Offering Statement

Respond to each question in each paragraph of this part. For both each question and any notes, but not any instructions therein, in their entirety. If disclosure in response to any question is responsive to one or more other questions, it is not necessary to repeat the disclosure. If a question or series of questions is inapplicable or the response is available elsewhere in the Form C, either state that it is inapplicable, include a cross-reference to the respective disclosure, or omit the question or series of questions.

Be very careful and precise in answering all questions. Give full and complete answers so that they are not misleading under the circumstances involved. Do not discuss any future performance or other anticipated event unless you have a reasonable basis to believe that it will actually occur within the foreseeable future. If any answer requiring significant information is materially inaccurate, incomplete or misleading, the Company, its management and principal shareholders may be liable to investors based on that information.

THE COMPANY

Name of issuer:

Home World Inc. dba. Artificial Grass Depot

COMPANY ELIGIBILITY

I, the issuer, hereby certify that all of the issuing statements herein to the issuer:

- Origin and under and subject to the laws of a State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia;
- Not subject to the requirements of the reports pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934;
- Not an investment company registered or required to be registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940;
- Not ineligible to rely on this exemption under Section 4(a)(1)(B) of the Securities Act as a result of a "safe harbor" specific in Rule 203(a) of Regulation Crowdfunding;
- Has filed with the Commission and provided to investors, in the relevant period, the ongoing annual reports required by Regulation Crowdfunding during the two-year (or, if available, preceding) filing of this offering statement for each such ten-year period that the issuer was required to file such reports;
- Not a development stage company that (a) has no specific business plan or (b) has indicated that its business plan is to engage in a merger or acquisition with an unaffiliated company or companies.

WARRANTY FROM REGISTRATION: The issuer warrants that the information provided in this offering statement is true and accurate in all material respects.

This offering is not being made by general solicitation or general advertising under Section 4(a)(1) of the Securities Act.

3. Has the issuer or any of its predecessors previously failed to comply with the ongoing reporting requirements of Rule 202(c) Regulation Crowdfunder?

This means that any information provided in your business plan will be provided to the SEC in response to this question. As a result, your company will be potentially liable for misstatements or omissions in your business plan under the Securities Act of 1933, which requires you to provide accurate information in detail in your business and anticipated business plan. Please review your business plan carefully to ensure it provides all material information, is not false or misleading, and does not omit any information that would cause the information included to be false or misleading.

RISK FACTORS

A crowdfunding investment involves risk. You should not invest any funds in this offering unless you can afford to lose your entire investment.

In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, these authorities have not passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

8. Discuss the material factors that make an investment in the issuer speculative or risky:

Market conditions could be volatile over time. Results of operations in a market of economic uncertainty could be volatile, and local environments may impact outcomes.

Use of funds is expected to have the health of business and progress toward economic objectives, and not limited to, yet not limited to, product development, marketing, of products and production of products, together with expansion of inventory as when needed.

Funds may be used for Company General and specific overheads as deemed necessary to insure the health operations and success of the company. These funds may be used for a variety of operational expenses including, but not limited to, for product development, professional services, marketing, inventory and General Overhead as may be needed from time to time.

Investor understand and agree that the Company may experience "liquidity events" such as sale of assets or liquidation from time to time, or on occasion in the interest of benefiting shareholders of the company's future operations.

The company Shares of Equities held by investors (if any) are always subject to repurchase by the company at fair professional independent valuation per share, and the Company has first purchase rights of Company shares outstanding with others, to protect the share value for the company's benefit.

Company may engage in and raise more Capital by various means available with out restriction, in the interests of the Company, and to protect the interests of the company's shareholders at a future date for further expansion or other company business.

Investing is subject to risks and should be made only by persons or entities able to bear the risk of loss to substantial portions of the investment. Investors should always conduct their own due diligence and consult with reputable financial advisers, attorney, accountant, and any other professional that can help them to understand and assess the risks associated with any investment opportunity. Major risks, including those related to the performance of some or all principal, are disclosed in the private placement memorandum and prospectus for the offering. The offering is speculative, illiquid, and unsecured. Past performance is not indicative of future results.

This material, set forth on the Company's website and presentations were prepared by the Company and/or analyst contained therein are based, in part, on certain assumptions or data made by the information obtained from the Company and/or from other sources. This information may not be complete and has not been subjected to any independent audit or review. The Company's financial estimates have not been verified by an external auditor, and we cannot guarantee that a third party's use of financial methods would obtain or generate the same results. The Company does not have any review follow-up or any other review or follow-up in relation to the financials, reasonable view, adequate accuracy or completeness of the information, statements or opinions, whenever their source contained in such materials or any oral information provided in connection with the presentation or discussions with investors or any data, information, and complete responsibility obligation of liability (whether direct or indirect, in contract, tort or otherwise) in relation to any of such information. The information and opinions contained in the materials are provided as of the date specified therein and are subject to change without notice and do not purport to contain all information that may be required to evaluate the Company. The Company and its affiliates, officers, employees, and agents expressly disclaim any and all liability which may be based on the materials.

