Unlike traditional MMA promotions that are centered on individual matchmaking, the GFL is structured around city-based franchise teams — launching initially with teams in New York, Los Angeles, Miami, and London — designed to create long-term fan loyalty, recurring engagement, and enduring franchise value in the same manner as other major professional sports leagues.

MMA is a global sport with more than 700 million fans worldwide, generating approximately 26 billion video views annually across digital and social platforms, reflecting strong and growing global engagement. GFL is led by experienced executives and advisors with senior leadership experience at the XFL, NFL, WWE, NBA, NASCAR, Professional Bull Riders, World Series of Poker, ESPN, iHeart Media, and Hydrow, as well as individuals who have produced more than 100 MMA events across 20 countries, including through World Series of Fighting. The Company is building toward the 2026 inaugural season, with additional details to be announced as the equity raise progresses. The GFL has not yet launched league operations or generated revenue from league events. The $100,000 in revenue reported for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025 was attributable to the Company's prior business activities before the acquisition of GFL and the transition to current operations.

Description of the Business

GFL Sports & Entertainment Inc. (the "Company") operates the Global Fight League (the "GFL"), a professional sports organization developing a city-based, team-based mixed martial arts league built around a fighter-first and shared-ownership model. Unlike traditional MMA promotions centered on individual fighters and one-off matchmaking, the GFL is designed as a seasonal league in which men and women compete side by side as teammates under unified franchise organizations, with roster acquisition, a draft system, point-based standings, and playoffs intended to create enduring rivalries and long-term fan engagement. Through its transparent public-market structure, the Company seeks to align athletes, fans and investors in the long-term growth of the league. The Company is organized under the laws of Nevada and is publicly traded on OTC Markets under the ticker symbol "GFLE."

The GFL plans to launch with four initial franchise teams in New York, Los Angeles, Miami, and London. The league has built an Athlete Performance & Wellness Council, which includes elite fighters and trusted industry voices to help guide athlete experience standards. The Company plans to conduct its 2026 inaugural season funded from the proceeds of its capital raising activity and dependent on its ability to finalize event production, venue, and distribution arrangements.

The Company has not yet generated revenue from GFL league operations. The $100,000 in revenue reported for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025 was attributable to the Company's prior business activities before the acquisition of GFL. Revenue from GFL operations is expected to be generated primarily from live event production and ticket sales, media rights and streaming distribution, sponsorships and brand partnerships, merchandise, athlete-related programs, and long-term franchise development and sales.

The Company's management team and advisory group include senior operators with leadership experience across major professional sports leagues, media organizations, and live event production.

Recent Business History and Transition to Current Operations

Until late 2025, the Company held minority interests in several unrelated businesses and software assets, but had no active revenue-generating operations of its own. Between 2023 and 2025, the Company wound down all of those prior holdings - cancelling acquisition agreements and recovering or writing off the assets and share issuances associated with them. By the end of 2025, the Company had divested itself of all prior business interests.

The Company acquired the assets and operations of the Global Fight League, a professional team-based MMA league as of December 31, 2025. The acquisition was structured as an asset purchase, with the Company issuing 572,500 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock at $2.00 per share — raising $1,145,000 — to investors who had previously committed funds directly to GFL. Those investors exchanged their interests in the prior GFL entities for Series B shares in the Company. Concurrently, the Company changed its name from Zuki Inc. to GFL Sports & Entertainment, Inc., effective December 31, 2025.

By the end of 2025, the Company had divested itself of all prior business interests and had no active operating business prior to the acquisition of GFL.

Business Plan

The GFL is founded on the premise that team-based identity is one of the most powerful and durable drivers of fan engagement and long-term league value in professional sports. The Company is applying this model — proven in the NFL, NBA, MLB and other major leagues — to the global MMA audience.

Market Opportunity

MMA is one of the fastest-growing sports in the world. The sport currently has more than 700 million fans worldwide and, according to industry estimates, generates approximately 26 billion video views annually across digital and social platforms. In the United States alone, MMA has grown dramatically in viewership and live attendance over the past two decades. Despite this growth, the existing industry structure has concentrated promotion within a small number of organizations operating without a traditional franchise or team-based league format. The GFL is designed to introduce a league structure that serves the existing MMA audience while unlocking the long-term engagement, merchandise, and media rights revenue that team-based professional sports generate.

Franchise Structure

The GFL is designed around city-based franchise teams rather than a promotion model. Each GFL franchise will field both male and female fighters who compete for team points in a seasonal format. A draft system will allow teams to acquire athletes, creating off-season news cycles and fan engagement between fight cards. Standings, rivalries, and the pursuit of a league championship are intended to generate the season-long narrative structure that has driven fan loyalty in other professional sports leagues.

Revenue Model

The Company anticipates generating revenue from multiple streams as the league develops, including:

- Live event ticket sales and venue licensing;
- Media rights and distribution across streaming, digital, and social platforms;
- Corporate sponsorship and brand partnership arrangements;
- Merchandise and licensed products;
- Athlete-related programming; and
- Potential future franchise licensing and expansion.

The Company has not yet generated any revenue from GFL league operations and has not yet executed any media rights, sponsorship, or event production agreements. There can be no assurance that any anticipated revenue streams will materialize or that the Company will be able to achieve profitability. See "Risk Factors."

Athlete Commitment

Central to the GFL's founding philosophy is a commitment to athlete welfare and long-term career development. The Company has established an Athlete Performance & Wellness Council that includes notable fighters and industry voices including Tyron Woodley, Benson Henderson, Ilima-Lei Macfarlane, Marlon Moraes, Cat Zingano, Héctor Lombard, Jessica Aguilar, broadcaster Mike Goldberg, athlete-relations executive Burt Watson, and Dr. Jen Welter, a leader in athlete psychology and mental wellness. The GFL intends to offer athletes equity participation opportunities as the league develops, allowing fighters to share in long-term league growth.

Shared Ownership Model

The GFL is structured with a belief that athletes, fans, and early investors should be able to participate in ownership and long-term value creation. As a publicly traded company on OTC Markets (ticker: GFLE), the Company offers public investors transparent access to participation in GFL's growth - a structure GFL's leadership believes differentiates the league from privately held sports organizations where ownership has historically been concentrated among institutional and ultra-high-net-worth investors.

Roadmap

The Company is building toward a 2026 inaugural season. Key milestones include:

- Completion of the equity capital raise;
- Finalization of franchise team rosters through draft or recruitment;
- Execution of event production and venue agreements;
- Execution of media rights and distribution agreements;
- Launch of marketing and fan engagement programs; and
- Hosting inaugural GFL season events.

Additional details on the timeline and specific deliverables will be announced as the capital raise progresses over the next four to six months. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to execute on any of these milestones on the anticipated schedule or at all. See "Risk Factors."

- Professional Fighters League (PFL) - an MMA organization operating under a seasonal format with a structured scoring system and player acquisition process;

RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Securities involves a high degree of risk and may result in the loss of your entire investment. Before making an investment decision with respect to the Securities, we urge you to carefully consider the risks described in this section and other factors set forth in this Form C/A. The risks discussed below are not the only ones facing our business but do represent those risks that the Company believes are material to it. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to it or that the Company currently deems immaterial may also harm its business.

In addition to the risks specified below, the Company is subject to the same risks that all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy, are exposed to. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events and technological developments (such as hacking and the ability to prevent hacking). Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently riskier than more developed companies. Prospective Investors should consult with their legal, tax and financial advisors prior to making an investment in the Securities. The Securities should only be purchased by persons who can afford to lose all of their investment.

Before investing, you should carefully read and carefully consider the following:

Risks Related to the Company's Business and Industry

We are pre-revenue and have a limited operating history as a sports league.

The GFL has not yet generated revenue from league operations and has a limited operating history as a sports organization. The GFL has not yet conducted any live competitive events, executed media rights agreements, or generated revenue from league operations. The $100,000 in revenue reported for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025 was attributable to the Company's prior business activities before the acquisition of GFL and the transition to current operations. Our scope of operations since the acquisition has been limited to organizational development, leadership recruitment, brand and league design, and capital-raising efforts. Due to our limited operating history, we have limited insight into trends that may emerge and affect our business. Early-stage companies like us frequently encounter unanticipated risks, uncertainties, and difficulties. The Company may not be successful in attaining the objectives necessary for it to overcome these risks and uncertainties. The Company has incurred net losses to date, and there is no assurance that we will generate revenue or be profitable in future years. You should evaluate the Offering described in this Form C/A in view of the possible delays, additional expenses, and other unforeseen complications that are often encountered by new business ventures.

The amount of capital the Company is attempting to raise in this Offering may not be enough to sustain the Company's current business plan.

In order to achieve the Company's near and long-term goals, including hosting its inaugural season, the Company will need to procure funds in addition to the amount raised in the Offering. There is no guarantee the Company will be able to raise such funds on acceptable terms or at all. If we are not able to raise sufficient capital in the future, we may not be able to execute our business plan, our continued operations will be in jeopardy and we may be forced to cease operations and sell or otherwise transfer all or substantially all of our remaining assets, which could cause an Investor to lose all or a portion of their investment.

We may face potential difficulties in obtaining capital.

We may have difficulty raising needed capital in the future as a result of, among other factors, our lack of revenues from sales, our early stage of development, the highly competitive and capital-intensive nature of the sports and entertainment industry, and present and future market conditions. Our future sources of revenue may not be sufficient to meet our future capital requirements. As such, we may require additional funds to execute our business strategy and conduct our operations. If adequate funds are unavailable, we may be required to delay, reduce the scope of or eliminate one or more of our development or operational programs, which may materially harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.

A substantial majority of the Company may be owned by the Co-Founders and they will exercise significant voting control.

Prior to the Offering, Co-Founders beneficially own a majority of the Issuer. Subject to any fiduciary duties owed to other stockholders under Nevada law, the Co-Founders may be able to exercise significant influence over matters requiring stockholder approval, including the election of directors or managers and approval of significant Issuer transactions, and will have significant control over the Issuer's management and policies. These Co-Founders may have interests that are different from yours. For example, the Co-Founders may support proposals and actions with which you may disagree. The concentration of ownership could delay or prevent a change in control of the Issuer or otherwise discourage a potential acquirer from attempting to obtain control of the Issuer, which in turn could reduce the price potential investors are willing to pay for the Issuer. In addition, the Co-Founders could use their voting influence to maintain the Issuer's existing management, delay or prevent changes in control of the Issuer, issue additional securities which may dilute you, repurchase securities of the Issuer, enter into transactions with related parties or support or reject other management and board proposals that are subject to stockholder approval.

We operate in a highly competitive sports and entertainment industry.

The sports and entertainment industry is intensely competitive. The GFL competes for athletes, fans, media rights, sponsorship dollars, and capital against the UFC, PFL, Bellator, ONE Championship, and numerous other established and emerging MMA promotions, as well as other professional sports leagues and entertainment alternatives. Many of our competitors have substantially greater financial resources, established brand recognition, existing media relationships, larger rosters of elite athletes, and longer track records than we do. There can be no assurance that the GFL will be able to compete successfully against these organizations, attract sufficient fan interest, or secure the media or sponsorship agreements necessary to achieve profitable operations.

Industry consolidation may result in increased competition, which could result in a loss of customers or a reduction in revenue.

Some of our competitors have made or may make acquisitions or may enter into partnerships or other strategic relationships to offer more comprehensive services than they individually had offered or achieve greater economies of scale. In addition, new entrants not currently considered to be competitors may enter our market through acquisitions, partnerships or strategic relationships. We expect these trends to continue as companies attempt to strengthen or maintain their market positions. The potential entrants may have competitive advantages over us, such as greater name recognition, longer operating histories, more varied services and larger marketing budgets, as well as greater financial, technical and other resources. The companies resulting from combinations or that expand or vertically integrate their business to include the market that we address may create more compelling service offerings and may offer greater pricing flexibility than we can or may engage in business practices that make it more difficult for us to compete effectively, including on the basis of price, sales and marketing programs, technology or service functionality. These pressures could result in a substantial loss of our customers or a reduction in our revenue.

We may be unable to attract and retain elite athletes.

The quality of competition and the commercial attractiveness of the GFL depend significantly on our ability to attract and retain elite MMA athletes. Many top-ranked fighters have existing contractual relationships with other promotions, including multi-year exclusive agreements. The GFL may be unable to sign the athletes necessary to attract fan interest or secure the media and sponsorship agreements that require a certain level of athletic talent. Additionally, fighter injuries, retirements, or losses to competing promotions could adversely affect the league's competitive quality and commercial appeal.

We may be unable to secure media rights or distribution agreements on favorable terms, or at all.

The commercial success of a professional sports league depends critically on its ability to distribute content through broadcast, cable, and digital streaming platforms. The GFL has not yet executed any media rights or distribution agreements. Media rights negotiations with established broadcasters and streaming platforms are competitive and heavily favor counterparties with established sports audiences and ratings histories. There can be no assurance that the GFL will be able to secure media rights agreements on commercially acceptable terms, or at all. Without meaningful media distribution, the GFL may be unable to grow its fan base, attract sponsors, or generate sufficient revenue to achieve profitability.

