Limited Liability Company Agreement

of

Wildcards Films LLC

A Limited Liability Company

THIS OPERATING AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") of Wildcards Films LLC (the "Company"), is executed and agreed to, for good and valuable consideration, by the undersigned member (the "Member").

I. Formation.

A. State of Formation. This is a Limited Liability Company Operating Agreement (the "Agreement") for Wildcards Films LLC, a Member-managed Wyoming limited liability company (the "Company") formed under and pursuant to Wyoming law, Wyo. Stat. Ann. §§ 17-29-101 et seq.

B. Operating Agreement Controls. To the extent that the rights or obligations of the Member or the Company under provisions of this Operating Agreement differ from what they would be under Wyoming law absent such a provision, this Agreement, to the extent permitted under Wyoming law, shall control.

C. Primary Business Address. The location of the primary place of business of the Company is: 4251 Tujunga Ave, 11, Studio City, CA 91604, or such other location as shall be selected from time to time by the Member.

D. Registered Agent and Office. The Company's agent (the "Agent") for service of process is Wyoming Registered Agent Services LLC. The Agent's registered office is 32 N Gould St, Sheridan, WY 82801. The Company may change its registered office, its registered agent, or both, upon filing a statement with the Wyoming Secretary of State.

E. No State Law Partnership. No provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed or construed to constitute a partnership (including, without limitation, a limited partnership) or joint venture, or the Member a partner or joint venturer of or with any other person, for any purposes other than federal and state tax purposes.

II. Purposes and Powers.

A. Purpose. The Company is created for the following business purpose: Film.

B. Powers. The Company shall have all of the powers of a limited liability company set forth under Wyoming law.

C. Duration. The Company's term shall commence upon the filing of Articles of Organization and all other such necessary materials with the state of Wyoming. The Company will operate until terminated as outlined in this Agreement unless:

1. The Member votes to dissolve the Company;
2. No Member of the Company exists, unless the business of the Company is continued in a manner permitted by Wyoming law;
3. It becomes unlawful for the Member or the Company to continue in business;

4. A judicial decree is entered that dissolves the Company; or
5. Any other event results in the dissolution of the Company under federal or Wyoming law.

III. Members.

A. Members. The Member of the Company and its Membership Interest at the time of adoption of this Agreement is as follows:

Greg Bekkers, 100%

B. Initial Contribution. The Member has made no Initial Contribution to the Company, as described in Attachment A, Initial Contribution of the Member. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any contribution. Except as expressly provided by this Agreement, or as required by law, the Member shall have no right to demand or receive the return of any contribution.

C. Limited Liability of the Member. Except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement or otherwise required by Wyoming law, the Member shall not be personally liable for any acts, debts, liabilities or obligations of the Company, including liability arising under a judgment, decree or order of a court.

D. Death, Incompetency, or Withdrawal of the Member. Should the Member die, be declared incompetent, or withdraw from the Company, the Member's Membership Interest shall pass to the Member's estate, heirs, or assigns, who may elect to continue the business of the Company as the sole member or to wind up and dissolve the Company in accordance with Article VIII.

E. Creation or Substitution of New Members. The Member may admit one or more additional or substitute members at any time by written consent and amendment of this Agreement. Any new member shall execute an instrument signifying its agreement to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

F. Member Voting. The Member shall have voting power equal to its share of Membership Interest in the Company. Any action may be taken by written consent of the Member without a meeting.

G. Member's Duty to File Notices. The Member shall be responsible for preparation, maintenance, filing and dissemination of all necessary returns, notices, statements, reports, or other information to the Internal Revenue Service, the state of Wyoming, and any other appropriate state or federal authorities or agencies.

H. Waiver of Partition: Nature of Interest. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the Member hereby irrevocably waives any right or power that the Member might have to cause the Company or any of its assets to be partitioned, to cause the appointment of a receiver for all or any portion of the assets of the Company, or to compel any sale of all or any portion of the assets of the Company pursuant to any applicable law. The Member shall have no interest in any specific assets of the Company.

IV. Accounting and Distributions.

A. Fiscal Year. The Company's fiscal year shall end on the last day of December.

B. Records. All financial records including tax returns and financial statements will be held at the Company's primary business address and will be accessible to the Member.