The Company's growth strategy depends on rapidly scaling from its current base locations to 30 retail stores across California and its Southwest using a combination of model centered around central regional warehouses. This expansion requires significant capital deployment, real estate procurement, and overall total workload across multiple markets nationwide. Failure to execute this expansion on time or within budget could materially impair the Company's ability to reach its projected $60 million annual revenue target.

The Company's business is heavily concentrated in California and the Southwest, markets where retail sales are more driven by winter holiday seasons and strong conditions. A winter sales or regulatory or prolonged period of low average rainfall or other significant regional programs for its replacement could significantly reduce sales and demand for the Company's products. This geographic concentration means the Company has limited ability to either mitigate market downturns through operations in other areas.

The Company markets its commodities advantage being sold in proprietary 150-gram industry polymer blends that differentiate its products from lower quality competitors. If the Company were to lose access to its suppliers of these proprietary materials, face disruptions in its supply chain, or if competitors were to develop similar alternative products, the Company's pricing power and gross margins could be materially and adversely affected. The pitch does not disclose the specific nature of supplier agreements or whether exclusivity protections are in place.

The Company projects $70 million in annual sales with $4 million in annual profit; these future forecasts, and forecasts scaling to $75 million in revenue within five years, based on an assumed average of $2 million in revenue per store annually. These forecasts are forward-looking and are not guaranteed, and they depend on assumptions about customer acquisition, contractor relationships, and store performance that may not materialize as expected. Investors should be aware that the Company's current financials are based on historical data and are not representative of the results it would achieve across 30 locations in later months.

The Company may never receive a future equity financing or elect to convert the Securities into cash future financing. In addition, the Company may never undergo a liquidity event such as a sale of the Company or an IPO. Whether the conversion of the Securities into a liquidity event occurs, the investors could be selling the Securities in perpetuity. The Securities have no demand transfer restrictions and will likely be highly illiquid with no secondary market on which to sell them. The Securities are not equity interests, have no ownership rights, have no rights to the Company's assets or profits and have no voting rights or ability to direct the Company or its operations.

Due future success depends on the efforts of a small management team that is recapitalized to increase and widen as company successes may dictate. The loss of services of the members of

The management team may have an adverse effect on the Company. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in attracting and retaining other personnel we require to successfully grow our business.

Our future success depends on the efforts of a small management team. The loss of members of the management team may have an adverse effect on the Company. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in attracting and retaining other personnel we require to successfully grow our business.

INSTRUCTION TO QUESTIONS 8, 9, and 10: Generalized statements are included only where factors that are unique to the issuer. Please refer to the full text of the issuer's business and the offering and disclosure report. The factors identified in the general statements above are specific examples that may be required to be disclosed.

The Offering

USE OF FUNDS

8. What is the purpose of this offering?

The Company intends to use the net proceeds of this offering for working capital and general corporate purposes, which includes the specific items listed in Item 10 below. While the Company expects to use the net proceeds from this offering in the manner described above, it cannot specify with certainty the particular uses of the net proceeds that it will receive from this offering. Accordingly, the Company will have broad discretion in using these proceeds.

9. How does the issuer intend to use the proceeds of this offering?

The net proceeds of $50,000 will be used for 92% opening new locations, 8% Working capital

The net proceeds of $124,000

will be used for 92% opening new locations, 8% Working capital and to move faster opening our new locations, effectively allowing us to scale business faster.

INSTRUCTION TO QUESTIONS 9: An issuer must provide a reasonably detailed description of any identifiable use of proceeds, such that investors can reasonably make an informed decision of the merits of such use and the expected proceeds will be used. The issuer has identified a proper possible use, but does not identify the amount of such proceeds and the issuer has not provided an allocation procedure to allocate the proceeds among the potential uses. If the issuer will accept proceeds in excess of the target offering amount, the issuer must disclose the process, method of allocating remaining proceeds, and intended use of the excess proceeds with similar specificity. Please include all potential uses of the proceeds of the offering, including any that may apply only in the case of excess offerings. If you do not do so, you may later be required to amend your Form C, if necessary to use net proceeds to pay to subscribe a potential use of offering proceeds.