There is no assurance of market acceptance of the GFL format.

While the Company believes that the team-based franchise model addresses an unmet need in the MMA industry, there can be no assurance that fans, athletes, broadcasters, sponsors or digital distribution partners will embrace the GFL format or that consumers will adopt the product at levels sufficient to support ticket sales, sponsorship revenue, media rights revenue or long-term franchise value. If the Company is unable to build and retain a sufficiently engaged audience, secure meaningful distribution and commercial partnerships, or achieve the product selling price and structure required for the Company to be profitable, its revenue prospects, growth strategy and ability to achieve profitability would be materially adversely affected. This would also adversely affect the Company's ability to raise additional funds and will lessen the likelihood of the Company's success.

The Company may be unable to execute its inaugural season on the timeline or budget contemplated.

The Company's current business plan requires it to finalize fighter rosters, negotiate athlete agreements, secure venues, engage production and broadcast resources, coordinate travel and event logistics, launch marketing campaigns, and prepare for inaugural events in multiple markets. Each of these steps is operationally complex, interdependent and potentially expensive. Delays, cancellations, cost overruns, injuries, vendor failures, or an inability to secure suitable venues or production partners could postpone or prevent the launch of events, require the Company to spend more capital than anticipated, and materially adversely affect its business, financial condition and results of operations.

We rely on third parties to provide services essential to the success of our business.

We depend on third party vendors to meet our contractual obligations to our customers and conduct our operations. Our ability to meet our obligations to our customers may be adversely affected if vendors do not provide the agreed-upon services in compliance with customer requirements and in a timely and cost-effective manner. Likewise, the quality of our services may be adversely impacted if companies to whom we delegate certain services do not perform to our, and our customers', expectations. Our vendors may also be unable to quickly recover from natural disasters and other events beyond their control and may be subject to additional risks such as financial problems that limit their ability to conduct their operations. The risk of these adverse effects may be greater in circumstances where we rely on only one or two vendors for a particular service.

We rely on various intellectual property rights, including trademarks, in order to operate our business.

The Issuer relies on certain intellectual property rights, to operate its business. The Issuer's intellectual property rights may not be sufficiently broad or otherwise may not provide us a significant competitive advantage. In addition, the steps that we have taken to maintain and protect our intellectual property may not prevent it from being challenged, invalidated, circumvented or designed-around, particularly in countries where intellectual property rights are not highly developed or protected. In some circumstances, enforcement may not be available to us because an infringer has a dominant intellectual property position or for other business reasons, or countries may require compulsory licensing of our intellectual property. Our failure to obtain or maintain intellectual property rights that convey competitive advantage, adequately protect our intellectual property or detect or prevent circumvention or unauthorized use of such property, could adversely impact our competitive position and results of operations. As we expand our business, protecting our intellectual property will become increasingly important. The protective steps we have taken may be inadequate to deter our competitors from using our proprietary information. In order to protect or enforce our intellectual property rights, we may be required to initiate litigation against third parties, such as infringement lawsuits. Also, these third parties may assert claims against us with or without provocation. These lawsuits could be expensive, take significant time and could divert management's attention from other business concerns. We cannot assure you that we will prevail in any of these potential suits or that the damages or other remedies awarded, if any, would be commercially valuable.

The Company's success depends on the experience and skill of its board of directors, executive officers and key personnel.

We are dependent on our board of directors, executive officers and key personnel, including our Founder and Commissioner, Executive Chairman, and senior advisors. These persons may not devote their full time and attention to the matters of the Company, as certain key members of leadership also have outside business commitments. Moreover, these individuals could voluntarily cease working with the Company or become disabled. The loss of all or any of our key leadership could harm the Company's business, financial condition, cash flow and results of operations.

Although dependent on certain key personnel, the Company does not have any key person life insurance policies on any such people.

We are dependent on certain key personnel in order to conduct our operations and execute our business plan. However, the Company has not purchased any insurance policies with respect to those individuals in the event of their death or disability. Therefore, if any of these personnel die or become disabled, the Company will not receive any compensation to assist with such person's absence. The loss of such person could negatively affect the Company and our operations.

In order for the Company to compete and grow, it must attract, recruit, retain and develop the necessary personnel who have the needed experience.

Recruiting and retaining highly qualified personnel is critical to our success. These demands may require us to hire additional personnel and will require our existing management and other personnel to develop additional expertise. We may face intense competition for personnel, making recruitment time-consuming and expensive. The failure to attract and retain personnel or to develop such expertise could delay or halt the development and commercialization of our product candidates. If we experience difficulties in hiring and retaining personnel in key positions, we could suffer from delays in product development, loss of customers and sales and diversion of management resources, which could adversely affect operating results. Our consultants and advisors may be employed by third parties and may have commitments under consulting or advisory contracts with third parties that may limit their availability to us, which could further delay or disrupt our product development and growth plans.

The Company's business plan is based on numerous assumptions and projections that may not prove accurate.

The Company's business plan and potential growth is based upon numerous assumptions, including assumptions regarding MMA market size and growth, fan willingness to adopt a new team-based league format, the Company's ability to execute on its event production and media strategies, and the availability of capital and commercial partnerships on acceptable terms. No assurance can be given regarding the attainability of any financial projections. Management is not bound to follow the business plan and may elect to adopt other strategies based upon unanticipated opportunities or changes in circumstances or market conditions. All financial projections contained in the business plan are based entirely upon management's assumptions and projections and should not be considered as a forecast of actual revenues or our liquidity. Actual operating results may be materially different.

Damage to our reputation could negatively impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our reputation and the quality of our brand are critical to our business and success in existing markets and will be critical to our success as we enter new markets. Any incident that erodes consumer loyalty for our brand could significantly reduce its value and damage our business. We may be adversely affected by any negative publicity, regardless of its accuracy. There has been a marked increase in the use of social media platforms and similar devices, including blogs, social media websites and other forms of internet-based communications that provide individuals with access to a broad audience. Information posted may be adverse to our interests or may be inaccurate, each of which may harm our performance, prospects or business. The harm may be immediate and may disseminate rapidly and broadly, without affording us an opportunity for redress or correction.

Our business could be negatively impacted by cyber security threats, attacks and other disruptions.

We may face advanced and persistent attacks on our information infrastructure where we manage and store various proprietary information and confidential data relating to our operations. These attacks may include sophisticated malware (viruses, worms, and other malicious software programs) and phishing emails that attack our products or otherwise exploit any security vulnerabilities. These intrusions sometimes may be zero-day malware that are difficult to identify because they are not included in the signature set of commercially available antivirus scanning programs. Experienced computer programmers and hackers may be able to penetrate our network security and misappropriate or compromise our confidential information or that of our customers or other third-parties, create system disruptions, or cause shutdowns. Additionally, sophisticated software and applications that we produce or procure from third-parties may contain defects in design or manufacture, including "bugs" and other problems that could unexpectedly interfere with the operation of the information infrastructure. A disruption, infiltration or failure of our information infrastructure systems or any of our data centers as a result of software or hardware malfunctions, computer viruses, cyber-attacks, employee theft or misuse, power disruptions, natural disasters or accidents could cause breaches of data security, loss of critical data and performance delays, which in turn could adversely affect our business.

Security breaches of confidential customer information, in connection with our electronic processing of credit and debit card transactions, or confidential employee information may adversely affect our business.

Our business requires the collection, transmission and retention of personally identifiable information, in various information technology systems that we maintain and in those maintained by third parties with whom we contract to provide services. The integrity and protection of that data is critical to us. The information, security and privacy requirements imposed by governmental regulation are increasingly demanding. Our systems may not be able to satisfy these changing requirements and customer and employee expectations, or may require significant additional investments or time in order to do so. A breach in the security of our information technology systems or those of our service providers could lead to an interruption in the operation of our systems, resulting in operational inefficiencies and a loss of profits. Additionally, a significant theft, loss or misappropriation of, or access to, customers' or other proprietary data or other breach of our information technology systems could result in fines, legal claims or proceedings.

The use of individually identifiable data by our business, our business associates and third parties is regulated at the state, federal and international levels.

The regulation of individual data is changing rapidly, and in unpredictable ways. A change in regulation could adversely affect our business, including causing our business model to no longer be viable. Costs associated with information security – such as investment in technology, the costs of compliance with consumer protection laws and costs resulting from consumer fraud – could cause our business and results of operations to suffer materially. Additionally, the success of our online operations depends upon the secure transmission of confidential information over public networks, including the use of cashless payments. The intentional or negligent actions of employees, business associates or third parties may undermine our security measures. As a result, unauthorized parties may obtain access to our data systems and misappropriate confidential data. There can be no assurance that advances in computer capabilities, new discoveries in the field of cryptography or other developments will prevent the compromise of our customer transaction processing capabilities and personal data. If any such compromise of our security or the security of information residing with our business associates or third parties were to occur, it could have a material adverse effect on our reputation, operating results and financial condition. Any compromise of our data security may materially increase the costs we incur to protect against such breaches and could subject us to additional legal risk.

The Company is not subject to Sarbanes-Oxley regulations and lacks the financial controls and procedures of fully reporting public companies.

Although GFL is publicly traded on OTC Markets, the Company does not have the internal control infrastructure that would meet the standards of a full reporting public company subject to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The Company is not currently subject to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, and its financial and disclosure controls and procedures reflect its status as an early-stage company. There can be no guarantee that there are no significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the quality of the Company's financial and disclosure controls and procedures. If it were necessary to implement such financial and disclosure controls and procedures, the cost to the Company of such compliance could be substantial and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations.

Changes in federal, state or local laws and government regulation could adversely impact our business.

The Company is subject to legislation and regulation at the federal, state and local levels. As a promoter and organizer of live MMA events, the Company will be subject to the jurisdiction and regulation of state athletic commissions in every state in which it conducts events. State athletic commissions regulate event sanctioning, fighter licensing, medical requirements, drug testing, and other aspects of combat sports events. Changes in these regulations, or the loss of sanctioning in a key market, could materially and adversely affect the Company's ability to conduct events. Additionally, as a publicly traded issuer, the Company is subject to OTC Markets and federal securities law requirements.

We operate in a regulated environment, and if we are found to be in violation of any of the federal, state, or local laws or regulations applicable to us, our business could suffer.

We are subject to a wide range of international, federal, state, and local laws and regulations. The violation of these or future requirements or laws and regulations could result in administrative, civil, or criminal sanctions against us, which may include fines, a cease-and-desist order against the subject operations or even revocation or suspension of our license to operate the subject business. As a result, we may incur capital and operating expenditures and other costs to comply with these requirements and laws and regulations.

Global crises and geopolitical events can have a significant effect on our business operations and revenue projections.

A significant outbreak of contagious diseases, such as COVID-19 or a similar pandemic, in the human population could result in a widespread health crisis that adversely affects us and our event operations. Additionally, geopolitical events such as wars or conflicts could result in global disruptions to supply chains, political uncertainty, and displacement. Each of these crises could adversely affect the economies and financial markets of many countries, including the United States and the other markets in which we plan to operate, resulting in an economic downturn that could reduce the demand for our events and services and impair our business prospects, including as a result of being unable to raise additional capital on acceptable terms, if at all.

The Company's prior history of name changes and different business activities may create uncertainty for investors.

The Company has undergone multiple name changes since its incorporation, each reflecting a substantive change in business direction. The Company was incorporated in Nevada on August 17, 2010 as Louisiana Food Company, was renamed MMA Global, Inc. by Certificate of Amendment filed February 28, 2018, was renamed Zuki Inc. by Certificate of Amendment filed July 30, 2021, and was most recently renamed GFL Sports & Entertainment, Inc. by Certificate of Amendment effective December 31, 2025. The Company's current operations as the developer and operator of the Global Fight League represent a departure from all prior business activities. This history of business pivots may create skepticism among investors, media partners, commercial partners, or other stakeholders whose support is necessary to the league's success, and there can be no assurance that such skepticism will not adversely affect the Company's ability to raise capital or execute its business plan.

Risks Related to the Offering

State and federal securities laws are complex, and the Company could potentially be found to have not complied with all relevant state and federal securities law in prior offerings of securities.

The Company has conducted previous offerings of securities and may not have complied with all relevant state and federal securities laws. If a court or regulatory body with the required jurisdiction ever concluded that the Company may have violated state or federal securities laws, any such violation could result in the Company being required to offer rescission rights to investors in such offering. If such investors exercised their rescission rights, the Company would have to pay to such investors an amount of funds equal to the purchase price paid by such investors plus interest from the date of any such purchase. No assurances can be given the Company will, if it is required to offer such investors a rescission right, have sufficient funds to pay the prior investors the amounts required or that proceeds from this Offering would not be used to pay such amounts.

In addition, if the Company violated federal or state securities laws in connection with a prior offering and/or sale of its securities, federal or state regulators could bring an enforcement, regulatory and/or other legal action against the Company which, among other things, could result in the Company having to pay substantial fines and be prohibited from selling securities in the future.

The Issuer conducted a Reservation Campaign (also known as "Testing the Waters") prior to this Offering, and certain communications in connection with that campaign did not expressly include all of the language prescribed by Rule 206 of Regulation Crowdfunding.

