RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Securities involves a high degree of risk and may result in the loss of your entire investment. Before making an investment decision with respect to the Securities, we urge you to carefully consider the risks described in this section and other factors set forth in this Form C. The risks discussed below are not the only ones facing its business but do represent those risks that the Company believes are material to it. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to it or that the Company currently deems immaterial may also harm its business.

In addition to the risks specified below, the Company is subject to same risks that all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy, are exposed to. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events and technological developments (such as hacking and the ability to prevent hacking). Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently riskier than more developed companies. Prospective Investors should consult with their legal, tax and financial advisors prior to making an investment in the Securities. The Securities should only be purchased by persons who can afford to lose all of their investment.

Before investing, you should carefully read and carefully consider the following:

Risks Related to the Company's Business and Industry

A majority of the Issuer is owned by the Company's CEO and insiders and they will exercise voting control.

Prior to the Offering, Stu Levy, the CEO, Founder and Director of the Company, and other insiders and directors of the Company (collectively, the "Insiders"), beneficially own a majority of the voting shares of the Company. Subject to any fiduciary duties owed to other stockholders under California law, the Insiders may be able to exercise significant influence over matters requiring stockholder approval, including the election of directors and approval of significant Company transactions, and will have significant control over the Company's management and policies. The Insiders may have interests that are different from yours. For example, the Insiders may support proposals and actions with which you may disagree. The concentration of ownership could delay or prevent a change in control of the Company or otherwise discourage a potential acquirer from attempting to obtain control of the Company, which in turn could reduce the price potential investors are willing to pay for the Company. In addition, the Insiders could use their voting influence to maintain the Company's existing management, delay or prevent changes in control of the Company, issue additional securities which may dilute you, repurchase securities of the Company, enter into transactions with related parties or support or reject other management and board proposals that are subject to stockholder approval.

The amount of capital the Company is attempting to raise in this Offering may not be enough to sustain the Company's current business plan.

In order to achieve the Company's near and long-term goals, the Company may need to procure funds in addition to the amount raised in the Offering. There is no guarantee the Company will be able to raise such funds on acceptable terms or at all. If we are not able to raise sufficient capital in the future, we may not be able to execute our business plan, which could impact our business, financial condition or results of operations.

We may face potential difficulties in obtaining capital.

We may have difficulty raising the capital needed in the future as a result of, among other factors, our revenues from sales, as well as the inherent business risks associated with the Company and present and future market conditions. Additionally, our future sources of revenue may not be sufficient to meet our future capital requirements. As such, we may require additional funds to execute our business strategy and conduct our operations. If adequate funds are unavailable, we may be required to delay, reduce the scope of or eliminate one or more of our research, development or commercialization programs, product launches or marketing efforts, any of which may materially harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We may implement new lines of business or offer new products and services within existing lines of business.

We may implement new lines of business at any time. There are substantial risks and uncertainties associated with these efforts, particularly in instances where the markets are not fully developed. In developing and marketing new lines of business and/or new products and services, we may invest significant time and resources. Initial timetables for the introduction and development of new lines of business and/or new products or services may not be achieved, and price and profitability targets may not prove feasible. We may not be successful in introducing new products and services in response to industry trends or developments in technology, or those new products may not achieve market acceptance. As a result, we could lose business, be forced to price products and services on less advantageous terms to retain or attract clients or be subject to cost increases. As a result, our business, financial condition or results of operations may be adversely affected.

The Company's business plan is based on numerous assumptions and projections that may not prove accurate.

The Company's business plan and potential growth is based upon numerous assumptions. No assurance can be given regarding the attainability of the financial projections. The Company's ability to adhere to, and implement, its business plan will depend upon the Company's ability to successfully raise funds and a variety of other factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control. Likewise, management is not bound to follow the business plan and may elect to adopt other strategies based upon unanticipated opportunities, or changes in circumstances or market conditions. All financial projections contained in the business plan are based entirely upon management's assumptions and projections and should not be considered as a forecast of actual revenues or our liquidity. Actual operating results may be materially different.

Although the Company believes the assumptions upon which the Company's business and financial projections are based have reasonable bases, the Company cannot offer any assurance that its results of operations and growth will be as contemplated. If any of the assumptions upon which these opinions and projections are based prove to be inaccurate, including growth of the economy in general and trends in our industry, these opinions and projections could be adversely affected. Prospective investors should be aware that these opinions and other projections and predictions of future performance, whether included in the business plan, or previously or subsequently communicated to prospective investors, are based on certain assumptions which are highly speculative. Such projections or opinions are not (and should not be regarded as) a representation or warranty by the Company or any other person that the overall objectives of the Company will ever be achieved or that the Company will ever achieve significant revenues or profitability. These opinions, financial projections, and any other predictions of future performance should not be relied upon by potential investors in making an investment decision in regard to this Offering.

We rely on other companies to provide services for our products.

We depend on third-party vendors to meet our contractual obligations to our customers and to conduct our operations. Our ability to meet our obligations to our customers may be adversely affected if vendors do not provide the agreed-upon services in compliance with customer requirements and in a timely and cost-effective manner. Likewise, the quality of our services may be adversely impacted if companies to whom we delegate certain services do not perform to our, and our customers', expectations. Our vendors may also be unable to quickly recover from natural disasters and other events beyond their control and may be subject to additional risks such as financial problems that limit their ability to conduct their operations. The risk of these adverse effects may be greater in circumstances where we rely on only one or two vendors for a particular service.

We rely on various intellectual property rights, including trademarks, in order to operate our business.

The Company relies on certain intellectual property rights to operate its business. The Company's intellectual property rights may not be sufficiently broad or otherwise may not provide us a significant competitive advantage. In addition, the steps that we have taken to maintain and protect our intellectual property may not prevent it from being challenged, invalidated, circumvented or designed-around, particularly in countries where intellectual property rights are not highly developed or protected. In some circumstances, enforcement may not be available to us because an infringer has a dominant intellectual property position or for other business reasons, or countries may require compulsory licensing of our intellectual property. Our failure to obtain or maintain intellectual property rights that convey competitive advantage, adequately protect our intellectual property or detect or prevent circumvention or unauthorized use of such property, could adversely impact our competitive position and results of operations. We also rely on nondisclosure and noncompetition agreements with employees, consultants and other parties to protect, in part, trade secrets and other proprietary rights. There can be no assurance that these agreements will adequately protect our trade secrets and other proprietary rights and will not be breached, that we will have adequate remedies for any breach, that others will not independently develop substantially equivalent proprietary information or that third parties will not otherwise gain access to our trade secrets or other proprietary rights. As we expand our business, protecting our intellectual property will become increasingly important. The protective steps we have taken may be inadequate to deter our competitors from using our proprietary information. In order to protect or enforce our intellectual property rights, we may be required to initiate litigation against third parties, such as infringement lawsuits. Also, these third parties may assert claims against us with or without provocation. These lawsuits could be expensive, take significant time and could divert management's attention from other business concerns. We cannot assure you that we will prevail in any of these potential suits or that the damages or other remedies awarded, if any, would be commercially valuable.

The Company is reliant on certain key licensing partners.

The Company's business, in part, relies on certain key partners to provide licensed content for publication and distribution by the Company. In the event any of these agreements with key partners are not renewed, or the terms and conditions change which result in the termination of one or more of these licensing agreements, it would require the Company to obtain alternative licensed content. The Company does not believe the loss of a key licensing partner would cause a long-term disruption to its business, although it could cause significant short-term limitations or disruptions which could have a material adverse impact to the Company's revenues, financial results and business operations during a given period of time.

The Company's success depends on the experience and skill of its board of directors, executive officers and key personnel.

We are dependent on our board of directors, executive officers and key personnel. These individuals may not devote their full time and attention to the matters of the Company. The loss of all or any of our board of directors, executive officers and key personnel could harm the Company's business, financial condition, cash flow and results of operations.

Although dependent on certain key personnel, the Company does not have any key person life insurance policies on any such people.

We are dependent on certain key personnel in order to conduct our operations and execute our business plan, however, the Company has not purchased any insurance policies with respect to those individuals in the event of their death or disability. Therefore, if any of these personnel die or become disabled, the Company will not receive any compensation to assist with such person's absence. The loss of such person could negatively affect the Company and our operations. We have no way to guarantee key personnel will stay with the Company, as many states do not enforce non-competition agreements, and therefore acquiring key man insurance will not ameliorate all of the risk of relying on key personnel.

In order for the Company to compete and grow, it must attract, recruit, retain and develop the necessary personnel who have the needed experience.

Recruiting and retaining highly qualified personnel is critical to our success. These demands may require us to hire additional personnel and will require our existing management and other personnel to develop additional expertise. We face intense competition for personnel, making recruitment time-consuming and expensive. The failure to attract and retain personnel or to develop such expertise could delay or halt the development and commercialization of our product candidates. If we experience difficulties in hiring and retaining personnel in key positions, we could suffer from delays in product development, loss of customers and sales and diversion of management resources, which could adversely affect operating results. Our consultants and advisors may be employed by third parties and may have commitments under consulting or advisory contracts with third parties that may limit their availability to us, which could further delay or disrupt our product development and growth plans.

We need to rapidly and successfully develop and introduce new products in a competitive, demanding and rapidly changing environment.

To succeed in our competitive industry, we must continually improve, refresh and expand our product offerings to include newer features, functionality or solutions, and keep pace with changes in the industry. Shortened product life cycles due to changing customer demands and competitive pressures may impact the pace at which we must introduce new products or implement new functions or solutions. In addition, bringing new products or solutions to the market entails a costly and lengthy process, and requires us to accurately anticipate changing customer needs and trends. We must continue to respond to changing market demands and trends or our business operations may be adversely affected.

The development and commercialization of our products is highly competitive.

We face competition with respect to any products that we may seek to develop or commercialize in the future. Our competitors include major companies worldwide. Many of our competitors have significantly greater financial, technical and human resources than we have and superior expertise in research and development and marketing approved products and thus may be better equipped than us to develop and commercialize products. These competitors also compete with us in recruiting and retaining qualified personnel and acquiring technologies. Smaller or early stage companies may also prove to be significant competitors, particularly through collaborative arrangements with large and established companies. Accordingly, our competitors may commercialize products more rapidly or effectively than we are able to, which would adversely affect our competitive position, the likelihood that our products will achieve initial market acceptance, and our ability to generate meaningful additional revenues from our products.

If we are unsuccessful in adding customers, or if our customers decrease their level of engagement, our revenue, financial results, and business may be significantly harmed.

We are a media and publishing company focused on manga, anime-adjacent IP, and related licensing and brand activities. The amount of purchasers of our products, and our customers' level of engagement, will be critical to our success. Our financial performance will be significantly determined by our success in adding, retaining, and engaging active purchasers of our products offered. If customers do not perceive our products to be useful, reliable, and trustworthy, we may not be able to attract or retain customers or otherwise maintain or increase the frequency and duration of their engagement. There is no guarantee that we will not experience an erosion of our active customer base or engagement levels in the future.

We have not prepared any audited financial statements.

The financial statements attached as Exhibit H to this Form C have been "reviewed" only and such financial statements have not been verified with outside evidence as to management's amounts and disclosures. Additionally, tests on internal controls have not been conducted. Therefore, you will have no audited financial information regarding the Issuer's capitalization or assets or liabilities on which to make your investment decision.

Damage to our reputation could negatively impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our reputation and the quality of our brand are critical to our business and success in existing markets, and will be critical to our success as we enter new markets. Any incident that erodes consumer loyalty for our brand could significantly reduce its value and damage our business. We may be adversely affected by any negative publicity, regardless of its accuracy. Also, there has been a marked increase in the use of social media platforms and similar devices, including blogs, social media websites and other forms of internet-based communications that provide individuals with access to a broad audience of consumers and other interested persons. The availability of information on social media platforms is virtually immediate as is its impact. Information posted may be adverse to our interests or may be inaccurate, each of which may harm our performance, prospects or business. The harm may be immediate and may disseminate rapidly and broadly, without affording us an opportunity for redress or correction.

Our business could be negatively impacted by cyber security threats, attacks and other disruptions.

We may face advanced and persistent attacks on our information infrastructure where we manage and store various proprietary information and sensitive/confidential data relating to our operations. These attacks may include sophisticated malware (viruses, worms, and other malicious software programs) and phishing emails that attack our products or otherwise exploit any security vulnerabilities. These intrusions sometimes may be zero-day malware that are difficult to identify because they are not included in the signature set of commercially available antivirus scanning programs. Experienced computer programmers and hackers may be able to penetrate our network security and misappropriate or compromise our confidential information or that of our customers or other third parties, create system disruptions, or cause shutdowns. Additionally, sophisticated software and applications that we produce or procure from third parties may contain defects in design or manufacture, including “bugs” and other problems that could unexpectedly interfere with the operation of the information infrastructure. A disruption, infiltration or failure of our information infrastructure systems or any of our data centers as a result of software or hardware malfunctions, computer viruses, cyber-attacks, employee theft or misuse, power disruptions, natural disasters or accidents could cause breaches of data security, loss of critical data and performance delays, which in turn could adversely affect our business.

Security breaches of confidential customer information, or confidential employee information may adversely affect our business.

Our business requires the collection, transmission and retention of personally identifiable information, in various information technology systems that we maintain and in those maintained by third parties with whom we contract to provide services. The integrity and protection of that data is critical to us. The information, security and privacy requirements imposed by governmental regulation are increasingly demanding. Our systems may not be able to satisfy these changing requirements and customer and employee expectations or may require significant additional investments or time in order to do so. A breach in the security of our information technology systems or those of our service providers could lead to an interruption in the operation of our systems, resulting in operational inefficiencies and a loss of profits. Additionally, a significant theft, loss or misappropriation of, or access to, customers’ or other proprietary data or other breach of our information technology systems could result in fines, legal claims or proceedings.

The use of individually identifiable data by our business, our business associates and third parties is regulated at the state, federal and international levels.

The regulation of individual data is changing rapidly, and in unpredictable ways. A change in regulation could adversely affect our business, including causing our business model to no longer be viable. Costs associated with information security – such as investment in technology, the costs of compliance with consumer protection laws and costs resulting from consumer fraud – could cause our business and results of operations to suffer materially. Additionally, the success of our online operations depends upon the secure transmission of confidential information over public networks, including the use of cashless payments. The intentional or negligent actions of employees, business associates or third parties may undermine our security measures. As a result, unauthorized parties may obtain access to our data systems and misappropriate confidential data. There can be no assurance that advances in computer capabilities, new discoveries in the field of cryptography or other developments will prevent the compromise of our customer transaction processing capabilities and personal data. If any such compromise of our security or the security of information residing with our business associates or third parties were to occur, it could have a material adverse effect on our reputation, operating results and financial condition. Any compromise of our data security may materially increase the costs we incur to protect against such breaches and could subject us to additional legal risk.

The Company is not subject to Sarbanes-Oxley regulations and may lack the financial controls and procedures of public companies.

The Company may not have the internal control infrastructure that would meet the standards of a public company, including the requirements of the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002. As a privately held (non-public) issuer, the Company is currently not subject to the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002, and its financial and disclosure controls and procedures reflect its status as a development stage, non-public company. There can be no guarantee that there are no significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the quality of the Company's financial and disclosure controls and procedures. If it were necessary to implement such financial and disclosure controls and procedures, the cost to the Company of such compliance could be substantial and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations.