DELIVERY & CANCELLATIONS

11. How will the issuer complete the transaction and deliver securities to the investors?

Stock Entry and Investment in the Co-Issuer: Investors will make their investments by investing in interests issued by one or more co-issuers, each of which is a special purpose vehicle ("SPV"). The SPV will invest all amounts it receives from investors in securities issued by the Company. Interest is issued to investors by the SPV will be in book entry form. This means that the investor will not receive a physical certificate representing his or her investment. Each investment will be recorded in the books and records of the SPV, as set forth in Investor Interest in the Investments will be recorded in each investor's "portal" page on the Veelandra's platform. A reference in this Form C to an investor's investment in the Company (or similar phrasing) should be interpreted to include investments in a SPV.

12. How can an investor cancel an investment commitment?

NOTE: Investors may cancel an investment commitment until 48 hours prior to the deadline identified in these offering materials.

The intermediary will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met. If the issuer reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, it may close the offering early. If it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment).

If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the offering deadline, the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment.

If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned.

An investor's right to cancel. An investor may cancel his or her investment commitment at any time until 48 hours prior to the offering deadline.

If there is a material change to the terms of the offering or the information provided to the investor about the offering and/or the Company, the investor will be provided notice of the change and must re-confirm his or her investment commitment within the business days of receipt of the notice. If the investor does not reconfirm, he or she will receive notification disclosing that the commitment was cancelled, the reason for the cancellation, and the refund amount that the investor is required to receive. If a material change occurs within the business days of the maximum number of days the offering is to remain open, the offering will be extended to allow for a period of five business days for the investor to reconfirm.

If the investor cancels his or her investment commitment during the period when cancellation is permissible, or does not reconfirm a commitment in the case of a material change to the investment, or the offering does not close, all of the investor's funds will be returned within five business days.

Within five business days of cancellation of an offering by the Company, the Company will give each investor notification of the cancellation, disclose the reason for the cancellation, identify the refund amount the investor will receive, and refund the investor's funds.

The Company's right to cancel. The Investment Agreement you will execute with us provides the Company the right to cancel for any reason before the offering deadline.

If the sum of the investment commitments from all investors does not equal or exceed the target offering amount at the time of the offering deadline, no securities will be sold in the offering, investment commitments will be cancelled and committed funds will be returned.

Ownership and Capital Structure

THE OFFERING

13. Describe the terms of the securities being offered.

To view a copy of the SAFE, you will purchase, please see Appendix B, Investor Contracts. The main terms of the SAFE are presented below.

The SAFE's key offering terms are in the terms of a Simple Agreement for Future Equity ("SAFE"), which provides investors the right to Preferred Stock in the Company ("Preferred Stock"), which and if the Company sponsors an equity offering that involves Preferred Stock, on the standard terms outlined in other investors.

Conversion of Preferred Equity. Based on our SAFEs when we engage in an offering of equity interests involving Preferred Stock, investors will receive a number of shares of Preferred Stock calculated using the method that results in the greater number of Preferred Stock:

- the total value of the investor's investment, divided by:
 - the price of Preferred Stock issued to new investors multiplied by
 - 1.75 discount rate (75%), or
 - the valuation for the company if more than $4,500,000.00 (the "Valuation Cap"), the amount invested by the investor divided by the quotient of:
 - the Valuation Cap divided by
 - the total amount of the company's capitalization at that time.
- If, for investors up to the first $100,000.00 of the valuation, investors will receive a valuation cap of $2,000,000.00, which is less than $4,500,000.00. Valuation Cap amounts will be set aside to close to us for the entire duration of the offering, even if the threshold limit noted above is met.

Additional Terms of the Valuation Cap. For purposes of section 13 above, the Company's capitalization calculated as of immediately prior to the Equity Financing and (without double-counting, in each case calculated on an as-converted to Common Stock basis):

- Includes all shares of Capital Stock issued and outstanding;
- Includes all Converting Securities;
- Includes all (i) Issued and outstanding Options and (ii) Promoted Options; and
- Includes the Unissued Option Pool, except that any increase to the Unissued Option Pool in connection with the Equity Financing shall only be included to the extent that the number of Promoted Options exceeds the Unissued Option Pool prior to such increase.