Prior to filing this Form C/A, the Issuer engaged in a Reservation Campaign permitted under Regulation Crowdfunding (17 CFR § 227.206), which allows issuers to communicate with prospective investors to gauge interest in a potential offering. All communications made in connection with a Reservation Campaign are deemed offers of securities for purposes of the anti-fraud provisions of federal securities laws. While these communications were intended to comply with Rule 206 and conveyed the substantive information required thereunder, certain communications did not expressly reference that purchases may only be made through an intermediary's platform or that no part of the purchase price may be received prior to the filing of the offering statement. Any investor who expressed interest prior to this Offering should read this Form C/A carefully and rely only on the information provided herein. The communications sent to prospective investors prior to this Offering are attached as Exhibit H.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of the Securities or the terms of the Offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any Offering document or literature.

You should not rely on the fact that our Form C/A is accessible through the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's EDGAR filing system as an approval, endorsement or guarantee of compliance as it relates to this Offering. The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not reviewed this Form C/A, nor any document or literature related to this Offering.

Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws.

No governmental agency has reviewed or passed upon this Offering or the Securities. Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws. Investors will not receive any of the benefits available in registered offerings, which may include access to quarterly and annual financial statements that have been audited by an independent accounting firm. Investors must therefore assess the adequacy of disclosure and the fairness of the terms of this Offering based on the information provided in this Form C/A and the accompanying exhibits.

The Securities are offered on a "Best Efforts" basis, and the Company may not raise the maximum amount being offered.

Since the Company is offering the Securities on a "best efforts" basis, there is no assurance that the Company will sell enough Securities to meet its capital needs. If you purchase Securities in this Offering, you will do so without any assurance that the Company will raise enough money to satisfy the full Use of Proceeds which the Company has outlined in this Form C/A or to meet the Company's working capital needs.

The Company's management may have broad discretion in how the Company uses the net proceeds of the Offering.

Unless the Company has agreed to a specific use of the proceeds from the Offering, the Company's management will have considerable discretion over the use of proceeds from the Offering. As is the case with any business, particularly one at an early stage without a proven business model, it should be expected that certain expenses unforeseeable to management at this juncture will arise in the future. There can be no assurance that management's use of proceeds generated through this Offering will prove optimal or translate into revenue or profitability for the Company. You are urged to review the Use of Proceeds in this Offering Statement but to understand that the actual use of the net proceeds of this Offering may vary significantly. In all cases, you should consult with their attorneys, accountants and personal investment advisors prior to making any decision to invest in the Company. You may not have the opportunity, as part of your investment decision, to assess whether the proceeds are being used appropriately.

The Intermediary Fees paid by the Company are subject to change depending on the success of the Offering.

At the conclusion of the Offering, the Company shall pay the Intermediary a fee of 8.5% of the dollar amount raised in the Offering. The compensation paid by the Company to the Intermediary may impact how the Company uses the net proceeds of the Offering.

The Company has the right to limit individual Investor commitment amounts based on the Company's determination of an Investor's sophistication.

The Company may prevent any Investor from committing more than a certain amount in this Offering based on the Company's determination of the Investor's sophistication and ability to assume the risk of the investment. This means that your desired investment amount may be limited or lowered based solely on the Company's determination and not in line with relevant investment limits set forth by the Regulation CF rules. This also means that other Investors may receive larger allocations of the Offering based solely on the Company's determination.

The Company has the right to extend the Offering Deadline and/or increase the Maximum Offering Amount.

The Company may extend the Offering Deadline and/or increase the Maximum Offering Amount beyond what is currently stated herein. For an extension of the Offering Deadline, this means that your investment may continue to be held in escrow while the Company attempts to raise the Target Offering Amount even after the Offering Deadline stated herein is reached. While you have the right to cancel your investment in the event the Company extends the Offering Deadline, if you choose to reconfirm your investment, your investment will not be accruing interest during this time and will simply be held until such time as the new Offering Deadline is reached. Upon or shortly after the release of such funds to the Company, the Securities will be issued and distributed to you. For an increase in the Maximum Offering Amount, this means that additional amounts may be raised by the Company which would also increase the number of shares outstanding and dilute shareholders.

The Company may also end the Offering early.

If the Target Offering Amount is met after 21 calendar days, but before the Offering Deadline, the Company can end the Offering by providing notice to Investors at least 5 business days prior to the end of the Offering. This means your failure to participate in the Offering in a timely manner, may prevent you from being able to invest in this Offering — it also means the Company may limit the amount of capital it can raise during the Offering by ending the Offering early.

The Company has the right to conduct multiple closings during the Offering.

If the Company meets certain terms and conditions, an intermediate close (also known as a rolling close) of the Offering can occur, which will allow the Company to draw down on Investor proceeds committed and captured in the Offering during the relevant period. The Company may choose to continue the Offering thereafter. Investors should be mindful that this means they can make multiple investment commitments in the Offering, which may be subject to different cancellation rights. For example, if an intermediate close occurs and later a material change occurs as the Offering continues, Investors whose investment commitments were previously closed upon will not have the right to re-confirm their investment as it will be deemed to have been completed prior to the material change.

A Secondary Capital Raise of $10,000,000 or More Could Trigger Immediate Repayment Obligations Under the Company's Outstanding Convertible Notes.

Both of the Company's outstanding convertible promissory notes, which are held by United One Equities LLC (principal amount of $1,000,000) and Paglinawan Hawaiian Trust (principal amount of $104,087), provide that all outstanding principal and accrued interest shall become due and payable upon demand by the holder following the earlier of (a) the closing of any transaction or series of related transactions principally for bona fide equity financing purposes totaling at least $10,000,000 (a "Secondary Capital Raise") or (b) December 31, 2027. If the Company completes a Secondary Capital Raise, the holders of these notes could demand immediate repayment of the aggregate outstanding balance, currently approximately $1,104,087 in principal plus accrued and unpaid interest. Any such repayment obligation could divert funds away from operations and the uses of proceeds described in this Form C/A and could materially and adversely affect the Company's liquidity, financial condition, and ability to execute its business plan. See "Debt" and "Transactions with Related Persons and Conflicts of Interest."

The Concurrent Conduct of This Offering and a Regulation D Offering May Create Integration, Structuring and Disclosure Risks.

The Company is conducting this Offering concurrently with a Regulation D private placement. Although the federal securities laws provide frameworks intended to distinguish exempt offerings conducted under different exemptions, the simultaneous conduct of multiple offerings may create integration, structuring and disclosure risks. The existence of a concurrent offering may affect the timing, terms, capital structure implications and aggregate amount of capital raised by the Company. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to complete both offerings simultaneously or on the terms currently contemplated. Any changes to the concurrent Regulation D offering, or any determination by a court or regulatory authority that the offerings should be integrated or viewed together for certain purposes under the Securities Act or applicable state securities laws, could adversely affect this Offering, the validity of the exemptions relied upon, and the Company's overall financing strategy.

Risks Related to the Securities

An investment in the Company's Securities could result in a loss of your entire investment.

An investment in the Company's Securities offered in this Offering involves a high degree of risk and you should not purchase the Securities if you cannot afford the loss of your entire investment. You may not be able to liquidate your investment for any reason in the near future.

The Securities will not be freely tradable under the Securities Act until one year from the initial purchase date. Although the Securities may be tradable under federal securities law, state securities regulations may apply, and each Investor should consult with their attorney.

You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. Although GFL's Common Stock is currently traded on OTC Markets (i.e. ticker: GFLE), the Series BB Preferred Stock issued pursuant to this Offering are a separate and distinct class of securities and will be subject to the transfer restrictions of Regulation CF. These Securities cannot be resold in the United States during the one-year holding period except pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation CF. Importantly, the fact that the Company's Common Stock trades on OTC Markets does not provide any liquidity for the Series BB Preferred Stock during this holding period. The Series BB Preferred Stock is not listed or traded on any market. During the one-year lock-up period, the Company's Common Stock will continue to trade on OTC Markets, which means that holders of Common Stock - including holders who acquired shares prior to this Offering - may freely buy and sell Common Stock in the open market while Series BB Preferred Stock Investors remain subject to the transfer restriction. This may create situations where the OTC market price of Common Stock moves materially during a period when Series BB Preferred Stock Investors cannot sell or transfer their Securities. Upon expiration of the one-year holding period, any transfer of Series BB Preferred Stock or Common Stock received upon conversion thereof will require compliance with applicable federal and state securities laws, including Rule 144 under the Securities Act if applicable. Limitations on the transfer of the Securities may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the Securities in a private sale. Each Investor in this Offering will be required to represent that they are purchasing the Securities for their own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof.

The Company's Common Stock is quoted on OTC Markets and may experience volatility that is not indicative of the value of the Series BB Preferred Stock.

The Company's Common Stock is quoted on OTC Markets, which may involve limited liquidity, intermittent trading activity and significant price volatility. The market price of the Common Stock may fluctuate for reasons unrelated to the Company's operating performance and should not be viewed as indicative of the value, marketability or liquidity of the Series BB Preferred Stock offered hereby. The Series BB Preferred Stock is a different class of security with different rights and transfer restrictions, and any value ultimately realized by Investors may differ materially from any quoted market price of the Common Stock.

The Securities in this Offering have no protective provisions.

The Securities in this Offering have no protective provisions. As such, you will not be afforded protection, by any provision of the Securities or as a Shareholder, in the event of a transaction that may adversely affect you, including a reorganization, restructuring, merger or other similar transaction involving the Company. If there is a liquidation event, or change of control for the Company, the Securities being offered do not provide you with any protection. In addition, there are no provisions attached to the Securities in the Offering that would permit you to require the Company to repurchase the Securities in the event of a takeover, recapitalization or similar transaction involving the Company.

Voting Rights

Each share of Series BB Preferred Stock issued in this Offering carries one (1) vote per share, voting together with Common Stock as a single class on all matters submitted to stockholders. Because Investors in this Offering will hold a minority of the combined voting power, they will have limited ability to influence the outcome of any stockholder vote, including votes on additional issuances of securities, election of directors, and approval of significant Company transactions.

Investors will not be entitled to any inspection or information rights other than those required by law.

Investors will not have the right to inspect the books and records of the Company or to receive financial or other information from the Company, other than as required by law. Other security holders of the Company may have such rights. Regulation CF requires only the provision of an annual report on Form C/A and no additional information. Additionally, there are numerous methods by which the Company can terminate annual report obligations, resulting in no information rights, contractual, statutory or otherwise, owed to Investors. This lack of information could put Investors at a disadvantage in general and with respect to other security holders, including certain security holders who have rights to periodic financial statements and updates from the Company.

The Securities may be significantly diluted as a consequence of subsequent equity financings.

The Series BB Preferred Stock and the Common Stock of the Company are subject to significant dilution risk from multiple sources, including the potential conversion of outstanding Series AA Preferred Stock into Common Stock, the potential conversion of the Company's outstanding convertible promissory notes into Series AA Preferred Stock (and thereafter into Common Stock), the conversion of Securities issued in this Offering into Common Stock, the exercise of outstanding stock options, the issuance of up to 10,000,000 shares of Common Stock reserved for issuance to C-level executives and athletes under the Company's 2025 Equity Incentive Plan, and future equity issuances to employees and third-party financing sources in amounts that are uncertain at this time. As a consequence, holders of the Securities will be subject to dilution in an unpredictable amount, which may reduce an Investor's control and economic interests in the Company. The amount of additional financing needed by the Company will depend upon several contingencies not foreseen at the time of this Offering, and the availability of capital is at least partially a function of capital market conditions that are beyond the control of the Company. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to accurately predict its future capital requirements or that additional funds will be available from any source. The Company may be required to raise additional capital at prices unfavorable to existing Investors, and failure to obtain financing on favorable terms could dilute or otherwise severely impair the value of the Securities.

If the Company Is Unable to Repay Its Outstanding Convertible Notes Following a Trigger Event, the Note Holders May Elect to Convert Into Series AA Preferred Stock, Which Could Result in Significant Dilution and Concentration of Voting Control.

If a repayment trigger occurs under the Company's outstanding convertible promissory notes and the Company does not have sufficient funds to repay the aggregate outstanding balance, the holders may elect, during the sixty (60)-day period immediately preceding the Maturity Date, to convert all or a portion of the outstanding principal and accrued interest into shares of Series AA Preferred Stock at a conversion price of $20.00 per share. Based on the current aggregate outstanding balance of approximately $1,119,210, such conversion could result in the issuance of approximately 55,960 additional shares of Series AA Preferred Stock. Each share of Series AA Preferred Stock is convertible at the holder's election into 1,000 shares of Common Stock, meaning that full conversion of such additional Series AA Preferred Stock could result in the issuance of up to approximately 55,960,000 shares of Common Stock, representing substantial dilution to existing holders of Common Stock and to Investors purchasing Series BB Preferred Stock in this Offering. In addition, because each share of Series AA Preferred Stock carries significant voting rights, any such conversion could concentrate substantial voting power in the hands of the note holders. One of the note holders, United One Equities LLC, is managed by Shawn Wright, who also serves as the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Secretary and a Director. As a result, any such conversion could further increase the voting control of an affiliate of management, which may create conflicts of interest and could adversely affect the interests of Investors in this Offering.

