Company, including without limitation all materials prepared in connection with the offering and sale of Interests, unless consented to in writing by the Company, except as may be required by Applicable Law or any applicable rule of any stock exchange. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, a Member may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, (x) the tax treatment and tax structure hereof and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to any party relating to the tax treatment and tax structure hereof, and (y) any information that is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of the disclosure of such information by such Member or its Affiliates in breach of this Section XII.9.

XII.10 No Recourse. Each Member acknowledges that it will look solely to each other relevant Member for the performance of its respective covenants, agreements and obligations under this Agreement, not to any other Person, and that it shall have no recourse to any Affiliate of any Member in connection therewith; provided, however that nothing in this Section XII.10 is intended to, nor shall it be construed to, modify in any manner, the provisions of Section 5.8(a) of this Agreement as they relate to the liability of Covered Persons to the Company or the Members.

XII.11 Reserved.

XII.12 Mandatory Arbitration. Any controversy, dispute or claim arising out of or relating in any way to this Agreement, or the other agreements contemplated hereby or the transactions arising hereunder or thereunder, shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in Providence, Rhode Island in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association (the “AAA”). There shall be only one arbitrator, who shall be selected by the AAA. The fees and expenses of the AAA and the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties and advanced by them from time to time as required; provided that at the conclusion of the arbitration, the arbitrator shall award costs, expenses (including the costs of the arbitration previously advanced and the fees and expenses of attorneys, accountants and other experts) and interest to the prevailing party. The arbitrator shall permit and facilitate such discovery as they shall determine appropriate in the circumstances, taking into account the needs of the parties and the desirability of making discovery expeditious and cost effective. The parties shall keep confidential any proprietary information, trade secrets or other non-public information disclosed in discovery. The arbitrator shall render his or her award within 90 days of the conclusion of the arbitration hearing. The arbitrator shall be expressly empowered to award to either party any consequential damages, lost profits or punitive damages in connection with any dispute between them arising out of or relating in any way to this Agreement or the other agreements contemplated hereby or the transactions arising hereunder or thereunder, and each party hereby irrevocably waives any objection to the recovery by the other party hereto of such damages. The award rendered by the arbitrator shall be final and not subject to judicial review, and judgment thereon may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

XII.13 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be considered an original and together shall constitute a single agreement. As used herein, electronic signature means any electronic sound, symbol, or process attached to or logically associated with a record and executed and adopted by a party with the intent to sign such record, including facsimile, email, .pdf or DocuSign or other electronic signatures.

XII.14 Timing. XII.15 Survival. The rights and obligations of the Members pursuant to Sections IX.1, XII.1, XII.9, this Section XII.15, and Articles VI and VII of this Agreement, shall survive any dissolution of the Company for a period of two (2) years thereafter.

XII.16 Legal Counsel. Re: “Fackham Hall” (the “Picture”)/Co-financing and Marketing Agreement

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This agreement (“Agreement”) sets forth the terms agreed upon between Legion M Entertainment, Inc. (“LM Ent”) and Legion M Film Fund – 1099, LLC (“Film Fund”) pursuant to which the Film Fund shall co-finance and provide marketing support for LM Ent’s participation in the release of the motion picture “Fackham Hall” (“the Picture”) in the United States.

This Agreement is entered into with reference to the following facts:

- A. LM Ent has entered into a co-financing agreement with Bleecker Street Media LLC (“Bleecker”) dated as of October 28, 2025, as amended (the “Bleecker Agreement”), pursuant to which LM Ent agreed to co-finance and provide marketing support for Bleecker’s release of the Picture in the United States. Under the Bleecker Agreement, LM Ent committed a cash amount of $1,000,000 (the “LM Ent Cash Commitment”) plus marketing support.
- B. The Film Fund wishes to partially co-finance LM Ent’s commitment under the Bleecker Agreement and provide marketing support for the Picture.
- C. The parties acknowledge that LM Ent and the Film Fund are under common control, with overlapping officers and/or managers. The parties represent that the terms of this Agreement have been negotiated on an arm’s-length basis and reflect terms that would be agreed upon by unrelated parties in a similar transaction. Each party has had the opportunity to seek independent legal counsel in connection with the negotiation and execution of this Agreement.