Changes in federal, state or local laws and government regulation could adversely impact our business.

The Company is subject to legislation and regulation at the federal, state and local levels. New laws and regulations may impose new and significant disclosure obligations and other operational, marketing and compliance-related obligations and requirements, which may lead to additional costs, risks of non-compliance, and diversion of our management's time and attention from strategic initiatives. Additionally, federal, state and local legislators or regulators may change current laws or regulations which could adversely impact our business. Further, court actions or regulatory proceedings could also change our rights and obligations under applicable federal, state and local laws, which cannot be predicted. Modifications to existing requirements or imposition of new requirements or limitations could have an adverse impact on our business.

We operate in a regulated environment, and if we are found to be in violation of any of the federal, state, or local laws or regulations applicable to us, our business could suffer.

We are subject to a wide range of federal, state, and local laws and regulations. The violation of these or future requirements or laws and regulations could result in administrative, civil, or criminal sanctions against us, which may include fines, a cease-and-desist order against the subject operations or even revocation or suspension of our license to operate the subject business. As a result, we may incur capital and operating expenditures and other costs to comply with these requirements and laws and regulations.

Changes in employment laws or regulation could harm our performance.

Various federal and state labor laws govern our relationship with our employees and affect operating costs. These laws include minimum wage requirements, overtime pay, healthcare reform and the implementation of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, unemployment tax rates, workers' compensation rates, citizenship requirements, union membership and sales taxes. A number of factors could adversely affect our operating results, including additional government-imposed increases in minimum wages, overtime pay, paid leaves of absence and mandated health benefits, mandated training for employees, changing regulations from the National Labor Relations Board and increased employee litigation including claims relating to the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Global crises and geopolitical events, including without limitation, COVID-19, can have a significant effect on our business operations and revenue projections.

A significant outbreak of contagious diseases, such as COVID-19, in the human population could result in a widespread health crisis. Additionally, geopolitical events, such as wars or conflicts, could result in global disruptions to supplies, political uncertainty and displacement. Each of these crises could adversely affect the economies and financial markets of many countries, including the United States where we principally operate, resulting in an economic downturn that could reduce the demand for our products and services and impair our business prospects, including as a result of being unable to raise additional capital on acceptable terms, if at all.

Risks Related to the Offering

State and federal securities laws are complex, and the Company could potentially be found to have not complied with all relevant state and federal securities law in prior offerings of securities.

The Company has conducted previous offerings of securities and may not have complied with all relevant state and federal securities laws. If a court or regulatory body with the required jurisdiction ever concluded that the Company may have violated state or federal securities laws, any such violation could result in the Company being required to offer rescission rights to investors in such offering. If such investors exercised their rescission rights, the Company would have to pay to such investors an amount of funds equal to the purchase price paid by such investors plus interest from the date of any such purchase. No assurances can be given the Company will, if it is required to offer such investors a rescission right, have sufficient funds to pay the prior investors the amounts required or that proceeds from this Offering would not be used to pay such amounts.

In addition, if the Company violated federal or state securities laws in connection with a prior offering and/or sale of its securities, federal or state regulators could bring an enforcement, regulatory and/or other legal action against the Company which, among other things, could result in the Company having to pay substantial fines and be prohibited from selling securities in the future.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of the Securities or the terms of the Offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any Offering document or literature.

You should not rely on the fact that our Form C is accessible through the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's EDGAR filing system as an approval, endorsement or guarantee of compliance as it relates to this Offering. The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not reviewed this Form C, nor any document or literature related to this Offering.

Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws.

No governmental agency has reviewed or passed upon this Offering or the Securities. Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws. Investors will not receive any of the benefits available in registered offerings, which may include access to quarterly and annual financial statements that have been audited by an independent accounting firm. Investors must therefore assess the adequacy of disclosure and the fairness of the terms of this Offering based on the information provided in this Form C and the accompanying exhibits.

The Securities are offered on a "Best Efforts" basis, and the Company may not raise the maximum amount being offered.

Since the Company is offering the Securities on a "best efforts" basis, there is no assurance that the Company will sell enough Securities to meet its capital needs. If you purchase Securities in this Offering, you will do so without any assurance that the Company will raise enough money to satisfy the full Use of Proceeds which the Company has outlined in this Form C or to meet the Company's working capital needs.

The Company's management may have broad discretion in how the Company uses the net proceeds of the Offering.

Unless the Company has agreed to a specific use of the proceeds from the Offering, the Company's management will have considerable discretion over the use of proceeds from the Offering. As is the case with any business, particularly one without a proven business model, it should be expected that certain expenses unforeseeable to management at this juncture will arise in the future. There can be no assurance that management's use of proceeds generated through this Offering will prove optimal or translate into revenue or profitability for the Company. You are urged to review the Use of Proceeds in this Offering Statement but to understand that the actual use of the net proceeds of this Offering may vary significantly. In all cases, you should consult with their attorneys, accountants and personal investment advisors prior to making any decision to invest in the Company. You may not have the opportunity, as part of your investment decision, to assess whether the proceeds are being used appropriately.

The Intermediary Fees paid by the Company are subject to change depending on the success of the Offering.

At the conclusion of the Offering, the Company shall pay the Intermediary a fee of eight and one-half percent (8.5%) of the dollar amount raised in the Offering. The compensation paid by the Company to the Intermediary may impact how the Company uses the net proceeds of the Offering.

The Company has the right to limit individual Investor commitment amounts based on the Company's determination of an Investor's sophistication.

The Company may prevent any Investor from committing more than a certain amount in this Offering based on the Company's determination of the Investor's sophistication and ability to assume the risk of the investment. This means that your desired investment amount may be limited or lowered based solely on the Company's determination and not in line with relevant investment limits set forth by the Regulation CF rules. This also means that other Investors may receive larger allocations of the Offering based solely on the Company's determination.

The Company has the right to extend the Offering Deadline and/or increase the Maximum Offering Amount.

The Company may extend the Offering Deadline and/or increase the Maximum Offering Amount beyond what is currently stated herein. For an extension of the Offering Deadline, this means that your investment may continue to be held in escrow while the Company attempts to raise the Target Offering Amount even after the Offering Deadline stated herein is reached. While you have the right to cancel your investment in the event the Company extends the Offering Deadline, if you choose to reconfirm your investment, your investment will not be accruing interest during this time and will simply be held until such time as the new Offering Deadline is reached without the Company receiving the Target Offering Amount, at which time it will be returned to you without interest or deduction, or the Company receives the Target Offering Amount, at which time it will be released to the Company to be used as set forth herein. Upon or shortly after the release of such funds to the Company, the Securities will be issued and distributed to you. For an increase in the Maximum Offering Amount, this means that additional amounts may be raised by the Company which would also increase the number of shares outstanding and dilute shareholders.

The Company may also end the Offering early.

If the Target Offering Amount is met after 21 calendar days, but before the Offering Deadline, the Company can end the Offering by providing notice to Investors at least 5 business days prior to the end of the Offering. This means your failure to participate in the Offering in a timely manner, may prevent you from being able to invest in this Offering – it also means the Company may limit the amount of capital it can raise during the Offering by ending the Offering early.

The Company has the right to conduct multiple closings during the Offering.

If the Company meets certain terms and conditions, an intermediate close (also known as a rolling close) of the Offering can occur, which will allow the Company to draw down on Investor proceeds committed and captured in the Offering during the relevant period. The Company may choose to continue the Offering thereafter. Investors should be mindful that this means they can make multiple investment commitments in the Offering, which may be subject to different cancellation rights. For example, if an intermediate close occurs and later a material change occurs as the Offering continues, Investors whose investment commitments were previously closed upon will not have the right to re-confirm their investment as it will be deemed to have been completed prior to the material change.

Risks Related to the Securities

You will not be investing directly into the Company, but into a special purpose vehicle.

Changes to the securities laws that went into effect March 15, 2021, permit us to use a “special purpose vehicle” or “SPV” in this Offering. That means that you will invest in TOKYOPOP Investor Holdings, LLC, becoming a member of the SPV, and that investment purchases our Class B Common Stock. A condition to using an SPV is that the SPV passes on the same economic and governance rights that are set out in the Company’s Articles of Incorporation, as amended, regarding the Class B Common Stock. You will also be relying on us, as the Manager of the SPV, to make sure the SPV complies with Delaware law and functions in accordance with securities law. The structure of the SPV is explained further in the section entitled, “CAPITALIZATION AND OWNERSHIP”. The SPV will terminate and distribute the securities it holds to you, so that you may hold them directly, in certain circumstances. Due to this structure, there may be delays, complications and unexpected risks.

An investment in the Company's Securities could result in a loss of your entire investment.

An investment in the Company's Securities offered in this Offering involves a high degree of risk and you should not purchase the Securities if you cannot afford the loss of your entire investment. You may not be able to liquidate your investment for any reason in the near future.

The Securities will not be freely tradable under the Securities Act until one year from the initial purchase date. Although the Securities may be tradable under federal securities law, state securities regulations may apply, and each Investor should consult with their attorney.

You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. There is not now and may never be a public market for the Securities. Because the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction, the Securities have transfer restrictions and cannot be resold in the United States except pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation CF. It is not currently contemplated that registration under the Securities Act or other securities laws will be effected. Limitations on the transfer of the Securities may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the Securities in a private sale. In addition, even if a trading market develops, there is absolutely no assurance that the Securities could be sold under Rule 144 or otherwise unless the Company becomes a current public reporting company with the Securities and Exchange Commission and otherwise is current in the Company's business, financial and management information reporting, and applicable holding periods have been satisfied. Investors should be aware of the long-term nature of their investment in the Company. Each Investor in this Offering will be required to represent that they are purchasing the Securities for their own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof.

The securities in this Offering have no protective provisions.

The Securities in this Offering have no protective provisions. As such, you will not be afforded protection, by any provision of the Securities or as a shareholder, in the event of a transaction that may adversely affect you, including a reorganization, restructuring, merger or other similar transaction involving the Company. If there is a liquidation event, or change of control for the Company, the Securities being offered do not provide you with any protection. In addition, there are no provisions attached to the Securities in the Offering that would permit you to require the Company to repurchase the Securities in the event of a takeover, recapitalization or similar transaction involving the Company.

Investors will not have voting rights.

Investors in the Securities will not have voting rights. Thus, Investors will never be able to vote upon any matters of the Company. As such, Investors will not have any influence over matters requiring stockholder approval, including the election of directors or managers and approval of significant Company transactions, nor the Company's management and policies. Moreover, those with voting rights could use their voting influence to maintain the Company's existing management, delay or prevent changes in control of the Company, issue additional securities which may dilute you, repurchase securities of the Company, enter into transactions with related parties or support or reject other management and board proposals. Additionally, investors in the Co-Issuer will indirectly hold only Class B Common Stock and are completely passive investors. As such, Investors should not purchase the Securities if they are not comfortable with this lack of voting and control.

Investors will not be entitled to any inspection or information rights other than those required by law.

Investors will not have the right to inspect the books and records of the Company or to receive financial or other information from the Company, other than as required by law. Other security holders of the Company may have such rights. Regulation CF requires only the provision of an annual report on Form C and no additional information. Additionally, there are numerous methods by which the Company can terminate annual report obligations, resulting in no information rights, contractual, statutory or otherwise, owed to Investors. This lack of information could put Investors at a disadvantage in general and with respect to other security holders, including certain security holders who have rights to periodic financial statements and updates from the Company such as quarterly unaudited financials, annual projections and budgets, and monthly progress reports, among other things.

The Securities may be significantly diluted as a consequence of subsequent equity financings.

The Company's equity securities will be subject to dilution. The Company intends to issue additional equity to employees and third-party financing sources in amounts that are uncertain at this time, and as a consequence holders of the Securities will be subject to dilution in an unpredictable amount. Such dilution may reduce the Investor's control and economic interests in the Company.

The amount of additional financing needed by the Company will depend upon several contingencies not foreseen at the time of this Offering. Generally, additional financing (whether in the form of loans or the issuance of other securities) will be intended to provide the Company with enough capital to reach the next major corporate milestone. If the funds received in any additional financing are not sufficient to meet the Company's needs, the Company may have to raise additional capital at a price unfavorable to their existing investors, including the holders of the Securities. The availability of capital is at least partially a function of capital market conditions that are beyond the control of the Company. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to accurately predict the future capital requirements necessary for success or that additional funds will be available from any source. Failure to obtain financing on favorable terms could dilute or otherwise severely impair the value of the Securities.

Our valuation and our offering price have been established internally and are difficult to assess.

The Offering price was not established in a competitive market. We have arbitrarily set the price of the Securities with reference to the general status of the securities market and other relevant factors. The Offering price for the Securities should not be considered an indication of the actual value of the Securities and is not based on our asset value, net worth, revenues or other established criteria of value. The Company has set the price of its Class B Common Stock at $5.00 per share plus a 3.0% Investor Processing Fee (see “Offering” for further details on this fee). The Investor Processing Fee is intended to offset transaction costs and, though this fee is counted towards the amount the Company is seeking to raise under Regulation Crowdfunding and the limit each investor may invest pursuant to Regulation Crowdfunding, we did not value it in determining our valuation. Including this fee will increase our valuation for which you are paying for shares in our Company accordingly. Valuations for companies at this stage are generally purely speculative. Our valuation has not been validated by any independent third party and may decrease precipitously in the future. It is a question of whether you, the investor, are willing to pay this price for a percentage ownership of an early-stage company. We cannot guarantee that the Securities can be resold at the Offering price or at any other price.

The Investor Processing Fee may not count toward your cost basis for tax purposes.

The IRS and/or another relevant tax authority may consider the price of the Class B Common Stock before including the Investor Processing Fee as the cost basis for determining any gain or loss at a realization event. You should discuss with your tax advisor the appropriate way to determine the relevant tax obligation.

There is no guarantee of a return on an Investor’s investment.

There is no assurance that an Investor will realize a return on their investment or that they will not lose their entire investment. For this reason, each Investor should read this Form C and all Exhibits carefully and should consult with their attorney and business advisor prior to making any investment decision.

IN ADDITION TO THE RISKS LISTED ABOVE, RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES NOT PRESENTLY KNOWN, OR WHICH WE CONSIDER IMMATERIAL AS OF THE DATE OF THIS FORM C, MAY ALSO HAVE AN ADVERSE EFFECT ON OUR BUSINESS AND RESULT IN THE TOTAL LOSS OF YOUR INVESTMENT.

The rights of the Class B Common Stock may be changed by an amendment to the Company’s Bylaws or the Articles of Incorporation, and amendments thereto. Investors do not have the right to vote on any such amendment.

In addition to the Subscription Agreement with the Co-Issuer and the Co-Issuer’s Operating Agreement, the primary Company documents governing voting and the rights of the Securities are the Company’s Articles of Incorporation, and amendments thereto (collectively, the “AOI”) attached as Exhibit E, the Company’s Bylaws (the “Bylaws”) attached as Exhibit F, together with the AOI, the “Company Governing Documents”). All statements in this Form C Offering Statement regarding voting and control of the Securities being sold in this Offering are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Company Governing Documents, which are each attached as Exhibits to this Form C.

The shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding have superior voting rights to the Securities being sold in this Offering.