Our valuation and our offering price have been established internally and are difficult to assess.

Although our Common Stock is quoted on OTC Markets, there is no established trading market for the Series BB Preferred Stock being offered in this Offering. We have arbitrarily set the price of the Securities with reference to the general status of the securities market and other relevant factors. In addition, the market price of our Common Stock should not be viewed as indicative of the value of the Series BB Preferred Stock, which is a different class of securities with different rights, preferences, and liquidity characteristics. We cannot guarantee that the Series BB Preferred Stock can be resold at the offering price or at any other price. The Offering price for the Securities should not be considered an indication of the actual value of the Securities and is not based on our asset value, net worth, revenues or other established criteria of value. The Company has set the price of its Series BB Preferred Stock at $1.00 per share, plus a 3.5% Investor Processing Fee (see "Offering" for further details on this fee). The Investor Processing Fee is intended to offset transaction costs and, though this fee is counted towards the amount the Company is seeking to raise under Regulation Crowdfunding and the limit each investor may invest pursuant to Regulation Crowdfunding, we did not value it in determining our valuation. Including this fee will increase our valuation for which you are paying for shares in our Company accordingly. Valuations for companies at this stage are generally purely speculative. Our valuation has not been validated by any independent third party and may decrease precipitously in the future. It is a question of whether you, the investor, are willing to pay this price for a percentage ownership of an early-stage company. We cannot guarantee that the Securities can be resold at the Offering price or at any other price.

The Investor Processing Fee may not count toward your cost basis for tax purposes.

The IRS and/or another relevant tax authority may consider the price of the share before including the Investor Processing Fee as the cost basis for determining any gain or loss at a realization event. You should discuss with your tax advisor the appropriate way to determine the relevant tax obligation.

There is no guarantee for your return of investment.

There is no assurance that an Investor will realize a return on their investment or that they will not lose their entire investment. For this reason, each Investor should read this Form C/A and all Exhibits carefully and should consult with their attorney and business advisor prior to making any investment decision.

IN ADDITION TO THE RISKS LISTED ABOVE, RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES NOT PRESENTLY KNOWN, OR WHICH WE CONSIDER IMMATERIAL AS OF THE DATE OF THIS FORM C, MAY ALSO HAVE AN ADVERSE EFFECT ON OUR BUSINESS AND RESULT IN THE TOTAL LOSS OF YOUR INVESTMENT.

Investor Confirmation Process

In order to purchase the Securities, you must make a commitment to purchase by completing the subscription process hosted by the Intermediary, including complying with the Intermediary's know your customer (KYC) and anti-money laundering (AML) policies. If an Investor makes an investment commitment under a name that is not their legal name, they may be unable to redeem their Security indefinitely, and neither the Intermediary nor the Company are required to correct any errors or omissions made by the Investor.

Investor funds will be held in escrow with a qualified third party escrow agent (the "Escrow Agent") until the Target Offering Amount has been met or exceeded and one or more closings occur. Investors may cancel an investment commitment until up to 48 hours prior to the Offering Deadline or an intermediate close, using the cancellation mechanism provided by the Intermediary. If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the Offering Deadline, the funds will be released to the Issuer and the investor will receive their Securities.

The Company will notify Investors when the Target Offering Amount has been reached. If the Company reaches the Target Offering Amount prior to the Offering Deadline, it may close the Offering early provided (i) the expedited Offering Deadline must be twenty-one (21) days from the time the Offering was opened, (ii) the Company must provide at least five (5) business days' notice prior to the expedited Offering Deadline to the Investors and (iii) the Company continues to meet or exceed the Target Offering Amount on the date of the expedited Offering Deadline.

Material Changes

If any material change occurs related to the Offering prior to the current Offering Deadline the Company will provide notice to Investors and receive reconfirmations from Investors who have already made commitments. If an Investor does not reconfirm their investment commitment after a material change is made to the terms of the Offering within five (5) business days of receiving notice, the Investor's investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned without interest or deductions. If an Investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the Target Offering Amount is reached, the funds will be released to the Company upon the closing of the Offering and the Investor will receive the Securities in exchange for their investment.

If an Investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the Offering, the Investor's investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned.

Cancellations

Investors may cancel an investment commitment until 48 hours prior to the deadline identified in these Offering Materials, unless previously accepted as part of a rolling close.

The Company will notify investors when the Target Offering Amount has been met. If the Company reaches the Target Offering Amount prior to the deadline identified in the Offering Materials, it may close the Offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the stated offering deadline, the funds will be released to the Company upon closing of the Offering and the investor will receive Securities in exchange for his or her investment.

Rolling and Early Closings

The Company may elect to undertake rolling closings, or an early closing after it has received investment interests for its Target Offering Amount. During a rolling closing, those investors that have committed funds will be provided five days' notice prior to acceptance of their subscriptions, release of funds to the Company, and issuance of the Securities to the investors. During this time, the Company may continue soliciting investors and receiving additional investment commitments. Investors should note that if investors have already received their Securities, they will not be required to reconfirm upon the filing of a material amendment to the Form C/A. In an early closing, the Offering will terminate upon the new target date, which must be at least five days from the date of the notice.

Oversubscriptions

The Target Offering Amount is $10,000.17, but investments in excess of the Target Offering Amount and up to the Maximum Offering Amount of $1,235,000, will be accepted. Oversubscriptions will be allocated at the discretion of the Company.

Progress Updates

Updates on the Company's progress towards reaching its Target Offering Amount will be filed with the SEC on Form C-U.

Intermediary Information

The Intermediary for the Company is DealMaker Securities LLC ("DealMaker" or "Intermediary"), a Delaware limited liability company formed on May 5, 2021. The SEC registration number of the Intermediary is 008-70756 and the Central Registration Depository (CRD) number is 315324.

Platform Compensation

As compensation for the services provided by DealMaker Securities LLC and its affiliates, the Issuer is required to pay to DealMaker Securities LLC a fee consisting of eight and one-half percent (8.5%) cash commission based on the dollar amount of the Securities sold in the Offering and paid upon disbursement of funds from escrow at the time of a closing. There is also a $50,000 advance setup fee and $15,000 monthly fee for the use of the platform and marketing services paid to DealMaker Securities LLC and its affiliates. Additionally, the Issuer must reimburse certain expenses related to the Offering.

Investor Limitations

Investors are limited in how much they can invest on all crowdfunding offerings during any 12-month period. The limitation on how much they can invest depends upon their net worth (excluding the value of their primary residence) and annual income. If either their annual income or net worth is less than $124,000, then during any 12-month period, they can invest up to the greater of either $2,500 or 5% of the greater of their annual income or net worth. If both their annual income and net worth are equal to or more than $124,000, then during any 12-month period, they can invest up to 10% of annual income or net worth, whichever is greater, but their investments cannot exceed $124,000. If the investor is an "accredited investor" as defined under Rule 501 of Regulation D under the Securities Act, as amended, no investment limits apply.

In order to invest, to commit to an investment, or to communicate on our platform, you must follow the instructions to purchase by completing the subscription process hosted by the Intermediary, including complying with the Intermediary's know your customer (KYC) and anti-money laundering (AML) policies by providing certain personal and non-personal information including information related to income, net worth, and other investments.

Additionally, this figure excludes fees to the Company's advisors, such as attorneys and accountants. Lastly, the Company will charge each Investor an Investor Processing Fee of three and one-half percent (3.5%) of the Investor's investment amount, capped at $500 per investment, which is not reflected in the table above.

The Company has discretion to alter the use of proceeds set forth above to adhere to the Company's business plan and liquidity requirements. For example, economic conditions may alter the Company's general marketing or general working capital requirements.

Set forth below are reasonably specific descriptions of how we intend to use the net proceeds of this Offering for any category in excess of ten percent (10%) in the table above:

(1) Event Production & Broadcast. These proceeds will be used to fund the production and broadcast costs of GFL fight card events, including venue rental, production crew, sanctioning fees, event insurance, logistics, and related expenses associated with securing venues and preparing for inaugural events in New York, Los Angeles, Miami, and London.

CAPITALIZATION AND OWNERSHIP

The Offering

The Company is offering shares of Series BB Preferred Stock ("Series BB Preferred Stock") in this Offering. The Company must raise an amount equal to or greater than the Target Offering Amount by September 30, 2026 (the "Offering Deadline"). If the sum of investment commitments does not equal or exceed the Target Offering Amount by the Offering Deadline, no securities will be sold, all investment commitments will be cancelled, and all committed funds will be returned.

The Company requests that investors review this Form C/A and the Subscription Agreement in Exhibit C, together with all attachments and exhibits, in conjunction with the following summary information.

Restrictions on Transfer

Securities sold in this Offering pursuant to Regulation CF may not be transferred by any investor during the one-year period beginning on the date the Securities are issued, unless transferred: (1) to the Company; (2) to an accredited investor as defined by Rule 501(d) of Regulation D; (3) as part of a registered public offering; or (4) to a member of the family of the investor or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the investor, to a trust created for the benefit of a family member of the investor, or in connection with the death or divorce of the investor or other similar circumstances. "Member of the family" includes a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother-, father-, daughter-, son-, sister-, or brother-in-law, and includes adoptive relationships.

Prior to any transfer of the Securities or any capital stock into which they are convertible, the transferring investor must either make such transfer pursuant to an effective registration statement filed with the SEC, or provide the Company with an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Company that a registration statement is not required. Upon an IPO, the capital stock may be subject to a lock-up period and may not be lent, offered, pledged, or sold for up to 180 days following such IPO.

Investors should be aware that even where a transfer is legally permissible, there is no guarantee that another party will be willing to purchase the Securities.

Description of Securities

The Offering Security

The Company is offering shares of its Series BB Convertible Preferred Stock ("Series BB") at a purchase price of $1.00 per share. The minimum offering amount is $10,000 and the maximum offering amount is $1,235,000, which would result in the issuance of up to approximately 1,234,500 shares of Series BB (reflecting the 3.5% investor processing fee). Series BB is a newly designated series of preferred stock being created for this Offering. If the Company reaches the Target Offering Amount prior to the Offering Deadline, it may undertake early closings on a rolling basis while continuing to accept investment commitments up to the Maximum Offering Amount.

Conversion

Each share of Series BB is convertible into shares of Common Stock at the election of the holder beginning one (1) year after the date the Offering closes. The conversion price equals the lower of (i) the 20-day average market price of the Common Stock at the time of conversion or (ii) $0.20 per share, subject to a floor of $0.05 per share. Fractional shares resulting from conversion will be rounded up to the nearest whole share.

The following table illustrates how the conversion ratio operates at different Common Stock market prices:

Common Stock Price	Conversion Price	Series BB Shares Converted	Common Shares Received
$1.00	$0.20	1	5
$0.25	$0.20	1	5
$0.15	$0.15	1	7* (rounded up from 6.67)
$0.05	$0.05	1	20
$0.01	$0.05	1	20

* When the 20-day average market price of the Common Stock is below $0.20 but at or above $0.05, the conversion price equals that market price. When the 20-day average market price is below $0.05, the conversion price is fixed at $0.05 (the floor).

At the minimum conversion price of $0.20, each share of Series BB converts into 5 shares of Common Stock. If the market price of the Common Stock falls below $0.20 but remains at or above $0.05, the number of Common shares issued per Series BB share will be higher (for example, 7 shares at a $0.15 market price). If the market price falls below $0.05, the conversion is capped at 20 shares of Common Stock per Series BB share. Lower conversion prices result in greater dilution to existing shareholders.

Holders of Series BB Preferred Stock may not convert their shares into Common Stock during the first one (1) year following the closing date of the Offering. After this one-year period, conversion may be elected at any time at the holder's discretion.

If the market price of the Common Stock is below $0.20 at the time of conversion, the number of Common shares issued per Series BB share will be higher, which will result in greater dilution to existing shareholders.

Liquidation Rights

Upon any liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Company, holders of Series BB are entitled to receive $1.00 per share before any distribution is made to holders of Common Stock. Series BB ranks junior to Series AA Preferred Stock (liquidation preference of $5.00 per share) and Series A Preferred Stock (liquidation preference of $1.00 per share), both of which must be paid in full before Series BB holders receive any distribution. Series BB ranks equally with Series B Preferred Stock (liquidation preference of $2.00 per share) in the second tier of the liquidation waterfall. A merger, consolidation, or sale of assets that does not result in the actual winding up of the Company and distribution of assets to stockholders is not treated as a liquidation for these purposes.

Voting Rights and Dividends

Each share of Series BB Preferred Stock carries one (1) vote per share, voting together with Common Stock as a single class on all matters submitted to stockholders. Holders of Series BB Preferred Stock are not entitled to receive dividends.

Transfer Restrictions

The Series BB shares sold in this Offering are subject to the transfer restrictions described above under "Restrictions on Transfer." No public trading market for Series BB currently exists, and there is no assurance that one will develop.