Now, therefore, LM Ent and the Film Fund agree as follows:

1. Financing: The Film Fund shall provide a cash sum (the “Cash Amount”) of not less than $250,000 and not more than $1,000,000, the exact amount to be mutually agreed upon by the parties. The Film Fund shall pay the Cash Amount in accordance with a payment schedule to be mutually agreed upon by the parties which may include payments made from the Film Fund to LM Ent and/or payments made directly from the Film Fund to Bleecker.

2. Marketing Promotion. The Film Fund shall provide marketing support for the Picture including: providing meaningful consultation on marketing plans, strategies and budgets; providing approval over use of funds supplied by the Film Fund; marketing the Picture's release to members of the Film Fund; and providing Film Fund members with marketing materials that enable them to share the Picture within their respective networks and communities.

3. Application of Receipts.

(a) Pro Rata Distribution: All Gross Receipts received by LM Ent from Bleecker pursuant to the Bleecker Agreement shall be divided between LM Ent and the Film Fund on a pro rata basis, with the Film Fund receiving its Pro Rata Share of each such payment, until the Film Fund has received aggregate payments equal to the Recoupment Amount. After the Film Fund has received the full Recoupment Amount, all further Gross Receipts shall be retained by LM Ent.

(b) Accelerated Repayment Option: LM Ent shall have the option, in its sole discretion, to accelerate repayment to the Film Fund by providing the Film Fund with a share of Gross Receipts greater than the Pro Rata Share. In no event shall the aggregate amount of funds received by the Film Fund at any point in time be less than the amount that would have been received had all distributions been made strictly at the Pro Rata Share.

(c) Definitions: As used herein:

(i) "Gross Receipts" means all non-refundable monies actually received or credited to the account of LM Ent from Bleecker pursuant to the Bleecker Agreement attributable to LM Ent's share of the exploitation of the Picture.

(ii) The "Pro Rata Share" means a fraction, the numerator of which is the Cash Amount and the denominator of which is $1,000,000 (the LM Ent Cash Commitment).

(iii) The "Recoupment Amount" means the Cash Amount plus fifteen percent (15%) of the Cash Amount (i.e., one hundred fifteen percent (115%) of the Cash Amount).

4. Accountings.

(a) Payment Timing: LM Ent shall provide an accounting and/or payment to the Film Fund within thirty (30) days of LM Ent's receipt of an accounting and/or payment from Bleecker under the Bleecker Agreement.

(b) Intentionally Omitted

(c) Copies of Bleecker Accountings: LM Ent shall provide the Film Fund with copies of all accounting statements received by LM Ent from Bleecker under the Bleecker Agreement, concurrently with the delivery of each accounting and/or payment to the Film Fund pursuant to Section 4(a) above.

(d) Late Payment: If LM Ent fails to remit any payment due to the Film Fund within the thirty (30) day period set forth in Section 4(a) above, and such failure continues for ten (10) business days after written notice from the Film Fund, then interest shall accrue on the overdue amount at a per annum rate equal to the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal (or, if unavailable, a comparable published source) plus two percent (2%) (or the maximum rate permitted by applicable law, whichever is less) from the date such payment was due until the date of actual payment.

(e) Audit Rights: All statements shall be deemed binding and not subject to objection by the Film Fund for any reason if not disputed in writing by the Film Fund within two (2) years after the applicable statement is received. During the aforesaid two (2) year period, the Film Fund shall have the right at its expense to audit the books and records of LM Ent only as same pertain to exploitation of the Picture under this Agreement, not more than once annually and not more than once per statement or for more than thirty (30) consecutive days during each annual period, upon at least thirty (30) days prior notice. Such audit shall be conducted by an independent certified public accountant reasonably acceptable to LM Ent during LM Ent's normal business hours at LM Ent's regular place of business in the United States where it maintains the books and records to be examined. If any such audit discloses a discrepancy equal to 7.5% of Gross Receipts or more, and such discrepancy is uncontested by LM Ent or judicially determined as accurate, LM Ent shall pay the reasonable and customary cost of such audit (excluding any auditor travel expenses). No action shall be brought against LM Ent in connection with any accounting or payment hereunder unless the Film Fund has specifically objected, in a writing delivered to LM Ent, to the matter, item or transaction contained in any statement within the aforementioned two (2) year period, and further institutes and commences an action within six (6) months after delivery of such written objection.