Capitalization

The following description summarizes the most important terms of the Company's capital stock. This summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the provisions of our Articles of Incorporation, as amended. For a complete description of our capital stock, you should refer to our Articles of Incorporation, and amendments thereto, and to the applicable provisions of California law.

On or about March 18, 2026, the Company submitted for filing an Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, which is included in Exhibit E hereto. As a result, the total number of shares that the Company is authorized to issue is 20,000,000 shares, consisting of (a) 15,000,000 shares of common stock, having no par value per share (the "Common Stock"), and (b) 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, having no par value per share (the "Preferred Stock"). Of the authorized Common Stock, (i) 12,000,000 shares are designated as Class A Common Stock (the "Class A Common Stock") and 3,000,000 shares are designated as Class B Common Stock (the "Class B Common Stock"). In connection with the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, all outstanding Common Stock as of such date were converted into Class A Common Stock on a one share of Common Stock to 1.40 shares of Class A Common Stock basis. Except with respect to voting rights, all shares of Common Stock are identical and entitle the holders to the same rights and privileges. No classes of Preferred Stock have been designated at this time.

Additionally, the Issuer has established the 2026 Equity Incentive Plan for which 1,500,000 shares of Class A Common Stock are authorized for issuance thereunder. The Company also has established a 2026 Phantom Stock Plan. The Phantom Stock Units pay vested recipients only upon a liquidity event (as defined in the 2026 Phantom Stock Plan) based on the price per share of the Class A Common Stock paid to stockholders of the Company as a result of such liquidity event.

As of the date of this Form C, 8,931,896 shares of Class A Common Stock are deemed issued and outstanding. There are no shares of Class B Common Stock and Preferred Stock issued and outstanding. Additionally, the Issuer has not issued any awards under the 2026 Equity Incentive Plan and all shares remain authorized for issuance thereunder. Further, no Phantom Stock Units have been issued under the 2026 Phantom Stock Plan.

Concurrently with this Offering, the Company intends to launch a Regulation D, Rule 506(c) private placement to accredited investors for larger investments in the Company. This private raise will be for Class B Common Stock and on different pricing terms than this Offering that will vary based on the amount invested. If consummated, this private capital raise will result in dilution to Investors, although the Company does not anticipate raising more than $10,000,000 in the combined Regulation CF and Regulation D offering. There is no guarantee that such private capital raise will raise all or a portion of the additional investment the Company is seeking.

Outstanding Capital Stock

As of the date of this Form C, the Company's outstanding capital stock consists of:

Type	Class A Common Stock
Amount Outstanding	8,931,896
Par Value Per Share	None
Voting Rights	One (1) vote per share
Anti-Dilution Rights	None
How this security may limit, dilute or qualify the Security issued pursuant to Regulation CF	The Company may issue additional shares of Class A Common Stock at a later date. The issuance of such additional shares of Class A Common Stock would be dilutive, and could adversely affect the value of the Securities issued pursuant to Regulation CF.
Percentage ownership of the Company by the holders of such security.	100%

Outstanding Options, Safes, Convertible Notes, Warrants

As of the date of this Form C, the Company does not have any outstanding Options, Safes, Convertible Notes or Warrants.

Voting and Control

Except as required by applicable law, each outstanding share of Class B Common Stock shall not be entitled to vote on any matter on which the stockholders of the Company shall be entitled to vote, and shares of Class B Common Stock shall not be included in determining the number of shares voting or entitled to vote on any such matters. As a result of purchasing Securities in this Offering, the Investors will have no voting or control over any corporate matters of the Company, including additional issuance of securities, Company repurchase of securities, a sale of the Company or its significant assets, or Company transactions with related parties. Investors in the Co-Issuer will indirectly hold only the Securities (the Class B Common Stock) and are completely passive investors. Investors should not purchase the Securities if they are not comfortable with this lack of voting and control.

Dilution

The Securities do not have anti-dilution rights, which means that future equity issuances and other events will dilute the ownership percentage that Investors may eventually have in the Company. Investors should understand and expect the potential for dilution. The Investor's stake in the Company could be diluted due to the Company issuing additional shares of stock or other convertible securities to other parties. In other words, when the Company issues more shares, the percentage of the Company that you own will go down, even though the value of the Company may go up (there is no guarantee that it will). You will own a smaller piece of a larger Company (or, if the value goes down, then a smaller piece of a smaller company). This increase in number of shares outstanding could result from a stock offering (such as an initial public offering, another crowdfunding round, a venture capital round or angel investment), employees exercising stock options, or by conversion of certain instruments (e.g. convertible bonds, preferred shares or warrants) into stock. If the Company decides to issue more shares, an investor could experience value dilution, with each share being worth less than before, and control dilution, with the total percentage an investor owns being less than before. There may also be earnings dilution, with a reduction in the amount earned

What it Means to be a Minority Holder

Investors in our Class B Common Stock, which do not provide for voting rights, will not have any rights in regard to the corporate actions of the Company, including additional issuances of securities, Company repurchases of securities, a sale of the Company or its significant assets, or Company transactions with related parties.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Please see the financial information listed on the cover page of this Form C and attached hereto in addition to the following information. Financial statements are attached hereto as Exhibit H.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

As of February 28, 2026, the Company had an aggregate of approximately $1,084,720 in cash and cash equivalents. The Company is profitable and has sufficient capital to operate.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The proceeds from the Offering are essential to our operations. We plan to use the proceeds as set forth above under the section titled “Use of Proceeds”, which is an indispensable element of our business strategy.

Concurrently with this Offering, the Company intends to launch a Regulation D, Rule 506(c) private placement to accredited investors for larger investments in the Company. This private raise will be for Class B Common Stock and on different pricing terms than this Offering which will vary based on the amount invested. If consummated, this private capital raise will result in dilution to Investors, although the Company does not anticipate raising more than $10,000,000 in the combined Regulation CF and Regulation D offering. There is no guarantee that such private capital raise will raise all or a portion of the additional investment the Company is seeking.

In addition to the Offering and the private Regulation D mentioned above, the Company may raise additional capital from strategic investors by offering to sell securities, including, but not limited to, Preferred Stock, Class A Common Stock, Class B Common Stock, SAFEs or Convertible Notes, outside of this Offering.

Other than capital from existing operations, the Company does not have any additional sources of capital other than the proceeds from the Offering.

Capital Expenditures and Other Obligations

The Company does not intend to make any material capital expenditures in the near future.

Valuation

The terms of this Offering are based on a pre-money fully diluted valuation of $44,659,480 using the current outstanding shares of the Company. The Securities are priced arbitrarily and the Company makes no representations as to the reasonableness of any specified valuation.

Trends and Uncertainties

After reviewing the above discussion of the steps the Company intends to take, potential Investors should consider whether achievement of each step within the estimated time frame will be realistic in their judgment. Potential Investors should also assess the consequences to the Company of any delays in taking these steps and whether the Company will need additional financing to accomplish them.

Please see the financial statements attached as Exhibit H for subsequent events and applicable disclosures.

PROBLEM

Anime & Manga is a $60B+ Market With a Broken IP Pipeline¹

Before the anime hit Demon Slayer became a $700M+ global box-office draw, it was introduced to Japanese manga fans in a specialty weekly magazine. Nowadays, great stories can be posted anywhere online by anyone. But the more stories told, the harder it becomes to find and grow the best ones. Despite global anime and manga markets predicted to exceed $60B by 2030, few companies can scale promising manga IP into lasting, multi-format franchises.

Why Invest in TOKYOPOP

POSITIONED WHERE GLOBAL FRANCHISES BEGIN

A PROVEN PLATFORM, NOT A STARTUP

...most valuable phase of the entertainment lifecycle.

the infrastructure most companies are still trying to create.

THE TOKYOPOP IP ENGINE

Our IP Engine integrates publishing, anime, merchandise, and live experiences into a coordinated global platform. Instead of fragmented monetization, we develop each property across all revenue pillars, unlocking greater long-term franchise value.

INDEPENDENT AND GLOBALLY CONNECTED

TOKYOPOP is one of the few independent operators with deep relationships across Japanese publishers, global distributors, and international markets. Our independence allows us to partner flexibly and scale IP across regions without constraint.

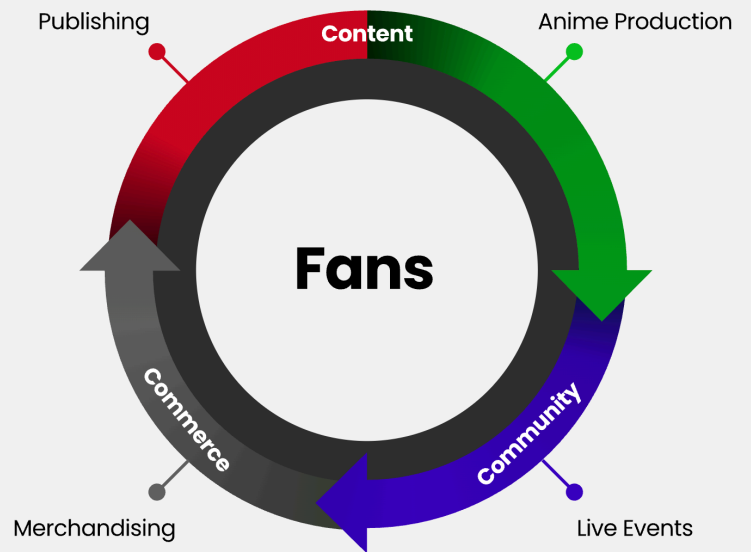

Why Now

Our IP Engine integrates publishing, anime, merchandise, and live experiences into a coordinated global platform. Instead of fragmented monetization, we develop each property across all revenue pillars, unlocking greater long-term franchise value.

SOLUTION

The Engine Bringing the Best IP Across Formats

Our expertise and established network creates an IP Engine driving content across publishing, anime production, live events, and merchandising. In the TOKYOPOP IP Engine, each format feeds into the next. Great content builds a loyal community of fans. That passionate community creates monetization opportunities across verticals. EXPANSION

Our Strategy to Pursue up to $50M in Annual Revenue by 2030

Your investment helps strengthen and expand the TOKYOPOP IP Engine, deepen fan engagement, and scale proven opportunities from the earliest stage of franchise creation. We are targeting approximately 3x growth in annual revenue by 2030 by:

Reinforcing publishing-led foundation through IP development & marketing

Scaling into merchandise, animation, and events based on fan-proven demand

Collaborating with partners to deepen reach and extend capabilities

Expanding globally through multi-format and multi-region growth

Launching fan experiences in underserved but high-interest markets

Growing our team and infrastructure to support long-term scalability

The Anime & Manga Markets Are Predicted to Nearly Double by 2030

And since 2020, the majority of this growth has come from outside Japan.³ It's been a steep upward trajectory, too. In 2017, the industry-leading streaming platform Crunchyroll had 1 million subscribers. By 2024, their user base had grown 15X, emblematic of the flood of new interest entering the market.⁴ Best of all, fan interest directly translates to monetizable verticals, with the market for anime merchandise alone worth $12B in 2025.⁵

Equity crowdfunding investments in private placements, and start-up investments in particular, are speculative and involve a high degree of risk and those investors who cannot afford to lose their entire investment should not invest in start-ups. Companies seeking startup investment through equity crowdfunding tend to be in earlier stages of development and their business model, products and services may not yet be fully developed, operational or tested in the public marketplace. There is no guarantee that the stated valuation and other terms are accurate or in agreement with the market or industry valuations. Further, investors may receive illiquid and/or restricted stock that may be subject to holding period requirements and/or liquidity concerns.

(e) No Filings. Assuming the accuracy of the Subscriber's representations and warranties set forth in Section 4 hereof, no order, license, consent, authorization or approval of, or exemption by, or action by or in respect of, or notice to, or filing or registration with, any governmental body, agency or official is required by or with respect to the Company in connection with the execution, delivery and performance by the Company and Crowdfunding Issuer of this Subscription Agreement except (i) for such filings as may be required under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act or the rules promulgated thereunder or under any applicable state securities laws, (ii) for such other filings and approvals as have been made or obtained, or (iii) where the failure to obtain any such order, license, consent, authorization, approval or exemption or give any such notice or make any filing or registration would not have a material adverse effect on the ability of the Company to perform its obligations hereunder.

(f) Financial Statements. Complete copies of the Crowdfunding Issuer's financial statements consisting of the reviewed balance sheet of the Crowdfunding Issuer for the years ended December 31,

2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, and the related statements of operations, changes in member's deficit and cash flows at December 31, 2024 and December 31, 2023 (the "Financial Statements") have been made available to the Subscriber and appear in the Offering Statement and on the site of the Intermediary. The Financial Statements are based on the books and records of the Crowdfunding Issuer and fairly present the financial condition of the Crowdfunding Issuer as of the date they were prepared and the results of the operations and cash flows of the Crowdfunding Issuer for the periods indicated. 5. Representations and Warranties of Subscriber. By executing this Subscription Agreement, Subscriber (and, if Subscriber is purchasing the Securities subscribed for hereby in a fiduciary capacity, the person or persons for whom Subscriber is so purchasing) represents and warrants, which representations and warranties are true and complete in all material respects as of the date of the Subscriber's Closing Date(s):

(a) Requisite Power and Authority. Such Subscriber has all necessary power and authority under all applicable provisions of law to execute and deliver this Subscription Agreement, the Operating Agreement and other agreements required hereunder and to carry out their provisions. All action on Subscriber's part required for the lawful execution and delivery of this Subscription Agreement and other agreements required hereunder have been or will be effectively taken prior to the Closing. Upon their execution and delivery, this Subscription Agreement and other agreements required hereunder will be valid and binding obligations of Subscriber, enforceable in accordance with their terms, except (a) as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other laws of general application affecting enforcement of creditors' rights and (b) as limited by general principles of equity that restrict the availability of equitable remedies.

(b) Investment Representations. Subscriber understands that the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act. Subscriber also understands that the Securities are being offered and sold pursuant to an exemption from registration contained in the Act based in part upon Subscriber's representations contained in this Subscription Agreement. Subscriber is a natural person.

(c) Manner of Holding. Subscriber understands that the Subscriber is investing into the Company, which will serve as a "crowdfunding vehicle" for an investment between the Company and the Crowdfunding Issuer. The Company will maintain records of securityholders and provide rights as if the Subscriber invested directly into the Crowdfunding Issuer.

(d) Illiquidity and Continued Economic Risk. Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that there is no ready public market for the Securities and that there is no guarantee that a market for their resale will ever exist. Subscriber must bear the economic risk of this investment indefinitely and the Company has no obligation to list the Securities on any market or take any steps (including registration under the Securities Act or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) with respect to facilitating trading or resale of the Securities. Subscriber acknowledges that Subscriber is able to bear the economic risk of losing Subscriber's entire investment in the Securities. Subscriber also understands that an investment in the Company involves significant risks and has taken full cognizance of and understands all of the risk factors relating to the purchase of Securities.

(e) Resales. Subscriber agrees that during the one-year period beginning on the date on which it acquired Securities pursuant to this Subscription Agreement, it shall not transfer such Securities except:

(i) To the Company;

(ii) To an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act;

(iii) As part of an offering registered under the Securities Act with the SEC;

(iv) To a member of the Subscriber's family or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the Subscriber, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the Subscriber or equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the Subscriber or other similar circumstance.