Determination of Offering Price

The offering price of $1.00 per share was determined by the Company's board of directors. The price was not established by an independent valuation and does not necessarily reflect the book value, asset value, or market value of the Company.

Capital Structure

The following table summarizes the Company's capital stock as of May 13, 2026, the initial filing date of the Form C. The Series BB row reflects the maximum number of shares issuable if the Maximum Offering Amount is raised.

Outstanding Options, Convertible Notes, and Warrants

The Company has the following outstanding options and convertible notes:

An additional 9,075,000 shares are reserved under the Plan for future grant to key executives, athletes, and others.
Voting Rights	Holders of options are not entitled to vote.
Anti-Dilution Rights	None

Material Terms	Each option, upon exercise, grants the holder the right to purchase one share of Common Stock at the applicable exercise price: $0.09547 per share for the 2025 grants and $0.0999 per share for the February 2026 grants
How this security may limit, dilute, or qualify the Securities offered in this Offering	The exercise of outstanding options, or the issuance and exercise of additional options, would result in the issuance of additional shares of Common Stock, which would be dilutive and could adversely affect the value of the Series BB Preferred Stock issued in this Offering.
Percentage ownership on a fully diluted basis (pre-Offering)	33.55%

Convertible Promissory Notes

Type	Convertible Promissory Notes
Principal Amount Outstanding	$1,104,087 (aggregate; current outstanding balance including accrued interest: $1,119,210)
Voting Rights	None
Anti-Dilution Rights	None
Material Terms	Two amended and restated convertible promissory notes, each bearing interest at 8% per annum (simple interest), maturing December 31, 2027 or upon a Secondary Capital Raise of $10,000,000 or more in any transaction or series of related transactions. Note No. 1 (United One Equities LLC; Shawn Wright, Manager) is a related-party transaction. See "Debt" and "Transactions with Related Persons and Conflicts of Interest." If unpaid at maturity, each holder may elect during the preceding 60-day window to convert into Series AA Preferred Stock at $20.00 per share, each share of which converts into 1,000 shares of Common Stock. The Company intends to repay both notes. No Series AA shares are currently outstanding.
Interest Rate	8% per annum (simple interest)
How this security may limit, dilute, or qualify the Securities offered in this Offering	If repaid, no dilution occurs. If converted in full, the aggregate outstanding balance of $1,119,210 would yield approximately 55,960 Series AA shares, convertible into approximately 55,960,000 shares of Common Stock.
Percentage ownership on a fully diluted basis*	Not applicable.* The conversion right under these notes arises only upon non-payment at maturity and is not a currently exercisable equity interest. The potential dilutive effect of conversion is described in the "How this security may limit, dilute, or qualify" row above and in the "Dilution" section.

* Attributing a fully diluted percentage assumes non-repayment and full conversion of both notes, which the Company does not currently anticipate. If the notes are repaid at or before maturity, this dilution will not occur.

Voting and Control

The Series BB Preferred Stock issued in this Offering carries one vote per share.

The voting rights of each other class of the Company's capital stock are as follows:

- Common Stock: 1 vote per share. No holder of Common Stock has the right to cumulate votes.
- Series A Preferred Stock: One vote per share.

- Series AA Preferred Stock: One Thousand (1,000) votes per share (super voting), with the right to remove and appoint members of the Board of Directors, Officers, and Custodian, and to amend the Certificate of Incorporation and upon any other matter, without prior notice to common stockholders.
- Series B Preferred Stock: No voting rights.

The Issuer does not have any voting agreements in place. The Issuer does not have any shareholder or equity holder agreements in place.

Dilution

The Securities do not have anti-dilution rights, which means that future equity issuances and other events will dilute the ownership percentage that investors may eventually hold in the Company.

Purchasers of Series BB shares will experience dilution of their ownership interest upon conversion of their shares into Common Stock and upon conversion or exercise of other outstanding securities. The principal sources of potential dilution are as follows:

- Series BB conversion. At the $0.20 conversion price, the maximum 1,234,500 Series BB shares issuable in this Offering would convert into up to 6,172,500 shares of Common Stock. If the market price of the Common Stock is below $0.20 at the time of conversion, additional shares would be issuable.
- Series A conversion. The 235,816 outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock are convertible on the same terms as Series BB (lower of $0.20 or 20-day average market price). At $0.20, Series A would convert into approximately 1,179,080 additional shares of Common Stock.
- Series B conversion. The 572,500 outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock are convertible at a fixed price of $0.50 per share of Common Stock, resulting in up to 2,290,000 additional shares of Common Stock upon full conversion.
- Convertible notes. The Company's two outstanding convertible promissory notes mature on December 31, 2027. The Company intends to repay both notes. If the notes remain unpaid at maturity, each holder may elect to convert the outstanding balance into Series AA Preferred Stock at $20.00 per share during the 60-day window preceding maturity. Each resulting share of Series AA would then be convertible into 1,000 shares of Common Stock. Full conversion at the current outstanding balance of $1,119,210 would result in the issuance of approximately 55,960,000 shares of Common Stock. See "Debt" and "Transactions with Related Persons."
- Stock options. The Company has issued 30,925,000 options to purchase Common Stock under its 2025 Stock Option Plan: 30,000,000 granted in 2025 (20,000,000 to Jeffrey Pollack and 10,000,000 to Scott Parker, each at an exercise price of $0.09547 per share), and 925,000 granted in February 2026 to various recipients at an exercise price of $0.0999 per share, each with a 10-year term and subject to vesting schedules. An additional 9,075,000 shares remain reserved for future grants under the Plan. No options have been exercised to date.

The actual dilution experienced by any investor will depend on the conversion prices in effect at the time of conversion, the number of shares sold in this Offering, and other factors outside the Company's control.

What it Means to be a Minority Holder

Investors in the Series BB Preferred Stock offered in this Offering will hold a minority interest in the Company. The aggregate voting power held by Series BB Preferred Stock investors at maximum offering size will represent a small minority of the Company's total voting power. Minority holders generally have limited ability to affect the outcome of matters requiring stockholder approval, including additional issuances of securities, repurchases of securities, a sale of the Company or its significant assets, or transactions with related parties.

Ownership

The table below lists the beneficial owners of 20% or more of the Company's outstanding voting equity securities, calculated on the basis of voting power.

Name	Amount and Type or Class Held	Percentage Ownership (voting power)
Darren Owen	20,000,000 Common Shares	35.75%

Name	Amount and Type or Class Held	Percentage Ownership (voting power)
Royal Union Trust*	15,104,002 Common Shares	27.00%

* The ultimate beneficial owners of Royal Union Trust are members of Vince Hesser's immediate family. See "Transactions with Related Persons and Conflicts of Interest."

The term spousal equivalent means a cohabitant occupying a relationship generally equivalent to that of a spouse.

- 1) Shawn Wright serves as Chief Executive Officer and a Director of the Company. Mr. Wright is also the Manager of United One Equities LLC, the successor holder of the first Convertible Promissory Note of February, 2018. In connection with the amendment and restatement of the aforementioned Convertible Promissory Note in October 2025, United One Equities LLC agreed to waive $464,575.09 in previously accrued interest, reducing the balance from $1,464,575 to $1,000,000 (current outstanding balance $1,015,123 reflecting accrued interest). FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Please see the financial information listed on the cover page of this Form C/A and attached hereto in addition to the following information. Financial statements are attached hereto as Exhibit F.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

As of April 30, 2026, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $17,747.45. Based on the Company's current monthly operating expenses, this represents a runway of approximately two months without additional funding. The proceeds from this Offering are therefore critical to the Company's near-term operations. If the Company does not raise sufficient capital in this Offering or from other sources, it may be unable to continue operations. See "Liquidity and Capital Resources" below.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The proceeds from the Offering are essential to our operations. We plan to use the proceeds as set forth above under the section titled "Use of Proceeds," which is an indispensable element of our business strategy.

In addition to the Offering (or to supplement the Offering for any shortfall from the Maximum Offering Amount), the Issuer may concurrently undertake to raise up to an additional $3,765,000 by offering to sell securities, including but not limited to common or preferred stock, SAFEs (Simple Agreement for Future Equity) or Convertible Notes, to accredited investors outside of this Offering.

Capital Expenditures and Other Obligations

The Issuer does not intend to make any material capital expenditures in the near future.

Valuation

The offering price of $1.00 per share was determined by the Board of Directors and does not reflect an independent valuation of the Company. Investors should not interpret the offering price as indicative of the Company's current or future value. The effective price per share of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series BB Preferred Stock will depend on the conversion price in effect at the time of conversion, which will be the lower of $0.20 per share or the 20-day average market price of the Common Stock at the time of conversion, subject to a floor of $0.05 per share. Conversion is not available during the first one (1) year following the closing of the Offering.

Since the conversion price is set at the lesser of $0.20 per share or the 20-day average trading price at the time of conversion, subject to a floor of $0.05 per share, this means the implied valuation at conversion will range between $4,693,557.45 (at the $0.05 floor) and $18,066,861.80 (at the $0.20 cap), depending on market conditions at the time of conversion.

Trends and Uncertainties

After reviewing the above discussion of the steps the Company intends to take, potential Investors should consider whether achievement of each step within the estimated time frame will be realistic in their judgment. Potential Investors should also assess the consequences to the Company of any delays in taking these steps and whether the Company will need additional financing to accomplish them.

Please see the financial statements attached as Exhibit F for subsequent events and applicable disclosures.

Material Changes and Other Information

On January 29, 2026, the Company amended its Articles of Incorporation to reduce the authorized common shares from 975,000,000 shares to 300,000,000 shares.

Section 3.1. Authorized Shares. The aggregate number of shares which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is three hundred million (300,000,000) shares, consisting of two classes to be designated, respectively, "Common Stock" and "Preferred Stock", with all of such shares having a par value of $.00001 per share. The voting powers, designations, preferences, limitations, restrictions, and relative, participating, optional and other rights, and the qualifications, limitations, or restrictions thereof, of the Preferred Stock shall hereinafter be prescribed by resolution of the board of directors pursuant to Section 2.3 of this Article II.

Section 3.2. Common Stock.

(a) Dividend Rate. Subject to the rights of holders of any Preferred Stock having preference as to dividends and except as otherwise provided by these Articles of Incorporation, as amended from time to time (hereinafter, the "Articles") or the NRS, the holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by the board of directors out of assets legally available therefor.

(c) Liquidation Rights. A merger, conversion, exchange or consolidation of the Corporation with or into any other person or sale or transfer of all or any part of the assets of the Corporation (which shall not in fact result in the liquidation of the Corporation and the distribution of assets to stockholders) shall not be deemed to be a voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation.

(d) No Conversion, Redemption, or Preemptive Rights. The holders of Common Stock shall not have any conversion, redemption, or preemptive rights.

(e) Consideration for Shares. The Common Stock authorized by this Article shall be issued for such consideration as shall be fixed, from time to time, by the board of directors.

Section 3.3. Preferred Stock.

(a) Designation. The board of directors is hereby vested with the authority from time to time to provide by resolution for the issuance of shares of Preferred Stock in one or more series not exceeding the aggregate number of shares of Preferred Stock authorized by these Articles, and to prescribe with respect to each such series the voting powers, if any, designations, preferences, and relative, participating, optional, or other special rights, and the qualifications, limitations, or restrictions relating thereto, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing: the voting rights relating to the shares of Preferred Stock of any series (which voting rights, if any, may be full or limited, may vary over time, and may be applicable generally or only upon any stated fact or event); the rate of dividends (which may be cumulative or noncumulative), the condition or time for payment of dividends and the preference or relation of such dividends to dividends payable on any other class or series of capital stock; the rights of holders of Preferred Stock of any series in the event of liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation; the rights, if any, of holders of Preferred Stock of any series to convert or exchange such shares of Preferred Stock of such series for shares of any other class or series of capital stock or for any other securities, property, or assets of the Corporation or any subsidiary (including the determination of the price or prices or the rate or rates applicable to such rights to convert or exchange and the adjustment thereof, the time or times during which the right to convert or exchange shall be applicable, and the time or times during which a particular price or rate shall be applicable); whether the shares of any series of Preferred Stock shall be subject to redemption by the Corporation (in addition to any right of redemption pursuant to Article VII of these Articles) and if subject to redemption, the times, prices, rates, adjustments and other terms and conditions of such redemption. The powers, designations, preferences, limitations, restrictions and relative rights may be made dependent upon any fact or event which may be ascertained outside the Articles or the resolution if the manner in which the fact or event may operate on such series is stated in the Articles or resolution. As used in this section "fact or event" includes, without limitation, the existence of a fact or occurrence of an event, including, without limitation, a determination or action by a person, government, governmental agency or political subdivision of a government. The board of directors is further authorized to increase or decrease (but not below the number of such shares of such series then outstanding) the number of shares of any series subsequent to the issuance of shares of that series. Unless the board of directors provides to the contrary in the resolution which fixes the characteristics of a series of Preferred Stock, neither the consent by series, or otherwise, of the holders of any outstanding Preferred Stock nor the consent of the holders of any outstanding Common Stock shall be required for the issuance of any new series of Preferred Stock regardless of whether the rights and preferences of the new series of Preferred Stock are senior or superior, in any way, to the outstanding series of Preferred Stock or the Common Stock.