Priority Events. If the Company has an initial public offering or is acquired by merger with, or otherwise taken over by another company or new owners prior to investors in the SAFEs, receive Preferred Stock, investors will receive:

- proceeds equal to the greater of (i) the Purchase Amount (the "Cash Out Amount") or (ii) the amount payable on the number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the Liquidation Price (the "Conversion Amount");

Priority Payment. In a liquidation event or dissolution event, the SAFE is intended to operate as standard for non-voting Preferred Stock. The investor's right to receive its Cash Out Amount is (i) prior to payment of outstanding indebtedness and creditor claims, including contractual claims for payment and convertible promissory notes to the extent such convertible promissory notes do not actually or not only converted into Capital Stock;

- On set with payments to convertible debenture holders, stock, and other applicable financing; are liquidated to pay in full payments of (i) the investor and (ii) the Seller and (iii) Preferred Stock, the applicable Proceeds will be distributed pro rata to the investor and such other Sales made Preferred Stock in proportion to the payments that would otherwise be made; and
- For the purposes of Common Stock.

VIP Issues

ADDITIONAL CANCELLATIONS will offer a return in the normal terms listed in a Form C for all investors that are committed by investors who are part of the Veelandra's VIP program. This means eligible Veelandra investors will receive a check for any securities they purchased in this offering. For more specific details on the company's discount, please refer to the description of the terms above.

This document is only valid until the offering closes. Investors of this offering will also receive a prospectus if they are a resident of the country in which the offering is being made. If you are not a resident of the country in which the offering is being made, you will be given the first opportunity to invest, if applicable, if the offering becomes available due to the cancellation or failure of previous investments.

Securities Issued by the SPV

Instead of issuing its own securities, the Company has decided to issue its securities to the SPV which will then issue the securities to the SPV investors. The SPV is formed concurrently with the filing of the Form C. Overall, the SPV does not have any financial goals or purposes. The SPV is managed by Wefunder Admin, LLC and is co-located with the Company at the principal office in the offering. The Company's use of the SPV is intended to allow investors in the SPV to achieve the same economic outcome, voting power, and ability to assert state and federal law rights, as if they were the same investors, and if they are investors directly in the Company. While the investor may be required to pay an additional fee to the SPV for the maintenance of the SPV, investors should note that the Company's use of the SPV will not result in any additional fees being charged to investors.

The SPV has been organized and will be operated for the sole purpose of directly acquiring, holding and disposing of the Company's securities, will not borrow money and will use all of the proceeds from the sale of its securities solely to purchase a single class of securities of the Company. As a result, an investor investing in the Company through the SPV will have the same relationship to the Company's securities, in terms of number, denomination, type and rights, as if the investor invested directly in the Company.

Voting Rights

If the securities offered by the Company and those offered by the SPV have voting rights, those voting rights may be exercised by the investor or his or her proxy. The applicable proxy is the Lead Investor, if the Proxy (described below) is not filed.

Proxy to the Lead Investor

The SPV securities have voting rights. With respect to those voting rights, the investor and his, her, or its successors or assigns, collectively the "Investor," through a power of attorney granted by investor in the Investor Agreement, has appointed or will appoint the Lead Investor as the investor's true and lawful proxy and attorney (the "Proxy") with the power to act alone and with full power of substitution on behalf of the Investor to: (i) vote a security held by the Company purchased in or offered by the Investor; (ii) execute, sign, and deliver, in connection with such voting power, any instrument or document that the Lead Investor determines is necessary and appropriate in the exercise of his or her authority; such Proxy will be revocable by the Investor unless and until a successor-investor (the "Successor Lead Investor") takes the place of the Lead Investor. Upon notice of a Replacement Lead Investor has taken the place of the Lead Investor, the investor will have five (5) calendar days to revoke the Proxy. If the Proxy is not revoked within the 5-day time period, it shall remain in effect.

Restriction on Transferability

The SPV securities are subject to restrictions on transfer, set forth in the Subscription Agreement and the Limited Liability Company Agreement of Wefunder SPV, LLC, and may not be transferred without the prior approval of the Company on behalf of the SPV.

16. Do you waive the effect of state voting rights?

- Yes
 No

17. Are there any limitations on any voting or other rights described above?

See the above description of the Proxy to the Lead Investor.

18. How may the terms of the securities being offered be amended?

Any provision of this Sale may be amended, waived or modified by written consent of the Company or either:

- The Investor or
- The majority in interest of all then outstanding Sales with the same "Post Money Valuation Cap" and "Discount" that are in the level sales being sold on both of such terms will be considered to be the same with respect to such term(s) provided that with respect to clause (b):
 - The Purchase Amount may not be amended, waived or modified in this manner;
 - In the consent of the investor and each holder of such Sales, such holder(s) must be solicited (even if not through a proxy); and
 - Such amendment, waiver or modification treats all such holders in the same manner."Majority in interest" refers to all holders of the applicable group of Sales or of such Sales that total Purchase Amount is greater than 50% of the total Purchase Amount of all of such applicable group of Sales.