(v) Subscriber understands and agrees that Subscriber will not attempt to Transfer or engage in any resales and that such transfers and resales may be prohibited by the Manager of the Company in its sole discretion, but for very limited situations.

(f) Investment Limits. Subscriber represents that either:

(i) Either of Subscriber's net worth or annual income is less than $124,000, and that the amount it is investing pursuant to this Subscription Agreement, together with all other amounts invested in offerings under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act within the previous 12 months, is either less than (A) 5% of the greater of its annual income or net worth, or (B) $2,500; or

(ii) Both of Subscriber's net worth and annual income are more than $124,000, and that the amount it is investing pursuant to this Subscription Agreement, together with all other amounts invested in offerings under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act within the previous 12 months, is less than 10% of the greater of its annual income or net worth, and does not exceed $124,000; or

Subscriber has also had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers from the Crowdfunding Issuer and its management regarding the terms and conditions of this investment. Subscriber acknowledges that except as set forth herein, no representations or warranties have been made to Subscriber, or to Subscriber's advisors or representative, by the Crowdfunding Issuer or others with respect to the business or prospects of the Crowdfunding Issuer or its financial condition.

(i) Valuation. The Subscriber acknowledges that the price of the Securities was set by the Crowdfunding Issuer on the basis of the Crowdfunding Issuer's internal valuation and no warranties are made as to value. The Subscriber further acknowledges that future offerings of Securities may be made at lower valuations, with the result that the Subscriber's investment will bear a lower valuation.

(j) Domicile. Subscriber maintains Subscriber's domicile (and is not a transient or temporary resident) at the address shown on the signature page.

(k) Foreign Investors. If Subscriber is not a United States person (as defined by Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended), Subscriber hereby represents that it has satisfied itself as to the full observance of the laws of its jurisdiction in connection with any invitation to subscribe for the Securities or any use of this Subscription Agreement, including (i) the legal requirements within its jurisdiction for the purchase of the Securities, (ii) any foreign exchange restrictions applicable to such purchase, (iii) any governmental or other consents that may need to be obtained, and (iv) the income tax and other tax consequences, if any, that may be relevant to the purchase, holding, redemption, sale, or transfer of the Securities. Subscriber's subscription and payment for and continued beneficial ownership of the Securities will not violate any applicable securities or other laws of the Subscriber's jurisdiction.

6. Indemnity. The representations, warranties and covenants made by the Subscriber herein shall survive the closing of this Agreement. The Subscriber agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company, the Crowdfunding Issuer and their respective officers, directors and affiliates, and each other person, if any, who controls the Company or the Crowdfunding Issuer, as the case may be, within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act, against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense whatsoever (including, but not limited to, any and all reasonable attorneys' fees, including attorneys' fees on appeal) and expenses reasonably incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any false representation or warranty or breach of failure by the Subscriber to comply with any covenant or agreement made by the Subscriber herein or in any other document furnished by the Subscriber to any of the foregoing in connection with this transaction.

7. Transfer Restrictions.

(a) "Market Stand-Off" Agreement. Each Subscriber hereby agrees that it will not, without the prior written consent of the managing underwriter or financial advisor to the Crowdfunding Issuer (as applicable), during the period commencing on the date of the final prospectus relating to the registration by the Crowdfunding Issuer of its securities under the Securities Act on a registration statement on Form S-1 or Form S-3, and ending on the date specified by the Crowdfunding Issuer and the managing underwriter (such period not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) days in the case of the initial public offering (the "IPO") or any merger with or into a special purpose acquisition vehicle ("SPAC"), or such other period as may be requested by the Crowdfunding Issuer or an underwriter or financial advisor to accommodate regulatory restrictions on (1) the publication or other distribution of research reports, and (2) analyst recommendations and opinions, including, but not limited to, the restrictions contained in FINRA Rule 2711(f)(4) or NYSE Rule 472(f)(4), or any successor provisions or amendments thereto), or ninety (90) days in the case of any registration other than the IPO, or such other period as may be requested by the Crowdfunding Issuer, its financial advisors or an underwriter to accommodate regulatory restrictions on (1) the publication or other distribution of research reports and (2) analyst recommendations and opinions, including, but not limited to, the restrictions contained in FINRA Rule 2711(f)(4) or NYSE Rule 472(f)(4), or any successor provisions or amendments thereto), (i) lend; offer; pledge; sell; contract to sell; sell any option or contract to purchase; purchase any option or contract to sell; grant any option, right, or warrant to purchase; or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any Shares (or other securities, whether such shares or any such securities are then owned by the Subscriber or are thereafter acquired) or (ii) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of such securities, whether any such transaction described in clause (i) or (ii) above is to be settled by delivery of Securities, in cash, or otherwise. The foregoing provisions of this Section 7(a) shall not apply to the sale of any securities to an underwriter pursuant to an underwriting agreement, or the transfer of any securities to any trust for the direct or indirect benefit of the Subscriber or the immediate family of the Subscriber, provided that the trustee of the trust agrees to be bound in writing by the restrictions set forth herein, and provided further that any such transfer shall not involve a disposition for value, and shall be applicable to the Subscribers only if all officers and directors are subject to the same restrictions. The financial advisors of the Crowdfunding Issuer or its underwriters in connection with such registration are intended third party beneficiaries of this Section 7(a) and shall have the right, power and authority to enforce the provisions hereof as though they were a party hereto. Each Subscriber further agrees to execute such agreements as may be reasonably requested by the underwriters in connection with such registration that are consistent with this Section 7(a) or that are necessary to give further effect thereto.

For purposes of this Section 7(a), the term “Crowdfunding Issuer” shall include any wholly owned subsidiary of the Crowdfunding Issuer into which the Crowdfunding Issuer merges or consolidates. In order to enforce the foregoing covenant, the Crowdfunding Issuer may impose stop transfer instructions with respect to the Subscriber’s registrable securities of the Crowdfunding Issuer (and the Crowdfunding Issuer shares or securities of every other person subject to the foregoing restriction) until the end of such period. The Subscriber agrees that a legend reading substantially as follows may be placed on all certificates representing all of such Subscriber’s registrable securities of the Crowdfunding Issuer (and the Crowdfunding Issuer shares or securities of every other person subject to the restriction contained in this Section 7(a)):

“THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO A LOCK-UP PERIOD BEGINNING ON THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT OF TOKYOPOP INC. (“TOKYOPOP”), FILED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, AS SET FORTH IN AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN TOKYOPOP AND THE ORIGINAL HOLDER OF THESE SECURITIES, A COPY OF WHICH MAY BE OBTAINED AT TOKYOPOP’S PRINCIPAL OFFICE. SUCH LOCK-UP PERIOD IS BINDING ON TRANSFEREES OF THESE SECURITIES.”

(b) Further Limitations on Disposition. Without in any way limiting the representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement, the Subscriber agrees not to make any disposition of all or any portion of the Crowdfunding Issuer’s Class B Common Stock or any securities which may be converted into the Crowdfunding Issuer’s Class B Common Stock unless and until the transferee has agreed in writing for the benefit of the Crowdfunding Issuer to make the representations and warranties set out in Section 5 and the undertaking set out in Section 7(a) of this Agreement and:

(i) there is then in effect a registration statement under the Securities Act covering such proposed disposition, and such disposition is made in connection with such registration statement; or

(ii) such Subscriber has (A) notified the Crowdfunding Issuer of the proposed disposition; (B) furnished the Crowdfunding Issuer with a detailed statement of the circumstances surrounding the proposed disposition; and (C) if requested by the Crowdfunding Issuer, furnished the Crowdfunding Issuer with an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Crowdfunding Issuer that such disposition will not require registration under the Securities Act.

The Subscriber agrees that it will not make any disposition of any of the Crowdfunding Issuer's securities to the Crowdfunding Issuer's competitors, as determined in good faith by the Crowdfunding Issuer.

9. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES ITS RIGHTS TO A JURY TRIAL OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, THE OTHER TRANSACTION AGREEMENTS, THE SHARES OR THE SUBJECT MATTER HEREOF OR THEREOF. THE SCOPE OF THIS WAIVER IS INTENDED TO BE ALL-ENCOMPASSING OF ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY BE FILED IN ANY COURT AND THAT RELATE TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, CONTRACT CLAIMS, TORT CLAIMS (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), BREACH OF DUTY CLAIMS, AND ALL OTHER COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY CLAIMS. (g) Unless otherwise provided in the Crowdfunding Issuer's constitutive documents, whose provisions shall govern with respect to matters of voting, subject to Section 2.07, Section 3.02, and Section 11.09, and any other provision of this Agreement or the Delaware Act requiring the vote, consent, or approval of a different percentage of the Interests, no action may be taken by the Members at any meeting at which a quorum is present without the affirmative vote of the Members holding a majority of the Interests.

Section 2.07 Action Without Meeting. Unless otherwise provided in the Crowdfunding Issuer's constitutive documents, whose provisions shall govern with respect to matters of action without meeting, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.06, any matter that is to be voted on, consented to, or approved by Members pursuant to Section 2.06(a) may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote if consented to, in writing or by Electronic Transmission, by a Member or Members holding not less than a minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which each Member entitled to vote on the action is present and votes on such matter. A record shall be maintained by the Manager of each such action taken by written consent of a Member or Members.

ARTICLE III – MANAGEMENT

Section 3.01 Management of the Company. Subject to the provisions of Section 3.02, and except as otherwise provided by the Delaware Act, the business, property, and affairs of the Company shall be managed by the Manager. The actions of the Manager taken in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement shall bind the Company. No other Member of the Company shall have any authority or right to act on behalf of or bind the Company, unless otherwise provided herein or unless specifically authorized by the Manager pursuant to a duly adopted resolution expressly authorizing such action.

Section 3.02 Actions Requiring Approval of Members. Except as provided herein, the Manager of the Company will make all decisions for the Company. Without the written approval of Members holding a majority of the Interests, the Company shall not, and shall not enter into any commitment to:

(a) Amend, modify, or waive any provisions of the Certificate of Formation or this Agreement; provided that the Manager may, without the consent of the other Members, amend the Members Schedule following any new issuance, redemption, repurchase, or Transfer of Interests in accordance with this Agreement.

(b) Issue additional Interests or other securities outside of a Regulation Crowdfunding Offering with the Crowdfunding Issuer, except in connection with a Transfer of Interests that complies with the applicable provisions of ARTICLE VI and Section 2.03(b), or admit additional Members to the Company.

(c) Dissolve, wind up, or liquidate the Company or initiate a bankruptcy proceeding involving the Company, at the sole discretion of the Manager; provided that no vote shall be required when such dissolution, winding up, or liquidation occurs under the terms of the Securities or Interests.

Notwithstanding the above, the Manager shall be able to take all actions necessary without the consent of the Members in order to maintain the Company's status as a crowdfunding vehicle.

Section 3.03 Prohibited Actions. The Manager is prohibited from having the Company take the following actions, or any other action which would result in the Company violating the conditions to be a "crowdfunding vehicle" pursuant to Rule 3a-9 under the Investment Company Act, except for transactions with the Crowdfunding Issuer pursuant to Regulation Crowdfunding. Such prohibited actions include, but are not limited to:

(a) Incurring any indebtedness, pledge or granting liens on any assets, or guarantee, assume, endorse, or otherwise become responsible for the obligations of any other Person.

(b) Making any loan or advance to, or a Capital Contribution or investment in, any Person.

(c) Entering into or effecting any transaction or series of related transactions involving the purchase, lease, license, exchange, or other acquisition (including by merger, consolidation, sale of stock, or acquisition of assets) by the Company of any assets and/or equity interests.

(d) Entering into or effect any transaction or series of related transactions involving the sale, lease, license, exchange, or other disposition (including by merger, consolidation, sale of stock, or sale of assets) by the Company of any assets and/or equity interests.

Section 3.04 Officers. The Manager may appoint one or more individuals as officers of the Company (the "Officers") as the Manager deems necessary or desirable to carry on the business of the Company and may delegate to such Officers such power and authority as the Manager deems advisable. An Officer is not required to be a Member of the Company. Any individual may hold two or more offices of the Company. Each Officer shall hold office until his or her successor is designated by the Manager or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. Any Officer may resign at any time upon written notice to the Manager. Any Officer may be removed by the Manager at any time, with or without cause. A vacancy in any office occurring because of death, resignation, removal, or otherwise may, but need not, be filled by the Manager.

Section 3.05 Replacement and Resignation of Manager. The Manager may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the Members holding eighty five percent (85%) of the Interests. The Manager may resign at any time by delivering a written resignation to the Company, which resignation shall be effective upon receipt thereof unless it is specified to be effective at some other time or upon the occurrence of a particular event. Following the Manager's removal or resignation, a successor Manager shall be elected by the affirmative vote of the Members holding a majority of the Interests. The removal of the Manager shall not affect the Manager's rights as a Member and shall not constitute a withdrawal of such Member from the Company.

Section 3.06 Votes. Any vote required pursuant to this Article III may be made in accordance with Section 2.06 or Section 2.07.

ARTICLE IV – ALLOCATIONS

Section 4.01 Allocation of Profits and Losses.

(a) All items of income, gain, loss deduction, and credit incurred or accrued by the Company shall be allocated among the Members pro rata in accordance with their respective Interests.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, (i) “partner nonrecourse deductions” (as defined in Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)), if any, of the Company shall be allocated for each Fiscal Year to the Member that bears the economic risk of loss within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(i) and “nonrecourse deductions” (as defined in Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(b)) and “excess nonrecourse liabilities” (as defined in Treasury Regulations Section 1.752-3(a)), if any, shall be allocated to and among the Members in accordance with their Interests.

(c) This Agreement shall be deemed to include “qualified income offset,” “minimum gain chargeback,” and “partner nonrecourse debt minimum gain chargeback” provisions within the meaning of Treasury Regulations under Section 704(b) of the Code.

ARTICLE V – DISTRIBUTIONS

Section 5.01 Distributions.

(a) In the event that any distributable cash or other assets are received by the Company from the Crowdfunding Issuer pursuant to the terms of the Securities, the Manager shall make such distributions promptly to the holders of the Interests on a one-to-one basis as if the holders of the Interests held the Securities directly. The Manager may instruct the Crowdfunding Issuer to make such distribution directly to the holders of the Interests.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company shall not make any distribution to Members if such distribution would violate the Delaware Act or other Applicable Law.

ARTICLE VI – TRANSFERS

Section 6.01 General Restrictions on Transfer.

(a) No Member shall Transfer all or any portion of its Interests in the Company, except with the written consent of the Manager. No Transfer of Interests to a Person not already a Member of the Company shall be deemed completed until the prospective Transferee is admitted as a Member of the Company in accordance with Section 2.03 hereof.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement (including Section 6.02), each Member agrees that it will not Transfer all or any portion of its Interests in the Company, and the Company agrees that it shall not issue any Interests:

(i) except as permitted under the Securities Act and other applicable federal or state securities or blue sky laws;

(ii) if such Transfer or issuance would affect the Company's existence or qualification as a limited liability company under the Delaware Act;

(iii) if such Transfer or issuance would cause the Company to be required to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended; or

(iv) if such Transfer or issuance would cause the assets of the Company to be deemed "Plan Assets" as defined under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or its accompanying regulations or result in any "prohibited transaction" thereunder involving the Company.