(b) Certificate. Before the Corporation shall issue any shares of Preferred Stock of any series, a certificate of designation setting forth a copy of the resolution or resolutions of the board of directors, and establishing the voting powers, designations, preferences, the relative, participating, optional, or other rights, if any, and the qualifications, limitations, and restrictions, if any, relating to the shares of Preferred Stock of such series, and the number of shares of Preferred Stock of such series authorized by the board of directors to be issued shall be made and signed by an officer of the Corporation and filed in the manner prescribed by the NRS.

Section 3.4. Non-Assessment of Stock. The capital stock of the Corporation, after the amount of the subscription price has been fully paid, shall not be assessable for any purpose, and no stock issued as fully paid shall ever be assessable or assessed, and the Articles shall not be amended in this particular. No stockholder of the Corporation is individually liable for the debts or liabilities of the Corporation.

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors. At the annual meeting, directors shall be elected and any other business may be transacted as may be properly brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings.

(a) Subject to the rights of the holders of preferred stock, if any, special meetings of the stockholders may be called only by the chairman of the board, if any, or the chief executive officer, if any, or, if there be no chairman of the board and no chief executive officer, by the president, and shall be called by the secretary upon the written request of at least a majority of the authorized number of directors. Such request shall state the purpose or purposes of the meeting. Stockholders shall have no right to request or call a special meeting.

(b) No business shall be acted upon at a special meeting of stockholders except as set forth in the notice of the meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. Any meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation may be held at the Corporation's registered office in the State of Nevada or at such other place within or without of the State of Nevada and United States as may be designated in the notice of meeting. A waiver of notice signed by all stockholders entitled to vote may designate any place for the holding of such meeting.

Section 2.4 Notice of Meetings; Waiver of Notice.

(a) The president, chief executive officer, if any, a vice president, the secretary, an assistant secretary or any other individual designated by the Board of Directors shall sign and deliver or cause to be delivered to the stockholders written notice of any stockholders' meeting not less than ten (10) days, but not more than sixty (60) days, before the date of such meeting. The notice shall state the place, date and time of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. The notice shall contain or be accompanied by such additional information as may be required by Nevada Revised Statutes ("NRS"), including, without limitation, NRS 78.379, 92A.120 or 92A.410.

(b) In the case of an annual meeting, subject to Section 2.13 below, any proper business may be presented for action, except that (i) if a proposed plan of merger, conversion or exchange is submitted to a vote, the notice of the meeting must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the plan of merger, conversion or exchange and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan; and (ii) if a proposed action creating dissenters' rights is to be submitted to a vote, the notice of the meeting must state that the stockholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive, and be accompanied by a copy of those sections.

(c) A copy of the notice shall be personally delivered or mailed postage prepaid to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting at the address appearing on the records of the Corporation. Upon mailing, service of the notice is complete, and the time of the notice begins to run from the date upon which the notice is deposited in the mail. If the address of any stockholder does not appear upon the records of the Corporation or is incomplete, it will be sufficient to address any notice to such stockholder at the registered office of the Corporation.

(d) The written certificate of the individual signing a notice of meeting, setting forth the substance of the notice or having a copy thereof attached, the date the notice was mailed or personally delivered to the stockholders and the addresses to which the notice was mailed, shall be prima facie evidence of the manner and fact of giving such notice.

(e) Any stockholder may waive notice of any meeting by a signed writing, either before or after the meeting. Such waiver of notice shall be deemed the equivalent of the giving of such notice.

Section 2.5 Determination of Stockholders of Record.

(a) For the purpose of determining the stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any distribution or the allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion, or exchange of stock or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, if applicable.

(b) If no record date is fixed, the record date for determining stockholders: (i) entitled to notice of and to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held; and (ii) for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating thereto. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting and must fix a new record date if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than 60 days later than the date set for the original meeting.

Section 2.6 Quorum; Adjourned Meetings.

(a) Unless the Articles of Incorporation provide for a different proportion, stockholders holding at least a majority of the voting power of the Corporation's capital stock, represented in person or by proxy (regardless of whether the proxy has authority to vote on all matters), are necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting. If, on any issue, voting by classes or series is required by the laws of the State of Nevada, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, at least a majority of the voting power, represented in person or by proxy (regardless of whether the proxy has authority to vote on all matters), within each such class or series is necessary to constitute a quorum of each such class or series.

(b) If a quorum is not represented, a majority of the voting power represented or the person presiding at the meeting may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum shall be represented. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted as originally called. When a stockholders' meeting is adjourned to another time or place hereunder, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. However, if a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given to each stockholder of record as of the new record date. The stockholders present at a duly convened meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the departure of enough stockholders to leave less than a quorum of the voting power.

Section 2.7 Voting.

(a) Unless otherwise provided in the NRS, in the Articles of Incorporation, or in the resolution providing for the issuance of preferred stock adopted by the Board of Directors pursuant to authority expressly vested in it by the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, each stockholder of record, or such stockholder's duly authorized proxy, shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each share of voting stock standing registered in such stockholder's name at the close of business on the record date.

(b) Except as otherwise provided herein, all votes with respect to shares standing in the name of an individual at the close of business on the record date (including pledged shares) shall be cast only by that individual or such individual's duly authorized proxy. With respect to shares held by a representative of the estate of a deceased stockholder, or a guardian, conservator, custodian or trustee, even though the shares do not stand in the name of such holder, votes may be cast by such holder upon proof of such representative capacity. In the case of shares under the control of a receiver, the receiver may cast votes carried by such shares even though the shares do not stand of record in the name of the receiver; provided, that the order of a court of competent jurisdiction which appoints the receiver contains the authority to cast votes carried by such shares. If shares stand of record in the name of a minor, votes may be cast by the duly appointed guardian of the estate of such minor only if such guardian has provided the Corporation with written proof of such appointment.

(c) With respect to shares standing of record in the name of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other legal entity on the record date, votes may be cast: (i) in the case of a corporation, by such individual as the bylaws of such other corporation prescribe, by such individual as may be appointed by resolution of the Board of Directors of such other corporation or by such individual (including, without limitation, the officer making the authorization) authorized in writing to do so by the chairman of the board, if any, president, chief executive officer, if any, or any vice president of such corporation; and (ii) in the case of a partnership, limited liability company or other legal entity, by an individual representing such stockholder upon presentation to the Corporation of satisfactory evidence of his authority to do so.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein and except for the Corporation's shares held in a fiduciary capacity, the Corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it; and such shares shall not be counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares entitled to vote.

(e) Any holder of shares entitled to vote on any matter may cast a portion of the votes in favor of such matter and refrain from casting the remaining votes or cast the same against the proposal, except in the case of elections of directors. If such holder entitled to vote does vote any of such stockholder's shares affirmatively and fails to specify the number of affirmative votes, it will be conclusively presumed that the holder is casting affirmative votes with respect to all shares held.

(f) With respect to shares standing of record in the name of two or more persons, whether fiduciaries, members of a partnership, joint tenants, tenants in common, husband and wife as community property, tenants by the entirety, voting trustees or otherwise and shares held by two or more persons (including proxy holders) having the same fiduciary relationship in respect to the same shares, votes may be cast in the following manner:

(i) If only one person votes, the vote of such person binds all.

(ii) If more than one person casts votes, the act of the majority so voting binds all.

(iii) If more than one person casts votes, but the vote is evenly split on a particular matter, the votes shall be deemed cast proportionately, as split.

(g) If a quorum is present, unless the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, the NRS, or other applicable law provide for a different proportion, action by the stockholders entitled to vote on a matter, other than the election of directors, is approved by and is the act of the stockholders if the number of votes cast in favor of the action exceeds the number of votes cast in opposition to the action, unless voting by classes or series is required for any action of the stockholders by the laws of the State of Nevada, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, in which case the number of votes cast in favor of the action by the voting power of each such class or series must exceed the number of votes cast in opposition to the action by the voting power of each such class or series.

(h) If a quorum is present, directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast.

Section 2.8 Proxies. At any meeting of stockholders, any holder of shares entitled to vote may designate, in a manner permitted by the laws of the State of Nevada, another person or persons to act as a proxy or proxies. Every proxy shall continue in full force and effect until its expiration or revocation in a manner permitted by the laws of the State of Nevada.

Section 2.9 No Action Without A Meeting. No action shall be taken by the stockholders except at an annual or special meeting of stockholders called and noticed in the manner required by these Bylaws.

Section 2.10 Organization.

(a) Meetings of stockholders shall be presided over by the chairman of the board, or, in the absence of the chairman, by the vice-chairman of the board, or in the absence of the vice-chairman, the president, or, in the absence of the president, by the chief executive officer, if any, or, in the absence of the foregoing persons, by a chairman designated by the Board of Directors, or, in the absence of such designation by the Board of Directors, by a chairman chosen at the meeting by the stockholders entitled to cast a majority of the votes which all stockholders present in person or by proxy are entitled to cast. The secretary, or in the absence of the secretary an assistant secretary, shall act as secretary of the meeting, but in the absence of the secretary and any assistant secretary the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting. The order of business at each such meeting shall be as determined by the chairman of the meeting. The chairman of the meeting shall have the right and authority to prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures and to do all such acts and things as are necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of the meeting, including, without limitation, the establishment of procedures for the maintenance of order and safety, limitation on the time allotted to questions or comments on the affairs of the Corporation, restrictions on entry to such meeting after the time prescribed for the commencement thereof and the opening and closing of the voting polls.

(b) The chairman of the meeting may appoint one or more inspectors of elections. The inspector or inspectors may (i) ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; (ii) determine the number of shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies or ballots; (iii) count all votes and ballots; (iv) determine any challenges made to any determination made by the inspector(s); and (v) certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting and the count of all votes and ballots.

Section 2.11 Absentees' Consent to Meetings. Transactions of any meeting of the stockholders are as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice if a quorum is represented, either in person or by proxy, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the persons entitled to vote, not represented in person or by proxy (and those who, although present, either object at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting has not been lawfully called or convened or expressly object at the meeting to the consideration of matters not included in the notice which are legally or by the terms of these Bylaws required to be included therein), signs a written waiver of notice and/or consent to the holding of the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records and made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called, noticed or convened and except that attendance at a meeting is not a waiver of any right to object to the consideration of matters not properly included in the notice if such objection is expressly made at the time any such matters are presented at the meeting. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of stockholders need be specified in any written waiver of notice or consent, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws.

Section 2.12 Director Nominations. Subject to the rights, if any, of the holders of preferred stock to nominate and elect directors, nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors of the Corporation may be made by the Board of Directors, by a committee appointed by the Board of Directors, or by any stockholder of record entitled to vote in the election of directors who complies with the notice procedures set forth in Section 2.13 below.

Section 2.13 Advance Notice of Stockholder Proposals and Director Nominations by Stockholders. At any annual or special meeting of stockholders, proposals by stockholders and persons nominated for election as directors by stockholders shall be considered only if advance notice thereof has been timely given by the stockholder as provided herein and such proposals or nominations are otherwise proper for consideration under applicable law, the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws. Notice of any proposal to be presented by any stockholder or of the name of any person to be nominated by any stockholder for election as a director of the Corporation at any meeting of stockholders shall be delivered to the secretary of the Corporation at its principal office not less than sixty (60) nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the day of the meeting; provided, however, that if the date of the meeting is first publicly announced or disclosed (in a public filing or otherwise) less than seventy (70) days prior to the day of the meeting, such advance notice shall be given not more than ten (10) days after such date is first so announced or disclosed. Public notice shall be deemed to have been given more than seventy (70) days in advance of the annual meeting if the Corporation shall have previously disclosed, in these Bylaws or otherwise, that the annual meeting in each year is to be held on a determinable date, unless and until the Board of Directors determines to hold the meeting on a different date. For purposes of this Section, public disclosure of the date of a forthcoming meeting may be made by the Corporation not only by giving formal notice of the meeting, but also by notice to a national securities exchange, the Nasdaq National Market or the Nasdaq SmallCap Market (if a corporation's common stock is then listed on such exchange or quoted on either such Nasdaq market), by filing a report under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act") (if the Corporation is then subject thereto), by mailing to stockholders or by a general press release.