C. Distributions. Distributions shall be made at such times and in such amounts as the Member determines. No distribution shall exceed the remaining net cash of the Company after making appropriate provisions for the Company's ongoing and anticipatable liabilities and expenses.

V. Tax Treatment Election.

The Company has not filed with the Internal Revenue Service for treatment as a corporation. Instead, the Company will be taxed as a disregarded entity and pass-through organization. The Member may elect for the Company to be treated as a C-Corporation or an S-Corporation at any time.

VI. Management.

A. Member-Managed. The Company shall be managed by the Member. The Member shall have full, exclusive, and complete authority to manage and control the business and affairs of the Company, to make all decisions, and to take all actions on behalf of the Company, including executing contracts, opening and managing bank accounts, borrowing money, and engaging employees, agents, and professionals.

B. Officers and Agents. The Member may appoint officers or agents of the Company and delegate authority to them, with such titles and duties as the Member determines.

C. No Meetings Required. No annual or regular meetings are required. Any action may be taken by written consent of the Member.

VII. Duties.

The Member shall discharge its duties in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Company, consistent with the laws of Wyoming. In discharging such duties, the Member is entitled to rely in good faith on information, opinions, reports, or statements presented by persons the Member reasonably believes to be reliable and competent, including legal counsel and public accountants.

VIII. Dissolution.

A. Limits on Dissolution. The Company shall have a perpetual existence, and shall be dissolved, and its affairs shall be wound up, only upon the provisions established in Section II(C) above.

B. Winding Up. Upon dissolution, the Member shall wind up the affairs of the Company in an orderly manner, liquidate its assets, satisfy the claims of creditors, and distribute any remaining assets to the Member.

C. Termination. The Company shall terminate when (i) all of the assets of the Company, after payment of or due provision for all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company, shall have been distributed to the Member in the manner provided for under this Agreement and (ii) the Company's registration with the state of Wyoming shall have been canceled in the manner required by Wyoming law.

D. Notice to Wyoming Authorities. Upon the winding up of the Company, the Member shall be responsible for the filing of all appropriate notices of dissolution with Wyoming and any other appropriate state or federal authorities or agencies as may be required by law.

IX. Exculpation and Indemnification.

A. Neither the Member nor any employee or agent of the Company (collectively, the "Covered Persons") shall be liable to the Company or any other person for any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Covered Person in good faith on behalf of the Company and in a manner reasonably believed to be within the scope of the authority conferred by this Agreement, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct.

B. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, a Covered Person shall be entitled to indemnification from the Company for any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted in good faith on behalf of the Company and within the scope of authority conferred by this Agreement. Any indemnity under this Agreement shall be provided out of and to the extent of Company assets only.

C. The foregoing provisions of this Article IX shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

X. Insurance.

The Company shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance, including insurance on behalf of any Covered Person against any liability asserted against such person and incurred in such capacity, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person under Article IX or applicable law.

XI. Settling Disputes.

The Member agrees to enter into mediation before filing suit against the Company for any dispute arising from this Agreement or the Company. The Member agrees to attend one session of mediation before filing suit. If the dispute is not settled after one session of mediation, the Member is free to file suit. Any lawsuits will be under the jurisdiction of the state of Wyoming.

XII. Independent Counsel.

The Member entering into this Agreement has been advised of the right to seek the advice of independent legal counsel before signing this Agreement. The Member has entered into this Agreement freely and voluntarily and without any coercion or duress.

XIII. General Provisions.

A. Notices. All notices or other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed given when delivered in person or three (3) business days after deposit in United States mail, postage prepaid, properly addressed.

B. Execution of Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

C. Severability. The provisions of this Agreement are independent of and separable from each other, and no provision shall be affected or rendered invalid by virtue of any other provision being invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part.

D. Headings. The Article and Section headings in this Agreement are for convenience and form no part of this Agreement.

E. Controlling Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of the state of Wyoming (without regard to conflicts of law principles thereof).

F. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended only by written consent of the Member.

G. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Member has executed and agreed to this Limited Liability Company Operating Agreement, which shall be effective as of October 2, 2026.