(c) Any Transfer or attempted Transfer of any Interest in violation of this Agreement shall be null and void, no such Transfer shall be recorded on the Company's books, and the purported Transferee in any such Transfer shall not be treated (and the purported Transferor shall continue to be treated) as the owner of such Interest for all purposes of this Agreement.

(d) Except as provided in Section 2.05(b), no Transfer (including a permitted Transfer) of Interests to a Person not already a Member of the Company shall be deemed completed until the prospective Transferee (including a permitted Transferee) is admitted as a Member of the Company in accordance with Section 2.03(b) hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, any Transfer of a Interest permitted by this Agreement shall be deemed a sale, transfer, assignment, or other disposal of such Interest in its entirety as intended by the parties to such Transfer, and shall not be deemed a sale, transfer, assignment, or other disposal of any less than all of the rights and benefits described in the definition of the term "Interest," unless otherwise explicitly agreed to by the parties to such Transfer.

Section 6.02 Further Restrictions on Transfer.

(a) During the one-year period beginning on the date on which it acquired the Interest, a Member may not transfer such Interest except:

(i) To the Crowdfunding Issuer;

(ii) To an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act;

(iii) As part of an offering registered under the Securities Act; or

(iv) To a member of the Interest holder's family or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the Interest holder, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the Interest holder or equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the Interest holder or other similar circumstance.

ARTICLE VII – NO PERSONAL LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 7.01 No Personal Liability: Members; Manager.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the Delaware Act, by Applicable Law, or expressly in this Agreement, no Member will be obligated personally for any debt, obligation, or liability of the Company or other Members, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, solely by reason of being a Member.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in the Delaware Act, by Applicable Law, or expressly in this Agreement, no Manager will be obligated personally for any debt, obligation, or liability of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, solely by reason of being a Manager.

Section 7.02 Indemnification.

(a) To the fullest extent permitted under the Delaware Act, any Covered Person (as defined in section (c) below) shall be entitled to indemnification and reimbursement of expenses by the Crowdfunding Issuer for and against any loss, damage, claim, or expense (including attorneys' fees) (collectively, "Losses") whatsoever incurred by the Covered Person relating to or arising out of any act or omission or alleged acts or omissions (whether or not constituting negligence) performed or omitted by any Covered Person on behalf of the Company; provided, however, that (i) any indemnity under this Section 7.02 shall be provided by the Crowdfunding Issuer, and neither any Member nor any other Person shall have any personal liability to contribute to such indemnity by the Crowdfunding Issuer; (ii) such Covered Person acted in good faith and in a manner believed by such Covered Person to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; and (iii) such Covered Person's conduct did not constitute fraud or willful misconduct, in either case as determined by a final, nonappealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Upon receipt by the Company of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Covered Person to repay such amounts if it is finally judicially determined that the Covered Person is not entitled to indemnification under this Section 7.02, the Crowdfunding Issuer shall advance, to the extent reasonably required, each Covered Person for reasonable legal or other expenses (as incurred) of such Covered Person in connection with investigating, preparing to defend, or defending any claim, lawsuit, or other proceeding relating to any Losses for which such Covered Person may be indemnified pursuant to this Section 7.02.

(c) For purposes of this Section 7.02, "Covered Person" means (i) each Member of the Company; (ii) each Manager and Officer of the Company; and (iii) each officer, director, shareholder, partner, manager, member, Affiliate, employee, agent, or representative of each Member and of each Manager.

ARTICLE VIII – REPORTS, ACCOUNTING, AND TAX MATTERS

Section 8.01 Inspection Rights. Members hereby waive any rights under the Delaware Act related to any and all rights to inspect the Company's books and records for a proper purpose and make copies thereof.

Section 8.02 Income Tax Status. It is the intent of this Company and the Members that this Company shall be treated as partnership for US, federal, state, and local income tax purposes. Neither the Manager nor any Member shall make an election for the Company to be classified as other than a partnership pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 301.7701-3.

Section 8.03 Tax Matters Representative.

(a) Appointment; Resignation. The Members hereby appoint the Manager as the “partnership representative” as provided in Section 6223(a) of the Code (the “Partnership Representative”). The Partnership Representative can be removed at any time by a vote of Members holding 85% of the Interests of the Company, and shall resign if it is no longer the Manager. In the event of the resignation or removal of the Partnership Representative, the holders of a majority of the Interests of the Company shall appoint a new Partnership Representative.

(b) Tax Examinations and Audits. The Partnership Representative is authorized and required to represent the Company (at the Company’s expense) in connection with all examinations of the Company’s affairs by any federal, state, local, or foreign taxing authority, including resulting administrative and judicial proceedings, and to expend Company funds for professional services and costs associated therewith.

The Partnership Representative shall have sole authority to act on behalf of the Company in any such examinations and any resulting administrative or judicial proceedings, and shall have sole discretion to determine whether the Company (either on its own behalf or on behalf of the Members) will contest or continue to contest any tax deficiencies assessed or proposed to be assessed by any taxing authority.

(c) US Federal Tax Proceedings. To the extent permitted by applicable law and regulations, the Partnership Representative will cause the Company to annually elect out of the partnership audit procedures set forth in Subchapter C of Chapter 63 of the Code as amended by the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2015 (the “Revised Partnership Audit Rules”) pursuant to Section 6221(b) of the Code. For any year in which applicable law and regulations do not permit the Company to elect out of the Revised Partnership Audit Rules, then within forty-five (45) days of any notice of final partnership adjustment, the Partnership Representative will cause the Company to elect the alternative procedure under Section 6226 of the Code, and furnish to the Internal Revenue Service and each Member (including former Members) during the year or years to which the notice of final partnership adjustment relates a statement of the Member’s share of any adjustment set forth in the notice of final partnership adjustment.

(d) Section 754 Election. The Partnership Representative shall make an election under Section 754 of the Code only with the agreement in writing of a majority of the outstanding Interests.

(e) Indemnification. The Company, through the Crowdfunding Issuer, shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Partnership Representative against any and all liabilities sustained as a result of any act or decision concerning Company tax matters and within the scope of such Member’s responsibilities as Partnership Representative, so long as such act or decision was done or made in good faith and does not constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Section 8.04 Tax Returns.

(a) At the expense of the Crowdfunding Issuer, the Manager will cause the preparation and timely filing (including extensions) of all tax returns required to be filed by the Company pursuant to the Code as well as all other required tax returns in each jurisdiction in which the Company owns property or does business. As soon as reasonably possible after the end of each Fiscal Year, the Manager will deliver to each Member, Company information necessary for the preparation of such Member's federal, state, and local income tax returns for such Fiscal Year.

(b) Each Member agrees that such Member shall not treat any Company item on such Member's federal, state, foreign, or other income tax return inconsistently with the treatment of the item on the Company's return.

Section 8.05 Reports under Regulation Crowdfunding.

(a) The Manager shall provide all information necessary to the Crowdfunding Issuer for the Crowdfunding Issuer to make such ongoing reports as required by Regulation Crowdfunding.

(b) The Manager will cause the prompt distribution of any disclosure, and ongoing reports prepared by the Crowdfunding Issuer as soon as such disclosures and ongoing reports are completed by the Crowdfunding Issuer.

ARTICLE IX – DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

Section 9.01 Events of Dissolution. The Company shall be dissolved and its affairs wound up only upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

Dissolution of the Company shall be effective on the day on which the event described in Section 9.01 occurs, but the Company shall not terminate until the winding up of the Company has been completed, the assets of the Company have been distributed as provided in Section 9.03, and the Certificate of Formation shall have been cancelled as provided in Section 9.04.

Section 9.03 Liquidation. If the Company is dissolved pursuant to Section 9.01, the Company shall be liquidated and its business and affairs wound up in accordance with the Delaware Act and the following provisions:

(a) The Manager, or another Person selected by the Manager, shall act as liquidator to wind up the Company (the "Liquidator"). The Liquidator shall have full power and authority to distribute, sell, assign, and encumber any or all of the Company's assets and to wind up and liquidate the affairs of the Company in an orderly and business-like manner, in compliance with rules and regulations applicable to a "crowdfunding vehicle."

(b) As promptly as possible after dissolution and again after final liquidation, the Liquidator shall cause a proper accounting to be made of the Company's Securities, assets, liabilities, and operations through the last day of the calendar month in which the dissolution occurs or the final liquidation is completed, as applicable.

(c) The Liquidator shall transfer ownership of the Securities to the Interest holders.

(d) The Liquidator shall then liquidate the assets of the Company, if any, and distribute the proceeds of such liquidation in the following order of priority, unless otherwise required by mandatory provisions of Applicable Law, and with any amounts to be paid to creditors to be paid by the Crowdfunding Issuer:

(i) First, to the payment of the Company's debts and liabilities to its creditors (including Members, if applicable) and the expenses of liquidation (including sales commissions incident to any sales of assets of the Company);

(ii) Second, to the establishment of and additions to reserves that are determined by the Manager to be reasonably necessary for any contingent unforeseen liabilities or obligations of the Company; and

(iii) Third, to the Members, on a pro rata basis, in accordance with the positive balances in their respective Capital Accounts, as determined after taking into account all Capital Account adjustments for the taxable year of the Company during which the liquidation of the Company occurs.

Section 9.04 Required Filings. Upon completion of the winding up of the Company, the Liquidator shall make all necessary filings required by the Delaware Act.

 - a. Class A Common Stock. Each outstanding share of Class A Common Stock shall be entitled to vote on each matter on which the shareholders of the Corporation shall be entitled to vote, and each holder of Class A Common Stock shall be entitled to one vote for each share of Class A Common Stock held by such holder. The Class A Common Stock shall possess full and complete voting power for the election of directors.

- b. Class B Common Stock. Except as required by applicable law, each outstanding share of Class B Common Stock shall not be entitled to vote on any matter on which the shareholders of the Corporation shall be entitled to vote, and shares of Class B Common Stock shall not be included in determining the number of shares voting or entitled to vote on any such matters.
 - (iii) Other Rights. Except with respect to voting rights described in Article III(B)(ii) above, the rights, preferences, powers, privileges, and the restrictions, qualifications and limitations of the Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock are identical. Without limiting the preceding sentence (i) holders of the Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock shall have identical rights with respect to dividends, the identical right to receive consideration upon the or consolidation of the Corporation into another entity; and (ii) if the Corporation shall in any manner split, subdivide, or combine the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock, the outstanding shares of the other such class of stock shall likewise be split, subdivided or combined in the same manner proportionately and on the same basis per share.
 - (iv) Conversion. Upon the filing and effectiveness (the “Effective Time”) pursuant to the California General Corporation Law of this Restated Articles of Incorporation, each share of the Corporation’s Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, automatically and without any action on the part of the respective holders thereof, be subdivided, split and converted into 1.40 fully-paid and non-assessable shares of Class A Common Stock (the “Conversion”). Each certificate that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented shares of Common Stock (“Common Stock Old Certificates”), shall thereafter represent that number of shares of Class A Common Stock into which the shares of Common Stock represented by the Common Stock Old Certificates shall have been converted. No fractional shares of Common Stock shall result from such Conversion or be issued pursuant to such Conversion.”
- (C) Preferred Stock. Shares of Preferred Stock may be issued from time to time in one or more series. The Board of Directors of the Corporation (the “Board”) is hereby authorized to provide by resolution or resolutions from time to time for the issuance, out of the unissued shares of Preferred Stock, of one or more series of Preferred Stock, without shareholder approval, by filing a certificate pursuant to the applicable law of the State of California (the “Preferred Stock Designation”), setting forth such resolution and, with respect to each such series, establishing the number of shares to be included in such series, and fixing the voting powers, full or limited, or no voting power of the shares of such series, and the designation, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, if any, of the shares of each such series and any qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof. The powers, designation, preferences and relative, participating, optional and other special rights of each series of Preferred Stock, and the qualifications, limitations and restrictions thereof, if any, may differ from those of any and all other series at any time outstanding. The authority of the Board with respect to each series of Preferred Stock shall include, but not be limited to, the determination of the following:

1. the designation of the series, which may be by distinguishing number, letter or title;
2. the number of shares of the series, which number the Board may thereafter (except where otherwise provided in the Preferred Stock Designation) increase or decrease (but not below the number of shares thereof then outstanding);
3. the amounts or rates at which dividends will be payable on, and the preferences, if any, of shares of the series in respect of dividends, and whether such dividends, if any, shall be cumulative or noncumulative;

6. the terms and amount of any sinking fund, if any, provided for the purchase or redemption of shares of the series;
7. the amounts payable on, and the preferences, if any, of shares of the series in the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation;
8. whether the shares of the series shall be convertible into or exchangeable for, shares of any other class or series, or any other security, of the Corporation or any other corporation, and, if so, the specification of such other class or series or such other security, the conversion or exchange price or prices or rate or rates, any adjustments thereof, the date or dates at which such shares shall be convertible or exchangeable and all other terms and conditions upon which such conversion or exchange may be made;
9. restrictions on the issuance of shares of the same series or any other class or series;
10. voting rights, if any, of the holders of shares of the series generally or upon specified events; and
11. any other powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights of each series of Preferred Stock, and any qualifications, limitations or restrictions of such shares;

all as may be determined from time to time by the Board and stated in the resolution or resolutions providing for the issuance of such Preferred Stock.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the resolutions providing for issuance of any series of Preferred Stock may provide that such series shall be superior or rank equally or be junior to any other series of Preferred Stock to the extent permitted by law.

(a) All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

(b) Attendance shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, unless the Shareholder objects, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and except that attendance at a meeting shall not constitute a waiver of any right to object to the consideration of matters required by the General Corporation Law to be included in the notice if such objection is expressly made at the meeting.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in California Corporation Code Section 601(f), neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting need be specified in any written waiver of notice.

If appointed at a meeting on the request of one or more shareholders or proxies, the majority of shares represented shall determine whether one or three inspectors are to be appointed.

(a) The election inspectors shall determine the number of shares outstanding; the voting power of each; the shares represented at the meeting; the existence of a quorum; the authenticity, validity and effect of proxies; receive votes, ballots, if any, or consents; hear and determine all challenges and questions in any way arising in connection with the right to vote; count and tabulate all votes or consents; determine when the polls shall close; determine the result; and do whatever may be proper to fairly conduct the election or vote.

Section 10. Quorum

The holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of shareholders. The shareholders present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to do business until adjournment despite the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum provided any action taken (other than adjournment) is approved by at least a majority of the shares required to constitute a quorum. Absent a quorum, any meeting of shareholders may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of the shares represented at it, either in person or by proxy, but no other business may be transacted except as stated above.

Section 11. Voting

Unless a record date for voting purposes is fixed as provided in Article V, Section 4 of these By-Laws, subject to the General Corporation Law provisions relating to voting of shares, only persons in whose names shares entitled to vote appear on the Corporation's stock records at the close of business on the business day next preceding the meeting date, shall be entitled to vote at such meeting, and that day shall be the record date for such meeting.

(a) A plurality of votes cast shall elect directors. No shareholder shall be entitled to cumulate votes for any one or more candidates at a meeting for the election of directors unless the candidate's or candidates' names have been placed in nomination prior to the voting, and the shareholder has given notice at the meeting prior to the voting of the shareholders' intention to cumulate the shareholder's votes. If any one shareholder has given such notice, all shareholders may cumulate their votes for nominated candidates.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by the General Corporation Law, the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be authorized by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote, and shall thereby constitute an act of the shareholders.