Any stockholder who gives notice of any such proposal shall deliver therewith the text of the proposal to be presented and a brief written statement of the reasons why such stockholder favors the proposal and setting forth such stockholder's name and address, the number and class of all shares of each class of stock of the Corporation beneficially owned by such stockholder and any material interest of such stockholder in the proposal (other than as a stockholder). Any stockholder desiring to nominate any person for election as a director of the Corporation shall deliver with such notice a statement, in writing, setting forth (a) the name of the person to be nominated; (b) the number and class of all shares of each class of stock of the Corporation beneficially owned by such person; (c) the information regarding such person required by paragraphs (a), (e) and (f) of Item 401 of Regulation S-K adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") (or the corresponding provisions of any regulation subsequently adopted by the SEC applicable to the Corporation), and any other information regarding such person which would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the SEC, had such nominee been nominated, or intended to be nominated by the Board of Directors; (d) such person's signed consent to serve as a director of the Corporation if elected and to file an application for licensing or finding of suitability if the Nevada Gaming Commission or other gaming authority shall so require or the Board of Directors deems it necessary or advisable; (e) such stockholder's name and address and the number and class of all shares of each class of stock of the Corporation beneficially owned by such stockholder; (f) a representation that such stockholder is a holder of record of stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; and (g) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nominations are to be made by the stockholder. As used herein, shares "beneficially owned" shall mean all shares as to which such person, together with such person's affiliates and associates (as defined in Rule 12b-2 under the Act), may be deemed to beneficially own pursuant to Rules 13d-3 and 13d-5 under the Act, as well as all shares as to which such person, together with such person's affiliates and associates, has a right to become the beneficial owner pursuant to any agreement or understanding, whereupon the exercise of warrants, options or rights to convert or exchange (whether such rights are exercisable immediately or only after the passage of time or the occurrence of conditions). The person presiding at the meeting shall determine whether such notice has been duly given and shall direct that proposals and nominees not be considered if such notice has not been duly given. Notwithstanding anything in these Bylaws to the contrary, no business shall be conducted at a meeting except in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions hereof, a stockholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth herein.

Section 3.2 Number, Tenure, and Qualifications. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of at least one (1) individual(s) and not more than thirteen (13) individuals. The number of directors within the foregoing fixed minimum and maximum may be established and changed from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation without amendment to these Bylaws or the Articles of Incorporation. Each director shall hold office until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified or until his earlier death, retirement, disqualification, resignation or removal. No reduction of the number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director prior to the expiration of his term of office. In addition, the Board of Directors of the Corporation, by majority vote, may declare vacant the office of a director who has been declared incompetent by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or convicted of a felony. Any director may resign effective upon giving written notice, unless the notice specifies a later time for effectiveness of such resignation, to the chairman of the board, if any, the president or the secretary, or in the absence of all of them, any other officer.

Section 3.6 Vacancies; Newly Created Directorships. Subject to any rights of the holders of preferred stock, any vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting from death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office, or other cause, and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors, may be filled by a majority vote of the directors then in office or by a sole remaining director, in either case though less than a quorum, and the director(s) so chosen shall hold office for a term expiring at the next annual meeting of stockholders at which the term of the class to which he has been elected expires, or until his earlier resignation or removal. Section 3.9 Place of Meetings. Any regular or special meeting of the directors of the Corporation may be held at such place as the Board of Directors, or in the absence of such designation, as the notice calling such meeting, may designate. If the address of any director is incomplete or does not appear upon the records of the Corporation it will be sufficient to address any notice to such director at the registered office of the Corporation. Any director may waive notice of any meeting, and the attendance of a director at a meeting and oral consent entered on the minutes of such meeting shall constitute waiver of notice of the meeting unless such director objects, prior to the transaction of any business, that the meeting was not lawfully called, noticed or convened. Attendance for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of business thereat because the meeting was not properly called or convened shall not constitute presence or a waiver of notice for purposes hereof.

Section 3.11 Quorum; Adjourned Meetings.

(a) A majority of the directors in office, at a meeting duly assembled, is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(b) At any meeting of the Board of Directors where a quorum is not present, a majority of those present may adjourn, from time to time, until a quorum is present, and no notice of such adjournment shall be required. At any adjourned meeting where a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which could have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

Section 3.12 Manner of Acting. Except as provided in Section 3.14 below, the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board of Directors.

Participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 3.15 constitutes presence in person at the meeting.

Section 3.15 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if, before or after the action, a written consent thereto is signed by all of the members of the Board of Directors or the committee. The written consent may be signed in counterparts, including, without limitation, facsimile counterparts, and shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors. The committees shall keep regular minutes of their proceedings and report the same to the Board of Directors when required.

Section 3.17 Compensation. The Board of Directors, without regard to personal interest, may establish the compensation of directors for services in any capacity. ARTICLE V

CAPITAL STOCK

Section 5.1 Issuance. Shares of the Corporation's authorized stock shall, subject to any provisions or limitations of the laws of the State of Nevada, the Articles of Incorporation or any contracts or agreements to which the Corporation may be a party, be issued in such manner, at such times, upon such conditions and for such consideration as shall be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Section 5.2 Stock Certificates and Uncertified Shares. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed by or in the name of the Corporation by the president, the chief executive officer, if any, or a vice president, and by the secretary or an assistant secretary, of the Corporation (or any other two officers or agents so authorized by the Board of Directors), certifying the number of shares of stock owned by him, her or it in the Corporation; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of uncertificated shares of some or all of any or all classes or series of the Corporation's stock. Any such issuance of uncertificated shares shall have no effect on existing certificates for shares until such certificates are surrendered to the Corporation, or on the respective rights and obligations of the stockholders. Whenever such certificate is countersigned or otherwise authenticated by a transfer agent or a transfer clerk and by a registrar (other than the Corporation), then a facsimile of the signatures of any corporate officers or agents, the transfer agent, transfer clerk or the registrar of the Corporation may be printed or lithographed upon the certificate in lieu of the actual signatures. In the event that any officer or officers who have signed, or whose facsimile signatures have been used on any certificate or certificates for stock cease to be an officer or officers because of death, resignation or other reason, before the certificate or certificates for stock have been delivered by the Corporation, the certificate or certificates may nevertheless be adopted by the Corporation and be issued and delivered as though the person or persons who signed the certificate or certificates, or whose facsimile signature or signatures have been used thereon, had not ceased to be an officer or officers of the Corporation.

Within a reasonable time after the issuance or transfer of uncertificated shares, the Corporation shall send to the registered owner thereof a written statement certifying the number of shares owned by him, her or it in the Corporation and, at least annually thereafter, the Corporation shall provide to such stockholders of record holding uncertificated shares, a written statement confirming the information contained in such written statement previously sent. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, the rights and obligations of the stockholders shall be identical whether or not their shares of stock are represented by certificates.

Each certificate representing shares shall state the following upon the face thereof: the name of the state of the Corporation's organization; the name of the person to whom issued; the number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, which such certificate represents; the par value of each share, if any, represented by such certificate or a statement that the shares are without par value. Certificates of stock shall be in such form consistent with law as shall be prescribed by the Board of Directors. No certificate shall be issued until the shares represented thereby are fully paid. In addition to the above, all certificates evidencing shares of the Corporation's stock or other securities issued by the Corporation shall contain such legend or legends as may from time to time be required by the NRS and/or the regulations of the Nevada Gaming Commission then in effect, or such other federal, state or local laws or regulations then in effect.

Section 5.3 Surrendered; Lost or Destroyed Certificates. All certificates surrendered to the Corporation, except those representing shares of treasury stock, shall be canceled and no new certificate shall be issued until the former certificate for a like number of shares shall have been canceled, except that in case of a lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new one may be issued therefor. However, any stockholder applying for the issuance of a stock certificate in lieu of one alleged to have been lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated shall, prior to the issuance of a replacement, provide the Corporation with his, her or its affidavit of the facts surrounding the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation and, if required by the Board of Directors, an indemnity bond in an amount not less than twice the current market value of the stock, and upon such terms as the treasurer or the Board of Directors shall require which shall indemnify the Corporation against any loss, damage, cost or inconvenience arising as a consequence of the issuance of a replacement certificate.

Section 5.4 Replacement Certificate. When the Articles of Incorporation are amended in any way affecting the statements contained in the certificates for outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation or it becomes desirable for any reason, in the discretion of the Board of Directors, including, without limitation, the merger of the Corporation with another Corporation or the conversion or reorganization of the Corporation, to cancel any outstanding certificate for shares and issue a new certificate therefor conforming to the rights of the holder, the Board of Directors may order any holders of outstanding certificates for shares to surrender and exchange the same for new certificates within a reasonable time to be fixed by the Board of Directors. The order may provide that a holder of any certificate(s) ordered to be surrendered shall not be entitled to vote, receive distributions or exercise any other rights of stockholders of record until the holder has complied with the order, but the order operates to suspend such rights only after notice and until compliance.

Section 5.5 Transfer of Shares. No transfer of stock shall be valid as against the Corporation except on surrender and cancellation of the certificates therefor accompanied by an assignment or transfer by the registered owner made either in person or under assignment. Whenever any transfer shall be expressly made for collateral security and not absolutely, the collateral nature of the transfer shall be reflected in the entry of transfer in the records of the Corporation.

Section 5.6 Transfer Agent; Registrars. The Board of Directors may appoint one or more transfer agents, transfer clerks and registrars of transfer and may require all certificates for shares of stock to bear the signature of such transfer agents, transfer clerks and/or registrars of transfer.

Section 5.7 Miscellaneous. The Board of Directors shall have the power and authority to make such rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith as it may deem expedient concerning the issue, transfer, and registration of certificates for shares of the Corporation's stock.

ARTICLE VI

DISTRIBUTIONS

Distributions may be declared, subject to the provisions of the laws of the State of Nevada and the Articles of Incorporation, by the Board of Directors and may be paid in cash, property, shares of corporate stock, or any other medium. The Board of Directors may fix in advance a record date, as provided in Section 2.5 above, prior to the distribution for the purpose of determining stockholders entitled to receive any distribution.

ARTICLE VII

RECORDS; REPORTS; SEAL; AND FINANCIAL MATTERS

Section 7.1 Records. All original records of the Corporation, shall be kept at the principal office of the Corporation by or under the direction of the secretary or at such other place or by such other person as may be prescribed by these Bylaws or the Board of Directors.

Section 7.2 Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, authorize a seal, and the seal may be used by causing it, or a facsimile, to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise. Except when otherwise specifically provided herein, any officer of the Corporation shall have the authority to affix the seal to any document requiring it.

Section 7.3 Fiscal Year-End. The fiscal year-end of the Corporation shall be such date as may be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VIII

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 8.1 Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

(i) For purposes of this Article, (A) "Indemnitee" shall mean each director or officer who was or is a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, or is otherwise involved in, any Proceeding (as hereinafter defined), by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or member, manager or managing member of a predecessor limited liability company or affiliate of such limited liability company or is or was serving in any capacity at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, agent, partner, member, manager or fiduciary of, or in any other capacity for, another corporation or any partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust, or other enterprise; and (B) "Proceeding" shall mean any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding (including, without limitation, an action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation), whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative.

(ii) Each Indemnitee shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted by Nevada law, against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, taxes, penalties, and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by the Indemnitee in connection with any Proceeding; provided that such Indemnitee either is not liable pursuant to NRS 78.138 or acted in good faith and in a manner such Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any Proceeding that is criminal in nature, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any Proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that the Indemnitee is liable pursuant to NRS 78.138 or did not act in good faith and in a manner in which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or that, with respect to any criminal proceeding he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. The Corporation shall not indemnify an Indemnitee for any claim, issue or matter as to which the Indemnitee has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the Corporation or for any amounts paid in settlement to the Corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the Proceeding was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the Indemnitee is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such amounts as the court deems proper. Except as so ordered by a court and for advancement of expenses pursuant to this Section, indemnification may not be made to or on behalf of an Indemnitee if a final adjudication establishes that his acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of law and was material to the cause of action. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Bylaws, no director or officer may be indemnified for expenses incurred in defending any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding (including without limitation, an action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation), whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, that such director or officer incurred in his capacity as a stockholder.

(iii) Indemnification pursuant to this Section shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Corporation or member, manager or managing member of a predecessor limited liability company or affiliate of such limited liability company or a director, officer, employee, agent, partner, member, manager or fiduciary of, or to serve in any other capacity for, another corporation or any partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust, or other enterprise and shall inure to the benefit of his heirs, executors and administrators.

(iv) The expenses of Indemnitees must be paid by the Corporation or through insurance purchased and maintained by the Corporation or through other financial arrangements made by the Corporation, as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the Proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation. To the extent that a director or officer of the Corporation is successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any Proceeding, or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the Corporation shall indemnify him against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred in by him in connection with the defense.

(b) Indemnification of Employees and Other Persons. The Corporation may, by action of its Board of Directors and to the extent provided in such action, indemnify employees and other persons as though they were Indemnitees.

(c) Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification provided in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other rights that any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, agreement, vote of stockholders or directors, or otherwise.

(d) Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance or make other financial arrangements on behalf of any Indemnitee for any liability asserted against him and liability and expenses incurred by him in his capacity as a director, officer, employee, member, managing member or agent, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation has the authority to indemnify him against such liability and expenses.

(e) Other Financial Arrangements. The other financial arrangements which may be made by the Corporation may include the following (i) the creation of a trust fund; (ii) the establishment of a program of self-insurance; (iii) the securing of its obligation of indemnification by granting a security interest or other lien on any assets of the Corporation; (iv) the establishment of a letter of credit, guarantee or surety. No financial arrangement made pursuant to this subsection may provide protection for a person adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable for intentional misconduct, fraud, or a knowing violation of law, except with respect to advancement of expenses or indemnification ordered by a court.