5. Bleecker Agreement.

(a) Disclosure: LM Ent shall provide the Film Fund with a complete and accurate copy of the Bleecker Agreement (including all amendments, side letters and exhibits thereto) within ten (10) business days of the execution of this Agreement. LM Ent shall promptly provide the Film Fund with copies of any subsequent amendments or modifications to the Bleecker Agreement.

(b) No Adverse Modifications: LM Ent shall not amend, modify, supplement, or waive any provision of the Bleecker Agreement in any manner that would materially and adversely affect the Film Fund's rights or economic interest under this Agreement without the Film Fund's prior written consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, LM Ent may, acting in good faith and upon prompt notice to the Film Fund, make modifications to the Bleecker Agreement that LM Ent reasonably determines are necessary to preserve or enhance the overall value of the Bleecker relationship, provided that LM Ent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize any adverse impact on the Film Fund's economic interest hereunder.

(c) Enforcement: LM Ent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to enforce its rights under the Bleecker Agreement and to collect all amounts due thereunder. Prior to settling, compromising, or waiving any claim against Bleecker that would materially reduce the Gross Receipts, LM Ent shall consult with the Film Fund in good faith regarding the proposed resolution and shall give reasonable consideration to the Film Fund's views; provided, however, that LM Ent shall retain the right to make the final determination regarding any such settlement, compromise, or waiver if LM Ent reasonably determines such action is in the best interest of both parties.

(d) Most Favored Nation: LM Ent shall not enter into any co-financing, co-investment, or similar arrangement with any third party with respect to LM Ent's participation in the Picture on terms more favorable than those provided to the Film Fund under this Agreement without first offering the Film Fund the opportunity to participate on such more favorable terms.

6. Related Party Matters: The parties acknowledge the overlapping control described in Recital C above. In furtherance thereof: (a) to the extent any decision under this Agreement requires the exercise of judgment by a party and the same individual(s) serve in decision-making roles for both parties, such decision shall be made in good faith with due regard for the interests of the shareholders and/or members of each entity; and (b) material decisions made under Sections 5(b) and 5(c) shall be made with the aid of an independent manager or disinterested party and shall be documented in writing.

7. Term: This Agreement shall commence on the date first set forth above and shall continue in full force and effect until the earlier of: (i) the date on which the Film Fund has received the full Recoupment Amount; or (ii) the date on which LM Ent ceases to receive accountings or payments from Bleecker under the Bleecker Agreement. Upon the occurrence of either such event, LM Ent shall render a final accounting to the Film Fund within thirty (30) days. Following termination or expiration of this Agreement, the following provisions shall survive: Section 4(e) (Audit Rights, solely with respect to statements delivered prior to termination), Section 9 (Representations & Warranties and Indemnification), Section 10

(Limitation of Liability), Section 11 (Confidentiality), Section 12 (Choice of Laws), and any obligations with respect to amounts then due and owing.

8. Consultation. LM Ent shall grant the Film Fund a right of full and meaningful consultation over the budget for P&A Costs attributable to LM Ent's participation. In the event of a disagreement, LM Ent's decision shall control.

9. Representations & Warranties.

(a) The Film Fund represents and warrants that it has the right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder.

(b) LM Ent represents and warrants that: (i) it has the right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder; (ii) the Bleecker Agreement is in full force and effect and has not been terminated, and LM Ent is not in material breach or default thereunder; (iii) LM Ent has not assigned, pledged, encumbered, or otherwise transferred its rights under the Bleecker Agreement, nor has it granted any third party a lien, security interest, or other claim against LM Ent's rights to receive Gross Receipts thereunder; and (iv) there are no pending or, to LM Ent's actual knowledge without duty of inquiry, threatened claims, actions, or proceedings that would impair LM Ent's ability to receive Gross Receipts under the Bleecker Agreement or to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

(c) The Film Fund shall indemnify LM Ent and its licensees and assigns, from any third-party cost, expense, or liability (including reasonable outside attorney's fees) arising out of or in connection with any breach by the Film Fund of its warranties, representations, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement. LM Ent shall indemnify the Film Fund and its licensees and assigns from any third party cost, expense, or liability (including reasonable outside attorney's fees) arising out of or in connection with: (i) any breach by LM Ent of its warranties, representations, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement or (ii) from LM Ent's marketing, publicity, distribution and other exploitation of the Picture (or any element thereof). Each party shall control the defense of any claim with respect to which it is obliged to indemnify the other party.