Section 12. Written Consent

Except in the election of directors by written consent in lieu of a meeting, and except as may otherwise be provided by the General Corporation Law, the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws, any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

(a) Directors may not be elected by written consent except by unanimous written consent of all shares entitled to vote for the election of directors.

(b) Notice of any shareholder approval pursuant to the General Corporation Law without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given at least ten (10) days before the consummation of the action authorized by such approval, and prompt notice shall be given of the taking of any other corporate action approved by shareholders without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent to those shareholders entitled to vote who have not consented, in writing.

Section 13. Ballot

Elections of Directors at a meeting need not be by ballot unless a shareholder demands election by ballot at the election before the voting begins. In all other matters voting need not be by ballot.

Section 14. Shareholders' Agreements

Notwithstanding the above provisions, if this Corporation elects to become a "close corporation," then a written agreement executed by two (2) or more shareholders hereof may provide that such parties (a) may modify the above provisions as to shareholders' meetings and actions or (b) in exercising any voting rights, shall vote their shares (1) as provided by the agreement, (2) as the parties may agree, (3) as determined in accordance with a procedure agreed upon by them, or (4) as otherwise provided in the General Corporation Law.

ARTICLE III

Board of Directors

Section 1. Functions

The Board of Directors shall manage the Corporation's business and affairs and shall exercise or direct all of its corporate powers. The Board of Directors may delegate the management of the Corporation's day-to-day business operation to a management company or other person, provided that the Board of Directors shall manage the Corporation's business and affairs and shall exercise or ultimately direct all of its corporate powers. The Board of Directors is authorized to fix the compensation of directors for services in any lawful capacity.

(a) Each director shall exercise such powers and otherwise perform the duties of a director in good faith, in the manner the director believes to be in the Corporation's best interest, and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.

Section 2. Exception for close corporation

If this Corporation elects to become a close corporation, as defined in the General Corporation Law, its shareholders may enter into a Shareholders' Agreement as defined and provided in the General Corporation Law. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1 of this Article, the agreement may provide for the shareholders to manage the business and affairs of this Corporation and to exercise its corporate powers, provided that, to the extent and so long as the agreement controls the Board's discretion or powers in its management of corporate affairs, the agreement shall impose upon each shareholder (who is a party thereof) liability for managerial acts otherwise imposed by the General Corporation Law upon directors, and the directors shall be relieved to that extent from such liability.

Section 3. Qualifications and Number

A director need not be a shareholder of the Corporation or a citizen of the United States.

(a) The authorized number of directors constituting the Board of Directors, until further changed, shall be three (3). Subject to the foregoing provisions, the number of directors may be changed from time to time by an amendment to these By-Laws adopted by approval of the outstanding shares. Any amendment reducing the number of directors to fewer than three (3) cannot be adopted if the votes cast against its adoption at a meeting, or the shares not consenting in writing in the case of action by written consent, are equal to more than sixteen and two-thirds percent (16 2/3%) of the outstanding shares or as provided by the General Corporation Code. No decrease in the authorized number of directors shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director.

Section 4. Election and Term

The initial Board of Directors shall consist of the persons designated in the Articles as such or elected by the incorporators, all of whom shall hold office until the first annual meeting of all the shareholders or until the expiration of the term for which elected and until their successors have been elected and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal from office. Thereafter, at each annual meeting of shareholders, directors shall be elected to hold office until the next annual meeting. Each director, including directors who are elected to fill any vacancies, shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until their successors have been elected and qualified, or until their earlier resignation, removal from office or death.

(a) An ex officio director serves on the Board by virtue of his or her official position. He or she shall remain an ex officio director until he or she no longer holds a designated position which is the basis for ex officio membership.

(b) If, in the interim between annual meetings of shareholders, or of special meetings of shareholders called for the election of directors, vacancies occur in the Board of Directors including vacancies resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors which have not been filled by the shareholders, any other vacancies which the General Corporation Law authorizes directors to fill and vacancies resulting from the removal of directors of directors which are not filled at the meeting of shareholders at which any such removal has been effected, and if the Articles of Incorporation or a By-Law adopted by the shareholders so provides, such vacancies may be filled by the vote of a majority of the directors then in office or by the sole remaining director, although less than a quorum exists.

(c) Any director may resign effective upon giving notice to the Chairman of the Board, if any, the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. If the resignation is effective at a future time, a successor may be elected to the office when the resignation becomes effective.

(d) The shareholders may elect a director at any time to fill any vacancy which the directors are entitled to fill. Any such election by written consent shall require the unanimous consent of the shares.

Section 5. Meetings

Section 5.1. Time

Meetings shall be held at such time as provided in the Articles of Incorporation, as set forth in these By-Laws or as fixed by a Board resolution, except that the newly elected Board's first meeting shall be held as soon after its election as the directors may conveniently assemble. In the event the newly elected Board meets immediately following the annual meeting of shareholders wherein they were elected, then, for such meetings and notwithstanding any other provision of this section, call and notice are hereby waived and dispensed with.

A. An annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following the annual meeting of shareholders or at such time and place as may be designated by the Chairman of the Board, if any, or the President in an appropriate notice of the meeting or as may be fixed by these By-Laws or by resolution of the Board of Directors, for the purpose of election of successor directors, election of officers and the transaction of any other proper business.

B. The Board of Directors shall meet regularly, and not less than annually, at such times as the Board determines to be necessary to manage the Corporation's business and affairs and at the time and place fixed according to this section.

Section 5.2. Place

Board of Directors meetings may be held at any place within or without California which has been stated in the notice of the meeting or, if not so stated, at the place designated in these By-Laws or by Board of Directors's resolution. Absent such designation, meetings shall be held at the Corporation's principal office.

Section 5.3. Special Meetings

The Chairman of the Board, if any, the President, any Vice-President, the Secretary or any two (2) directors may call Board of Directors' meetings at any time.

Section 5.4 Notice and waiver thereof

Regular meetings for which the time and place have been fixed by these By-Laws or by a Board of Directors' resolution shall require no notice. Special meetings shall require at least four (4) days prior notice by mail or at least forty-eight (48) hours prior notice delivered personally, by telephone or by telegraph.

A. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any director who signs a waiver of notice, whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of such notice.

B. A notice or waiver of notice need not specify the purpose of any regular or special Board of Directors' meeting.

Section 6. Sole director provided

In the event only one director is required by the by-Laws or Articles of Incorporation, pursuant to the General Corporation Law, or by law, then any reference herein to notices, waivers, consents, meetings, or other actions by a majority or quorum of the directors shall be deemed to refer to such notice, waiver, etc., by such sole director, who shall have all rights and duties and shall be entitled to exercise all of the powers and shall assume all the responsibilities otherwise herein described as given to a Board of Directors.

Section 7. Quorum and Action

A majority of the authorized number of directors shall constitute a quorum of the Board for the transaction of business except when a vacancy or vacancies prevents such majority, whereupon a majority of the directors in office shall constitute a quorum unless otherwise prohibited by the General Corporation Law and, provided such majority shall constitute at least one-third (1/3) of the authorized number of directors or at least two directors, whichever is larger, unless the authorized number of directors is only one.

(a) A majority of the directors present, with or without a quorum, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place. If the meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four (24) hours, notice of any adjournment to another time or place shall be given prior to the time of the adjourned meeting to any directors who were absent at the time of the adjournment.

(b) Except as the Articles of Incorporation, these By-laws and the General Corporation Law may otherwise provide, the act or decision of a majority of the directors present at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board of Directors.

(c) The Directors may participate in a Board meeting through use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as all members participating in such meeting can hear one another. Participation by such use shall be deemed to constitute presence in person at any such meeting.

(d) A meeting to which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, provided any action is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

Section 8. Chairman of the Meeting

The chairman of any Board of Directors' meeting shall be the Chairman of the Board, if any, or if not present and acting, then the President, or if not present and acting, then any director chosen by the Board or, provided in these By-Laws, who shall preside at all such meetings.

Section 9. Removal of Directors

Any or all of the Directors may be removed from the Board without cause if such removal is approved at a special meeting held for that purpose by (a) the holders of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding shares entitled to vote, or (b) a majority of the Board of Directors, provided that, unless the entire Board is removed, an individual director shall not be removed when the votes cast against such removal, or not consenting in writing to such removal, would be sufficient to elect such director if voted cumulatively at an election of directors at which the same total number of votes were cast or (c) if such action is taken by written consent (in lieu of a meeting), all such shares entitled to vote were voted and the entire number of directors authorized at the time of the director's most recent election were then being elected.

(a) If deemed to be in the Corporation's best interest, the director(s) subject to removal shall be notified of the meeting held for this purpose. At least one week before the meeting the notice must be mailed to the director's last known address and state that the removal issue will be brought before the noticed meeting.

(b) If any or all directors are so removed, new directors may be elected at the same meeting or by such written consent of the shareholders as provided by the General Corporation Law, or such vacancies on the Board may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, whether or not less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

(c) The Board of Directors may declare vacant the office of any director who has been declared of unsound mind by an order of court or who has been convicted of a felony.

(d) If the directors own all of the Corporation shares, then upon the transfer of the Corporation's shares by the directors/shareholders to another licensed person within the meaning of the General Corporation Law, the transferor(s) shall resign as director(s) and the transferee(s) shall become director(s) of this Corporation.

Section 10. Committees

The Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the authorized number of directors, designate one or more committees, each consisting of two or more directors to serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any such committee, who may replace any absent member at any meeting of such committee. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors or as set forth in these By-Laws, shall have all the authority of the Board of Directors except such authority as the general Corporation Law may specifically exclude as a proper delegation of authority.

Section 11. Informal Action

The transactions of any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice if a quorum is present and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the directors not present signs a written waiver of notice, a consent to holding the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents and/or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section 12. Written Action

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, if all of the members of the Board of Directors shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such an action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of such directors.

Section 13. Indemnification of Directors, Officers, Employees and Agents

The Corporation may indemnify any director, officer, agent or employee as to those liabilities and on those terms and conditions as are specified in the General Corporation Law. In any event, the Corporation shall have the right to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any such persons against any liability asserted against or incurred by such person whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against the liability insured against.

Section 14. Fees and Compensation.

Directors and members of committees shall not receive any salary for their services as directors or members, however, upon resolution of the Board, a fixed fee, with or without expenses of attendance, may be allowed for attendance at each meeting. The Board of Directors shall have authority to fix the compensation of directors for services in any lawful capacity. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director or committee member from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 15. Transactions between Corporation and Directors.

No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors, or between the Corporation and any corporation, firm or association in which one or more of the directors has a material financial interest, is either void or voidable because such director or directors or such other corporation, firm or association are parties or because such director or directors are present at the meeting of the Board or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction, if done according to the provisions set forth herein and the General Corporation Law.

ARTICLE IV

Officers

Section 1. Officers

The officers of the Corporation shall be a Chairman of the Board or a President or both, a Secretary, a Chief Financial Officer or Treasurer, and such other officers with titles and duties as shall be stated in the By-Laws or determined by the Board of Directors and as may be necessary to enable it to sign instruments and share certificates. Such persons shall be selected in conformity with the requirements of the General Corporation Law. The same person may hold any number of offices.

(a) If there is only one shareholder and one director, then that shareholder/director shall serve as the President and Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation. The other officers of the Corporation in such situations need not be licensed persons within the meaning of Section 13401(c); provided, however, if there are only two shareholders and there are two directors, then the two shareholder/directors shall fill the offices of President, Vice President, Secretary and Chief Financial Officer between them.

Section 2. Election

Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein; and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

(b) Any officer who shall become a disqualified person as defined by the General Corporation Law shall immediately, on the effective date of this disqualification, cease to be an officer.

(a) The Secretary shall keep, or cause to be kept, at the principal office or at the office of the Corporation's transfer agent, a share register (or duplicate share register) showing the names of the shareholders and their addresses; the number and classes of shares held by each; the number and date of certificates issued for same; and the number and date of cancellation of every certificate surrendered for cancellation.

ARTICLE V

Certificates and Transfers of Shares

Section 1. Certificates for Shares

Unless otherwise determined by the Board at any time and from time to time, the shares of the Corporation shall be in uncertificated form. The Corporation shall, within a reasonable time after the issuance or transfer of uncertificated shares, send to the registered owner of the uncertificated shares a written notice containing the information required to be set forth or stated on share certificates as required by law or the Articles of Incorporation. No share shall be issued until the consideration therefor, fixed as provided by law, has been fully paid.

(a) Each such certificate issued shall be signed in the name of the Corporation by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, if any; or the vice chairman of the Board of Directors, if any; the President, if any; or a Vice President, if any; and by the Chief Financial Officer or an Assistant Financial Officer or the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary. Any or all of the signatures on a certificate for shares may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate for shares shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such person were an officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

(b) In the event that the Corporation shall issue the whole or any part of its shares as partly paid and subject to call for the remainder of the consideration to be paid therefor, any such certificate for shares shall set forth thereon the statements prescribed by the General Corporation Law.

Section 2. Lost, Stolen or destroyed share certificates

The Corporation may issue a new certificate for shares or for any other security in the place of any other certificate theretofore issued by it, which is alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed. As a condition to such issuance, the Corporation may require any such owner of the allegedly lost, stolen or destroyed certificate or any such owner's legal representative to give the Corporation a bond, or other adequate security, sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against it, including any expense or liability, on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of such new certificate.

Section 3. Share Transfers

Upon compliance with any provision of the California Corporations Code and/or the Corporate Securities Law of 1968 which may restrict the transferability of shares, transfers of shares of the Corporation shall be made only on the record of shareholders of the Corporation by the registered holder thereof, or by that holder's attorney thereunto authorized by power of attorney duly executed and filed with the Secretary of the Corporation or with a transfer agent or a registrar, if any, due thereon.

Section 4. Record date for shareholders

In order that the Corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of any meeting or to vote or be entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights or entitled to exercise any rights in respect to any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days or fewer than ten (10) days prior to the date of such meeting or more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action.

(a) If the Board of Directors shall not have fixed a record date as aforesaid, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall be at the close of business on the business day next preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the business day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held; the record date for determining shareholders entitled to give consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action by the Board of Directors has been taken, shall be the day on which the first written consent is given; and the record date for determining shareholders for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating thereto, or the sixtieth (60th) day prior to the day of such other action, whichever is later.

(b) A determination of shareholder of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting unless the Board of Directors fixed a new record date for the adjourned meeting, but the Board of Directors shall fix a new record date if the meeting is adjourned for more than forty-five (45) days from the date set for the original meeting.

(c) Except as may be otherwise provided by the General Corporation Law, shareholders on the record date shall be entitled to notice and to vote to receive any dividend, distribution or allotment of rights or to exercise the rights, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any shares on the books of the Corporation after the record date.

Section 5. Representation of shares in other corporations

Shares of other corporations standing in the name of this Corporation may be voted or represented and all incidents thereto may be exercised on behalf of the Corporation by the Chairman of the Board, the President or any Vice President or any other person authorized by a Board of Directors' resolution.