Pursuant to authorization in the Investor Agreement, between each Investor and Wefunder Portal, Wefunder Portal is authorized to take the following actions with respect to the Investment contract between the Company and an Investor:

- Wefunder Portal may amend the terms of an investment contract, provided that the amended terms are more favorable to the investor than the original terms; and
- Wefunder Portal may reduce the amount of an investor's investment, if the reason for the reduction is that the Company's offering is oversubscribed.

RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER OF THE SECURITIES BEING OFFERED:

The securities being offered may not be transferred by any purchaser of such securities during the one year period beginning when the securities were issued, unless such securities are transferred:

- to the issuer;
- to an accredited investor;
- as part of an offering registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; or
- to a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or a trust established by the purchaser, or a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser, or other similar circumstance.

NOTE: The term "accredited investor" means any person who comes within any of the categories set forth in Rule 501(a) of the Regulation D, or who the seller reasonably believes comes within any of such categories, at the time of the sale of the securities to that person.

The term "member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent" includes a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, step-parent, grandparent, spouse or former spouse, sibling, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, cousin, in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the purchaser, and includes a spouse relationship. The term "special relationship" means a relationship occupying a relationship generally equivalent to that of a spouse.

DESCRIPTION OF ISSUER'S SECURITIES

19. What other securities or classes of securities of the issuer are outstanding (consider the instrument terms of any other outstanding securities or classes of securities of the issuer).

Class of Security	Securities (or Amount) Authorized	Securities (or Amount) Outstanding	Voting Rights
Common Stock	100,000	126,000	Yes

Securities Reserved for Issuance upon Exercise or Conversion

WARRANTS:

Options: Total Puts: Issued:

Describe any other rights:

The Company has not yet authorized "preferred stock," which investors in the SAFE (if equivalent) will receive. Preferred stock has a liquidation preference over common stock.

20. How may the rights of the securities being offered be amended, waived or modified by the rights or any class of security or other class of security?

The holder of a majority-in-interest of voting rights in the Company could file the Investor's rights in a material way. For example, to force the investor holder to change the terms of the agreements governing the Company's operations or cause the Company to engage in additional offerings (including potentially a public offering).

These changes could result in further limitations on the voting rights the investor will have as a member of equity in the Company, for example by stating these rights or limiting them to certain types of events or occasions.

In the event applicable in cases where the rights of holders of convertible debt, SAFES, or other outstanding options or warrants are exercised, or if new warrants are granted a new or equity competition plan, or Investor's interests in the Company may be diluted. This means that the pro rata portion of the Company represented by the investor's securities will decrease, which could result in a loss of the investor's voting and economic rights in relation to the company. If a majority-in-interest of holders of securities with voting rights cause the Company to issue additional equity, an investor's interest will typically also be diluted.

Based on the risks that an investor's rights could be limited, diluted or otherwise qualified, the investor could lose all or part of his or her investment in the securities in this offering, and may never see positive returns.

Additional risks related to the rights of other security holders are discussed below in Question 20.

21. Are there any differences not reflected above between the securities being offered and each other class of security of the issuer?

No.

22. How do all the warrants/ options held by the principal shareholder identified in Question 6 above affect the purchase of the securities being offered?

As holders of a majority-in-interest of voting rights in the Company, the shareholders may make decisions which the investor disagrees, or that negatively affect the value of the investor's securities in the Company and the investor will have no recourse to change these decisions. The investor's interests may not be the same as those of other investors, and there is no guarantee that the Company will choose in a way that is optimal for or advantageous to the investor.

For example, the shareholders may change the terms of the articles of incorporation for the company, change the terms of securities issued by the Company, change the management of the Company, and exercise control over the Company's operations. The shareholders may make the use that affect the treatment of the Company in ways that are unfavorable to you, but favorable to them. They may also vote to engage in new offerings and to register certain of the Company's securities in a way that negatively affect the value of the securities. If a investor owns other holders of securities of the Company may also have access to more information than the investor, which the investor will be at a disadvantage with respect to any decisions regarding the securities in or out of the offer.

1. the issuer is required to file reports under Exchange Act Sections 12(a) or 15(d);
2. the issuer has filed at least one annual report and has fewer than 300 holders of record;
3. the issuer has filed at least three annual reports and has total assets that do not exceed $10 million;
4. the issuer or another party purchases or repurchases all of the securities issued pursuant to Section 4(a)(5), including any payment in full of such securities or any complete redemption of redeemable securities or the issuer liquidates or dissolves in accordance with state law.