10. Limitation of Liability: In no event shall either party be liable to the other party for any indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages arising out of or relating to this Agreement, regardless of whether such damages are based on contract, tort, strict liability, or any other theory, even if such party has been advised of the possibility of such damages. LM Ent's total aggregate liability to the Film Fund under this Agreement shall not exceed the Recoupment Amount.

11. Confidentiality: The terms of this Agreement shall be confidential except (i) where required by law, (ii) as necessary for the disclosing party to perform or enforce its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement, (iii) to shareholders, members, managers, attorneys, accountants, lenders, investors, agents and representatives in their capacity as such solely on a need to know basis and provided that any such recipients are informed of and agree to adhere to the confidentiality obligations set forth herein, or (iv) where such disclosure has been approved in writing by mutual consent of both parties.

12. Choice of Laws: This Agreement shall be governed by California law. Each party submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located in Los Angeles County, California.

13. No Equitable Relief: The sole remedy of the Film Fund for any breach of this Agreement by LM Ent shall be a judgment for money damages, if any. Under no circumstances shall the Film Fund have the right to rescind or terminate this Agreement or enjoin or otherwise interfere with Bleecker's exploitation of the Picture.

14. Miscellaneous: There is no guarantee, representation or warranty that there will be Gross Receipts or that the Film Fund will receive any payments hereunder, including the Recoupment Amount. The Film Fund's right to receive payments is contingent upon and limited to LM Ent's actual receipt of funds from Bleecker under the Bleecker Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, between the parties with respect thereto. All notices hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given by personal delivery, in which case notice may be facsimile or email (with a concurrent confirmation copy sent by overnight, registered or certified mail), overnight mail or by registered or certified U.S. mail. Until further notice, the addresses of the parties shall be as set forth above.

Please acknowledge your consent to the foregoing by signing in the space indicated below.

Sincerely yours,

Speaker 1

Every year, fantastic new films emerge with untapped potential, just looking for partners to help find their audience. Hi, everyone. I'm Paul Scanlan, I'm co-founder and CEO of Legion M. For the past several years, Legion M has been uniting a vibrant and engaged community to co-own a company and develop, finance and produce award winning films like "My Dead Friend Zoe," "William Shatner: You Can Call Me Bill," and "Fade to Black," which is now in post-production.

00:00:25:15 - 00:00:45:18

Speaker 1

That momentum and everything we've learned to date brings us to the next chapter of Legion M, the Legion M Film Fund, and our definitive expansion into distribution. Many experts say that the smartest time to invest in film is right before a movie is released. These are finished films fresh from festivals, with early reviews already showing signs of success.

00:00:45:20 - 00:00:55:11

Speaker 1

That's where Legion M comes in. We can step in as a distributor or alongside one of our distributor allies, provide the P & A release funding as the last money in and first money out, and then do what Legion M does better than anyone: We mobilize a community that can amplify a film's release in ways traditional financiers simply cannot.

00:00:55:17 - 00:01:03:20

Speaker 1

00:01:03:22 - 00:01:11:01

Speaker 1

That leverage allows us to do more than invest in a release. When we wrap our arms around, we can actually help tip the scale.

00:01:11:03 - 00:01:19:08

Speaker 1

This film fund is not about making risky bets. It is about smart, disciplined hits with returns designed to roll forward and compound over time.

00:01:19:10 - 00:01:27:18

Speaker 1

A way for us to grow our community, expand the Legion M library, help deserving films find their audience, and provide our community with even more stories to champion.

00:01:27:22 - 00:01:35:06

Speaker 1

So, if this sounds like fun to you, we invite you to learn more about the Legion M Film Fund and join us in this next chapter. Onward and upward.