Section 6. Meaning of certain terms

As used in these By-Laws with respect to the right to notice of a meeting of shareholders or a waiver thereof or to participate or vote thereat or to assent or consent or dissent in writing in lieu of a meeting, as the case may be, the term "share" or "shares" and to a holder or holders of record or outstanding shares when the Corporation is authorized to issue only one class of shares, and said reference is also intended to include any outstanding share or shares and any holder or holders of outstanding shares of any class upon which or upon whom the Articles of Incorporation confer such rights where there are two or more classes or series of shares or upon which or upon whom the General Corporation Law confers such rights notwithstanding that the Articles of Incorporation may provide for more than one class or series of shares, one or more of which are limited or denied such rights thereunder.

(a) As used in the By-Laws, all references to specific sections without further description, and all references to the "General Corporation Law," are in reference to the California Corporation Code.

(b) Section 6.2 As used in these By-laws, with respect to the qualifications of directors and officers to serve in such positions, such officer or director shall be qualified, disqualified, or unqualified as determined by the General Corporation Law, the Articles of Incorporation, these By-Laws, or by resolution of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI

Effects of Shareholders' Agreement -- Close Corporation

Any Shareholders' Agreement authorized by the General Corporation Law shall only be effective to modify the terms of these By-laws if this Corporation elects to become a close corporation with appropriate filing of or amendment to its Articles of Incorporation as required by the General Corporation Law and shall terminate when this Corporation ceases to be a close corporation. Such an agreement cannot waive or alter Section 158 (defining close corporations), the General Corporation Law requirements of Articles of Incorporation, the General Corporation Law relative to distributions, merger, reorganization, records and reports, rights of inspection, involuntary dissolution or crimes and penalties, or any other provision of the General Corporation Law requiring the filing of any document with the Secretary of State. All other provisions of the General Corporation Law or these By-Laws may be altered or waived thereby, but to the extent they are not so altered or waived these By-Laws shall be applicable.

ARTICLE VII

Corporate Contracts and Instruments -- How Executed

The Board of Directors, except as provided otherwise in the By-Laws, may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Unless so authorized by the Board of Directors, no officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the Corporation by any contract or agreement, or to pledge its credit, or to render it liable for any purposes or any amount, except as provided in the General Corporation Law.

ARTICLE VIII

Control over By-Laws

The By-Laws may be amended or repealed or new By-Laws may be adopted by the written consent of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote; provided, however, that if the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation set forth the number of authorized Directors of the corporation, the authorized number of Directors may be changed only by an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation. Subject to the right of the Shareholders to adopt, amend or repeal By-Laws as provided in this Article VIII, and the limitations of California Corporation Code Sections 204(a)(5) and 212, the Board of Directors may adopt, amend or repeal any of these By-Laws other than a By-Law or amendment changing the authorized number of Directors.

ARTICLE IX
Stock option Plans

Section 1. Adoption

The corporation may adopt and carry out one or more stock option plans to issue and sell or to grant options for the purchase of its shares to employees of the corporation or any subsidiary, or to a trustee on behalf of any of these employees or to any other individual or entity with which the corporation does or will do business. The shares to be sold, or for which options to purchase will be granted, under the plan may be shares that are authorized but unissued, issued and held, or subsequently acquired by the corporation. A plan may specify any consideration permitted under applicable Law as payment for the shares, may provide for payment in installments or in one lump sum and may allow employees to pay for the shares with services or otherwise. Such plans may be incentive stock option plans as defined in the Internal Revenue Code, non-incentive stock option plans or any combination thereof. Before becoming effective, any plan must be approved or authorized by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Plan Provisions

The plan may include, but not be limited to, provisions allowing the Board of Directors or any committee designated by the Board to determine the following: (a) Eligibility of employees, including officers and directors, and of other individuals and entities to participate in the plan; (b) the number and class of shares that may be subscribed for or for which options may be granted under the plan; (c) the time and method; (d) the prices at which the shares will be issued or sold; (e) whether title to the shares will be reserved to the corporation until full payment; (f) the effect of a participating employee's death or termination of employment, including whether the corporation will have any option or obligation to repurchase shares issued under the plan; (g) restrictions, if any, on transfer of the shares, and the time limits governing these restrictions and the termination of the plan; (h) termination, continuation and adjustment of participating employee's rights on the occurrence of specified contingencies, including increases or decreases in the number of issued shares of the class of stock covered by the plan without receipt of consideration by the corporation; (i) amendment, termination, interpretation and administration of the plan by the Board of Directors; and (j) subject to law, the Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws, any other matters included in the plan that are approved or authorized by the Board or its designated committee.

ARTICLE X
Transfer Restrictions; Right of First Refusal

Section 1. Corporation right to purchase shares

Any shareholder wishing to sell or transfer shares of the Corporation ("transferring shareholder") must first notify the Secretary of the Corporation by means of a writing (the "original notification") that states the number and class of shares, and the price per share, terms of the sale, and name of the proposed transferee, if any. The Corporation shall then have the right to purchase all of those shares at a price equal to the "book value" of the shares and on those terms other than the price term. The determination of the book value of shares of the Corporation by the Corporation's accountant shall be conclusive and binding upon all shareholders. The Corporation shall also have the right to purchase any number of those shares, provided that shareholders other than the transferring shareholder (the "other shareholders") agree to purchase the remainder of the shares which the transferring shareholder wishes to sell or transfer. The Corporation shall exercise either of these rights by a written election to purchase ("Corporation's election to purchase") delivered to the shareholder on or before the "Corporation's election date," which is 60 days after receipt of the original notification.

Section 2. Other shareholders' right to purchase shares

If the Corporation fails to elect to purchase within the prescribed period, or if it elects to purchase fewer than all of the shares specified in the original notification, the secretary, within 10 days after the Corporation's election date, shall send or deliver to each of the other shareholders a copy of the transferring shareholder's original notification and a statement of the number of shares not being purchased by the Corporation ("secretary's statement"). Each of the other shareholders shall then have a right (contingent on the subscription by the Corporation and shareholders of the total number of shares specified in the original notification) to purchase part or all of the available number of shares at the book value price and on the other terms stated in the original notification. A shareholder wishing to exercise this right shall return to the secretary, within 30 days after the Corporation's election date, a written shareholder's "notice of intent to purchase."

Section 3. Over-subscription

If the total number of shares specified by the other shareholders in their respective notices of intent to purchase exceeds the number of available shares specified in the secretary's statement, each purchasing shareholder shall be entitled to purchase a fraction of the number of shares specified in that shareholder's notice of intent to purchase, which fraction shall be equal to the number of shares already held by that shareholder divided by the total number of shares held by all shareholders who have returned a notice of intent to purchase.

Section 4. Under-subscription

If fewer than all the shares specified in the original notification are subscribed to under Section 1 and Section 2 of this Article X, each shareholder who desires additional shares shall be entitled to purchase a fraction of the shares not subscribed to, which fraction shall be equal to the number of shares already held by that shareholder divided by the total number of shares held by all shareholders who desire to purchase the remaining shares.

Section 5. Offer to purchase

Any notice of intent to purchase given under Section 2 of this Article X, unless the shareholder specifically states otherwise on the notice, shall also be considered an offer to purchase the number of shares to which the shareholder may be entitled under Section 3 or Section 4.

Section 6. Restrictions on Sale of the Shares

If fewer than all of the shares specified in the original notification are subscribed to under Sections 1, 2, 3, or 4 of this Article X, the transferring shareholder shall not be required to sell the specified shares, or any of them, to the corporation or to the other shareholders, but may sell or transfer all the specified shares to the proposed transferee under the terms and for the price stated in the original notification; provided, however, (i) that any such transaction is null and void if, in the event that the Corporation is an "S" Corporation, it would have the effect of increasing the Corporation's total number of shareholders to more than 35; (ii) that the transaction is null and void if it purports to sell or transfer the specified shares, or any of them, at a lower price or on terms more favorable to the transferee than those specified in the original notification; and (iii) that the sale or transfer, if any, must take place within 6 months after the date of the original notification.

Section 7. Restriction on Purchase by the Corporation

Unless otherwise prohibited by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation may purchase its own shares from any offering shareholder; provided, however, that the Corporation shall not purchase all of its outstanding voting stock. Any sale or transfer, or purported sale or transfer, of the Corporation's shares by any shareholder shall be null and void unless the terms, conditions, and provisions set forth herein are strictly followed.

Section 8. Notice

Each offer, notice, or statement provided for above shall be considered given when it is personally delivered to the person to whom it is to be given, or when it is deposited in the United States mail, by first-class mail properly addressed to such person and with all postage or other charges fully prepaid.

Section 9. Share Certificate Legend

Each share certificate to which the above restrictions are applicable shall bear the following legend: "Ownership of this certificate and the shares evidenced by this certificate may be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged, or otherwise disposed of or alienated only under and subject to the provisions in the article on transfer restrictions in this corporation's By-Laws."

Section 10. Permitted Transfers.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these By-Laws, with the prior written approval of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, any shareholder may transfer all or any portion of the shareholder's shares of the Corporation to a revocable trust for the benefit of such shareholder, or the lineal descendants of such shareholder, or the spouse of such shareholder or lineal descendant of such shareholder's spouse; provided that the shareholder shall retain a beneficial interest in the trust and all of the shares. A transfer of a shareholder's beneficial interest in such trust or the shares shall be deemed a transfer of shares in violation of these By-Laws.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these By-Laws, with the prior written approval of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, and subject to compliance with the Securities Laws, any shareholder may transfer all or any portion of the shareholder's shares of the Corporation to (i) in the case of a shareholder that is a corporation, limited liability company, or similar entity, an individual owning more than fifty percent (50%) of the beneficial equity interests of such shareholder, or (ii) an Affiliate of the shareholder, provided that the shareholder shall retain a beneficial interest in the Affiliate and all of the shares. Any transfer of a shareholder's beneficial interest in such Affiliate or the shares shall be deemed a transfer of shares in violation of these By-Laws. As used herein, "Affiliate" means, with respect to a shareholder, any person or entity directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the shareholder. The term "control" means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person or entity, whether through membership, ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise (and the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with" shall have meanings correlative to the foregoing).

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these By-Laws, any transfer of shares approved by the Board of Directors pursuant to and in accordance with the foregoing subdivisions (a) or (b) shall not be subject to Sections 1-6 of Article X of the Amended By-Laws.

ARTICLE XI Books and Records -- Statutory Agent

Section 1. Records: Storage and Inspection

The Corporation shall keep at its principal office in California, or at the principle business office in California if its principal office is not in the State, the original or a copy of the By-Laws as amended to date, which shall be open to inspection by the shareholders at all reasonable times during office hours. If the principal office of the Corporation is outside California, and if the Corporation has no principal business office in California, it shall upon request of any shareholder furnish a copy of the By-Laws as amended to date.

(a) The Corporation shall keep adequate and correct books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders, Board of Directors and committees, if any. The Corporation shall keep at its principal office, or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar, a record of its shareholders, giving the names and addresses of all shareholders and the number and class of shares held by each. Such minutes shall be kept in written form. Such other books and records shall be kept either in written form or in any other form capable of being converted into written form.

(b) The accounting books and records, records of shareholders, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders, the Board and committees of the Board of this Corporation and any subsidiary of this Corporation shall be open to inspection upon written demand on the Corporation of any shareholder or holder of a voting trust certificate at any reasonable time during usual business hours, for a purpose reasonably related to such holder's interest as a shareholder or as a holder of such voting trust certificate. Such inspection by a shareholder or holder of a voting trust certificate may be made in person or by agent or attorney, and the right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts.

(c) Every director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records and documents of every kind and to inspect the physical properties of the Corporation and any of its subsidiaries. Such inspection by a director may be made in person or by agent or attorney, and the right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts.

Section 2. Record of Payments

All checks, drafts or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness, issued in the name of or payable to the Corporation, shall be signed or endorsed by such person or persons and in such manner as shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Annual Report

Whenever the Corporation shall have fewer than one hundred (100) shareholders, the Board of Directors shall not be required to cause to be sent to the shareholders of the Corporation the annual report prescribed by the General Corporation Law unless it shall determine that a useful purpose would be served by causing the same to be sent or unless the Department of Corporations, pursuant to the provisions of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968, shall direct the sending of the same. This Section shall not affect any other provision contained in these By-Laws otherwise controlling annual reports.

Section 4. Construction of Terms

Unless the context otherwise requires, the general provisions, Rules of Construction on Definitions contained in the General Corporation Law of California shall govern the construction of these By-Laws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the masculine gender includes the feminine and neuter. The singular number includes the plural and the plural number includes the singular. The term "person" includes a corporation as well as a natural person.

Section 5. Corporate Seal

The Board of Directors shall adopt, use and at will alter a corporate seal. Any corporate seal shall be circular in form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, the date of its incorporation and the word "California."

Section 6. Agent for Service of Process

The Corporation shall have and maintain a registered agent within the State of California and within all other states in which it is required by applicable law, who shall be such qualified persons as may be designated by the Board of Directors from time to time.

2. Representations and Warranties of the Company. The Company hereby represents and warrants to the Purchaser that the following representations are true and complete as of the date of the Closing, except as otherwise indicated:

2.1 Organization, Good Standing, Corporate Power and Qualification. 2.2 Valid Issuance of the Shares. The Shares, when issued, sold, and delivered in accordance with the terms and for the consideration set forth in this Agreement, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of restrictions on transfer other than restrictions on transfer under the Transaction Documents, applicable state and federal securities laws, and liens or encumbrances by or imposed by the Purchaser.

2.3 Compliance with Other Instruments. To the Company’s knowledge, the sale of the Shares will not place the Company in violation or default (a) of any provisions of the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, (b) of any judgment, order, writ or decree of any court or governmental authority, (c) under any agreement, instrument, contract, lease, note, indenture, mortgage or purchase order, or (d) of any provision of federal or state statute, rule or regulation materially applicable to the Company. 3. Representations and Warranties of the Purchaser. The Purchaser hereby represents and warrants to the Company as follows:

3.1 Organization, Good Standing, Corporate Power and Qualification. 3.3 Access to Information. The Purchaser has been furnished with, and has had access to, all information that he/she/it considers necessary or appropriate for deciding whether to invest in the Shares, including the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation, and the Purchaser has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the issuance of the Shares.

3.4 Speculative Investment. The Purchaser is aware that his/her/its investment in the Company is a speculative investment that has limited liquidity and is subject to the risk of complete loss. The Purchaser is able, without impairing his/her/its financial condition, to hold the Shares for an indefinite period and to suffer a complete loss of his investment in the Shares.

3.5 Authorization. The Purchaser has full power and authority to enter into the Transaction Documents. The Transaction Documents to which such Purchaser is a party, when executed and delivered by the Purchaser, will constitute valid and legally binding obligations of the Purchaser, enforceable in accordance with their terms, except (a) as limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance, and any other laws of general application relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors’ rights generally, or (b) the effect of rules of law governing the availability of equitable remedies.

3.6 No Public Market. The Purchaser understands that no public market now exists for the Shares, and that the Company has made no assurances that a public market will ever exist for the Shares.

3.7 Exculpation Among Purchasers. The purchaser acknowledges that it is not relying upon any person, other than the Company and its officers and directors, in making its investment or decision to invest in the Company. The Purchaser agrees that neither any Purchaser nor the respective controlling persons, officers, directors, partners, agents, or employees of any Purchaser shall be liable to any other Purchaser for any action heretofore taken or omitted to be taken by any of them in connection with the purchase of the Shares.