(f) Other Matters Relating to Insurance or Financial Arrangements. Any insurance or other financial arrangement made on behalf of a person pursuant to this Section may be provided by the Corporation or any other person approved by the Board of Directors, even if all or part of the other person's stock or other securities is owned by the Corporation. In the absence of fraud, (i) the decision of the Board of Directors as to the propriety of the terms and conditions of any insurance or other financial arrangement made pursuant to this Section and the choice of the person to provide the insurance or other financial arrangement is conclusive; and (ii) the insurance or other financial arrangement is not void or voidable and does not subject any director approving it to personal liability for his action; even if a director approving the insurance or other financial arrangement is a beneficiary of the insurance or other financial arrangement.

Section 8.2 Amendment. The provisions of this Article VIII relating to indemnification shall constitute a contract between the Corporation and each of its directors and officers which may be modified as to any director or officer only with that person's consent or as specifically provided in this Section. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws relating to their amendment generally, any repeal or amendment of this Article which is adverse to any director or officer shall apply to such director or officer only on a prospective basis, and shall not limit the rights of an Indemnitee to indemnification with respect to any action or failure to act occurring prior to the time of such repeal or amendment. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws (including, without limitation, Article X below), no repeal or amendment of these Bylaws shall affect any or all of this Article VIII so as to limit or reduce the indemnification in any manner unless adopted by (a) the unanimous vote of the directors of the Corporation then serving, or (b) by the stockholders as set forth in Article X hereof; provided that no such amendment shall have a retroactive effect inconsistent with the preceding sentence.

ARTICLE IX

CHANGES IN NEVADA LAW

References in these Bylaws to Nevada law or the NRS or to any provision thereof shall be to such law as it existed on the date these Bylaws were adopted or as such law thereafter may be changed; provided that (a) in the case of any change which expands the liability of directors or officers or limits the indemnification rights or the rights to advancement of expenses which the Corporation may provide in Article VIII hereof, the rights to limited liability, to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses provided in the Articles of Incorporation and/or these Bylaws shall continue as theretofore to the extent permitted by law; and (b) if such change permits the Corporation, without the requirement of any further action by stockholders or directors, to limit further the liability of directors or limit the liability of officers or to provide broader indemnification rights or rights to the advancement of expenses than the Corporation was permitted to provide prior to such change, then liability thereupon shall be so limited and the rights to indemnification and the advancement of expenses shall be so broadened to the extent permitted by law.

ARTICLE X

AMENDMENT OR REPEAL

Section 10.1 Board of Directors. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors of the Corporation is expressly authorized to adopt, repeal, alter, amend and rescind these Bylaws.

Section 10.2 Stockholders. Notwithstanding Section 10.1 above, these Bylaws may be rescinded, altered, amended or repealed in any respect by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the outstanding voting power of the Corporation, voting together as a single class.

A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of company management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the combined financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these combined financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of combined financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.

Accountant's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to conduct the review engagements in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the AICPA. Those standards require us to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance as a basis for reporting whether we are aware of any material modifications that should be made to the combined financial statements for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Principles of Combination of Financials

For the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the financial statements reflect the combined operations of GFL Sports & Entertainment, Inc. and GFL Properties, LLC (a Nevada limited liability company formed on March 19, 2024 through which the Company initially commenced operations). Following the organization of GFL Sports & Entertainment, Inc., the Company continues its operations under GFL Sports & Entertainment, Inc. All intercompany balances and transactions between the combining entities have been eliminated in the preparation of the combined financial statements.

Basis of Presentation

Any reference in these notes to applicable guidance is meant to refer to U.S. GAAP as found in the Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) and Accounting Standards Updates (“ASU”) of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and footnotes thereto. Actual results could materially differ from these estimates. It is reasonably possible that changes in estimates will occur in the near term.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Company has a limited operating history. The Company's business and operations are sensitive to general business and economic conditions in the United States. A host of factors beyond the Company's control could cause fluctuations in these conditions. Adverse conditions may include recession, downturn or otherwise, local competition or changes in consumer taste. These adverse conditions could affect the Company's financial condition and the results of its operations.

GFL SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT, INC.
NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(UNAUDITED)

Trademarks are recorded at cost and classified as indefinite-lived intangible assets when management determines that there is no foreseeable limit on the period over which the asset is expected to contribute to future cash flows. Indefinite-lived trademarks are not amortized but are tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the asset may be impaired. Based on this assessment, there was no impairment for December 31, 2025 and 2024.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the carrying value of the trademark was $1,175 and $1,050, respectively.

As of December 31, 2024, prepaid expenses included $170,000 of fighter-related advance payments made in connection with the Company's preparation for the launch and setup of its league operations in 2025. Such amounts are expected to be recognized in expense as the underlying services are performed or other contractual obligations are satisfied.

Fair Value Measurements

US GAAP defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or be paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (exit price) and such principles also establish a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value using the following definitions (from highest to lowest priority):

- Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 – Observable inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, including quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar assets and liabilities in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.
- Level 3 – Prices or valuation techniques requiring inputs that are both significant to the fair value measurement and unobservable.

NOTE 5 – SHARE-BASED COMPENSATION

GFL SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT, INC.
NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025 AND 2024
(UNAUDITED)

On December 1, 2025, the Company approved the 2025 Stock Option Plan (the “Plan”). The Plan provides for the grant of incentive stock options or non-qualified stock options (collectively, “Stock Awards”). The Plan provided the Company the ability to grant Stock Awards to its employees, directors and consultants of up to 40,000,000 shares of common stock and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock.

The purchase price of each share covered by each Incentive Option shall not be less than one hundred percent (100%) of the Fair Market Value Per Share of the Common Stock on the date the Incentive Option is granted; provided, however, that if at the time an Incentive Option is granted the Optionee owns or would be considered to own more than ten percent (10%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company, the purchase price of the shares covered by such Incentive Option shall not be less than one hundred ten percent (110%) of the Fair Market Value Per Share of the Common Stock on the date the Incentive Option is granted.

The fair value of each option award is estimated on the date of grant using a lattice-based option valuation model that uses the assumptions noted in the table below. Because lattice-based option valuation models incorporate ranges of assumptions for inputs, those ranges are disclosed. Expected volatilities are based on implied volatilities from traded options on the Company's stock, historical volatility of the Company's stock, and other factors. The Company uses historical data to estimate option exercise and employee termination within its valuation model; separate groups of employees that have similar historical exercise behavior are considered separately for valuation purposes. The expected term of options granted is derived from the output of the option valuation model and represents the period of time that options granted are expected to be outstanding; the range given below results from certain groups of employees exhibiting different behavior. The risk-free rate for periods within the contractual life of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant.

Exercise price	$0.0955
Fair value share price	$0.09
Expected volatility	40%
Expected term (in years)	2.2 years
Expected dividends	0%
Risk-free rate	4%
Fair value per share option	$0.051

As of December 31, 2025, the Company had issued a total of 25,000,000 common stock options under the Plan, of which none have been exercised. Total stock-based compensation expense for stock awards recognized during the years ended December 31, 2025 was $19,863. The stock option compensation expense is recognized ratably over the period as the stock options vest.

NOTE 6 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Royalty Obligations Under Patent License Agreements

The Company is party to Patent License Agreements dated October 4, 2021, under which the Company obtained non-exclusive, worldwide licenses to certain patented technologies. Under the terms of the agreements, the Company is required to pay the Licensors a royalty equal to 5% of Adjusted Gross Sales derived from products and services that utilize the licensed patent rights.

GFL SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT, INC.
NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025 AND 2024
(UNAUDITED)

Adjusted Gross Sales is defined in the agreements as gross revenue less only sales taxes and value-added taxes collected as an agent and remitted to governmental authorities.

Royalty payments are due quarterly, within 60 days after the end of each calendar quarter, together with required royalty reports. The agreements also require the Company to maintain detailed records supporting the calculation of royalties and grant the Licensors audit rights for a period of four years following each reporting period.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, no products or services utilizing the licensed patents have been commercialized, and therefore no revenue have been generated, and no royalty expense has been incurred.

Legal Matters

The Company is not currently involved with and does not know of any pending or threatening litigation against the Company as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

NOTE 7 – GOING CONCERN

The Company has incurred recurring losses from operations, including net losses of approximately $622,141 and $646,285 for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company had an accumulated deficit of approximately $3.8 million and $3.1 million, respectively.

Management has evaluated the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date the financial statements are issued. The Company's ability to continue its operations and meet its obligations as they become due is dependent on its ability to raise additional capital through future equity financing.

While management believes it will be able to secure such funding, these conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern and do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

NOTE 8 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation

On January 29, 2026, the Company amended its Articles of Incorporation to reduced the authorized common shares from 975,000,000 shares to 300,000,000 shares.

 Global Fight League // Campaign Script Transcript

TYRON:

In this sport, one moment you're on top of the world... the next minute you're waiting. Waiting to hear what's next.

You can win fights. You can sell tickets. But you still don't really control what happens next. Between fights, you don't always know what your next year is going to look like.

Even when you have a huge fanbase, you don't always have stability. No real control of your career.

What if MMA had a real league format — a season you can plan for, teams you can build with, and fans who know exactly who they're rooting for.

That's why we're building the Global Fight League. It's built around teams connected to cities. It runs on seasons.

And it gives fans a team to ride with, and athletes to root for, and just like every other major sport, it's built real loyalty over time.

JEFFREY:

I've spent my career helping build and grow major sports brands.

And what I've learned is this —the biggest leagues in the world are built around one thing: teams connected to cities.

Fans love athletes. Fans belong to teams.

That's why the most valuable sports businesses globally are team-based leagues.

DARREN:

GFL is structured like the NFL, NBA, NHL, and Major League Baseball — now for the sport of MMA.

Teams, standings, and a structured season that builds toward a championship.

We're launching a proof-of-concept season with four inaugural teams — LA, New York, Miami, and London. Marquee events with affordable tickets...

...media distribution partners including Fubo, DIRECTV, DISH, PPV.com

Major U.S. cable networks like Spectrum, Comcast, and Cox — complemented by global reach on YouTube.

I've been on the promotions and operator side of this sport for years — building events and brands like the World Series of Fighting.

Our new leadership team has launched leagues, scaled sports media brands, and created real long-term value.

JEFFREY:

Fans want more than a one-night event.

They want a deeper connection.

The strongest sports brands in the world are built by sustaining that connection — turning engagement into loyalty, and loyalty into long-term value.

We believe it's time for the fans — and athletes — who power the sports industry to meaningfully share in the value they help create.

GFL opens ownership to fans and athletes from the very start.

That turns fandom into participation.

And participation into real, lasting loyalty.

TYRON:

For the first time fighters can earn equity at the ground floor built around their talent.

As the league grows, we will grow with it.

And now, so can you.

DARREN:

If you want to be an owner from the start — join us.

Be part of the first season. Own the action.

Hi [Name],

We have some exciting news, and we wanted our community to be the first to hear it.

- The Power of Team Fandom: Unlike traditional MMA promotions that rely primarily on individual stars, GFL is built around city-based teams in New York, Miami, Los Angeles, and London, creating long-term fan loyalty, recurring engagement, and enduring franchise value.
- Shared Ownership: GFL is structured to allow athletes, fans, and early supporters to participate in ownership of the league and share in its long-term growth.
- Elite Leadership: GFL is led by executives and advisors who have produced more than 100 MMA events across 20 countries and helped build some of the world's most recognizable sports leagues, teams, and media brands, including the XFL, NFL, WWE, NBA, PBR, ESPN, espnW, iHeart Media, and Hydrow.

Heading: A Letter from Darren Owen, GFL Commissioner

Hi [Name],

My life changed at 13 when I discovered MMA. I was consumed by the sport, training six days a week with dreams of going pro, until a fractured vertebra ended my fighting career before it truly began.

I could not walk away.

Over the next 15 years, I promoted and produced more than 60 MMA events for NBC and FOX Sports and later served as COO of the World Series of Fighting. That experience gave me a close view into how the sport operates and where it struggles to create long term continuity.

MMA fans form deep connections with athletes. But when a fighter retires, is injured, or is not on the next card, that connection often fades. Unlike other professional sports, loyalty in MMA is tied almost entirely to individuals rather than teams. At the same time, most athletes have limited opportunity to participate in the long term value of the leagues they help grow.

That is why I founded the Global Fight League.

GFL is designed as a global, team based MMA league built around city franchises. Fighters compete as teammates, not just individual participants, allowing fan loyalty and engagement to attach to teams as well as athletes. This structure is intended to create greater continuity for fans and a more durable league over time.

We are launching with teams in New York, Los Angeles, Miami, and London, with plans to expand as the league develops. Our athletes will have the opportunity to participate in equity programs, and we intend to open ownership access to fans and public investors as the league grows.

MMA already has more than 700 million global fans and generates approximately 26 billion video views annually worldwide. The audience exists. Our focus is on building a league designed to support long-term fan engagement and athlete participation.

To do this the right way, we have assembled an experienced leadership team, trusted business advisors, and a group of elite athletes and respected MMA voices to help guide the league's development.

If you are interested, you can now reserve shares ahead of our upcoming investment window. I invite you to join us and own a part of what we are building.
