Hi Steven,
You may already be using Lumohs in your treatment room — or considering it.

Lumohs was built to solve everyday frustrations:

- Touchless blade changing system
- Built-in illumination
- Safer workflow for staff
- Clearer visibility

Now, for the first time, estheticians can own part of the company behind it.

We've opened a community investment round specifically so professionals in the treatment room can participate as we scale.

Reservations start at $100.
No funds are collected until the round officially opens.

For estheticians who choose the $500 level, we include a thank-you perk:

- ✓ Equity ownership in Nano Surgical
- ✓ Lumohs Pro Kit (two reusable illuminated handles, retail value $299)

If you believe in the direction Lumohs is heading, this is an opportunity to move from user to owner.

You can review the details here: wefunder.com/lumohs

Warm regards,
Steven