3.8 Residence. INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REVIEW REPORT

To the Board of Directors of
TOKYOPOP Inc.
Marina Del Rey, California

We have reviewed the consolidated accompanying financial statements of TOKYOPOP Inc. (the "Company"), which comprises the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years ending December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements. A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of company management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Accountant's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to conduct the review in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the AICPA. Those standards require us to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance as a basis for reporting whether we are aware of any material modifications that should be made to the financial statements for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. We believe that the results of our procedures provide a reasonable basis for our conclusion.

We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements related to our reviews.

Accountant's Conclusion

Based on our reviews, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Substantial Doubt about the Company's Ability to Continue as a Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 11 to the financial statements, the Company has incurred losses from operations and has experienced negative cash flows from operating activities. These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans regarding these matters are also described in Note 11. Our conclusion is not modified with respect to this matter.

TOKYOPOP INC

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AS OF AND FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025 AND 2024

1. NATURE OF OPERATION

TOKYOPOP Inc. was incorporated on February 4, 1997, in the State of California under the name Mixx Entertainment, Inc. On May 9, 2003, the Company changed its name to TOKYOPOP Inc. The Company has a wholly owned subsidiary called TOKYOPOP GmbH, incorporated on February 9, 2023 in Hamburg, Germany. The financial statements of TOKYOPOP Inc. (which may be referred to as the "Company", "we", "us", or "our") are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"). The Company's headquarters are located in Marina Del Rey, California.

TOKYOPOP Inc. is an entertainment and publishing company that licenses, publishes, and distributes manga, graphic novels, and related content, as well as develops media and merchandise based on Asian pop culture properties. The Company operates primarily in the United States and internationally through licensing and publishing activities.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The summary of significant accounting policies is presented to assist in understanding the Company's financial statements. The accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP" and "US GAAP").

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with US GAAP and the Company has adopted the calendar year as its basis of reporting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Basis of Consolidation

The Company's consolidated financial statements include accounts of subsidiary TOKYOPOP GmbH located in Germany over which the Company exercises control. All significant intercompany transactions and accounts have been eliminated.

Cash

Cash includes all cash in banks. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company's cash & cash equivalents exceeded FDIC insured limits by $475,013 and $1,536,119, respectively.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company is subject to concentrations of credit risks primarily from cash, cash equivalents and accounts receivable. At various times during the years, the Company may have bank deposits in excess of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insurance limits. Management believes any credit risk is low due to the overall financial strength of the financial institutions. Accounts receivable consist of uncollateralized receivables from customers/clients primarily located throughout the United States of America.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable consist primarily of trade receivables from distributors, licensing partners, retailers, and other commercial customers related to the Company's publishing, licensing, and distribution activities. Receivables are generally unsecured and are recorded at the invoiced amount, net of any allowance for expected credit losses.

The Company evaluates expected credit losses in accordance with ASC 326, Financial Instruments — Credit Losses, using a methodology that considers historical collection experience, current economic conditions, aging of receivables, and specific customer risk factors. Based on historical collection experience and the nature of the Company's customer base, management has determined that an allowance for expected credit losses was not necessary as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

TOKYOPOP INC

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AS OF AND FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025 AND 2024

Collection terms vary depending on the nature of the customer relationship but are generally consistent with standard commercial terms. Management reviews outstanding balances on a periodic basis and writes off receivables when they are determined to be uncollectible.

Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Inventories consist primarily of printed books, graphic novels, and related merchandise held for sale. Inventory is stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value using the FIFO method.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Expenditures for additions, major renewals and betterments are capitalized, and expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged against income as incurred. When property and equipment are retired or otherwise disposed of, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any resulting gain or loss is reflected in statements of operations.

Depreciation and amortization of property and equipment are computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets. Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over either the useful life of the improvement or the remainder of the related lease term, whichever is shorter.

Estimated useful lives for property and equipment are as follows:

Category	Useful Life
Computer equipment & software	5 years
Office equipment	5 years
Furniture & fixtures	5 years

Impairment of Long Lived Assets

Long-lived assets, including property and equipment and intangible assets, are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of such assets may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recorded in the period in which it is determined that the carrying amount is not recoverable. The determination of recoverability is made based on an estimate of undiscounted future cash flows resulting from the use of the asset and its eventual disposition. The measurement of the impairment for long-lived assets is based on the asset's estimated fair value. No such impairment was recorded for the year ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when it transfers promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services. In determining when and how revenue is to be recognized from contracts with customers, the Company performs the following five step analysis laid under Accounting Standard Codification ("ASC") 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers: (1) identification of contract with customers, (2) determination of performance obligations, (3) measurement of the transaction price, (4) allocation of transaction price to the performance obligations, and (5) recognition of revenue when or as the company satisfies each performance obligation.

The Company generates revenue primarily from the licensing, publishing, and distribution of manga, graphic novels, and related media content, as well as from merchandise sales and licensing agreements.

Income Taxes

The Company is taxed as a C corporation for income tax purposes. The Company accounts for income taxes under the liability method, and deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying values of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. A valuation allowance is provided on deferred tax assets if it is determined that it is more likely than not that the deferred tax asset will not be realized. The Company records interest, net of any applicable related income tax benefit, on potential income tax contingencies as a component of income tax expense. The Company records tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return based upon the amount that is more likely than not to be realized or paid, including in connection with the resolution of any related appeals or other legal processes. Accordingly, the Company recognizes liabilities for certain unrecognized tax benefits based on the amounts that are more likely than not to be settled with the relevant taxing authority. The Company recognizes interest and/or penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of income tax expense.

TOKYOPOP INC

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AS OF AND FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025 AND 2024

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying value of the Company's financial instruments included in current assets and current liabilities (such as cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of such instruments).

The inputs used to measure fair value are based on a hierarchy that prioritizes observable and unobservable inputs used in valuation techniques. These levels, in order of highest to lowest priority, are described below:

Level 1 — Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 — Observable prices that are based on inputs not quoted on active markets but corroborated by market data.

Level 3 — Unobservable inputs reflecting the Company's assumptions, consistent with reasonably available assumptions made by other market participants. These valuations require significant judgment.

Advertising & Promotional Costs

Advertising and promotional costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising and promotional expenses for the years ended December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024, amounted to $665,963 and $645,436, which is included in sales and marketing expenses.

Event-related Expenses

Event-related expenses are expensed as incurred and include costs of organizing and hosting events. Event-related expenses for the years ended December 31, 2025, and 2024 amounted to $2,067,069 and $0, respectively, and are presented within operating expenses. In 2025, these costs primarily relate to the "Naruto the Gallery" exhibition.

Promissory Notes and Term Loans

Promissory notes and term loans are initially recognized at the principal amount received, net of any debt issuance costs. Interest expense is recognized using the effective interest method. The Company evaluates debt for modifications or extinguishments and derecognizes the liability when legally released from the obligation.

Related Party Transactions

The Company may engage in financing arrangements with related parties, including significant shareholders or entities under common control. These transactions are reviewed and approved by management to ensure they are conducted at arm's length or under terms considered reasonable given the related party relationship and the Company's financing needs.

Loans from related parties are recognized as liabilities when cash is received or the obligation is incurred. These loans may be interest-free and may not have stated repayment terms. In such cases, if no fixed repayment schedule exists and there is no expectation or contractual requirement to repay the loan within the next twelve months, the loan is classified as a noncurrent liability in the balance sheet. If repayment is expected within twelve months or callable by the lender on demand, the loan is classified as a current liability.

Subsequent Events

The Company considers events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date, but prior to the issuance of the financial statements to provide additional evidence relative to certain estimates or to identify matters that require additional disclosure. Subsequent events have been evaluated through the date the financial statements were issued.

7. EQUITY AND CAPITALIZATION

Common Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 20,000,000 shares of common stock with no par value. As of December 31, 2025, and 2024, 6,379,926 shares of common stock have been issued and were outstanding.

8. INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes for the year ended December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024 consists of the following:

TOKYOPOP INC

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AS OF AND FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025 AND 2024

For the Year Ended December 31,	2025	2024
Net Operating Loss	$ (297,695)	$ -
Valuation Allowance	297,695	-
Net Provision For Income Tax	$ -	$ -

Significant components of the Company's deferred tax assets and liabilities at December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024 are as follows:

As of December 31,	2025	2024
Net Operating Loss	$ (297,695)	$ -
Valuation Allowance	297,695	-
Total Deferred Tax Asset	$ -	$ -

Management assesses the available positive and negative evidence to estimate if sufficient future taxable income will be generated to use the existing deferred tax assets. On the basis of this evaluation, the Company has determined that it is more likely than not that the Company will not recognize the benefits of the federal and state net deferred tax assets, and, as a result, full valuation allowance has been set against its net deferred tax assets as of December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024. The amount of the deferred tax asset to be realized could be adjusted if estimates of future taxable income during the carry-forward period are reduced or increased.

For the fiscal year ending December 31, 2025, the Company had federal cumulative net operating loss ("NOL") carryforwards of $997,637. Utilization of some of the federal and state NOL carryforwards to reduce future income taxes will depend on the Company's ability to generate sufficient taxable income prior to the expiration of the carryforwards. The federal net operating loss carryforward is subject to an 80% limitation on taxable income, does not expire, and will carry on indefinitely.

The Company recognizes the impact of a tax position in the financial statements if that position is more likely than not to be sustained on a tax return upon examination by the relevant taxing authority, based on the technical merits of the position. As of December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024, the Company had no unrecognized tax benefits.

The Company recognizes interest and penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense. As of December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024, the Company had no accrued interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions.

9. CONTINGENCIES AND COMMITMENTS

Contingencies

The Company's operations are subject to a variety of local, state, and federal regulations. Failure to comply with these requirements may result in fines, penalties, restrictions on operations, or losses of permits, which will have an adverse impact on the Company's operations and might result in an outflow of economic resources.

Litigation and Claims

From time to time, the Company may be involved in or exposed to litigation arising from operations in the normal course of business. As of December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024, there were no pending or threatened lawsuits that could reasonably be expected to have a material effect on the results of the Company's operations.

TOKYOPOP INC

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AS OF AND FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025 AND 2024

10. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During the periods presented, the Company borrowed funds from TP-KK, a Japanese entity under common ownership. The loan is non-interest bearing and matures on July 31, 2029. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the outstanding balance was $542,308 and $650,393, respectively.

11. GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern. As of December 31, 2025, the Company has incurred a net loss of approximately $997,636 and has experienced negative cash flows from operations of approximately $1,966,546. In addition, the Company has cash and cash equivalents of approximately $1,565,217, which may not be sufficient to fund operations for the next twelve months from the date these financial statements are available to be issued.

These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date these financial statements are available to be issued.

Management's plans include generating additional revenues and obtaining additional financing through debt and/or equity offerings. However, there can be no assurance that such financing will be available in sufficient amounts or on terms acceptable to the Company, if at all. Accordingly, management's plans do not alleviate the substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

12. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company evaluated events occurring after the balance sheet date through the date these financial statements were issued and determined that there were no events requiring adjustment to, or disclosure in, the financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Members of TOKYOPOP Investor Holdings, LLC
Marina Del Rey, CA

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of TOKYOPOP Investor Holdings, LLC. (hereinafter referred to as "the Company"), which comprises the balance sheet as of the Inception date (January 28, 2026), and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity/(deficit), and cash flows for the one day then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of the Inception date (January 28, 2026), and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the one day then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Going Concern

As discussed in Note 7, certain conditions indicate that the Company may be unable to continue as a going concern. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of twelve months from the date of issuance of these financial statements.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of these financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“US GAAP”). The Company has adopted the calendar year as its basis of reporting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with United States GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash with a major financial institution located in the United States of America which it believes to be creditworthy. Balances are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000. At times, the Company may maintain balances in excess of the federally insured limits.

Related Parties

The Company discloses transactions with related parties in accordance with ASC 850, Related Party Disclosures. Related parties include directors, officers, principal owners, their immediate family members, and entities under common ownership or control. Transactions with related parties are recorded at amounts agreed upon between the parties, which may not necessarily be equivalent to amounts that would have been incurred in an arm's-length transaction. The Company evaluates related party arrangements on a periodic basis to determine the appropriate recognition, measurement, and disclosure in the financial statements.

Contingencies and Commitments

The Company accounts for commitments and contingencies in accordance with ASC 450, Contingencies. A liability for a loss contingency is recognized when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. 4. CONTINGENCIES AND COMMITMENTS

Contingencies

The Company's operations are subject to a variety of local, state, and federal regulations. Failure to comply with these requirements may result in fines, penalties, restrictions on operations, or losses of permits, which will have an adverse impact on the Company's operations and might result in an outflow of economic resources.

Litigation and Claims

From time to time, the Company may be involved in or exposed to litigation arising from operations in the normal course of business. As of January 28, 2026, there were no pending or threatened lawsuits that could reasonably be expected to have a material effect on the results of the Company's operations.

7. GOING CONCERN

The Company lacks significant working capital and has only recently commenced operations. We will incur significant additional costs before significant revenue is achieved. These matters raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. During the next 12 months, the Company intends to fund its operations with funding from our proposed Regulation Crowdfunding campaign, and additional debt and/or equity financing as determined to be necessary. There are no assurances that management will be able to raise capital on terms acceptable to the Company. If we are unable to obtain sufficient amounts of additional capital, we may be required to reduce the scope of our planned development, which could harm our business, financial condition and operating results. The balance sheet and related financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from these uncertainties.

When I was 21, I came to Japan for the first time. It was 1989. I was a law student spending the summer with a local family. Every night the young son would watch Dragon Ball Z. I started watching with him and I got hooked. A few weeks later, a friend handed me a stack of manga. I sat on the floor of my six tatami mat room and I read parasite, then Slam dunk.

I couldn't put him down. I remember thinking, why doesn't everybody back home know about this? Answering that question became my life work. Tokyopop.

00:00:40.440 — 00:02:42.240

When we started in 1997, manga wasn't mainstream in the West. We built that category. For nearly 30 years, we've connected eastern storytelling with Western audiences today. Manga and anime are a global cultural force now. For the first time, we're inviting fans to own a piece. The biggest anime franchises begin as visual stories, often as manga.

Increasingly as webtoons, we've learned how to spot the stories that connect. We discover them at their source in Japan, Korea, China, and beyond. Bring them to global audiences. Be published first. Let the fans tell us what's working. Then grow the ones that catch fire. That's the Tokyopop IP engine.

Our secret sauce. A single story can reach fans as a book on the shelf. Figure on the desk in anime, on the screen. A live event they'll never forget. We've published thousands of books across hundreds of properties in more than 50 countries and 30 languages. We do this through licensing arrangements with companies like Kodansha, Shueisha, Crunchyroll, even Disney and Mattel.

With a small team that understands how all the pieces fit together, but it always begins with the story and characters. The stories we've been telling for decades are now at the center of the fastest growing area in entertainment. Global anime and manga market is expected to grow from $37 billion to over $60 billion by 2030.

We're already generating $15 million annually, and with the Tokyopop IP engine in place, we're aiming to grow that to $50 million in the next few years. Back on that tatami floor in Japan, it all started with the Simple dream a manga in every backpack.

Tokyopop reshaped pop culture in the West. That was my chapter. But the next one we write together. Join us. Become an owner in Tokyopop today.
